Q195. All right. So when you arrived you were met by Father Christopher and Ilena. Where did you go from the airport? Where did you go to?

A They went to eighteen Chelmsford Avenue to that church – Croydon.

Q196. And who lives at that address?

A Father Christopher.

Q197. How long did you stay at this address for?

A I don't remember exactly but some person in the – probably some person in a position – the church says that it looks bad that he's living there. It's like some kind of wrangle within the church. I don't know how to translate.

Q198. Why would they say it looks bad you living there?

A He – he doesn't know why. He would say that he – nothing comes into – crosses his mind as why he would say that.

Q199. Can you draw for me what the house, or the place that you stayed in in Chelmsford Avenue – where you stayed, where you slept, what was in the room, all that sort of stuff? Yes. So I'm going to give you this bit of paper.

A Yeah. He wants to do a top view.

Q200. Up and down. Yes. Perfect.

A Just his room or everything?

Q201. Maybe explain to us first of all - - -

INTERPRETER:

Yes.

INTERPRETER:

So do you want him to draw it or just verbally?

Q204. First of all just verbally, please.

A He'd prefer to draw it.

Q205. Perfect. Okay.

(indistinct background conversation)

A That's a door.

Q206. It's a door. Yes. You can write it in Russian. That's okay.

A He was telling me earlier he wants to become an architect.

Q207. Very good. You have to go to university.

...(indistinct)...

INTERPRETER:

He said he - he ate last and he had dinner and he said he's not hungry 'cause he's not used to the fatty food.

A So he'll draw the bedroom now.

PRIOR:

Q208. Okay.

A And that's the lounge.

Q209. Yes. Okay. Can you explain to me what's in this room?

A It's the kitchen.

Q210. Yes.

A Fridge - it - it's got the sink - - -

Q211. Yes.

A - - - oven, the table - - -

Q212. Table. Yes.

A - - - there's a exit there. This is the door to the other room. That's the lounge. Heater – electric heater, TV. That's the bed. That's the bathroom and that's, like, a closet for – it's not a closet. It's just where they hang, like, jackets. Yes.

Q213. Okay. All right. And who lives here?

A When he arrived or while he's here he has to live with Father Christopher.

Q214. Okay. So where did you stay? Where did you sleep?

A On the bed.

Q215. Okay.

A And he slept on the lounge.

Q216. So who slept on the lounge?

A He did. Father Christopher slept on the – on the lounge, on the couch.

Q217. Yes.

A And he slept – [REDACTED] slept in the bed.

Q218. Okay.

A There was a small pillow. That's a bigger pillow.

Q219. Okay. And you said before that Father Christopher used to Skype you. What did he use to Skype you on?

A On Notebook and also Tablet. Yeah, Tablet. So just a screen like a phone screen.

Q220. Okay. And where would he keep them?

A He had a table next to the - - -

Q221. Okay.

A And there was a Notebook on that table.

Q222. Mm.

A Brand, Toshiba. And also Samsung Tablet.

Q223. And where did you keep your things when you ...(indistinct)... ?

A There was a cupboard there full of Father Christopher's stuff. My stuff was – there were, like, drawers that come out of the bed and that's where [REDACTED] stuff was kept.

Q224. And how long did you stay in here for?

A He's not exactly sure about the time but then they went to visit Father Christopher's friends.

Q225. How much money did you bring with you?

ROI BETWEEN PRIOR [REDACTED] ... CONTINUED ... PAGE 25

A My mum gave me – she gave me money for dinner in Abu Dhabi because he was meant to change planes – twenty American dollars.

Q226. What money has he been using when he's been in Australia?

A Father Christopher made all the purchases. So all the purchases were made on Australian dollars belonging to Father Christopher.

Q227. Was there any agreement between his family and Father Christopher in relation to money?

A As in, ...(indistinct)... his mum – and so his mum was transfer money.

Q228. Mm.

A The only – the only money that he brought was the twenty dollars that his mum gave him for dinner in Abu Dhabi.

Q229. Has Father Christopher asked you for any money?

A No.

Q230. Did Father Chris know that you were coming with no money?

A Yeah, he knew that he was coming with no money.

