Preferring a different size?

Is the item you just received not completely to your satisfaction?

No worries! To help to ensure that our clothing really meets your needs we are happy to assist you with the return process.

You can return your ordered item within 30 days after reception in exchange for a different size or refund of the purchase price.

After we have received the item back, we will send the indicated replacement size/color to you. When requesting a refund the purchase price will be refunded within two weeks after we have received back the item.

Please note: Always return our items unworn in their original packaging and with their original labels attached. In this manner we maintain and guarantee their original quality. When we receive an item back in improper condition it is possible that we return the product to the sender.
