Treated To A Cruise

FORTY-FIVE YOUNGSTERS and their chaperones from the Boys' and Girls' Club Day Care Camp located at 15 Green Street, were treated to a 90-minute cruise of Boston Harbor last month as guests of Boston Gas. The youngsters got a sailor's view month as guests of Boston Gas. The youngsters got a sailor's view of their hometown along with the many other historical sites of Boston Harbor. On deck of the Massachusetts Bay Lines excursion boat, Freedom, are from left: Mary Borden, Frank Doenges and Nancy Borden. Boston Gas has sponsored these harbor cruises since 1969 for non-profit youth and senior citizen groups.

North Area/Central Artery

Task Force Has New Plan — And New Ramp

Members of the North Area/Central Artery Task Force are looking at an alternative plan, which they and the Boston Neighborhood Development Agency designed and which will compromise between CBT's (Childs, Bertrand & Tseckares) O-1 scheme and the task force's favored L-2 scheme, announced Bill Lamb, Chairman of the Task Force.

Basically the new plan modifies the L-2 scheme but works better as a traffic scheme while keeping traffic out of City Square. This solves problems the task force had with the O-1 scheme which they saw as producing more noise and traffic in the City Square area. They also feel that their new scheme will cost less than the preferred L-2 scheme which was rejected in July for the primary reason of its $14 million excess in construction costs.

While the modified scheme will compromise the L-2 and O-1, it presents a possible third problem of an off-ramp located near the Medford/Chelsea Street intersection. Members of the task force are compiling information on the type of traffic that will use this off ramp and the noise level to be expected. Upon compilation of this information, residents of the task force will hold a meeting to discuss the merits and disadvantages of this ramp, as it relates to the whole of Charlestown.

To date, several agencies and community spokesmen have voiced their dislike of the O-1 scheme. These include Chelsea/Charlestown Representative Richard Voke, The Charlestown Preservation Society, Massachusetts Port Authority, and the City of Boston.

Task force members are working on an alternative route to fight implementation of the O-1 scheme through a letter voicing their disapproval, to the Federal Highway Administration which will supply most of the money to build the artery.

The North Area/Central Artery Project will be further discussed at the September 9th Charlestown Town Council Meeting to be held at the American Legion Hall, 7:30 p.m.

Cable TV Is Topic At CTC Meet

The next monthly meeting of the Charlestown Town Council (CTC) is scheduled for Wednesday, September 9th, 7:30 p.m. at the American Legion Hall on Chestnut Street.

Public access to cable TV will be the main topic of discussion, featuring two speakers.

Progress on the North Area/Central Artery will also be discussed.

Both presentations will follow the Police/Community Relations Meetings, held first, in conjunction with the CTC meeting.

Bobby Wallace will moderate.

In preparation for a tour of the mining fields of Appalachia, Little Flagg Theatre's epic musical drama, The Furies of Mother

Jones, will return to the Charlestown Working Theatre, 442 Bunker Hill Street, Charlestown, where it had its premiere four years ago.

With fiery spirit and tender heart, the great labor organizer Mother Jones, old and bold and battling, strides across the fighting history of our past and into our heroic present. The rousing musical play, set among the mining men and women of Appalachia, reasserts our proud heritage.

"The Furies of Mother Jones is a spirited and very moving play, acted with intensity enough to move mountains."

Hurd House To Be Restored

Historic Boston Incorporated recently purchased the Hurd House at the corner of Monument Avenue and Main Street. Residents of Charlestown will recall it as the location of the Donovan and Fallon drugstore.

A dominant landmark in downtown Charlestown, the Hurd House is exceptionally significant to the architectural history of Charlestown, according to reports compiled by the Boston Landmarks Commission.

Rehabilitation of the Hurd House has eluded the best efforts of developers because of the high cost of structural repairs and restoration.

In collaboration with the Charlestown Preservation Society and the Boston Landmarks Commission, Historic Boston will assemble a development plan to make the development and preservation of the Hurd House financially feasible.

Historic Boston is a private charitable corporation founded in 1960 to restore the Old Corner Bookstore at the intersection of School and Washington Streets.

This organization seeks to facilitate real estate development that restores pivotal historic buildings to continuing uses. It has already carried out structural repairs on the Austin House ("Stone House") at the intersection of Main and Hurd Streets.

Boston Business School Charges Tuition

The Boston Business School will open for its 68th consecutive academic year on Monday, September 14, 1981.

For the first time in its long, proud history, the school will be charging tuition to all returning students as well as to new students. To help defray the cost of the program, the School Committee voted recently the modest charge of $400.00 in tuition and $50.00 in fees for the academic year. It should be noted that a seat is reserved for all returning students who have paid their tuition. However, new applicants are accepted to the school on a "first come, first serve" basis.