Q231. And the ticket that was purchased, was that one way or a return ticket?

A It was a return ticket. A thousand dollars here, a thousand dollars there. That's the cost of the ticket. He's got the ticket. He's already got the return ticket. He could show it to you if you like. Do you want to see it?

Q232. No. It's okay.

INTERPRETER:

No.

It's okay.

No, that's fine.

Q234. Has there been any talk while you're here about going to school here?

INTERPRETER:

From him to - - -

PRIOR:

Q235. ...(indistinct)...

A No. No one's asked. He's had a dream to link his life Australia but - but he - he always was dreaming to end up in a different city - in Melbourne. And he wanted to - he didn't want to study there but he just - he just wanted to visit, he wanted to come first as a tourist.

Q236. Okay. Have you got any plans to go to Melbourne or visit any other parts of Australia?

A Now?

Q237. Now. ...(indistinct)... - - -

A The problem is some people started threatening them and interrupting his time here. He's - he's - he's been through a lot of stress and it's starting to affect his health and he thinks that he won't be able to stay here until September.

Q238. Can you tell me more about the people threatening you and - - -

A They're threatening, not to [REDACTED] they're saying - so these people - these - he's only bumped into them once and they don't carry any responsibility for him. Before this he didn't even know about their existence.

Q239. Who are they?

A I'm not exactly sure but - but they're friends of Father Christopher. They started saying that he's not meant to stay - that [REDACTED] not meant to stay in this country. And they started following and, like, ...(indistinct)... like stalking kind of, writing announcements and threatening to call the police. These people ruined his whole time here.

Q240. Did they do anything to you?

A They didn't do anything physically to him. I just started worrying and this affects his nerves. I'm worried because they're threatening him [REDACTED] They're threatening Ilya through Father Christopher, that he's not meant to be in Australia.

Q241. Is there any other reason why they're threatening, apart from he's not meant to be in Australia?

A I don't know what their reason is. I didn't do anything wrong or anything bad. I've never even seen these people in the flesh. They - they just – they just, like, butted into his holiday that he doesn't – he shouldn't be here anymore. They started threatening to call the police. They were saying that - they had nothing to do with his arrival in Australia but they said that everything – that they have to account for everything that happens to them.

Q242. Okay. And do you know their names?

A I don't know what their names are.

Q243. Okay. And have you been to where they live?

A Because he's never seen them in the flesh, he's never bumped into them and especially he's never been to their house.

Q244. How does he know about the threats?

A I told that they were sending – he was told that they made a – that they passed a message on that he is not allowed to come here. First they said that – that [REDACTED] and Christopher have to account for where they – where they're going to be. And – and – and then they said that Ilya's got no right to be here at all.

Q245. Okay. And how does Father Christopher know these people?

A It's his colleagues.

INTERPRETER:

Should I ask where he heard?

PRIOR:

Yes.

A Father Christopher told him that he can't stay here because it might be dangerous for his well being in terms of that these people could start, yeah, that these people could not only ruin my vacation but they could like affect my nerves and health. I'm just glad if I – Father Christopher told me this.

Q246. Do you know when Father Christopher told you this?

A He – he – he told him recently that this started within two days of him arriving here.

INTERPRETER:

I'll ask if anyone else except for Christopher has told ...(indistinct)...

A He – they also were in company at one point with some other people who also said that they have seen these threats and stuff like that.

(indistinct conversation)

PRIOR:

- Q247. Just ask him when he says they started stalking, what does he mean by that?
A They started saying that my – me being here is unlawful although we applied with all the documents and – and we think that if it was illegal me being here that he wouldn't have gotten a visa. Well, that's it.
- Q248. I know it's very long. Do you need to take a break?
A No. He's saying it's fine.
- Q249. He's okay? Okay. You said when you came to Australia you went to the Opera House and a concert. What concert did you go to?
A Symphony orchestra. They went with some person from the church and – and a friend of Father Christopher, Irena PALONOVA.
- Q250. And then you've been to the city more than once. How many times have you been to the city?
A Because they go to the city quite often. We're always out.
- Q251. Okay. And you've been to the Aquarium?
A Yeah.
- Q252. And you said you've been to lots of restaurants?
A Yes.
- Q253. And who paid for all those activities?
A Father Christopher.
- Q254. Okay. Has Father Christopher bought you any other things when you've been here in Australia?
A Yes. He's took us to restaurants to – so I can try real Western food and so I could see some real sharks. I've been to two shopping centres.
- Q255. Mm.
A Westfield and Broadway.
- Q256. Did you buy anything at Westfield?
A Yeah, we bought quite a few things at Westfield.
- Q257. What did you buy?
A He said, do you want him to name everything 'cause there's a lot of stuff?
- Q258. Everything that Father Christopher has bought for you.
A He bought me, at my request, sneakers.

