GROUP CLASSES:

GUITAR CLASS

In this class, students learn to play the guitar through popular and famous songs in a fun group setting. No prior guitar or music experience needed.

60 min weekly class on Tuesdays, 4:30 - 5:30 pm

$216 for 12 classes

ELECTRONIC MUSIC PRODUCTION

Learn how to make your own music, beats and tracks on the computer and with apps on the iPads. The class covers how to use music software, program beats, input notes via MIDI keyboard, sampling and basic audio editing. Weekly class in a small group taught by a professional music producer. Requires: access to a computer or an iPad

90 min weekly class on Tuesdays, 5:30 - 7:00 pm

$300 for 12 classes

MUSIC THEORY

Learning about music theory is a great addition to studying any instrument. Students improve musicianship by studying styles, harmony, aural skills, rhythm, and musical terms. This class is the optimal preparation for students interested in passing ABRSM tests.

Weekly classes are taught in small groups by professional musicians.

60 min weekly class, Fridays 6:15 - 7:15 pm

$216 for 12 classes

COMPOSITION CLASS

the composition class will teach students simple and basic tools that will allow them to write and play their own musical pieces. Students also learn about the stories and the music of famous composers and will become familiar with the most common instruments of the orchestra. Pieces written in this class may be selected to be featured in public performances!

60 min class on Fridays, 5:15 - 6:15 pm

$216 for 12 classes
