SimCity BuildIt, you are in charge of building everything such as skyscrapers, factories, landmarks, parks, and more! You need to think about where to place everything strategically so it all fits together. You also need to provide services like power plants and police department to keep your citizens safe. Also, to increase your population, you need to build parks and education centers. However, you need to constantly monitor the facilities especially factories so you can continually receive raw materials. You need to regularly check your plants to add more materials and collect the productions.

City Wars – In SimCity BuildIt, you can compete in real-time PvP with Club Wars. In here, you'll declare war with other cities and you'll strategize with Mayor's Club members. In this city war, you can unleash crazy disasters on your enemies such as the Plant Monster and the Disco Twister and watch the damage it will do. You can earn disaster cards, SimCash and other valuable things so you can use it in battle and improve your city. You can also participate in the Contest of Mayors and compete in weekly challenges and climb through the ranks in the Leagues. Become a top Mayor and make your city the best using your creativity and good governance!

As we all know; taxes are the lifeblood of the government. This is your primary source of income at the start of the game as you try to build and improve your city more. Then as your city becomes larger, you can sell goods from other players worldwide and you can also buy anything you need from them as well. And as you increase your city's population, you'll be able to make shipments from other countries such as London, Tokyo and more. Overall, you'll need to reinvest your money into upgrading your city's facilities and buildings to attract more people into living in your city. SimCity BuildIt may seem like a fun and easy game at first but you'll quickly realize that it's not. This game needs you to become a mayor that oversees everything from building infrastructures to maintaining order. Here are the tips you'll need:

Build the basics – At the start of the game, you'll only have a limited supply of money and resources. Make every money count by building only things that you'll immediately need. This can include sewers, water, fire and health. Don't go overboard building high skyscrapers that you can't support with parks or other areas at the moment.
