You can shop online and have items shipped to any country in the world

Shop all over the world, but are you limited by the delivery options on some websites? You may be experiencing extremely long delivery times due to customs formalities taking a long time. You can eliminate these problems by using the PriParcel address in the Netherlands.

Are you a European who enjoys shopping outside of Europe?

PriParcel has a large number of European customers from countries other than the Netherlands who receive their packages from us at our Dutch address. Observers say that the Netherlands handles customs formalities more quickly than Belgium or Sweden, for example. Therefore they receive their products much faster.

There are some cases in which the Netherlands is even a more affordable option. Moreover, the Netherlands is not without reason an attractive country for many companies to transit through.

Are you an overseas resident who loves to shop in Europe?

There are many things to see and do in Europe because of its diversity of cultures and countries. In this way, many people outside of Europe also find European webshops appealing. As an example, PriParcel has many customers in China and America who have orders delivered to our delivery address.

Why? These are the two most important reasons:

Many European webshops only deliver in Europe

This saves you a lot on shipping!

The Netherlands is a better place to ship all your European orders. All packages are consolidated and sent to one address outside Europe. Therefore, you will only have to pay for intercontinental shipping once.
