Magazines:

ANDERSON, Martin. "Through the Looking Glass," Common Cause, July/August, 1988, excerpted from his book, Revolution. [Recounts the gutting of the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board in October 1985, when 11 members, including Anderson, were fired in a coup arranged by Anne Armstrong, chairman of the Board and political activist for George Bush, and William Casey, director of the Central Intelligence Agency, which action removed "one of the last effective checks on Casey and the intelligence community," according to Anderson.]

AVIRGAN, Tony. "Panama Contras?" The Nation, Sept. 18, 1989. [Note: Avirgan, along with Martha Honey (see citation this section under Columbia Journalism Review) researched the La Penca press conference bombing, which is recounted in Leslie Cockburn's book, Out of Control: The Reagan Administration's Secret War in Nicaragua. This article suggests the CIA has organized Nicaraguan contras and Panamanians in San José, Costa Rica, to begin sabotage and other military actions aimed at driving Panamanian Gen. Manuel Noriega from power.]

BARRON, John. "Was President Zia Murdered?" Reader's Digest, August 1989. [Raises the possibility of sabotage—and coverup—in the Aug. 17, 1988, plane crash that killed the Pakistani president. Note: Barron is identified in Freedom at Risk (see citation under Secrecy section) as having been exposed in 1977 in a New York Times series as hand-in-glove author for the CIA who frequently follows the CIA line in the Reader's Digest.]

BARTELL, James, SIEGEL, Elaine and PROFFIT, Phil. "The Drugging of America," Freedom, May/June, 1989.

CUMMINGS, John and VOLKMAN, Ernest. "Snowbound, U.S. Government's Secret Drug Deals," Penthouse, July 1989. First of a series.

DENIG, James L. "The Proposed Nicaragua Canal," Proceedings—United States Naval Institute, July 1939. [Thorough article on the need for a second canal linking the Pacific and Atlantic to serve United States' interests, with a definitive history of attempts by this country and other nations to build such a canal. Serves to put into new focus the preoccupation of the Reagan Administration on establishing a United States interest in Nicaragua.]

HOLZER, Erika. "Mike Ledeen Tells His Iran Arms Story,"

Conservative Digest, September, 1987. [See citation for "Alien Executive Orders" in Spotlight.]

HONEY, Martha. "Contra Coverage Paid for by the CIA," Columbia Journalism Review, March/April 1987.

MAHAR, Maggie. "Dirty Money: It Triggers Bold, New Attack in War on Drugs," Barron's, June 26, 1989. [Cf. Spotlight, March 27, 1989, cited below.]

PARRY, Robert and KORNBLUH, Peter. "Iran-contra's Untold Story," Foreign Affairs, Fall 1988.

SHARKEY, Jacqueline [Prof.]. "The Contra-Drug Tradeoff," Common Cause, September/October, 1988.

—— "Police Group [Interpol] Linked to Drug Trafficking, Torture," Freedom, May/June 1989. [Interpol honors Gen. Noriega for anti-drug efforts just a few months before Noriega was indicted by U.S. grand juries on drug charges.]

Newspapers:

BERES, Louis René [Prof.]. "Abducting Noriega and International Law," The Christian Science Monitor, Sept. 5, 1989. [Beres, who is professor of international relations and international law at Purdue University, says outright that President Bush should abandon any notions of abducting Noriega because such action would impair relations among sovereign states and undermine U.S. policy. Also appearing in this issue is a background article on the politics of President Bush's drug-war message.]

BISHOP, John. "U.S. Military Intervention to Oust Gen. Noriega Urged," Spotlight, June 19, 1989.

HOUGH, Warren and HARRER, James. "Reagan Followed Bad Advice in Denying Pardon for North," Spotlight, May 1, 1989.

HOUGH, Warren. "Rumors Drive Out Armitage," Spotlight, June 12, 1989.

HOUGH, Warren and NICHOLS, George. "Alien Executive Orders," Spotlight, June 19, 1989. [Suggests that Michael Ledeen, author of Perilous Statecraft, listed above, was an agent for the Israeli Secret Service, the Mossad, during the period he was the senior White House consultant to President Reagan for national security matters at the National Security Council; and a portion of approximately 150 NSC directives written during that period for Reagan's signature actually were authored by Ledeen. Also see Conservative Digest and Space-Gate listings.]

HOUGH, Warren. "Global Drug Cartels Linked to Spy Groups," Spotlight, Sept. 4, 1989.

HOUGH, Warren. "Israeli Government Gave OK to Train Latin Drug Assassins. Shocking Confession by Colonel," Spotlight, Sept. 11, 1989.

MANN, James and HARRER, James. "Banks Smuggle Drug Cash," Spotlight, March 27, 1989. [Cf. Barron's, June 26, 1989, cited above.]

MANN, Martin. "Alien-Trained Latin Assassins Murdered Covert U.S. Agents. Top Secret Report to the President," Spotlight, Sept. 25, 1989. [Says Israeli-trained cocaine-cartel hit men have killed more than a dozen undercover U.S. drug agents in Colombia since 1982 and that the CIA submitted a report to President Bush in mid-September 1989.]

SHARPE, Kenneth E. Article on dangerous precedents created in Iran-contra prosecutions, The Baltimore Sun, July 9, 1989.

——— Story on the Bush Administration considering use of the military, possibly commandos, against overseas drug lords in campaign against drug trafficking. The Miami Herald, June 9, 1989.

——— Profile on Robert M. Gates. The New York Times, July 2, 1989.

Other:

Contragate: The Men Behind the Guns, audiotope, $8. Account of the bombing at the La Penca press conference and its linkage to the "shadow CIA," from The Other America's Radio Station, Box 85, Santa Barbara, CA 93102.

