

The structure of sickness

Big Pharma 'medicine', or 'allopathic medicine', is 100 percent a creation of the Archon bloodlines with the Rothschilds and Rockefellers once again to the fore. The American Medical Association (AMA) was launched in 1847 some 15 years after the British Medical Association (BMA) and others have followed throughout the world to hijack the treatment of sickness and disease. They are part of a global fascist pharmaceutical Mafia that includes the Rothschild-Rockefeller-created World Health Organization (WHO) that now dictates health policy to governments almost everywhere. But it is nothing more than a gangster's moll – like the Rothschild-Rockefeller-created World Trade Organization (WTO) – to focus control of entire areas of global policy like health and trade under one unelected, unaccountable roof. This allows the Rothschilds and Rockefellers, who own the 'roof', to dictate the policies on every continent just as they do through the Archontic banking cartel. The World Health Organization serves the interests of the Big Pharma cartel which owns the WHO and the same with corporations and banks with regard to the World Trade Organization. Governments do whatever these Rothschild-Rockefeller front operations tell them to do. I think they call it 'democracy' which is defined as 'the common people considered as the primary source of political power'. Excuse me a moment I am laughing so much I have to catch my breath. The American Medical Association (AMA) was given the task by its creators of controlling the medical schools and removing all influence of 'alternative' methods of healing which were in use long before the Rothschild-Rockefeller hijack of human health care. The AMA was funded by the Rockefeller family and Carnegie Foundation while John D Rockefeller founded the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research in 1901, the country's first institute for medical research, to promote Big Pharma medicine and it continues to do so today as the Rockefeller University. The war against alternatives to Big Pharma was led by Rothschild Zionist Abraham Flexner who was sent out to medical schools to report on their 'suitability' to teach on the basis of whether they taught alternative therapies. Flexner's Rothschild Zionist brother Simon Flexner led 'research' for the Rockefeller Institute from 1903 to the 1930s into the cause and prevention of disease. Abraham Flexner delivered his manipulated 'findings' in 1910 in The Flexner Report which demanded that American medical schools should only teach and research the protocols of mainstream science. The Rockefeller funded and orchestrated report also called for higher admission and graduation standards to sift out alternative thinkers. The Rockefeller-controlled American Medical Association even had a Propaganda Department, later known as the Investigations Department, to target, discredit and destroy alternative practitioners. One of its specialities, as it still is today, was arranging for anti-alterative articles and studies produced by 'safe' people to be published in major journals and reported by the national media. The media is always compliant because (a) 'journalists' have been through the same 'education' programming system and bought the pharmaceutical lie; (b) the mainstream media is owned by the same networks that own Big Pharma; and (c) a massive chunk of the media's advertising revenue comes from Big Pharma. This, ladies and gentlemen, is where your 'modern medicine' came from while John D Rockefeller, the oil tycoon and head of the family behind all this, was treated by his personal homeopath to the day he died at the age of 97 – a fantastic age at the time.

The other foundation of the health hijack was to introduce a system of licencing and this is used right across society today for almost everything. It goes like this: you introduce licencing for something and pass laws (through your bought-and-paid-for politicians) to say that you cannot do or practice so-and-so without a licence; and to get a licence you have to do it the way the licencing authority dictates (ultimately the Archon bloodlines). In this case, if you want to be a doctor you must be licenced and to be licenced you must only prescribe the scalpel and the drug. Anything else that is not officially approved and you will be struck off even if it works, no, make that especially if it works, because that would endanger the Big Pharma monopoly. They are using the same technique of licencing and all-powerful governing bodies to control alternative medicine today and dictate how it is practiced. What people have to appreciate if they are going to understand what Big Pharma medicine is all about is that it was created from the start and is run to this day by Archon bloodlines to serve Archon interests – the very Archons that have a deep hatred of humanity, want a massive cull of the population and seek to enslave us like pigs in a pen. That is the goal of Big Pharma medicine – not healing and wellness. Why would this Archontic system want to heal and benefit in any way its target human population? The system is designed to generate multiple billions every year for the pharmaceutical industry and on that level alone would people of this mentality want to reduce business by making people well when they make their daily fortunes from people being sick? The opposite is the case and so drugs have effects that they say require other drugs which have effects that require other drugs and the till just keeps on ticking as they develop new drugs and then invent the diseases and psychological conditions to justify their use (Fig 528). But money is still a by-product more than the main thrust of the game which is to drug body and mind, zombify the population and make a prime contribution to the mass human cull which I will explain later. Licensing, propaganda and manipulation saw a 50-percent reduction in medical school graduates by 1919 and the number of medical schools sharply declined. The Rockefeller fortune funded the schools that played ball, but not of course the homeopathic schools they wanted to destroy. Even the Hahnemann School in Philadelphia, named after the creator of homeopathy, Christian Friedrich Samuel Hahnemann, switched to teaching Big Pharma 'medicine'. Today the system is completely controlled by the Rothschild-Rockefeller networks and other Archontic sources through this recurring sequence: Would-be doctors must first go through the Archontic 'education' brainwashing to be thoroughly programmed with the system's version of reality and to confirm the extent of their programming by doing well in their exams; they then go on to Big Pharma-controlled medical schools where programming about the nature of the body is downloaded and intensified along with the belief that the only way to treat illness is the scalpel, the drug and the cemetery; they then go into doctors' surgeries and hospitals to 'treat' bodies they don't understand with drugs they are told to prescribe; if anyone rebels against this medical straightjacket the door is the next thing they see (the same with teachers, academics, mainstream scientists, lawyers and most journalists etc.). Doctors answer to their Archonticcontrolled professional bodies like the medical associations and medicine as a whole is policed in each country on behalf of Big Pharma by Big Pharma-controlled 'public protection' (Big Pharma protection) organisations like the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) and Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) in the United States. These agencies and governments in turn answer to the Rothschild-Rockefeller World Health Organization. This structure has been created entirely to serve the Archon agenda and 95 percent of those involved will have no idea that this is so or know an Archon from a colon. Mind, I can understand that because they are both full of shit.