The Business School, known until 1971 as the Clerical School, is a junior college level school, training men and women of all ages to become secretaries or accountants. Five major programs are offered including bookkeeping, accounting, machine transcription, shorthand, and executive secretarial. The school is in session Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 2:15 p.m. A charter bus leaves the Arborway Station each morning at 7:45 for the school and makes a return trip at the close of the school day.

The Business School is housed in a modern, two story building at 989 Commonwealth Avenue - a mile beyond Kenmore Square - and is equipped with modern, electric typewriters, a computer, computer terminals, word processing machines, and I.B.M. Mag Card II equipment.

The Placement Department assists students to secure part-time employment and places all graduates in full-time positions.

Additional information about the school may be had by telephoning 787-5600.

Housing Rehab Program Offers Cash Rebates To Eligible Homeowners

The Housing Rehabilitation Program, begun on July 29, will provide eligible Boston homeowners with cash rebates for making code-related repairs and energy-conservation improvements, the director of the Mayor's Office of Housing announced today.

Program," explained Joseph Courtney, "is essentially designed to help low and moderate-income homeowners pay for many of the normal home repair items, as well as for improvements to conserve energy."

not only receive a cash rebate from our program, but they also begin cutting their heating costs by as much as 40 percent."

The program, administered by the Office of Housing and funded through the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG), offers cash rebates of 20 percent or 40 percent of the estimated costs for code-related repairs, such as porch or roof rehabilitation. Rebates of 40 and 50 percent are provided for energy-related work, including furnace replacement, storm window installation, and attic or wall insulation.

To help homeowners determine the most cost-effective and beneficial energy repairs, the Housing Rehabilitation Program staff will perform free home energy audits for participants. To be eligible for the Housing Rehabilitation Program, a property must be owner occupied and consist of one to six units. The owner must meet income guidelines established by the program.

Homeowners must apply for assistance before starting repairs to be eligible for a rebate. For more information, call or visit the Charlestown Office, located at 232 Bunker Hill Street, telephone number 241-9110.

Channel 5 To Air Jerry Lewis Telethon

The Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon has been called "the TV super special of the year." The entertainment spectacular, broadcast live from Del Webb's Hotel Sahara in Las Vegas, will be seen this year in the Boston area over WCVB-TV, Channel 5, starting at 9 p.m., Sunday, September 6, and ending at 6:30 p.m., Monday, September 7.

The annual 2 1/2 hour marathon to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA) will again feature comedy, music and dance by some of the biggest names in show business, in addition to reports on the progress being made in the fight against muscle disease. For the ninth consecutive year Ed McMahon will serve Jerry as anchorman, backed up by "Good Morning America" host David Hartman and Hollywood's Chat Everett. Hollywood's Chad Everett.

Telethon '81, the 16th Labor Day Telethon to benefit MDA's research and medical service programs, will be carried by some 200 stations in the continental U.S., Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico.

Last year's Telethon produced a record pledge total of over $31 million, and Jerry Lewis predicts that this year's show will do even better. He says, "Our Labor Day Telethon is a love-in. It's an outpouring of concern and generosity unparalleled in any other American fund-raising event. Young and old alike, people join together in a unified effort to help 'my kids.' Their faith and support give me the confidence to say we'll win the fight against neuromuscular disease one day very soon."

WCVB-TV will cut away from the network show for 15 minutes every hour to introduce leading MDA supporters in the community and to present reports on MDA activities in the Boston area. Live remote reports and features will be broadcast from Telethon headquarters at the Dorothy Quincy Suite, John Hancock Hall, Faneuil Hall Market Place, and the Muzi Ford parking lot next to the Channel 5 studio.

Free Coffee On "Pike" During Labor Day Weekend

The Massachusetts Turnpike Authority, anticipating heavy traffic over the Labor Day weekend, issued a warning to motorists that the 55-mile-per-hour speed limit will be rigidly enforced along its 135 mile roadway. Chairman John T. Driscoll said, "State Police from Troop E who patrol the Turnpike will augment regular radar teams in order to discourage excessive speeding." In addition, radio-equipped emergency service patrol vehicles will assist police in locating and assisting motorists in disabled vehicles and a full force of toll collectors will be at all interchanges across the Turnpike.

Service stations and restaurants along the Turnpike will be opened 24 hours a day, everyday. Chairman Driscoll also said, "The Howard Johnson Restaurants along the Turnpike will provide free coffee to patrons of the Turnpike to promote safe driving." The gesture is intended to remind motorists that rest stops and coffee stops can help to keep drivers alert. Thereby improving driving performance. Certificates will be distributed at toll plazas allowing motorists to be served coffee without charge from 10:00 p.m. on Monday, September 7th, through 7 a.m. Tuesday, September 8th.

