Dragon Link video slot machines is the Hold and Spin feature. Each game in this series offers this special feature, as it is not only a way to win some instant credits, but it could also be your ticket to a largejackpot payout. Here's how it works. Along with all of the normal symbols on the reels, coins can also appear bearing various numbers, or the names of one of the attached jackpots. Hit six or more of these on the screen at once, and you'll activate the Hold & Spin feature. Once you're in this round, you'll get a number of free spins, in which more coins could appear in other spots.
