An Imperial Marriage

*His Imperial Majesty Kaiser BlueSylvaer and the Right Honourable Justitiaria, Baron von Batavien* and Hallowed Diplomat of the Benevolent Rex are engaged to be married*

Saturday, 10 November '18 – The Staatsminister is delighted to announce the engagement of the Kaiser BlueSylvaer to Baron Justitiaria.

The wedding ceremony will take place at an unannounced date during this November. It will be a closed ceremony with a minimal number of guests invited. It shall not be recorded nor reported. This has been decided in accordance to the couple's personal preferences. In legal terms the marriage is already in effect upon publication of this document, as the wedding itself will only serve ceremonial purposes.

Therefore, upon publication of this document, Baron Justitiaria shall be granted the title of Prinzgemahl, and shall henceforth take the style of His Imperial Highness Prinz Justitiaria, Baron von Batavien and Hallowed Diplomat of the Benevolent Rex, shortened to HIH the Prinz von Batavien. The Coat of Arms granted to him is shown in the figure below (figure 1).

The Coats of Arms it is derived from can be seen in Supplementary Figures (pages 3–4).

Supplementary Figures – The Coat of Arms granted to HIH the Prinz von Batavien are derived from the state Coats of Arms (figures 2–4) that reflect his heritage. The helm and shield are derived from Hallowed Coat of Arms, as is the Hallowed Cross shown on the top field. The eagles in the left and right fields represent his marriage to the Kaiser as well as his deep roots in the Hjaltilander Nation. The helm also bears a gilded version of the Iron Cross of the Hjaltilander Order. The white lion in the bottom field represent his Varkonian heritage, and the baron’s crown reflects his status as a Varkonian baron.
