VOLUME 33 NUMBER 10 CHARLESTOWN, MASS. PRICE 10¢ THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1990

Residents Urged To Attend Tonight's MDPW Meeting On The Central Artery Project

Representatives from the Massachusetts Department of Public Works are holding a community meeting tonight, Thursday, Nov. 15 at 7 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 75 West School St. The meeting will focus on the Central Artery/North Area (CANA) project as well as the Central Artery/Tunnel (CA/T) project as it relates to the Charlestown community.

Following an introduction, there will be a presentation on the CANA staging and schedule. An overview of the CA/T Scheme Z interchange plan will then be presented.

Charlestown liaison Stephen Collins has stated that there will be an intermission so that residents can view the drawings and maps used during the presentation. Collins said that he would be available at that time to take questions from the gathering. He said that residents will be asked to write down their questions on the last page of a hand-out that will be distributed prior to the meeting. After all the questions have been submitted, each question will be addressed by the appropriate representative from the CA/T project.

The Scheme Z interchange plan, which has been termed the world's highest density highway interchange by several sources, has resulted in the expression of many concerns by residents. Some of these concerns include the proposed height of traffic ramps equal to an 11-story building in the area south of Rutherford Avenue; the number of traffic lanes crossing the Charles River; the increase in traffic on residential streets resulting from the proposed closing of the Traverse Street ramp in the North Station area as previously planned; the transport of hazardous cargo through Charlestown streets to access the Tobin Bridge and Route I-93; as well as increases in noise, pollution and dirt.

Tonight's meeting will provide the opportunity for residents to listen to the presentation by the MDPW on the roadway project, see how the plan affects the Charlestown community and ask questions of the planners and engineers.

The Boston Redevelopment Authority Board of Directors voted on Nov. 14 to approve a request authorizing BRA Director Stephen Coyle to petition the Executive Office of Transportation and Construction, the Massachusetts Department of Public Works and the Executive Office of Environmental Affairs for approval of the proposed alignment of a Haul Road to be constructed parallel to Medford Street from Sullivan Square to the existing Terminal Street.

The vote also approved authorization for the BRA to commit sufficient funds for the completion of additional studies for the development of this roadway.

In response to issues raised by area residents and the Charlestown Neighborhood Council, the Board included a provision in their vote of approval. Additional wording was added stipulating that BRA staff conduct additional community meetings to address residential concerns regarding the construction of this almost $10 million bypass roadway.

Watercolors And Acrylics Exhibit On Display At Bunker Hill

Artist Lila Mehlman is showing her acrylic and watercolor paintings in her "It's How You See It" exhibit at Bunker Hill Community College's Art Gallery from now through Nov. 27.

The exhibit, sponsored in part by the Bunker Hill Community College Founation, features realistic and abstract works by Mehlman which show the various techniques she uses in her search for new means of expression. Crushed rice papers give linear patterns to some of her landscapes while layers of paint and overglazing divide the surface of others.

Mehlman has taken many art courses in the Boston area with local teachers as well as a variety of workshops with nationally recognized artists.

The art gallery is open from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Monday through Friday, or by appointment by calling 241-8600 ext. 410.

The Charlestown Preservation Society will hold its monthly meeting on Sunday, Nov. 18 at 7 p.m. at St. John's Church Hall, 27 Devens St.

Nancy Coolidge, member of the new Boston Civic Design Review Commission, will be the guest speaker. Coolidge, who is also Director of the Society for the Preservation of New England Antiquities, will discuss the commission and its role in Boston preservation and design issues. The 11-member body, which includes urban design professionals and representatives of various community and business groups, was established by the city to review large-scale projects in historic districts or near landmark buildings in Boston.

Preservation Society To Meet On Sunday, Nov. 18

The meeting will give members the opportunity to hear about the work of the commission and discuss issues relating to Charlestown.

All are welcome. Refreshments will be served.

RENTING YOUR HOME

Often, our clients have second thoughts about selling their homes, especially if they don't need the equity to complete the purchase of a new one. "We'll just hang on to it and rent it out," they say. While rental real estate is almost always a good investment, be sure you understand all of the consequences before you become a landlord.

Remember that tenants may not share your pride of ownership, and they are sometimes rough on property. You should also acquaint yourself with state or local landlord/tenant laws, including those dealing with rent control and eviction procedures. Finally, if you are planning to rent a home that used to be your primary residence, you could lose the benefits of your capitol gains deferral if you sell it a few years from now. Before you make a decision about turning your home into rental property, it's a good idea to get professional advice, both from a tax expert and from your Realtor.

If you are considering a move, contact the professionals at Monument Properties. Call us at 241-9500 or stop by our offices at 85 Warren St. in Charlestown.

Charlestown Neighborhood Council Focuses On Haul Road And Scheme Z

Charlestown Neighborhood Council Chairman Dennis McLaughlin opened the Nov. 8 meeting of the council by welcoming the seven at-large members who had been elected last month to serve two-year terms.

The new and re-elected members included Moe Gillen, Marty O'Brien, Mel Stillman, Peter Looney, Kevin Roche, Matty O'Neil and McLaughlin.

Precinct and organization representatives present at this meeting were: Ellen D'Ambrosio, Kate McDonough, Jim Conway, Bob Scalli, Bill Galvin, Ed Callahan, Bob Wallace, Ken Stone, Jim Mansfield, Nancy Keyes, Dan Kovacevic, Tom Cunha, Bud Coleman and Ed O'Connell.

Conway was voted interim secretary to fill the vacancy until the election of officers in January.

Prior to the call for committee reports, McLaughlin introduced Peter Jones, Scoutmaster for Charlestown Boy Scout Troop 2. Jones commented on his work with the Charlestown boys and his intent for continued involvement in the community.

John Riordan, director of the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, addressed the council on a report Mayor Flynn had issued on city services. He noted that the report opens the books of City Hall and lets the residents see just how well the city departments are doing. He said that departments set goals at the first of the year and the report evaluates how each department measures up to its goals during the year. He said that he would make a copy of the report available to council members and to the public.

