A large grid of 30 columns and 30 rows, consisting of 900 small rectangular cells. The grid is composed of thin black lines forming a uniform pattern of squares across the page.

A blank sheet of graph paper with a 20x20 grid pattern. The grid consists of 20 columns and 20 rows of small squares, enclosed by a thick black border. The grid lines are thin and black, creating a uniform structure for writing or drawing.

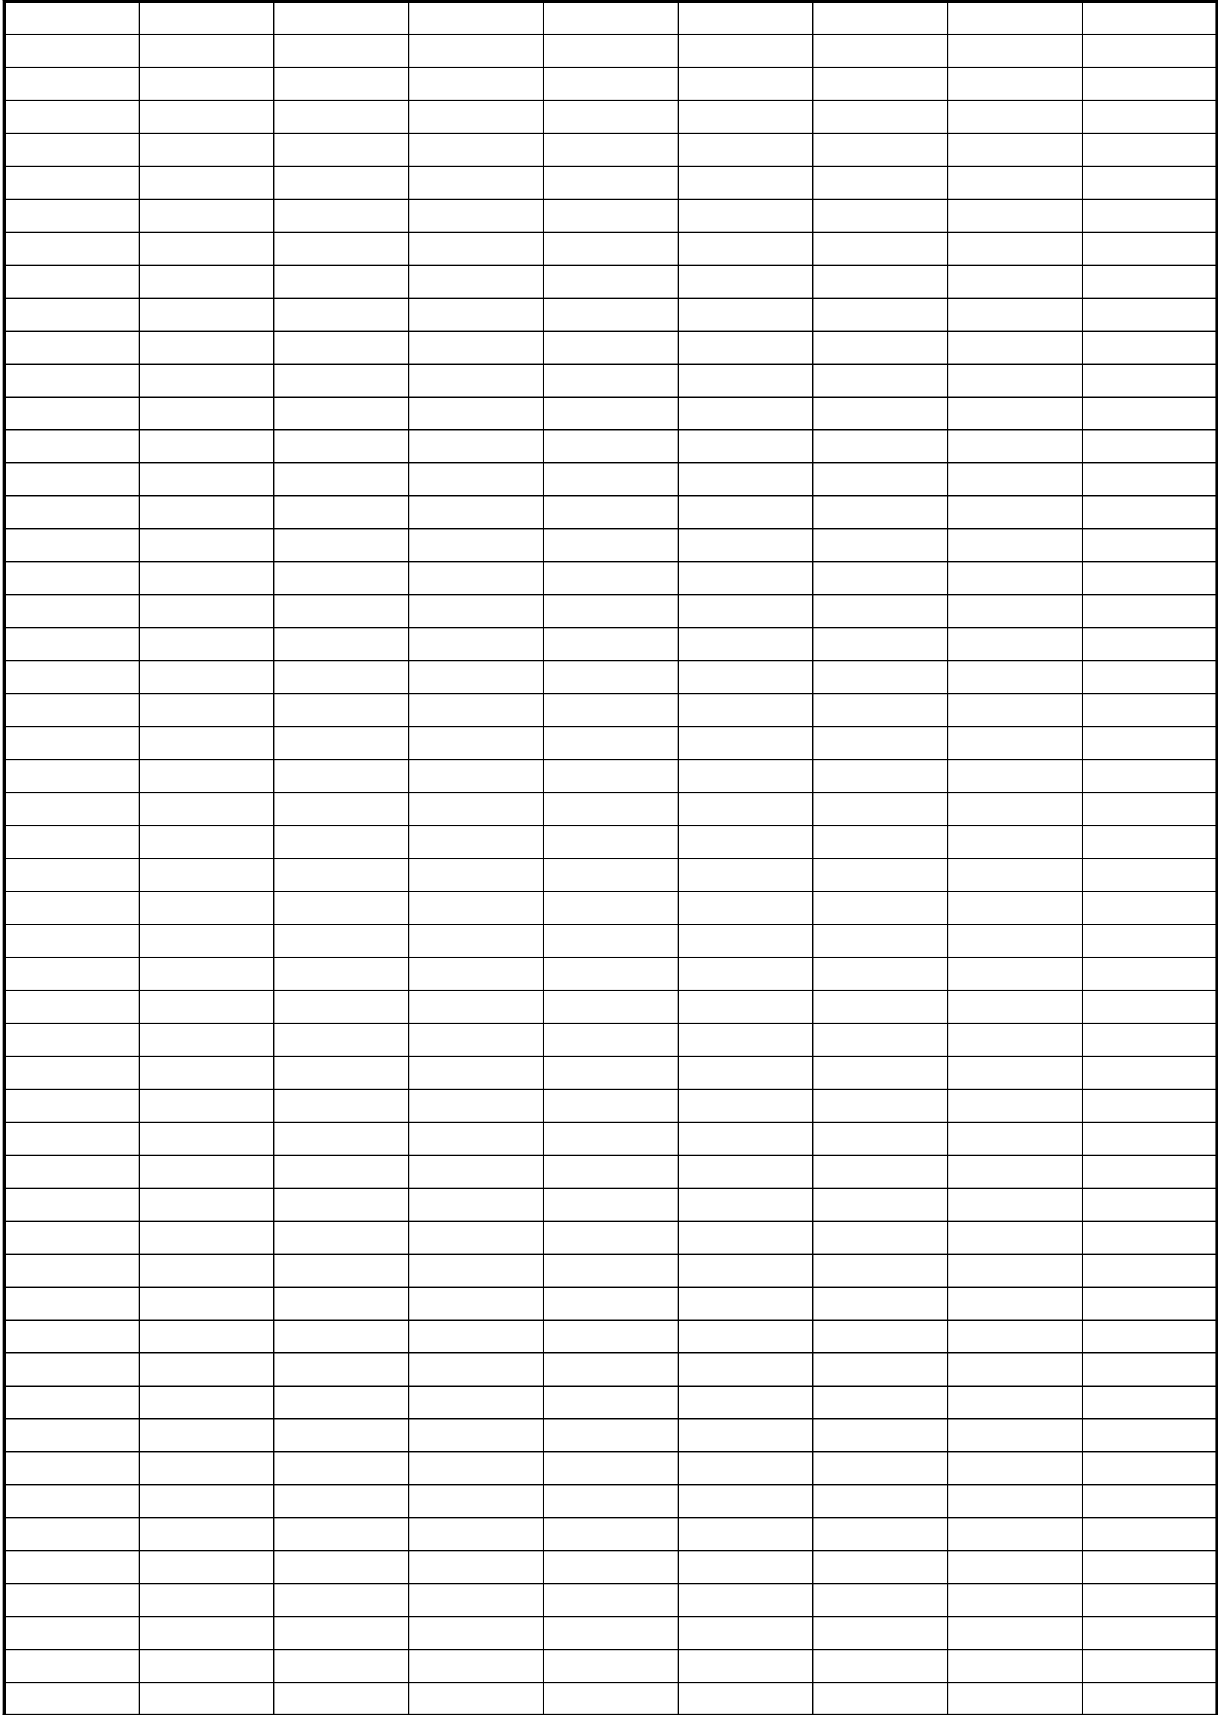