Driscoll added, "It has been proven that compliance with the 55 mile-per-hour speed limit has reduced fatalities by at least 10 percent annually along our nation's highways. It is especially important during this weekend that all motorists, without exception, limit their speed to this legal limit. We are determined to enforce this law. In doing so, we will achieve a safer weekend for all."

Kelly Anticipates Negative Press

JAMES M. KELLY

James M. "Jim" Kelly today cautioned his supporters to anticipate unfavorable press coverage during the course of the city council campaign. "I would prefer not to have a running battle with the media. However, the voters should be reminded of the significant impact the press has on an election. Sometimes what they don't say is a form of distortion," said Kelly.

Kelly was referring to a recent newspaper article which identified the seven council candidates receiving support from Mayor White. "Of course I was not included as one of the seven, but the front page article made reference to a James Kelly who coordinated the Mayor's re-election campaign in 1979," stated Kelly.

"In fairness, whereas the topic of the article was the council candidates, it should have been clarified that the James Kelly referred to was not the James M. "Jim" Kelly who is running for the Boston City Council," explained Kelly.

"There was further evidence to indicate the article was a subtle attempt to confuse the voters," added Kelly. "The article made clear that a Dennis Morgan, not James Kelly (of the Mayor's Office), was coordinating the effort to elect the Kevin White candidates. The name "James Kelly" was totally unrelated to the story. It should never have even been mentioned."

"It's not a case of being over sensitive, but I want to keep the record straight. I am not a Kevin White candidate and I do not want the press inferring otherwise. No one, directly or indirectly, affiliated with the Mayor's organization is involved with my campaign," Kelly said.

"I never expected the media to embrace my candidacy. They would not support a candidate they could not control. For the past seven years I have criticized their news departments for down-playing, or totally ignoring crimes of violence such as stonings, purse snatchings and assaults. Since 1974 I have vehemently disagreed with their editorial support of forced busing and racial quotas. I maintain that the press should use their considerable influence to rectify some of the real problems facing the city rather than blindly endorsing policies which are counter-productive to education, racially divisive and a financial burden on the Boston taxpayers," concluded Kelly.

DAY 118 FREEDOM EXHIBIT COMING

The Bunker Hill Museum is working on an exhibit dedicated to the People's Firehouse, recognizing that period in Charlestown's history when the people stood together and said NO to city government! It should be good!

SIGN'S OKAY

Many Townies have asked the whereabouts of the Peoples Firehouse sign which had been hanging over the firehouse. It was taken down for safekeeping. Rumor had it the city was coming for it! But the sign's okay!

TOWN MEETING COMING

Don't forget to attend the next Charlestown Town Council Meeting on Wednesday, September 9 at 7:30 p.m. - place to be announced elsewhere in this paper.

DON'T FORGET TO VOTE

The Peoples Firehouse Committee urges all registered Townies to vote on Tuesday, Sept. 22 in the city council and school committee contests. There are many fine men and women running and we have an obligation to select the best that we can get!

PEOPLES FIREHOUSE NUMBER 8

The townfolk in Hull have occupied their Village Firehouse to keep the town from closing it and want Engine Company No. 2 to stay put. They took control of the station for publicity, hoping to garner public support for a September 24 town meeting to force their Finance Committee to appropriate the money to keep their fire protection at proper levels.

BOTTOM LINE

Our main goal is to keep Charlestown safe and intact. WE THE PEOPLE WILL WIN. WE WILL SURVIVE.

