

Jonathan Rodrigues is a certified mediator listed with the Indian Institute of Arbitration and Mediation (IIAM), Kochin-India and is currently posted as the World Mediation Organization's (WMO) Continental Advisor for Asia. He is the Founder-President of Lex Infinitum: VMSCL-WMO International Dispute Resolution Competition, which premiered in March 2016 in Goa. Jonathan is a member of the Goa Community Mediation Centre (GCMC) and a listed mediator with the Young Mediators Initiative (YMI).

Jonathan holds a double Bachelor degrees in Psychology and Law. As a law student he finished as the Third Best Mediator at the inaugural edition of CDRC Vienna. He also won the 'Best Team Work – Client and Counsel' at the 11th edition of the ICC Commercial Mediation Competition in Paris. Currently based in Goa, he is dedicating his efforts to community mediation and conflict resolution programmes in Goa and Kashmir.

His graduation project in Psychology revolved around Juveniles in Conflict in Law with focus on their life and learning in correction homes. During his short stint in a course on Criminology and Criminal Profiling, he also worked closely on the topic of Police-Public Relationships. He is a lifetime member of the South Asian Society of Criminology and Victimology (SASCV).

A journalist by passion he has worked as a Senior Sub-Editor at the Times of India in Goa. An environmentalist by heart, he hopes to pioneer a movement to bring about some sort of Mediation between the Environment and the People who inhabit the Earth. He blogs at www.mediationmusings.wordpress.com and www.roadsiderogue.blogspot.com.
