Don't wait for miracles to happen..create one! Jus imagine that in this universe..we are on a small spec or ball of dust and we are made up of two adjoining cells!! Isn't this a miracle already! So don't attach a purpose or goal or define success..then u will give urself a boundary...jus be the best of you every moment from now on..every day..every month ..and before u know it years would have passed and ur empire would be rich with life!!