Ann Aylward, maritime director for Massport, reported on a recently signed purchase and sale agreement between the authority and Somerville Lumber for that company's three-acre property on Medford Street. She stated that the property had been for sale for several years and it made sense to hold it as port property with its proximity to the Moran Terminal.

Aylward said the authority is presently negotiating a lease with Bay State Express for the Somerville Lumber site. She noted that Bay State, which is currently operating out of Charlestown Marine Park, wants to expand and would lease the whole property for a trucking and container operation with an estimated 40 to 50 truck moves a day. They would operate under a five-year lease with two-year options. She stated that Bay State would be obligated to raze the several one-story buildings over the next five years. Aylward said that the deadline for the purchase and sales agreement is Nov. 20.

McLaughlin stated that he would like a forum to be held on the Somerville Lumber property for area residents. It was referred to the Mitigation Committee to set up a meeting. No date had been set at press time.

Haul Road Committee Moe Gillen and Bob Wallace, co-chairmen

A presentation on the proposed Haul Road running on the north side of Medford Street from the existing Terminal Street to Main Street at Sullivan Square was made by representatives of the Boston Redevelopment Authority and Bruce Campbell & Associates.

At the outset, McLaughlin stated that the issues of concern to Medford Street residents expressed at the Nov. 7 Haul Road Committee meeting would not be part of the proposal under consideration by the council at this meeting. He said that the Haul Road proposal would not include traffic patterns or the small Medford Street-Haul Road connector opposite Baldwin Street designed to access area businesses. McLaughlin stated that these issues would be decided by Medford Street area residents at future committee meetings.

Following almost two hours of presentation with questions and comments from the council members and the audience, the council voted to approve "the design concept of the Haul Road proposal B-4.4 with the provision that there be further design review, input and planning with the Medford Street area vicinity neighbors, the Charlestown Neighborhood Council, the Haul Road Committee and other residents of Charlestown to make this B-4.4 scheme compatible with neighborhood concerns and its traffic management/pattern beneficial specifically to the Charlestown district." (Please see related story on page one.)

Public Safety Committee Mel Stillman, chairman

Stillman reported that a new program that involves

Boston Police officers leaving their cars and walking in specific areas is underway in Charlestown.

He sought approval by the council to hold the Public Safety/Police Community Relations meetings at various sites throughout the town. The next meeting will be on Tuesday, Dec. 11 at the Bunker Hill Museum, 43 Monument Square.

Basic Services Committee Peter Looney, chairman

Looney reported on a Boston Department of Health and Hospitals anti-smoking program being presented to seventh and eighth graders at St. Catherine's and St. Francis de Sales schools. He suggested the possibility that the students could conduct meetings for adults on the subject when they complete the 25-hour course.

Election of Organizations To Be Represented On The Council

The seven community organizations with representatives on the council will conclude their two-year terms in January. McLaughlin stated that a committee would be established to take nominations from organizations and recommend seven for inclusion on the council at the December monthly meeting.

A discussion ensued as to which council members would be eligible to sit on the committee and who would be eligible to vote on the committee's recommendations. Conway said that although it isn't spelled out in the bylaws, he would think that organizational members shouldn't sit on the selection committee, but all 21 council members could vote on the committee's recommendations at the December meeting.

Galvin stated that two years ago the organizations were elected in December and selected representatives that were seated at the January meeting. He noted that if this procedure was not followed, only the 14 elected council members would vote in the January election of officers and those representing organizations would not be eligible to run for office or hold a committee chairmanship.

Mansfield added that there are 21 members on the council — all equal — and the organization representatives should be part of a committee to discuss and decide voting powers.

O'Neil said that while the members have to ascertain which organizations will be represented on the council, there should be some attempt to clarify the council's constitution so the confusion won't happen again.

McLaughlin appointed Wallace to chair the Organizational Selection Committee. The committee will meet on Tuesday, Nov. 27 at 7 p.m. at the Bunker Hill Museum, 43 Monument Square. Organizations are asked to send their request

It was announced that Cunha will call a meeting during November for the committee, the BRA and, particularly, the residents of the Lawnwood Place and Main Street area to further consider the development plans for that parcel. No date had been set for the meeting at press time.

Also noted was that the committee and Judy Evers, community liaison from the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, have been monitoring the permits pulled for the construction in the former Nancy Sales building at the corner of Medford and Terminal streets.

St. Francis de Sales

Keeping In Touch . . .

In September when the USS Kennedy was called to the Persian Gulf, the students of grade eight at St. Francis de Sales School began writing to the crewmen. Their correspondence began as a thank you to the members of the USS Kennedy crew for their courtesy to Father Mahoney, Father Baggetta and the choir of St. Francis de Sales Parish when they participated in the Liturgy aboard the ship during its visit to Boston in July.

Since then, students have corresponded with the servicemen. They are Kathleen Murray, Corey Gallagher, Kelley Wedge, Erin Powers, Sharon Burke, Marc Sawyer, Eric Ridlon, Mark Lind, Dennis Strazzullo and Joseph Black.

The Chaplain, Father John Kaul, sent a personal letter to the eighth grade teacher, Sister Margaret, telling her how happy the men were to receive the letters from the students. The men have also asked the students for one of their class pictures. A few of the men aboard the USS Kennedy that have corresponded with the students are from Massachusetts.

Beware Of Drug-Laced Tattoos

A warning has been issued that a form of drug-laced tattoo called the Blue Star is being sold to school children. It is described as a small sheet of paper containing blue stars, each the size of a pencil eraser, and each star is soaked with LSD. The drug can be absorbed through the skin simply by handling the paper.

Another item being sold is brightly colored paper tabs resembling postage stamps. These contain pictures of Superman, Mickey Mouse and other Disney characters, clowns, Bart Simpson and butterflies. Each one is wrapped in foil. This is a new way of selling acid in a form appealing to young children and a young child could happen upon these and have a fatal trip.

It is also believed that little children could be given a free tattoo by other children who want to cultivate new customers without the child's knowledge.

