LET KATE COFFEY REAL ESTATE PUT A SOLD SIGN ON YOUR HOUSE THIS SPRING

1992 was rumored to be a very bad year for real estate in the Northeast. However, as you have read here this month, some of our colleagues had an active year. Kate Coffey Real Estate had a RECORD-BREAKING year! We won't bore you with the details except to say we were instrumental in the sale of more than $5,400,000 of buildings, homes and condominiums in 1992. We also collected over $55,000 in first month's rents for Charlestown landlords.

1993 has started with a bang for Kate Coffey Real Estate. We have closed or put under agreement several important properties including a two-family building for $224,000 and a single-family house for $345,000. Because we expect this year to be even more active than last year, we have expanded our staff, welcoming Ann Hanssens and Linda Smith as sales associates in recent months. Our goal is to provide Charlestown's property owners and landlords with the fastest, least disruptive and most lucrative real estate services possible.

Many property owners have delayed listing their buildings for sale until the real estate market improves. THE TIME IS NOW! Let the professionals at Kate Coffey Real Estate handle the sale and rental of your property. Our record speaks for itself! We pledge to make the process hassle-free and profitable.

Buyers who have waited for property prices and interest rates to hit rock bottom should ACT NOW! Opportunities to own most affordably abound. Let us show you all the properties listed by any firm in Charlestown that suit you. We have access even to other real estate companies' exclusive listings and we are experts in explaining the buying process from soup to nuts. Make buying the perfect house or condominium a pleasant and informative experience with us.

Call Darcy Schramn, Ann Hanssens, Linda Smith or Kate Coffey.

Hepatitis 'A' Cases Confirmed In Charlestown

Dr. Anita Barry, Boston's communicable disease control officer, has issued a public advisory to Charlestown residents concerning hepatitis A. Recently, five cases of hepatitis A, including four children, have been confirmed in Charlestown and another five suspected cases reported.

"Hepatitis is an inflammation of the liver which can be caused by viruses," said Dr. Barry. Hepatitis A, which used to be called infectious hepatitis, is common among children and adolescents. One out of every two Americans by age 50 will have had hepatitis A. Usually, it is a mild infection which will run its course in several weeks, and over 95 percent of cases recover fully. Once an individual has acquired hepatitis A, the person is usually immune from future episodes.'

Symptoms of hepatitis A can appear 15 to 50 days after exposure but, if they appear at all, tend to do so at around 28 to 30 days. Initial signs and symptoms include: fever, headache, muscle aches, loss of appetite and itchy rash. After a few days these may worsen to include nausea, vomiting, abdominal and joint pains, bad breath and a bitter taste in the mouth.

Hepatitis A virus is found primarily in the stool of the person with hepatitis A, and it is commonly transmitted when contaminated hands, food or water reach the mouth and the virus is swallowed (fecal-oral transmission). A case is contagious up to two weeks before and one week after the onset of symptoms.

There is no cure for hepatitis A. Prevention is the key. Good personal hygiene, particularly in households with young children in day-care settings is criti-

Wheeler To Present Program On A Kayak Odyssey

Charlestown resident Richard Wheeler will present a program on his kayak odyssey, following the migration of the Great Auk from Newfoundland to Buzzards Bay. The event, sponsored by the Charlestown Preservation Society, will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Feb. 3 in the Preble Room, Building 5, in the National Historical Park section of the Charlestown Navy Yard.

Wheeler became interested in the Great Auk after reading Farley Mowat's description of their demise in Sea of Slaughter. Early fishermen venturing to North America found these comical, flightless birds so abundant that they simply rounded them up, slaughtered them and used them as a plentiful - seemingly endless - food source.

The Great Auk was a flightless sea bird which could dive to 300 feet below the ocean surface and "fly" underwater similar to a penguin. Growing up to 30 inches tall and weighing as much as 15 pounds, the Great Auk would mate for life. The birds had some natural predators but since it lived and bred on remote offshore islands, they were relatively safe.

However, by the mid-18th century, there were already warnings of their extinction. When the New England mattress industry discovered this easily captured source of feathers, they drove the bird out of existence. Wheeler claims this is the first bird species whose extinction has been documented and is therefore a valuable teaching resource.

