

My Voice is ALIVE!

I may be young, but I am a bold daughter from
Two loving hearts,

Two voices which have become my own,

And from two people who brought out the true me.

I am from two brilliant minds, which created me for whom I am.

I am from courage and resilience,

From immigrants with

Strongness

Powerful

And ferocity

Because it's sweet but also should be listened to.

From them going through so much to my dreams being accomplished.

From achieving my dreams and making them proud, so my voice can matter.

I want my parents to say "THAT'S MY DAUGHTER"

I am

Fighting

So, one day we can all say "WE DID IT, TOGETHER"

We will keep fighting so our voice can be

HEARD

Not just here, but everywhere

A voice is there to be heard not to be

Ignored

Removed

I want to feel that,

My voice MATTERS

I don't want to be sitting here just listening to everything

TAKE ACTION

SPEAK FOR YOURSELF

And eventually you will be heard.

If the government doesn't hear, that's okay

A few people will

That's enough

At the end even with a few people

You will feel enough, you will feel like you're heard, you will feel YOURSELF.

My voice has its purpose, that's why it's there

I want the people out there to work together

Get through this together.

My voice is like a seed, it needs to be nurtured.

My voice is strong but more powerful when it's heard.

It needs to be taken care of because it is sweet but also be listened to

Because it is ALIVE.

Democracy is never going to become a thing because of our society,

That's why I must stand

On my two feet

To achieve what we want to achieve.

That's why,

Meet with decision makers, not with the takers.