A stamp called Red Pyramid is also being distributed along with microdots in various colors and a Window Pane which has a grid that can be cut out.

If your child obtains any of these drug-laced items, do not handle them. They are known to react quickly and some are laced with strychnine.

Symptoms of drug ingestion include: hallucinations, severe vomiting, uncontrolled laughter, mood changes and change in body temperature. Children exhibiting such symptoms should receive immediate medical attention.

Anyone finding tattoos or stamps described above should contact the Boston Police Department.

the BRA to proceed to its Board for approval of the proposed alignment plan, termed Alternative B-4.4, providing an agreement could be included that community residents, especially abutters to the road, be allowed further input in the design review process and planning that would make the plan compatible with neighborhood concerns. These include: a beneficial traffic pattern in the area that would accommodate residential and business needs.

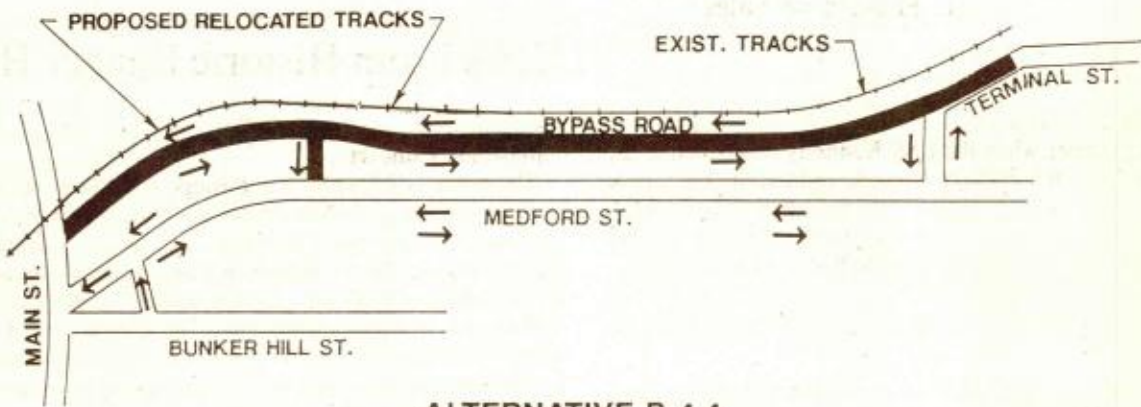

During the council meeting and at a Haul Road Committee meeting held the previous evening, the proposed plan that would construct a roadway north of Medford Street to divert heavy truck traffic from Medford Street was outlined. The road would help alleviate existing conditions and anticipated increases in traffic volume generated by the completion of development plans at the former sugar refineries on Medford Street and in the Charlestown Navy Yard.

Residents attending the meetings expressed their reluctance to approve the concept of the bypass road without assurance that traffic gaining access to the roadway would not travel on residential streets. The construction of the Haul Road was seen as beneficial by a majority of the residents, but any increase of traffic in the highly congested neighborhood was strongly opposed.

According to BRA officials, the proposed Haul Road would offer a 100 percent heavy vehicle bypass of Medford Street, a request heard from residents of the area. The two-lane roadway would run adjacent to the existing railroad tracks with access points at Terminal Street behind the former Nancy Sales building and in Sullivan Square at the entrance to The Schrafft Center building. A total of 1,800 linear feet of rail would be taken up and rebuilt further away from the fire station, a buffer zone and landscaping would be constructed between the Haul Road and Medford Street and improvements to the existing Medford Street would total $4.9 million.

The traffic scheme that

New England Aquarium Committee-of-the-Whole
Dennis McLaughlin, chairman

McLaughlin reported that discussion is underway with Bunker Hill Community College to plan for community benefits in the form of education and jobs in conjunction with the Aquarium.

Wallace noted that only 4 percent of the students at BHCC come from Charlestown and questioned whether just that 4 percent would be eligible for these benefits.

Conway added that the benefits package included the eligibility of all residents, young and old, to enroll in such a program. He noted that it should be geared to Charlestown people.

McLaughlin stated that a program will be worked on and will be brought back to the council Oversight Committee for input.

Mitigation Committee Bill Galvin, chairman

Galvin reported on a committee meeting with representatives of the Charlestown Marine Park, the former Amstar Sugar Refinery site on Medford Street. He related that Attorney Bud Shadrawy outlined the proposal of four companies to establish office space at the facility.

The four prospective tenants include: A & A Limited with two employees, occupying 500 square feet; Montfreight, a freight forwarder with 10 employees, occupying 2,000 square feet on the second floor; Cawley Co., a freight forwarder with eight employees, occupying 200 to 300 square feet; and Dan Transport with five or six employees, occupying 1,300 square feet on the second floor.

Shadrawy had told the committee that these firms are now in the Delta Building at Logan Airport which is being closed Jan. 1 and will be demolished. He said that the increase in traffic will be minimal as the focus is on paper work and added that the firms serve a marine-industrial purpose.

Galvin reported that these firms will be required to advertise for jobs locally if vacancies occur or if the firms expand, so community residents will have the first opportunity to apply for openings.

Veterans Committee Jim Conway, chairman

Conway said that there was nothing new to report on the Korean Veterans Memorial planned for the Navy Yard.

Gillen stated that the Veterans Field at the Quinn Athletic Complex is in bad condition and hasn't been maintained. Conway said his understanding was that the focus of the Veterans Committee was just the memorial.

McLaughlin referred the field problem to Looney and the Basic Services Committee with the suggestion that they work together with the veterans.

North Area Task Force Ken Stone, liaison

Stone announced the Massachusetts Department of Public Works meeting at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 15 at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

McLaughlin noted that in trying to modify the Central Artery interchange here in Charlestown, a ramp was eliminated from the plan that alleviated traffic through the Charlestown community. He added that now traffic will be next to you in City Square. He said that Scheme Z is still a monster.

Stone stated that hundreds more cars will be on the Charlestown bridge during peak hours.