Q267. Yes. What did you buy at the supermarket?

A Just food.

Q268. Food. Okay. Right. Do you have a mobile phone?

A Yes.

Q269. And where did you get your mobile phone from?

A My mum bought it for me.

Q270. Do you have credit on your mobile phone?

A I've got an Australian SIM card.

Q271. And who bought that for you?

A Father Christopher.

Q272. Okay. And has he made any phone calls to anybody?

A When he's within a Wi-Fi hot spot he calls his mum.

Q273. Okay.

A But through the internet, not ...(indistinct)...

Q274. Okay. And then you said you served in the church?

A Yes, I tried to help around the church. There was – there's – there was a number of Australian boys his age as well. They were helping the same as him, exactly the same as him.

Q275. And what did you do?

A So during religious things they handed - like, handing candles ...(indistinct)... just ceremonies.

Q276. And how often did you do that in the church?

A He went to a few services.

Q277. Did you make any friends with any other Australian boys or girls?
Any idea?

A He made friends with some other – some of the other boys that have helped out ...(indistinct)...

Q278. Do you ever go out with any of those boys?

A No.

...(indistinct)... do you have any questions ...(indistinct)... ?

Q279. Just in relation to the services, which church did you do the services at?

A The – the one that he said before.

(indistinct conversation)

Q280. In relation to the things that Father Christopher bought you on your request, do you know how much in Australian dollars that comes to?

A He doesn't know.

Q281. Okay. And then you said you weren't sure how long you stayed in here for. Did you go anywhere else after this place?

INTERPRETER:

So where did he go to live?

PRIOR:

Yes.

A Together with Father Christopher we stayed at – at his friend's house. And he met these people in Australia.

ROI BETWEEN PRIOR  ... CONTINUED ... PAGE 31

A Sveta, S v e t a, Stas, S t a s - - -
- Q284. Yes.
A - - - which is short for Stanislav, I think.
- Q285. Stanislav. Yes.
A So Sveta ...(indistinct)... and then there's Valentine, Valentine - - -

A No, they live in separate houses.
- Q290. Okay. Tell me about who lives in what house?
A He's not sure.
- Q291. Not sure?
A So when he came to work for about a week and a half in the church - - -
- Q292. Yes.
A - - - so they stayed at different friend's places - - -
- Q293. Yes. Who were the friends?
A - - - after a week and a half.

A So that at first they were at Svetlana's. And then – he didn't take too much notice of how many nights they stayed.

Q295. Okay. And did yourself and Father Christopher stay with you at Svetlana's?

A Yeah. He always stayed with him. We also went to – we also stayed at Father David's.

Q296. Father David. Where does Father David live?

A He – he doesn't remember the addresses. He doesn't know addresses.

Q297. Do you know why he had to move around all different houses?

A There were a few variants that we assumed. The, like, head of the church just said that [REDACTED] shouldn't live in the church. They were told that – so they were told that someone has to be staying with them.

Q298. Okay.

A So they've got to be in someone's presence – when – when we were filling the visa documents out. That wasn't a condition of the visa application.

Q299. Why does he think that someone told them that someone has to stay with them?

A It was a phone conversation and he was present for this phone conversation. He doesn't know why they would say that. It's very strange people.

Q300. How does it make you feel? How does it make you feel that this has happened?

A It makes him like miserable and in a bad situation. He – he – he doesn't know why they suddenly just ...(indistinct)... if everything was as per the law.

A No, he doesn't.