Clean-Up Crews Make A Dent In Litter Problem

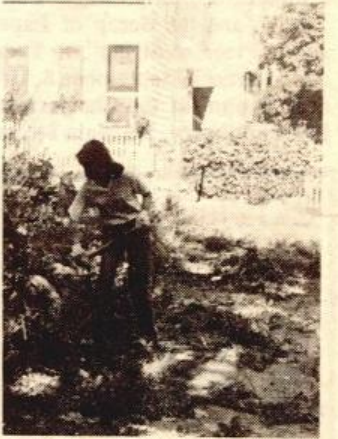

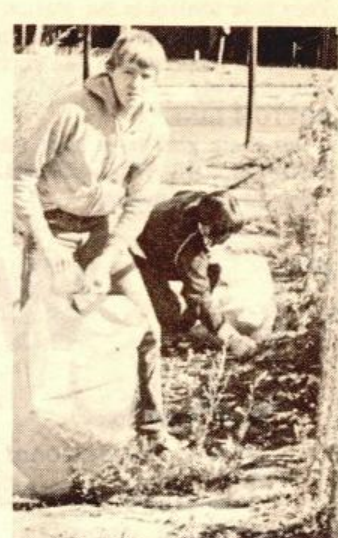

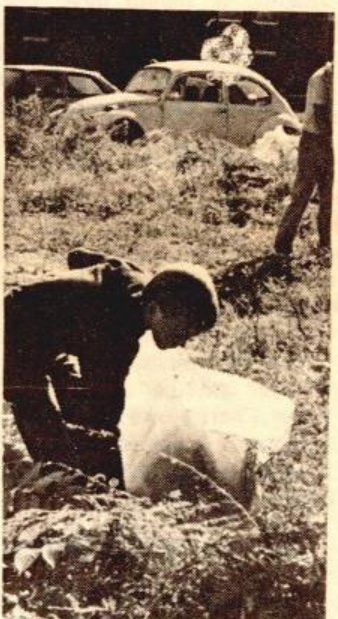

The Charlestown Board of Trade joined with James O'Brien's of the Kennedy Center, youth groups and various volunteers from the Charlestown neighborhoods last week in a joint effort with The Corporation for a Cleaner Commonwealth to clean up Charlestown. Volunteers from all parts of Charlestown participated, as did members of The Charlestown Board of Trade.

Two truck loads of trash (well over several tons) were hauled out of Charlestown. This year's clean-up project was so successful that coordinators are considering a more frequent schedule for the clean-up effort.

Shirts and trash bags were provided by The Corporation for a Cleaner Commonwealth and refreshments were donated by The Charlestown Board of Trade and served by The Godfather. There were also thirty-five Red Sox tickets given by Joseph Flaherty, President of The Charlestown Board of Trade for volunteers who gave the most time and accomplished the most work during the two day clean up. Thanks to Roberta Delaney, of Boston City Hall, the trash was promptly picked up and disposed of the same day it was collected.

The project was a successful one in terms of calling attention to a problem that is evident in most city neighborhoods. The idea also helps unite the merchants and residents of individual areas and try to emphasize the importance of keeping the city clean. We appreciate all the participation and support from everyone involved and especially the people of Charlestown who worked so hard with us.

To Talk Of Many Things

by Sal Giarratani
BIGGIE GOVERNMENT

Government is spending so much money as it interferes into every aspect of our personal lives, it's hard to believe they're talking about real money. The late Senator Everett Dirksen still holds the bottom line on this, "A billion here, a billion there: The first thing you know, you're talking about real money."

Too many people want their government to be nothing more than a super day care center at the same time they want government off their backs and outa' their pockets. You can't have your cake and eat it too!

Too many of us have been weened so long on "New Deal" type answers to all problems that we can't see the forest from the trees. We should demand that government stop tucking us in at night, waking us up in morning, serving our meals, providing us with jobs and giving us a weekly allowance.

The middle class voted down government dependence last November when they sent Reagan to Washington. These are the people who are being over-taxed to financed everyone else's problems. They were — and remain — tired of being thumbed down at!

POUND FOOLISH

As a public employee, I believe government should only be doing what the private sector won't or can't provide and that is why I am supporting a planned protest for September at the State House over service cuts in state mental and public health.

These service cuts are going to adversely impact upon people's lives who have no where else to turn. Many of these people will be forced back to the streets and the layoffs of employees are coming from the bottom, very few administrators are laid off. State contract employees are hardly being cut at all. One over-priced administrator could save the jobs of up to six direct service workers. Layoffs are necessary but let them fall on all contracts and their people, not just those who provide frontline essential care!

NEW GERMAN STUDY GERMANE?

Let's hope Senator Teddy Kennedy never hears about the recent German study of women murderers showing that their favorite weapon was a frying pan. Next thing you'll know, "Saturday Nite Skillets" will be banned and you'll need a permit to flip your flapjack!

SPEAKING OF TEDDY

Thank You

The officers of Charlestown Babe Ruth would like to thank the Knights of Columbus and their officers and members who helped us with the setting up of the hall and all the equipment necessary for our first "Nite at the Races."

Special thanks to Bud Whalen and Jackie McGonagle, also the men from Babe Ruth who helped with various jobs during the night and to the ever so faithful people who attended.

Nothing

But Praises

Ladies & Gentlemen,

I salute you. There has been many times in your lives you have gone home "champions" I am sure Thursday night you were prouder, happier and bigger "champions." You have every right to be. The love and joy the children of The Life Focus Center showed towards you was truly an inspiration to all. Thank you, thank you and again I salute you.

To all the guys who played for The Life Focus Center, seems you were all "super." Your game started long before you hit the field; in the hours you spent selling chances, collecting money, donating prizes for the raffle, your love, and hours of work to make sure everything went perfect ... and so it did. God bless each and everyone of you.

To Pat and Anne Considine for getting Bobby Orr and other guys to come and play. For all your hours of selling chances and tickets to raise money for the kids.