McLaughlin explained that Stone is in a difficult position, for in order to alleviate the traffic on Charlestown streets, the ramp would have to be put back into the plan. Mansfield added that the MDPW eliminated the ramp from the plan three weeks ago.

Washington Street resident Tom King reminded the members that with the removal of the ramp, hazardous cargo would be required to use city streets to reach the Tobin Bridge and Route I-93 north. He pointed out that the ramp wasn't removed by the state as a mitigation measure, it was done at the insistence of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers and the Coast Guard to eliminate some of the pilings in the waterway.

King said that even with the ramp removed, the interchange will be 11-stories high. He said the ramp could be put back, but "other schemes would be more beneficial to Charlestown."

Stone noted that the Central Artery/North Area project underwent 10 years of discussion. He said that the CA/T North of Causeway Street has come upon us quickly. He expressed his concern asking the council to assist in slowing down the project.

King related that in a meeting with Secretary of Transportation Fred Salvo, he found there was no time for change. He said the MDPW is going through the final Environmental Impact Study that is ready to go to print. King said the MDPW has rushed to get it ready for mid-November publication in the Environmental Monitor. After it is in print, which takes about seven days he said, there are 30 days of public comment. He explained that once it is signed off by the Environmental Protection Agency, estimated by King to be about Christmas Eve, "it's a go."

King said there is still time for change and his group, Citizens for a Livable Charlestown, is aiming to make an impact on Scheme Z. He added that a Cambridge group has been working hard on this and will vote on it in two weeks. King stated that they believe that there is a chance for change in the new administration.

Stone cautioned that residents will hear from the MDPW that they will kill the project if they oppose it.

King agreed that this is what they will say. However, he noted, delay is not detrimental to the overall project. He added that "the MDPW is ready to give out contracts and we're still asking what they are going to build."

Council members and residents were urged to attend the Nov. 15 meeting.

Other Business

D'Ambrosio requested that the BRA and/or the Bricklayers come before the council to outline the plans for Building 104 in the Charlestown Navy Yard. She said that she understood Shipways residents had seen the plans, adding "and I want to see them."

December Meeting

The next meeting of the council will be held on Tuesday, Dec. 4 at 7 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 75 West School St.

★ Charlestown Organizations — The Charlestown Neighborhood Council Organization Selection Committee will meet on Tuesday, Nov. 27 at 7 p.m. at the Bunker Hill Museum, 43 Monument Square (use Monument Avenue entrance).

The committee will select seven organizations to delegate representatives to serve on the Neighborhood Council. Any Charlestown-based, non-profit organization interested in participating in important development and public safety issues in the community are invited to apply. Letters of interest can be submitted to Committee Chairman Bob Wallace, 11 Mount Vernon St., Charlestown, Mass. 02129.

For more information, call Wallace at 241-8889 or Judy Evers, Charlestown liaison from the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, at 725-3485.

The public is welcome to attend the meeting.

★ Historic Neighborhoods Foundation — Representatives from every Boston neighborhood are invited to attend a meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 27 at 5 p.m. at the Historic Neighborhoods Foundation office, 2 Boylston St. (near Downtown Crossing) to plan for a Citywide Spring Neighborhoods Fair.

HNF has worked with residents of Roslindale to create a nationally-recognized Main Street program. They have assisted Roxbury residents in planting rose gardens and helped revitalize historic John Eliot Square. An historic cemetery was restored in Jamaica Plain, and currently, the Foundation is working to establish a sensible-use plan for an urban wilderness in East Boston.

HNF would like to have every neighborhood in the city represented at this meeting so residents could get to know each other, share ideas and plan for a citywide spring event of neighborhood workshops.

For more information on featured workshops or questions, call 426-1885.

★ School Street — What started as a minor trickle of water on School Street last weekend, quickly turned into a major water leak near the intersection of Main Street.

Cascading water forced the Public Works Department to dispatch a sand truck early Tuesday morning as dropping temperatures caused the road to freeze, creating a hazardous traffic problem.

Water and Sewer Commission crews located the source of the problem at a below-ground service pipe and were in the process of repairing the leak when another service line sprang a leak. While the crew was repairing the two broken service pipes, the main line leading into these pipes burst.

Ron Catena, director of public affairs for the Water and Sewer Commission, stated that all repairs should be finished by yesterday afternoon, Nov. 14.

Bunker Hill Community College Receives 10-Year Accreditation

Bunker Hill Community College has received a 10-year accreditation from the

New England Association of Schools & Colleges Inc. In its letter to BHCC President Piedad Robertson, NEASC commended the college for its "many strengths. Chief among them are the obvious commitment of faculty, staff and administration to the achievement of the institution's mission."

The accreditation letter said BHCC's strong commitment is "translated into a broad range of excellent academic and other programs which serve well the diverse urban population attending Bunker Hill Community College. Worthy of particular commendation is the college's leadership in dealing with the fiscal constraints placed upon the institution in the last two years. Its creative approach to cost reduction and resource management has minimized the negative impact of the state's fiscal dilemma on the college's success in fulfilling its stated purposes."

President Robertson said the "entire college community deserves congratulations for the hard work that has led to our 10-year accreditation and allows us to further our mission to meet the training and educational needs of the communities we serve."

Jr. Bowling League Update

by Judie Dunphy

Charlestown Junior Bowling League action was marked by stiff competition in its sixth week of play. Mama Maria's coach, John Dillon, sparked his team with cheers of excitement as they swept over The Charlestown Patriot team, coached by Jeanne Davis, to capture first place.

Giving the team that extra push was this week's superstar Kelly Gilgunn, who bowled three pin-splintering strings of 80, 74 and 71 bringing her high average from a 56 to a 75. Billy Lewey also had a great day for Mama Maria's, averaging a three-string total of 80. Hot on their heels was Danielle Justice, bowling a strong 74.

KELLY GILGUNN lived up to coach John Dillon's high expectations and came up with a super 75 average, helping to secure a first place spot for Mama Maria's this week.