Q311. Okay. Did you take any photos of yourself with Father Christopher?
A He didn't and they don't have any photos.

- Q312. And what do you mean by photos? There's no photos.
A There's no photographs of him and Father Christopher.

- Q320. Yes.
A Except for a few moments, with the exception of a few moments.
- Q321. What moments have they been?
A He – he never thought that he would end up in a police station in Australia.
- Q322. How does it make you feel?
A He – he's unsure. He's unsure why – why he's here. He doesn't know what your suspicions are or what police suspicions are. He wants to know.
- Q323. All right.
A Is he able to find out?
- Q324. Yes. We can talk about some things. Yes. I'll wait for the other Detective to come back into the room. Okay. I must – you're not in any trouble. Okay?

A When? Since he got here?
- Q329. Yes.
A No. No. No.
- Q330. No. How many times have you spoken to your mum since you've been here in Australia?
A ...(indistinct)... every afternoon. We've got a seven hour time difference. So they – they always speak at eight pm and his mum sees him on Skype eight pm our time, which is seven hours back. Seven hours back in – in Bella Russia. It's one pm in Bella Russia when it's eight pm here.

A Yeah, she works.

A She works at a – at a railway station receiving some kind of goods or something like that.
- Q333. Is your family wealthy or is your family poor or medium?
A Medium.
- Q334. Medium?
A Yeah.
- Q335. And what about your sister? Did she want to come to Australia as well?
A His sister wants to go to – his sister wants to go to England.
- Q336. England. Do you think that one day she could go to England?
A She wants to study and maybe in the future she might go there.
- Q337. What's your favourite part of Australia?
A His favourite thing is the Anzac Bridge.

In an inappropriate way.

So there's no word for private areas, should I just say it the way - - -

Yes. Yes. Just ...(indistinct)... - - -

A [REDACTED] (laughs)

THE INTERPRETER (Answering on behalf of interviewee): That never happened and Father Christopher knows that he's got a girlfriend in Bella Russia.

- Q350. Okay. All right. Has Father Christopher told you that he has any type of feelings for you?
- A He's never said anything – if someone said that to him he would be back home a long time ago. He – he thinks that it's – it's – that would be improper. He – he just couldn't remain here if that would've happened. Father Christopher only has normal – normal train of thought. My family has been speaking to him for a long time. And when my mum asked him, can you take – can you accept my son in Australia she explained that it was his dream and that it was his dream for a long time to end up in Australia. And he answered, why not? I just think that it's human qualities - Father Christopher is a good person and he helped him realise his dream.
- Q351. Okay. You asked before about why you are at the police station.
- A Yes. Why is he here?
- Q352. Yes. It is my job as a police officer to make sure that you are protected and your rights and your freedoms are protected.
- A So he's asking, did it have to – like, was it always goin' to happen that police have to question him on his first flight to Australia? Which is, obviously, no.
- Q353. No. But I will go into a little bit more detail. I just have a few more questions.
- A Yes, that's fine.
- Q354. Did Father Christopher ever massage you?
- A No.
- Q355. Did he ever shower with you?
- A No. He's not very comfortable with these questions but if it's required - - -
- Q356. Yes, it is. Yes. Yes. We only have one more question. How was he dressed of a night time?
- A Um, so he doesn't know but they used to watch a movie in English with him because Father Christopher said that he would help him learn the English language. Then he would take his phone and would – and would go to his bedroom, close the door and not on the lock but just shut the door. He – he would speak to his friends over that networking site.
- Q357. Okay.
- A And he would go to sleep. That's why he didn't see what he was wearing.
- Q358. Okay. What about when you were together in his house?
- A He wore a standard dress. He always wore a warm jumper and pants – and socks and shoes.

Q359.     Okay.
A         Slippers.

Do you have any more questions?

GARDINER:

The church itself.

Q363.     As I was saying before that, my job is to make sure that kids are protected and when you have a situation where we have a man who is a lot older than you and you're under the age of sixteen we have to make sure that you are okay and certain things aren't happening to you that are inappropriate.

A         Nothing bad happens. So he's remembering Sydney and the only bad, negative thing happened was that he ended up here.
