As baby boomers age and become senior citizens, they continue to be interested in maintaining good health. They are most anxious to stay fit and want to feel younger than their years. They become huge consumers of nutritional supplements and health fitness products. Even though the years are passing by, they want to stay young and are willing to do what it takes to do so.

Of course, this is a generalization. Not all the baby boomers are going to stay fit and trim. Many are or will be overweight and Hardcore Ketogenic Diet Trim out of shape. However, this segment of the population continues to influence the markets as they have been doing for their whole lives. They are now helping to make the health and wellness products become a trillion dollar industry.