Contragate: The Secret Team, two audiotapes, $13 for set. Lecture by Daniel Sheehan of the Christic Institute about thirty years of covert actions from the Bay of Pigs to military support of the contras, from The Other America's Radio Station, Box 85, Santa Barbara, CA 93102.

Courage Without Martyrdom: A Survival Guide for Whistleblowers, 52-page booklet published jointly by the Washington, D.C. organizations, Government Accountability Project and Project on Military Procurement.

A Nation Betrayed, videotape, $24.95 from P.O. Box 472, Sandy Valley, NV 89019. [Includes interview with Gen. Khun Sa as provided to the White House and the Senate Select Intelligence Committee.]

October Surprise, audiotope, $8. Report on the secret deals of the Reagan Administration to delay the release of the 52 hostages in Iran until after the inauguration of Reagan, from The Other America's Radio Station, Box 85, Santa Barbara, CA 93102.

The Secret Wars of the CIA, two audiotapes, $13 for set. Lecture by John Stockwell, former CIA executive who ran its Angola operation and author of In Search of Enemies, from The Other America's Radio Station, Box 85, Santa Barbara, CA 93102.

Note: The text makes reference to "Oberli" in such manner as to suggest that Oberli might be the name of the scribe.] Space-Gate: The Veil Removed (Association for Sananda and Sanat Kumara, 1989). Price not given. [Original manuscript did not properly identify sources. Also, certain sections were not representative of the caliber of writing associated with genuine beings of light. A peculiar listing of current writers in the UFO field contained the name of Michael A. Ledeen (see comments in Spotlight listing "Alien Executive Orders") was deleted from the published version. However, much of the overall information appeared to be valid, though the style of presentation and portions of commentary suggested the entity transmitting the material was seeking unduly to frighten the reader at times.]

MENZEL, Donald H. and BOYD, Lyle G. World of Flying Saucers (Doubleday, 19__). $4.95. [Menzel was Professor of Astrophysics at Harvard University. He is identified in the Moore-Friedman-Shandera Briefing Document for President Eisenhower, dated Nov. 18, 1952, as a member of MJ-12. Note: If he indeed was a member of MJ-12, the fact of his being an active UFO debunker in the 1950s takes on a conspiratorial cast. The presumed knowledge of an alien presence, with a treaty or compact negotiated later and the development of a working relationship with the aliens—while at the same time purveying false data to a public which relied on his credentials as an expert—qualifies Menzel as a traitor to all principles of academic integrity. The indicated sellout ranks as a prostitution of historic proportions. The magnitude of Menzel's apparent flim-flam can be shown by the respect he had among other writers in the 1950s, for instance Leonard C. Cramp, a member of the British Interplanetary Society, who wrote in his book, Space Gravity & the Flying Saucers: "No reasonably-minded person who has read the book (Flying Saucers) can fail to praise the author's sincerity and the meticulous thoroughness with which he has tackled the subject.... We must, of course, be on guard against hoaxers, but here we must pause and ask the Doctor [Menzel] whether, even allowing for his explanations to be correct in a high percentage of the cases, has he really sifted the evidence thoroughly, or is he, too, just a little biased?" (Italics added.) The polite professorial barb pierced even the high-blown reputation of Menzel and perhaps the title of Cramp's chapter dealing with Menzel was prophetic, "Mirage or Fact?"]

Magazines:

BISHOP, Jason III (a pseudonym). "The Dulce Base," UFO, July/August, 1989. [Story about aliens operating out of a New Mexico base which at one time was the scene of a confrontation with U.S. Special Forces. In preface to the article, the magazine cautions readers that it "does not endorse the following information and urges readers to use skepticism when assessing reports of this nature."]

COOPER, Vicki. "Forum: Going Underground," UFO, May/June 1989. [Decries "titillating rumors" about evil aliens and underground bases and unsubstantiated shocking stories about UFOs, suggesting there might be those who are secretly trying to impress terroristic propaganda on a vulnerable public.]

Emergence! A Journal for the Golden Age, Vol. 1, Nos. 1 and 2, Light Technology Communication Services, 305 Oak Creek Blvd., Sedona, AZ 86336. [Excellent articles (channeled) about the interdimensional aspects involving "alien" interaction with terrestrial governments and individuals and provides a rational perspective for UFO phenomena.]

JEFFERSON, David J. "I'm Not an Alien But I Have Played One on Reality TV. NBC's Unsolved Mysteries Hopes People Love to See Eerier Enigmas of Life," The Wall Street Journal, Sept. 18, 1989. Page 1. [Story tells of the Roswell, New Mexico, incident on July 8, 1947, and quotes the public relations officer at the time of the event, Walter G. Haut, who also appeared on the show, as saying: "I could see covering this up in 1947. You would have had panic.... But the population is intelligent enough to handle this now." The Journal wrote that when the wreckage and the bodies of four aliens were found, Haut issued a press release saying that a flying saucer had been captured on a local ranch; but later a second release was issued saying that a weather balloon had crashed. (Cf. the Briefing Document for President Eisenhower dated Nov. 10, 1952, which stated that civilian and military witnesses in the area were "debriefed" and news reporters were given the "effective cover story" that the object had been a mis-guided weather research balloon.") Haut was quoted by the Journal as saying he hoped his interview on "Unsolved Mysteries" would prod the government "to come clean" about the alien encounter but that he had concerns about how the interviews will appear to the public, perhaps making those who participated in the recreation of the incident for TV appear as "a bunch of absolute idiots."]