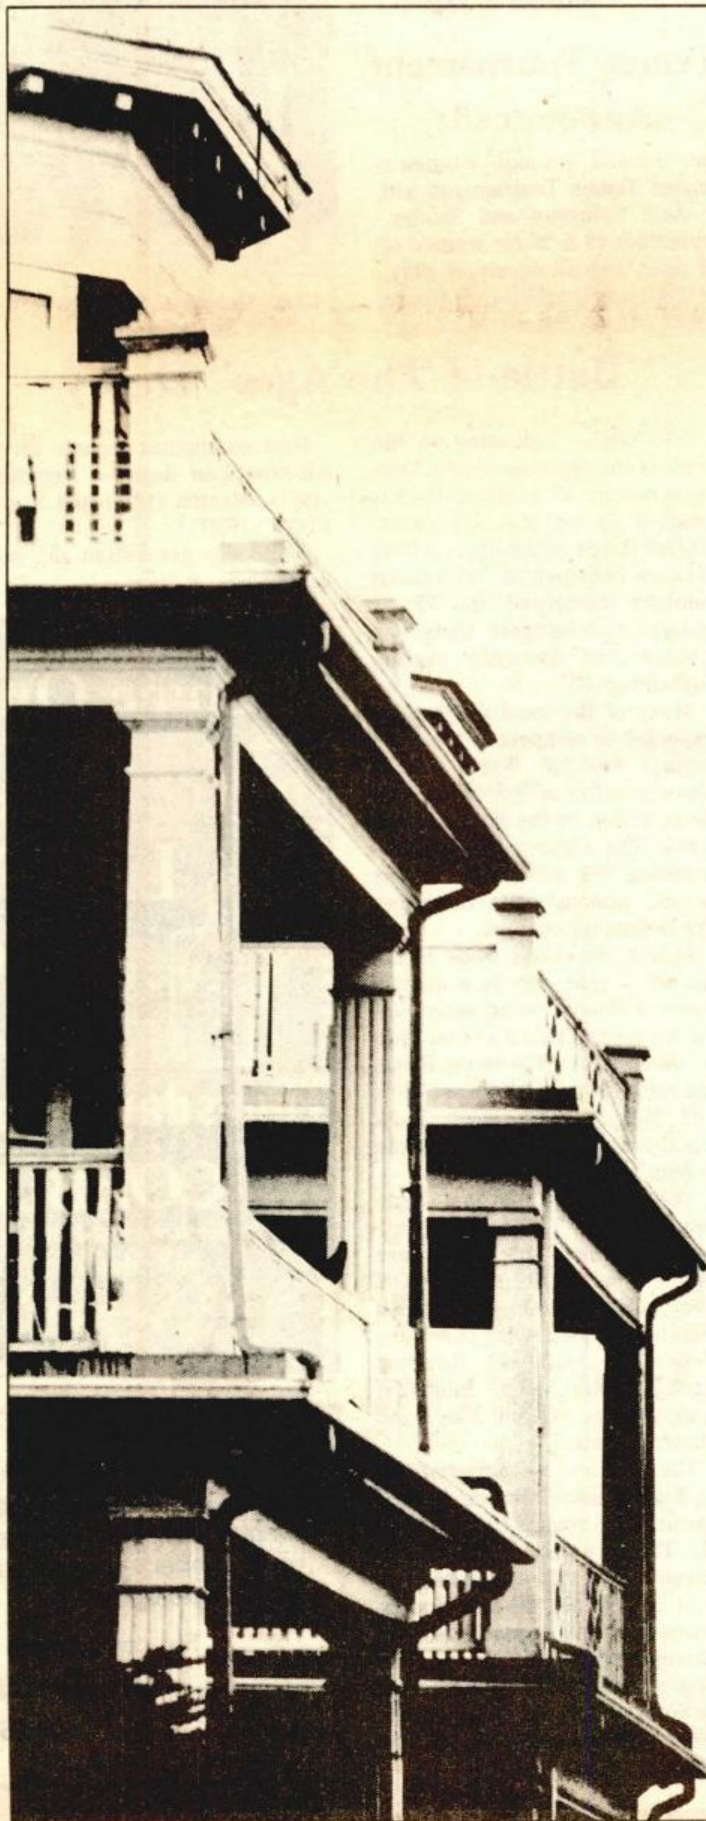

Pat and Anne you are two great people who this town can rely on when the need for the kids is there. To very volunteer who helped, I applaud you.

For every man, woman and child who donated their pennies, nickles, dimes and dollars. You were great champions.

To all my fellow member of C.A.R.H. (Charlestown Association for the Retarded and Handicapped); the helping hand of the Life Focus Center; for all your hours outside Johnnie's Food Master, selling chances; for all their sore feet, sore backs and nervous stomachs. I know, like myself, your reward was seen of the kids' faces Thursday night.

