

Embrace It

Courage can't be bought or taken
It's always inside us
We just need to embrace it
To be courageous is to stand tall
For what you believe
It means manning up
When you know you've done something wrong
Imagine how our world would be
If we all had the courage to do what we love
There would be no sad eyes on happy faces
There would be no need to pretend
Courage isn't something you show off
It's a part of us
Courage is the most important virtue
Because without courage,
We can't practice any other virtue