Two young bowlers joined the ranks of the 80s Club this week. Billy Lewey and Kelly Gilgunn of Mama Maria's both bowled individual strings of 80. Vinnie Sassone of Erins kept his spot in the club, bowling an 80.

The number of bowlers making up the 70s Club is growing in leaps and bounds as the bowlers' skills improve weekly. Included this week are Joseph Wilkins of B & B Oil, 79; Philip O'Neil of Bunker Hill Florist, 77; Justin DiFrummolo of Kerrigan's, 76; Danielle Justice of Mama Maria's, 74; Janell Justice of Bunker Hill Florist, 74; Janelle Ortiz of Sean's Elevator, 74; Jason Melaugh of Jenny's, 72; Stephen Burke of Jenny's, 72; Robert DiFrummolo of the Kennedy Center, 72; Matt Lakeman of B & B Oil, 71; and Paul Hennessey of Erins, 70.

C.Y.O. NEWS by Father Ron Coyne

• Rollerskating Party — St. Catherine's has reserved Rollerworld in Saugus for a Parish Rollerskating Party for all Charlestown children and teen-agers, whether they attend public or parochial school, on Friday, Nov. 23, the day after Thanksgiving. Buses will leave St. Catherine's Church at 3:45 p.m. and return around 7 p.m. The cost is $5 per person which includes transportation, skate rental and admission. Rollerblades are not allowed. Tickets are now on sale at St. Catherine's Rectory, 49 Vine St., or at St. Catherine's School. All boys and girls from Charlestown are welcome. Parents, feel free to join us.

• Lip-Synch Contest — On Friday night, Nov. 30, St. Catherine's will sponsor its first Lip-Synch Contest. There will be a grammar school division for grades one through eight, and a high school division for grades nine through 12. Lip Synch is acting on stage to music with costume and props. The acts will be judged in three categories: Lip Synch, originality and appearance. This event will be held in St. Catherine's School Hall on Tufts Street, and will begin at 7 p.m. Applications are available at St. Catherine's School office or St. Catherine's Rectory, 49 Vine St., and must be returned with a $5 fee by Monday, Nov. 19. If there are too many applications, you will be placed on a waiting list. Acts may be performed as a group or by individuals.

All Charlestown youth are eligible. There will be a time set aside the week before the contest for rehearsals in the auditorium so each act will feel comfortable and we may be sure the music chosen is acceptable.

The night of the performance will be open to all spectators at a cost of $2 for adults and $1 for children grades 1 through 8. We ask that children under 12 be accompanied by a responsible adult. Refreshments will be sold. There will be cash prizes.

• Bob DeCristoforo To Be Honored — On Friday evening, Nov. 16, Bob DeCristoforo, the Youth Outreach worker for the Boston Housing Authority in Charlestown, will be honored at the annual CYO Awards Banquet at the IBEW Hall in Dorchester. He will be one of 30 adults throughout the Archdiocese of Boston to receive the "For God and Youth" Award. Bob has only worked officially in the BHA since last April, but he previously taught and was athletic director at Columbus High School for 22 year, endearing himself to all Charlestown youth and their families.

He has been an "unsung hero" over the years giving hours, days, weeks, months and years of his life helping young people enjoy life as it is meant to be. At the present time, St. Catherine's CYO is blessed with his presence as a role model. We are proud of him and we thank God for his love, compassion, sensitivity and able leadership.

• CYO Day Ski Trip — The first ski trip of the winter sponsored by St. Catherine's CYO for all high school teen-agers of Charlestown will be held on Saturday, Dec. 15, leaving at 6 a.m. and returning at 8 p.m. We can take 35 youth on this trip, which costs only $30 per person and includes transportation; an all-day lift ticket; skis, boots and poles; and a lesson.

The trip is being run through Youth Enrichment Services (YES) and they require that every young person and chaperon come to a fitting and orientation on Tuesday, Dec. 11 at 4 p.m., with a bus leaving St. Catherine's for its Massachusetts Avenue headquarters at 3:30 p.m. Each young person must have a completed permission slip at the time of the orientation, and these are now available at St. Catherine's Rectory. The $30 must be paid prior to Dec. 11.

• Welcome New Altar Boys — St. Catherine's Parish recently installed 12 new boys to serve at the altar. These boys are a credit to their families and to our parish. They are willing to give their time in service to the church on weekends and for funerals, weddings and special occasions. We congratulate and welcome them. They are: Tom McDonough, Greg Staples, Stephen King, Vinnie Sassone, Shane Fisher, Robert Barrett, Dave Evers, Michael LaKing, Wendell LaKing, Buddy Mitchell, Francis MacDougall and Dan McMaster.

More than 750 people are expected to attend the party, which is the fourth semi-annual benefit thrown by the committee. The festive evening will feature live contemporary, R & B, and swing dance music by Urban Revival, as well as hors d'oeuvres, holiday desserts and door prizes.

Tickets are $25 in advance and $35 at the door. Massport Donates To Camp Bunker Hill

MASSPORT Community Liaison Dorothy (Connolly) Steele recently presented a $1,000 contribution to the Camp Bunker Hill program. Due to financial constraints, the Camp Bunker Hill summer program was in jeopardy of closing this summer. But through the financial assistance of community residents and businesses, such as Massport, Camp Bunker Hill was able to continue to serve Charlestown's neediest children. The Camp Bunker Hill Steering Committee plans to continue its fund-raising efforts throughout the remainder of the year. Shown (l. to r.): Boston City Councillor Bob Travaglini, Terry Ring, Dan O'Neil, Michael Curley, Dorothy Steele, Mary MacInnes and Peg McNeil.

Charlestown Lions Club Holds Annual Dance and Fund Raiser

The Charlestown Lions Club held their fifth annual Charity Fund Dance and Raffle on Oct. 5, at the Bunker Hill Council Knights of Columbus hall.

During the evening the annual raffle was drawn and the winners were: First prize - Lois Burke, second prize - Helen Burns and third prize - John O'Callahan, all of Charlestown.