To Jack Millerick, Kevin O'Hallaron and his terrific staff. Your work with L.F.C.'s kids is like a light at the end of a tunnel, shining hope for everyone. Keep your light shining high and bright, for Charlestown stands with you.

With My Deepest gratitude,
Mary E. MacInnes

BRIAN HICKEY

Boston City Council

Dear Friends:

I want to thank all of you who attended my fundraiser last Wednesday evening at St. Catherine's Parish Hall. I think it is important for Charlestown to have the kind of representation that comes from actually living right in the community and understanding it's problems and it's people. You can give me that opportunity by voting number 34, BRIAN HICKEY, on September 22, 1981. Your vote will decide our future.

Sincerely,
BRIAN HICKEY

Number 34 on the ballot

Where's Boston?

Boston's more than what the tourists see. It's more than Copley Square and Quincy Market and the Fine Arts museum.

It's also neighborhood streets in Brighton and triple-deckers in Dorchester. It's people who work hard to survive and don't hang out in sidewalk cafes.

Students in the public schools are part of this other Boston. So are the people who teach in those schools.

The politicians say we don't count for much. They say the students are mostly minority now, so who gives a damn. They say teachers and paraprofessionals who have lived and worked in this community for 20 years or more can lump it when their jobs are wiped out.

It's time to tell the politicians they're wrong.

It's time to take a stand for our city and our schools.

Call the mayor at 725-5500. Tell him you care about Boston's schools. Your call now could make a difference.

Where's Boston!

BOSTON'S FUTURE IS IN ITS SCHOOLS...

BOSTON'S TEACHERS ARE FIGHTING FOR THAT FUTURE.

Patriots' Points Help Boys' And Girls' Club

As the New England Patriots officially kick-off the 1981 season against the Baltimore Colts on Sunday, they have already garnered $9,300 for The Boys' and Girls' Clubs of Boston.

In four pre-season exhibition games the Patriots scored 93 points against rivals. Every time the Patriots score a point it means $100 for the Boys' and Girls' Clubs of Boston, a non-profit organization of more than 5,000 youngsters.

Last season, the Patriots tallied 545 points against opponents which meant $54,500 for the Boys' and Girls' Clubs of Boston from Frito-Lay, maker of Lay's and Ruffles brand potato chips and Fritos brand corn chips. This is the sixth year that Frito-Lay has teamed with the Patriots in this worthy community project, according to Phil Thomas, Frito-Lay Division Sales Manager.

Over the past five seasons Frito-Lay has contributed $227,300 to the Boys' and Girls' Clubs of Boston for the total points scored by the Patriots.

Wayne Calloway, president of Frito-Lay, declared, "We began this program in 1976 in response to a need that the Greater Boston Community had to face. It proved to be such a gratifying

Tennis Tournament Announced

The Second Annual Women's Singles Tennis Tournament will be held Saturday and Sunday, September 19 & 20 for women of all ages and all levels of play. Entry fee will be $5. Call Claire at 242-3795 for details.

"Battle of The Ages" Derby

REVERE— Following on the heels of the most successful Derby in history, Wonderland Park is gearing up for the 10th annual $35,000 Battle of the Ages, pitting Juniors (whelped in '79) against Seniors (whelped in '78 or before), which gets underway Friday and Saturday nights, September 4-5.

Many of the local greyhounds expected to compete in the third annual $100,000 World Sprint Championship in November will be in action in the Battle of the Ages. The Juniors hold a commanding 7-2 advantage in the series, although the oldtimers are defending champs.

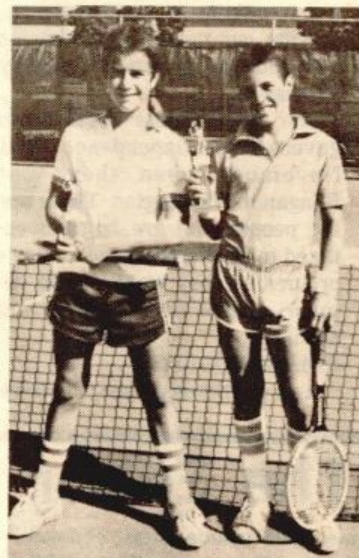

Skinny Beckner's Book Rack, winner a year ago as a Junior, paces a Senior squad which includes veterans such as Odd Happy. So C Jack C, Fly Apple, Running Rand, Misty Oaks, Fast Flow and Reigh Count. Book Rack could become the first two-time champ in the series.

The youngsters are, in a single word, loaded. Three of the four leading winners this season are at the head of the pack — OK Troy, Coasting On and Queen Dorene. Also supplying punch are Tennessee Anabel, Roaring Rookie, John Sloan, Intensify, King Gossip, Android Floyd and Marvy's Whiz.