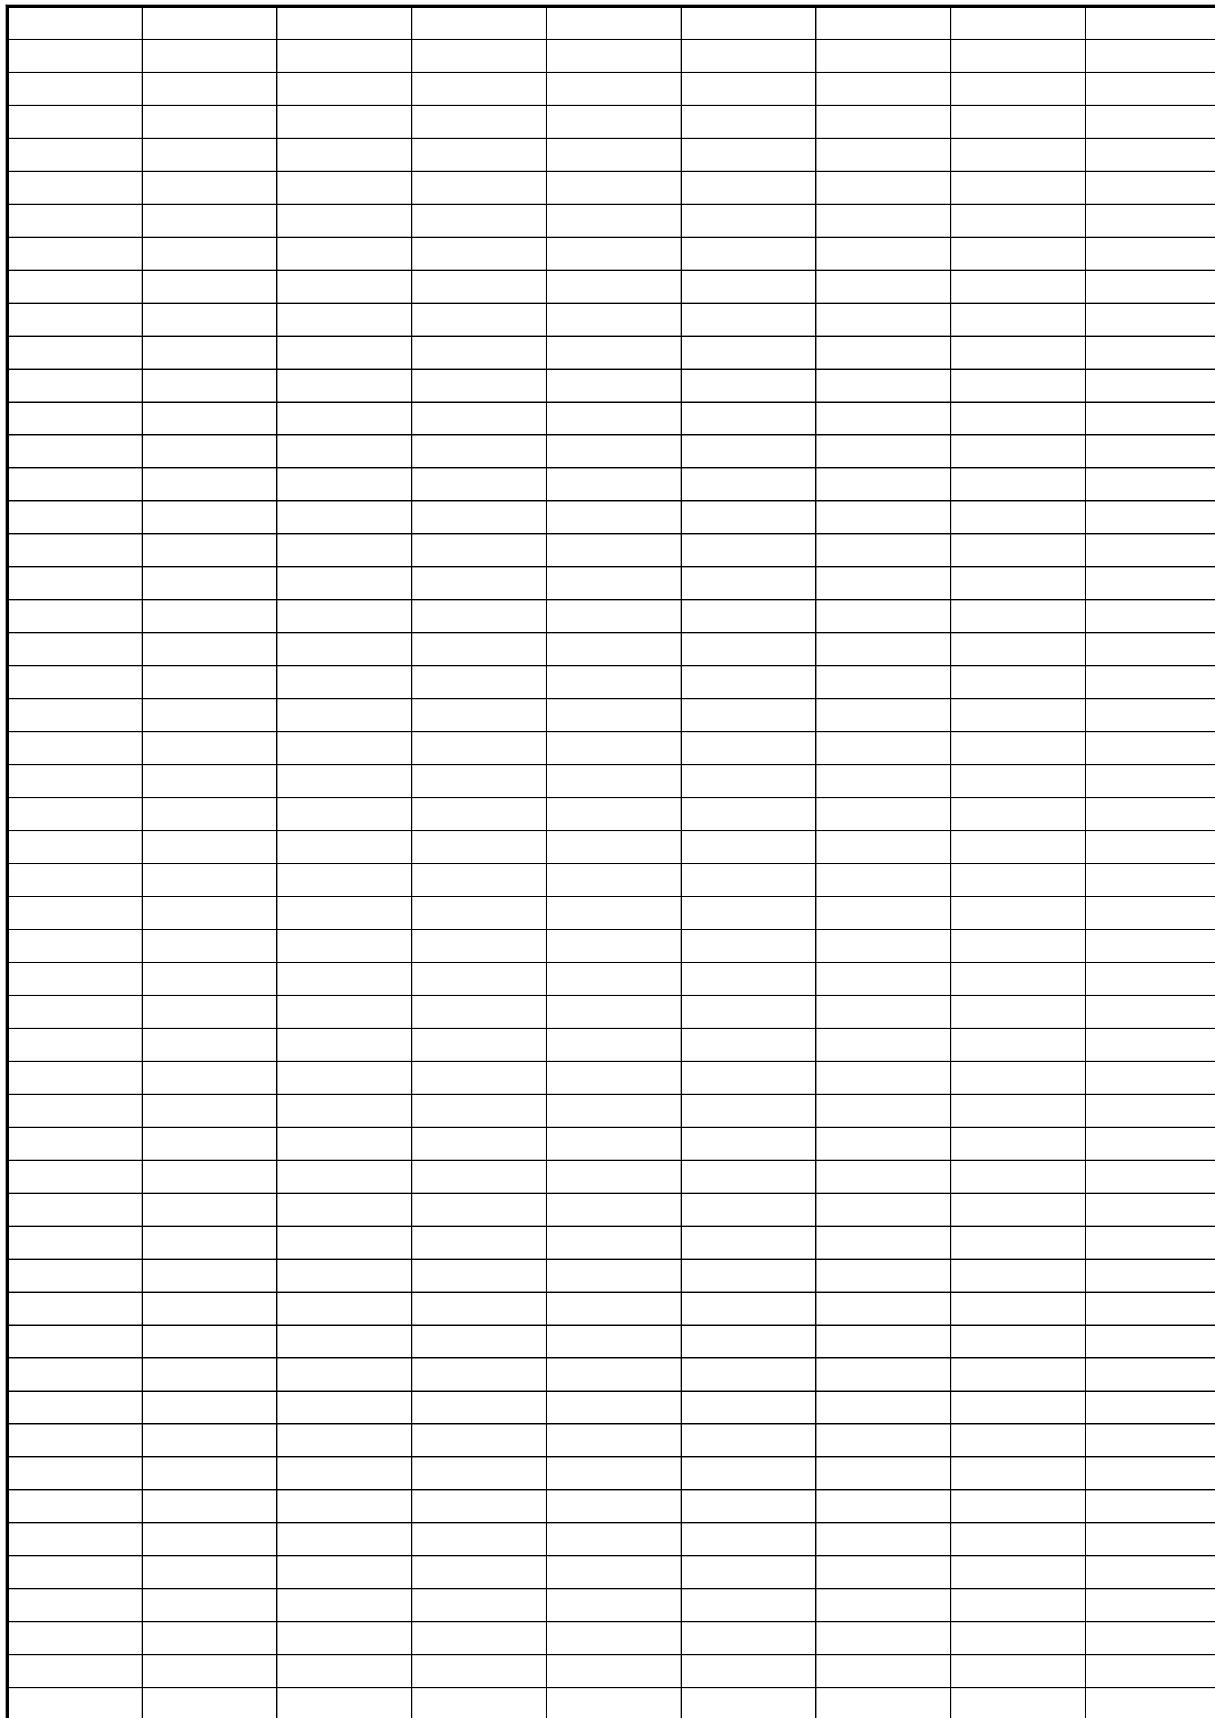

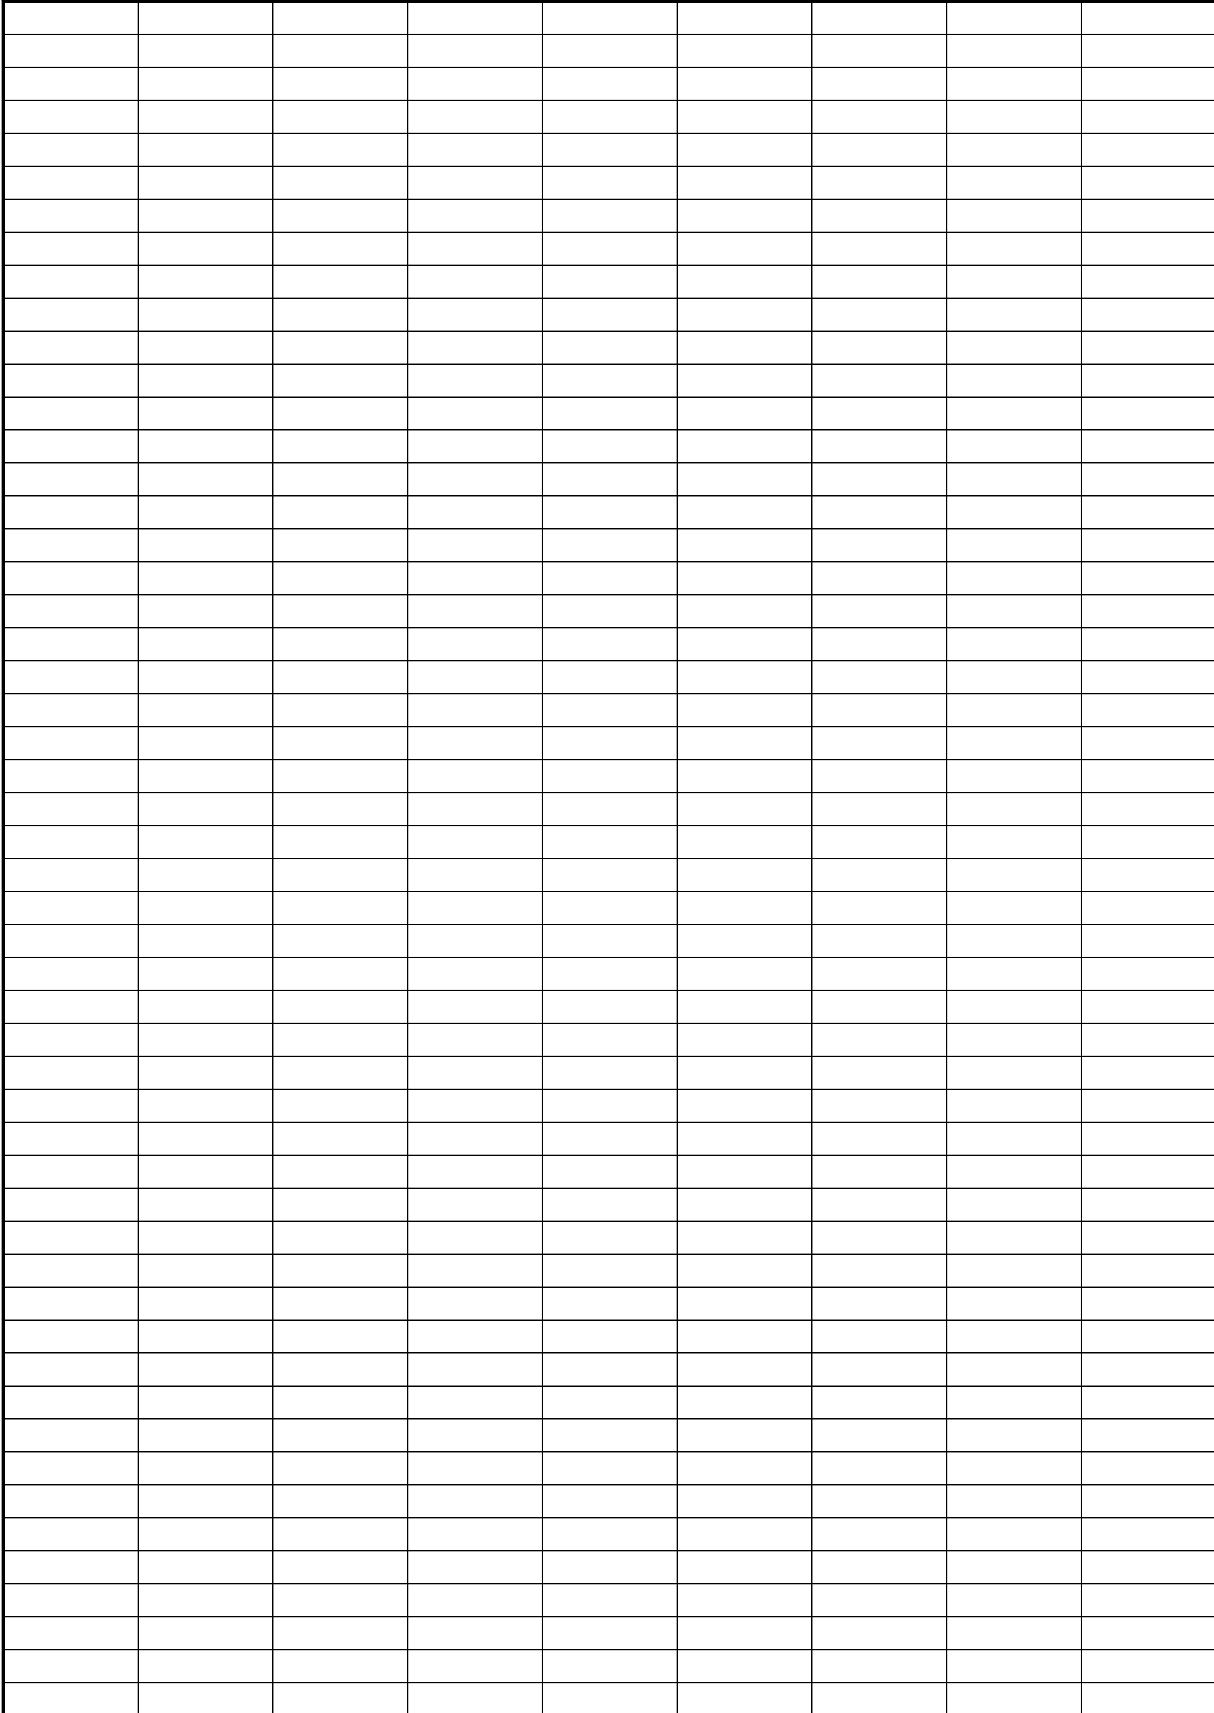

This image shows a grid with 10 columns and 40 rows. The grid is empty and serves as a template for data entry or calculations. Each cell in the grid is a square, and the lines are thin and black.