A special raffle of a 10-speed bicycle, donated by a member of the Charlestown Lions Club, was held with the proceeds dedicated to the Lions Blind Children's Fund and was won by Karoline Martino. This raffle raised $507, was matched by the Charlestown Lions Charity Fund, and a check for $1,014 will be presented to the Blind Children's School in Auburndale which assists parents of children born blind or recently blinded in coping with and teaching their children what sighted children learn by seeing.

Free door prizes were awarded during the course of the evening and a fun night was had by all, especially when several members of the audience attempted to blow the 15-foot Alpine Horn.

The Charlestown Lions Distinguished Service Award was presented to Bunker Hill Council Knights of Columbus Grand Knight Paul Herrick by Club President Michael Venezia in recognition of the continuous charitable work of the Council in the Charlestown community.

Two Charlestown Youths Named To Youth Leadership Corps

Two Charlestown youths were among the 37 high school juniors welcomed into the first class of the Mayor's Youth Leadership Corps by Mayor Raymond L. Flynn in ceremonies held recently at the James Michael Curley House in Jamaica Plain.

Jennifer Burns, who attends Boston Latin School, and Joseph DeRoeve, a student at Malden Catholic High School, were among the group of young people who heard welcoming remarks by Mayor Flynn, Jack Curry, president of Northeastern University, and Jack Driscoll, president of the Boston Bar Association, the chief executives of the other institutions involved in this public-private partnership.

The Mayor's Youth Leadership Corps is part of the city of Boston's Safe Neighborhoods Plan. Corps members represent each of the city's neighborhoods and come from public, parochial and private schools throughout Boston. The curriculum they will study in the year-long program is designed to improve their leadership and communications skills, promote community service, teach them more about the city of Boston and cover subjects ranging from the arts to the criminal justice system, from business and economics to cultural diversity and the environment.

In addition to presentations and discussion sessions, corps members will work on community service projects, go on field trips and be placed in paid summer internship positions related to their areas of interest. Each corps member will receive a $1,000 scholarship upon completion of the program.

Following graduation exercises at the end of next summer, this first class of the Mayor's Youth Leadership Corps members will be brought together with succeeding classes in order to form a network of young people to provide leadership for the city of Boston and its neighborhoods in the future.

Department Of Public Works Addresses Community Concerns

Community concerns have been voiced about Central Artery bridges, design and impacts. The Massachusetts Department of Public Works in this week's edition of The Charlestown Patriot responds to traffic and environmental concerns. If you have other concerns that you would like addressed, please call Stephen Collins, the Central Artery Charlestown liaison, at 951-6000.

Question . . . What are the air quality impacts to the Charlestown community caused by the river crossing and interchange?

The Central Artery/Tunnel project will improve air quality in Charlestown significantly over current conditions. In City Square, which was chosen as a test site because it is a busy intersection and therefore a worst-case condition, the carbon monoxide (CO) level will be significantly below EPA standards of 9 parts per million (ppm). In 1987, the CO level was 6.5 ppm; in the year 1998 with the Central Artery project, that level will drop to 4.8 ppm. Residential areas will see even greater improvements. And these predictions are worse than can now be expected since they do not include improvements expected from the new Clean Air Bill just passed by Congress.

Air quality will improve throughout the city due to the Central Artery/Tunnel project. In addition to carbon monoxide reductions, there will be decreases in levels of Hydrocarbons (HC), Nitrogen Oxides (NOx) and airborne particulates.

Question . . . What is the expected volume of traffic coming into City Square from downtown Boston upon completion of the Central Artery/Tunnel project?

Traffic levels into City Square from downtown Boston, given just CANA completion in the year 2010, is expected to be 2,900 vehicles per hour during peak p.m. traffic times. However, with the completion of the Central Artery/Tunnel project this level will be reduced to 2,400 vehicles or an improvement of 13%.

Question . . . What are the vehicular noise impacts to Charlestown and will there be a need for noise barriers?

Additional receptors were located in Charlestown at the request of community residents. The new data reveals that although noise levels are predicted to be high enough for mitigation to be considered, the source of this noise is traffic traveling on Rutherford Avenue rather than on the I-93 structure. To shield the community from these noise sources, a combination of walls, berms and dense landscaping is being suggested, subject to community review.

Question . . . Will the CANA loops connect with the existing I-93 structure before the completion of the Central Artery/Tunnel project? If so, when will this happen and where will the traffic be routed until the connection is made?

The CANA loops will tie into the existing structure prior to the completion of the Central Artery/Tunnel project. It is estimated that the connection will be complete during the latter part of 1993 and the temporary viaduct will remain in place until that time.

Question . . . Are the CANA tunnels equipped to handle hazardous cargo transport? Will this cargo be routed through residential streets?

The CANA tunnels will be equipped to handle the transport of hazardous cargo, which largely consists of fuel trucks. Since this cargo will be prohibited from the Central Artery and cross harbor tunnels, options for these trucks will be either directly from the CANA tunnels to the North Washington Street bridge, or from the CANA tunnels to I-93 until the Nashua Street off ramp.

Representatives of the DPW will be in Charlestown on Thursday, Nov. 15 at 7 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 75 West School St. to provide information on the Central Artery project as it relates to this community and to answer questions from residents.

CHAP Is Back In Action

CHAP is back in action again, and the initials stand for Charlestown Healthy Aging Program. This group is working hard for the betterment of the elderly in Charlestown by addressing their needs. Each meeting is informative, instructive and educational.

CHAP was instrumental, along with the Kennedy

Center, in sponsoring a forum on Question 3 in Charlestown. Even though transportation was provided, the attendance from the whole town was disappointing.

The assessment on the needs of the elderly has been presented at four sites in this area. From these meetings, CHAP collected information that will be the topics of future workshops that the elderly requested.

CHAP is happy to announce that there will be a Harvest Pickin's Lunch on Thursday, Nov. 29 at 11:30 a.m. at the Rutherford Avenue elderly dining site. Please call Carmella at 241-0969 before Nov. 20. The cost is a mere $1. There will be prizes and fun — so come one and all.