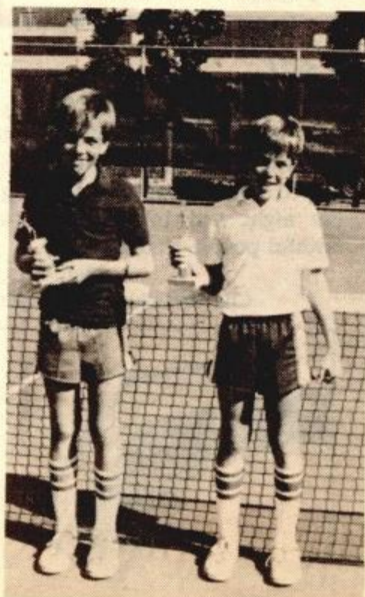

The field will be comprised of 16 dogs in each division for the opening two rounds (Sept. 4-5, 9-10). The top eight in each division advance to the semifinals on Sept. 15 and then the four leading scorers in each qualify for the championship final Sept. 19. Points throughout the series are awards according to complete order of finish on a 16-8-5-3-2-1-0-0 basis.

Winners Of Junior Doubles

On August 23 & 24 the Junior Doubles Tennis Tournament was held with twenty-four players participating in the event. Those attending were: Pat McGonagle, John Ferreira, Chris & Brian Heelen, Mike Collier, Derek Agri, Chris & Matt Shea, Kim Campbell, Shawn Hickey, Jamie & Jeff Connors, Danny Martell, Tommy Hickey, Greg Jarasitis, Bobby Howell, Matt Mahoney, Jimmy Hingston, Paul Shea, Greg Nolan, Danny Ryan, Bobby Yandle, Jamsie Cotter and Phil Doherty.

John Ferreira & Pat McGonagle First Place Winners

First Place Trophy was won by Pat McGonagle & John Ferreira, making some spectacular shots in a final match that pitted them against the steady, well-positioned play of Brian and Chris Heelen. Mike Collier and Derek Agri took Third Place Honors in a well-played Consolation Final against Jamie and Jeff Connors.

Appreciation goes to those who helped officiate: Danny Lane, Al Jarasitis and Paul Shea; to the players who very generously served as ball boys, in addition to Marty Kane and Sean Ridings; and finally, to all the parents, friends, neighbors and fans who attended the event.

THE CHALLENGE OF THE GENERATIONS:

It's youth vs. experience, as the old pros (three-year-olds) are out to prove they're still top dog—and the young pups (two-year-olds) are out to prove they're not.

At stake: A lot of pride, a lot of prestige... And $35,000.

Morgie Holds Back-to-College Sidewalk Sale

Morgie's second super Back-to-College Sidewalk Sales will teach some "concrete" lessons in staying in style while staying within a budget.

The sidewalk sale will take place Saturday, September 12, 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The location: Morgie's Boston store at 95 Berkeley Street, near the Green Line Arlington T Shop.

Morgie's Back-to-College Sidewalk Sale offers something for everyone, whether the customer lives in a dormitory, an apartment, a house, or a palace.

Furnishings and houseware bargains will include brand new mattresses and box springs along with pre-owned household linens, metal and wooden furniture, small appliances, bric-a-brac, books, and "antiques and uniques" for thrifty individualists.

The Back-to-College sales will also offer Morgie's complete line of fall fashions: the now famous Morgie's "designer" jeans, revamped corduroys, skirts, sweaters, blouses, shirts, and men's pants. Some of the clothes will be new; some will be recycled; but all will provide high fashion at low prices.

All proceeds from sales at Goodwill's Morgie's stores are used for the rehabilitation and employment of the handicapped at Morgan Memorial.

McDonald's Wins New England Contest

Courtesy and suggestive selling were the assets that won Charlestown's McDonald's 5th place out of 139 New England stores who competed in a recent Muppet promotional campaign sponsored by the McDonald's company.

Manager Tony Bright attributes the win to Charlestown girls Maureen Atkinson and Bridgette Curtin who were on duty during the last week of the contest when the "mystery shopper" (an unidentified McDonald's employee who rates a restaurant without notification to the manager) appeared in the Charlestown store and gave points to the store because of Bridgette's and Maureen's efforts to suggest fries with their customer's meals. Up until then the store had held 7th place.

"It was a whole store effort, kind of like a rally in the backroom when every day the girls would question each other to see if they remembered to make suggestions to the customers," said Bright who has managed the store since December. All the girls did well. Some were disappointed that the Mystery Shopper didn't "shop" while they were on duty."

Bright said this was the first award the Charlestown store has received since it opened four years ago.

