Atlantic City casino profits down after opening of Hard Rock, Ocean Resort

November 25, 2018

ATLANTIC CITY - (Nicholas Huba, The Press of Atlantic City) - The introduction of two new casinos to the resort's gaming market contributed to a reduction in profits for the city's gaming industry, according to third-quarter numbers released Friday by the state Division of Gaming Enforcement. "Industry profits were down in light of the new competition that entered the market," said James Plousis, chairman of the state Casino Control Commission. "On a positive note, compared to last year, over 6,300 more people were working in the industry, and there were nearly 5,400 more full-time jobs."

'All of them were wrong': What happened to the massive revenue Ohio's casinos were projected to generate?

November 25, 2018

OHIO- (Thomas Gnau, Dayton Daily News) - When voters agreed to allow casinos into Ohio in 2009, advocates projected that the four locations would generate $1.9 billion in revenue before taxes. That didn't happen. In fact, casino revenues are far short of the $1.4 billion adjusted revenue projection that was made after Gov. John Kasich allowed video lottery terminals at seven racetracks, including two in the Dayton area. The VLTs added instant competition to casinos in Cleveland, Cincinnati, Columbus and Toledo, and dug a deep hole in the possible tax revenue generated by those four gaming centers. Sports betting set to begin in Rhode Island

November 22, 2018

PROVIDENCE, R.I.- (Jennifer McDermott, Associated Press) - Sports betting is beginning in Rhode Island.

Twin River Casino announced Wednesday that the first bets will be accepted at its Lincoln location starting Monday. Twin River expects to begin sports betting at its Tiverton location in December. The U.S. Supreme Court struck down a federal law earlier this year that made most sports gambling illegal. Rhode Island is the only New England state so far that has legalized sports betting. State officials had hoped to launch sports betting on Oct. 1, but they said negotiations with the vendor who is managing sports betting services took longer than expected.

Oaklawn Racing owners plan $100M casino-hotel

November 20, 2018

HOT SPRINGS - (Stephen Steed, Arkansas Democrat Gazette) - The owner of Oaklawn Racing & Gaming on Monday announced a plan to spend more than $100 million the next two years to build a 200-room hotel and expand its casino by 28,000 square feet. The $100 million project will be one of the state's largest-ever private investments in the hospitality and tourism industry, Louis Cella, president of the Oaklawn Jockey Club and owner of the track, said during a news conference near the track's paddock area. About 200 people, mainly a variety of state and local officials and others involved in the hospitality industry, attended the event.

Rivers continues to outperform larger NY casinos

November 20, 2018

NEW YORK- (Lauren Stanforth, Times Union) - Rivers Casino and Resort is far outperforming the two largest Las Vegas-style casinos sanctioned by New York state. Rivers in Schenectady made twice as much more per slot machine than the massive new Resorts World Catskill in October, according to data casinos provide to the New York state Gaming Commission. The winnings are consistent with how Rivers has performed in 2018 compared with Resorts World, an 18-story all-suite hotel and resort that opened Feb. 8 in Monticello, Sullivan County.

IPI re-opens casino

November 19, 2018

SAIPAN- (Jon Perez, Saipan Tribune) - Imperial Pacific International (CNMI) LLC announced, in a brief statement yesterday, that it has resumed the operations of its casino at the Garapan facility. Sources say the casino re-opened at about 6pm and would continue to have one-shift operations from 6pm to 2am daily-until everything normalizes on the island. IPI had to stop its casino operations for a few days after their facility sustained damage following the onslaught of Super Typhoon Yutu last month, whose destructive winds brought down power poles that caused a massive islandwide power outage. No incoming international flights also contributed to the closure as no tourists were coming in. The Francisco C. Ada/Saipan International Airport was only open to military aircraft that were bringing in relief

The Casino Pioneer Poised For A Comeback In Las Vegas And Beyond

November 19, 2018

LAS VEGAS- (David G. Schwartz, Forbes) - Bill Harrah is less a household name these days than he was a mere ten years ago-for now, at least. Once considered one of the chief pioneers of the modern casino industry, his influence might be at its lowest ebb in decades: the company he founded no longer bears his name, which industry-watchers seem to have all-but-forgotten. But across America, including in Las Vegas, Bill Harrah is suddenly a man whose lessons casino owners will want to study.

For first time in nearly 25 years, Kentucky is getting new racetrack

November 17, 2018

KENTUCKY - (Janet Patton, Lexington Herald Leader) - Keeneland and Churchill Downs on Friday won the right to jointly build and run a new harness racetrack and gambling parlor in Western Kentucky near Fort Campbell. The Kentucky Horse Racing Commission voted 11-3 to award the first new racetrack license in nearly 25 years to the $150 million project for Oak Grove in Christian County over competing projects from Kentucky Downs in Franklin and Caesars-Bluegrass Downs in Paducah. Churchill Downs and Keeneland, which owns only 5 percent of the project, will build a five-eighths of a mile harness track to host 12 days of standardbred racing as early as 2019.