Fourth Annual Charlestown Christmas Walk

Sunday, Dec. 9

★ CHARLESTOWN CHRISTMAS CARDS ★

The beautiful Christmas scene featured on last year's Christmas Walk Poster has been made into Christmas cards and are now for sale at various locations in our town. The card was designed by Annette Tecce of Charlestown and included in the design is a sketch of a gas light and a group of Victorian carolers under the backdrop of the Bunker Hill Monument. The cards are a joint venture of the Charlestown Business Association and the Christmas Walk Committee, and proceeds from their sale will go toward the cost of the Christmas Walk and into the Bunker Hill Community College Scholarship Fund for a Charlestown resident. Many companies have ordered them for their season's greetings and many Charlestown residents have ordered them to send to their friends and relatives.

The prices for the cards are:
90¢ each; $9 for 10 cards
$40 for 50 cards and
$70 for 100 cards.

Cards ordered in lots of 200 or more can still be imprinted with a company or person's name at no cost to the purchaser. Call Thom Gilligan at 242-7845 for more information on imprinting.

Cards are available at the following locations: Charlestown Cooperative Bank, Marathon Travel, Harbor Equity Funds, Inc., Newworld Bank, Miss Porter's Limited and Otis & Ahearn Real Estate.

★ THE COUNTDOWN BEGINS ★

The fourth annual Charlestown Victorian Christmas Walk will begin at 1 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 9 at St. Mary's Church with a festive concert by The Fine Arts Choral. The Charlestown Preservation Society is sponsoring the concert and St. Mary's Church is donating the use of the church for the afternoon. Lee Eiseman is the coordinator of the concert.

The Christmas Walk Committee has announced that proceeds from this year's Christmas Walk will be put into a fund at the Bunker Hill Community College for a scholarship for a Charlestown person to attend the college. Carol Adolph, chairman of the walk, and Piedad Robertson, president of BHCC, are working out details and hope to receive matching grants for all monies earned by the Christmas Walk.

The production of the Christmas Walk is very expensive, and the budget for this year is almost $12,000. Businesses, residents and friends are urged to help finance the activities of this event. Donations may be sent to The Charlestown Cooperative Bank, 201 Main St., c/o Jackie Latta. Within a few weeks, Christmas Walk volunteers will be requesting that residents "drop a dollar" to help finance this fun-filled Sunday.

★ HELP LIGHT UP CHRISTMAS ★

Adopt a Pole and help make the fourth annual Christmas Walk a success.

Last year the Christmas Walk brought joy to everyone who attended. This year, we hope to make it even better with your help. You can take part in the Christmas Walk by "adopting" one of the many charming gas-lit posts along the walk route.

When you adopt a pole, it is decorated by one of our committee members with a ribbon, pine bough, bow and a card with the name of the donor. If you choose, you may adopt a pole in someone's name or as a gift.

Minimum donations are $15, however, the more you contribute, the more events and festivities we can add to the walk.

Please fill out the form below and include it with a check payable to the Charlestown Christmas Walk Inc. and mail it to:

Soccer Club Dissolves

To the Editor,
The Charlestown Youth Soccer Club Inc. has been dissolved and the funds in its account have been divided equally and given to the Boys & Girls Club of Boston for its soccer program and St. Catherine's CYO. Each organization received $611.63. We feel that both of these organizations provide excellent services to Charlestown's young people and can benefit from our support.

Sincerely,
Suzanne Roche and Paula Bilodeau

Thank You

I would like to thank the voters of Charlestown who cast their ballots for Joe Malone on election day. Joe's significant margin of victory in Ward 2 was a reflection of his determined effort and personal character.

I would also like to thank the small but hard working group of volunteers who displayed the commitment and enthusiasm which made this campaign a worthwhile and fun experience.

Sincerely,
Ed O'Connell, Charlestown Coordinator
1990 Malone for Treasurer Campaign

The Old Constitution

*I looked at her, and stood in solemn awe.
Her wood might yet endure another war.
Her masts would still accept the harshest wind,
She only lacks her special crew to find.*

*So many battles, and she still sits proud.
Berthed here, where Europe's best were cowed.
Within the sight of that Great Granite shaft,
Whose shadow reaches out to touch the craft.*