As prizes, each of the employees will receive a Muppet bean bag. Managers of winning stores were awarded a trip to New York City for two. Bridgette and Maureen each received two muppets.

Hospice of Massachusetts, Inc. begins its fifth training program for volunteers on Sept. 21.

Volunteers from Charlestown are especially needed to serve in the community. The training program consists of lectures and group discussions. Meetings are held one evening a week for approximately two and one half hours for ten weeks.

Volunteer "Hospice Friends" provide emotional support for persons who are terminally ill, and can assist families to cope by providing them with "time off" from their caretaking duties.

Needs Volunteers

Small tasks such as shopping, baby sitting, transportation to appointments, etc. are important to maintain the quality of family life. The "friends" are also trained in communication skills which enable them to assist patients and families to deal with the issues of illness and death.

Those interested in applying to this program need to have a concern for people, a good listening ear, and a willingness to make a one year commitment. To obtain further information, or to make a referral, please write to Hospice of Mass., Inc., 91 Crest Avenue, Chelsea, MA 02150 or call 884-5281.

A great big THANK YOU to everyone who helped to make our second annual end of season cookout, baseball game, and awards ceremony such a huge success and a lot of fun.

A SPECIAL THANK YOU to all the men who unselfishly volunteered their time during the entire year, planning for the 1981 season. Without them as coaches, managers, umpires, and officers the season would not have been possible.

And last but not least the SPONSORS of our nine Babe Ruth teams. They were the foundation of our being able to have a Babe Ruth League.

CONGRATULATIONS to Mechanical Co-ordinators and their sponsor Joe Flaherty, this years Babe Ruth Champions, to John Settiani the recipient of the John Fitzpatrick Memorial award for "outstanding rookie player of the year," and to Darryl Locke, the recipient of the "most valuable player award" named in honor of the founder of Charlestown Babe Ruth League, George Locke.

stations may be doing NCPAC (National Conservative Political Action Committee) and conservatives in general a favor by turning down those anti-Kennedy Ads. Negative advertising may have worked last year on Frank Church, George McGovern and Co. but, probably, won't even dent Kennedy's electoral support!

Kennedy is still Kennedy and the way to beat him is with somebody. He is not unbeatable, no one really is. Ed Brooke certainly thought he was!

Sometimes, I wonder if the threat of Kennedy is being used by the New Right for fundraising purposes only — think about it!

QUOTE TO NOTE
"We Middle Americans must challenge the system. We must stand strong and tell politicians, bureaucrats and the Media, that we're fed up with the stupid, ridiculous and devious things they're doing to us, and working together on day at a time — By God We Will!"

— Joe Casper

PING PONG INTEGRATION?

In Texas to comply with a forced busing order, kid's names are called and then a ping pong ball is pulled from a barrel. A white ping pong means a school in a white neighborhood and a yellow one means a predominantly non-white neighborhood.

So, in the Lone Star State, a child's life is being decided by a lone ping pong ball!

POOPER SCOOPER

Word out of City Hall has it that the real reason one incumbent city councilor decided against running again was the fact she couldn't enforce her own pooper scooper law on the floor of the City Council Chamber! ACTUALLY THOUGH!

I hardly ever agreed with Rosemarie Sansone and think her Committee for Change pushing District Representation is a dumb idea but always thought she was a decent, hardworking councilor standing up for working people. She wasn't loud but got things done nevertheless. And she will be missed!

Sheehan Announces School Committee Candidacy

David F. Sheehan announces his candidacy for election to the Boston School Committee. David F. Sheehan is a graduate of Boston College, a veteran and a resident of Jamaica Plain.

David F. Sheehan is an educator with twenty years experience in teaching, counseling and administration. He is a recognized leader in his profession. He has the qualities of leadership and the qualifications necessary to bring about the changes so badly needed to restore confidence and trust in the Boston Public Schools.

Mr. Sheehan states, "One of my concerns for the Boston Public Schools is based on the burden to the taxpayer. As a taxpayer, I understand the value of your tax dollar. As a professional educator, I also understand the concerns of the parents and the students. In these troubled times, the key to restoring confidence in the school system is accountability. Where is our money being spent and what services are we receiving for those monies? The key to restoring trust is educational leadership. Who are the people running our schools and what are their qualifications?"

I assure the taxpayers of Boston that they will receive services equal to monies provided and they will deal with managers that are truly qualified to lead.

Although one out of nine families in the City of Boston has students in the schools, it is my firm belief that nine out of nine families want their money spent properly by the educational managers.

My role as a Boston School Committeeman is to insure that we have qualified leaders who will provide proper fiscal management. When this is accomplished we will be able to provide all the educational services necessary for a modern, urban school system.

As your representative and with your continuing assistance we will return excellence to the schools - excellence for which Boston has been renowned in the past."
