Don't take this the wrong way, but as far as nature, evolution, and the general interests of the human species are concerned, your purpose in life is simple: to make babies. Healthy, strong, and attractive babies who, in turn, will make more healthy, strong, and attractive babies someday too. This is why our innate sense of what's physically attractive is based on evolutionary psychology and can be explained by sexual selection and human morphology. Here are three surprising ways that mother nature guides your sexual preferences.