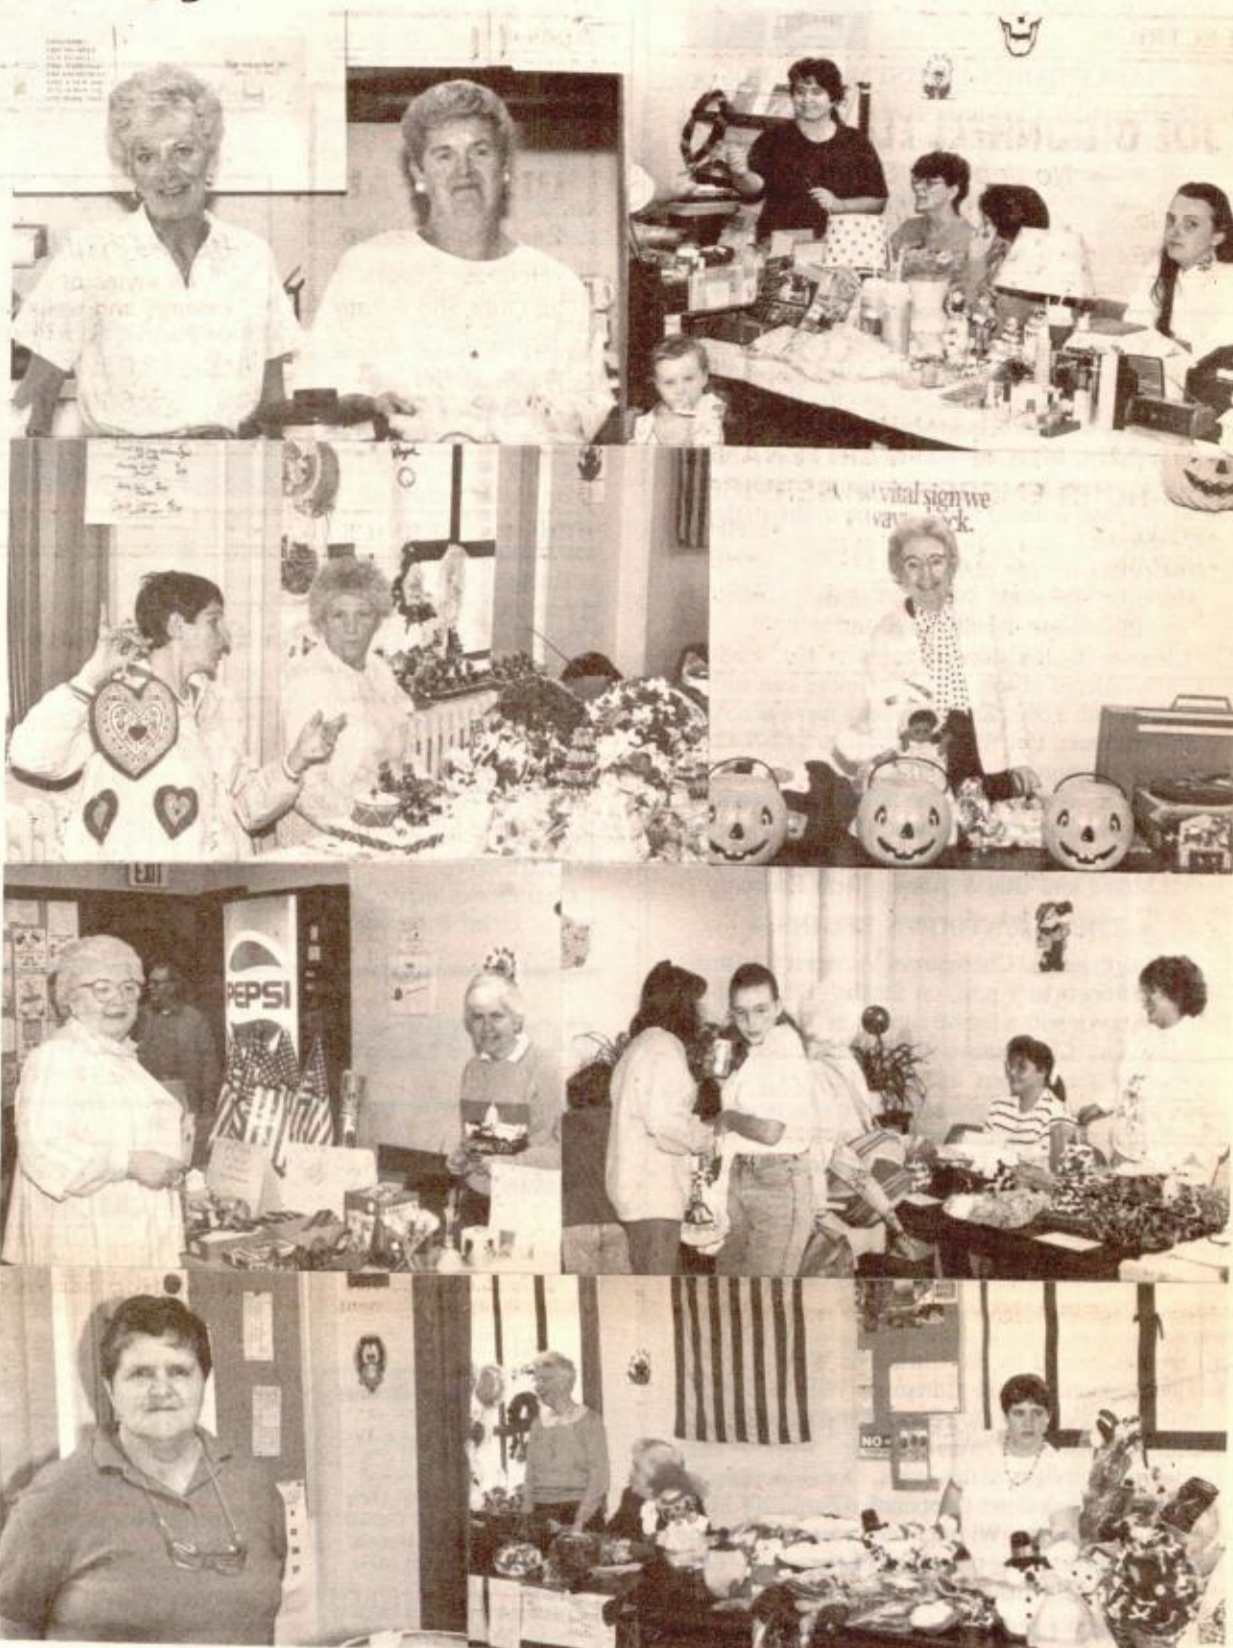

*Pennies tumbled in to save you once.
The Poet's plea produced a great response.
Now we gather round your berth
in hopes to hear,
Your cannons, as we celebrate each year.*

*Ironsides, embattled by the wars,
At peace again, sits waiting for a cause!*

Come Home To Sweeney's For Thanksgiving

by Jeanne Davis

Bob and Carol Sweeney are inviting all their old and new friends to their family-style Thanksgiving Dinner on Thursday, Nov. 22 at Sweeney's Bunker Hill Seafood, 106 Bunker Hill St.

Last year's dinner was a great success, even during the snowstorm. They provided joy and togetherness for local folks who had no family with whom to share Thanksgiving Dinner.

This year, not only will the Sweeneys and their friendly volunteers be serving dinner from noon to 3 p.m. at the restaurant, they have arranged to have meals delivered to shut-ins unable to make the trip down to the restaurant.

If you know of anyone who is a shut-in and will be spending a lonely Thanksgiving at home, please call Sweeney's at 241-5955 to make arrangements to have a little Thanksgiving delivered to them courtesy of Sweeney's.