Wheeler, a Harvardtrained educator who was director of the USS Constitution Museum, feels that the extinction of the Auk is indicative of humankind's treatment of other species. By tracing the route of the bird's migration, he came in contact with fishermen along the coast of the Canadian Maritime provinces and northern New England. Many of them complained of overfishing and the virtual extinction of many

BEWARE OF H.O.

What is "H.O."? It's your home's equivalent of B.O., and if you're trying to sell, it could cost you a lot of money!

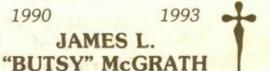

It could be the family room that smells like an all-night poker game, or the aroma of an unaltered cat that marks old Felix's territory. The important thing is to remove the root cause rather than just treating the symptoms. No amount of room freshener or vanilla on the light bulbs can mask a serious odor problem, and the sense of smell has a powerful effect on the way people react when they enter your home. We've seen homes sit on the market unsold for months, or sell for thousands of dollars less than comparable homes in the neighborhood. If you think you might have a problem, have a frank conversation with your Realtor. He or she can offer some constructive suggestions and perhaps refer you to a professional who can help ban H.O. from

Public Safety Committee Meeting

The Public Safety/Police Community Relations Committee will meet with the Community Relations Officer of Area A of the Boston Police Department on Tuesday, Feb. 9 at 7 p.m. at the Kent Community Center, 50 Bunker Hill

The council meetings are open to the public, and all are welcome to attend.

* Winthrop Street . . . Residents of the Winthrop Street-Training Field neighborhood attended a meeting on Jan. 26 where representatives of the Boston Redevelopment Authority and its consultant, Bryant Associates Inc., outlined the preliminary design plans for the reconstruction of Winthrop Street.

Plans call for the installation of a new asphalt street, cement sidewalks with a row of bricks to indicate the Freedom Trail, gas lights and trees. It is expected that the contract will be ready in June and the street reconstruction would begin in July and continue for three

Some of the homes in the area have coal chutes which will have to be checked out. If the owner wants to abandon the chute, it will be sealed up and supported by the contractor.

Peter Looney, community liaison for the BRA on the street contracts, said that the BRA will coordinate the replacement of lead water pipes with the residents. It was noted that lead pipes from the street to the property line will be replaced by the contractor

Friends And Family Gather At The K. Of C. In Support Of The Cunha Family

THE CUNHA FAMILY were guests of honor at a benefit dance on Jan. 23 at the Knights of Columbus Hall. Fire struck their Bunker Hill Street home several days before Christmas, destroying the top floor of the dwelling. Friends and family joined together for the benefit, offering their moral and financial support to the Cunhas as they begin to rebuild their home. TOP ROW: At the left, organizers of the benefit, Peter Looney,

Recycling Block Captain Volunteers Needed

Last year, a group of Charlestown residents joined the Boston Public Works Department and declared war on waste. Since then, they have helped build a civilian army of recycling block captains whose forces number in the hundreds. Volunteers provide information to their neighbors on their block. Block captains are involved by speaking with their neighbors about recycling and by posting signs or flyers in their community.

You may have already received recycling information from a block captain. If so, please take advantage of this vital resource. If you cannot recall any such information arriving at your address that means nobody is covering your block, so call and join our team.

It's Coming . . .

Sunday,

February 7!

Remember, just because you know that recycling protects our environment, saves trees and cuts down on the amount of trash you drag out every week, doesn't mean that your neighbors do. If your area isn't being covered by our forces, we need you!

So, give a few hours this year and help your community recycle.

When Skating Rinks Were Only Dreams

by Charlie McGonagle

"You mean you really had to get up to change the channel, Dad?"

I'm not certain that we've come to that point as yet, but the day of manual channel changing will soon be listed as extinct along with dinosaurs and hula hoops.

Another thing that seems to have been branded with the hot iron of extinction is the flooded ball park. They existed, of course, before the skating rink, and they were another one of those "creations born of necessity."

Games such as half ball, scrub, steps, moonshine, polly, Boston American, ring relievio, blacksmith and buck-buck were played on the streets of the inner city because they could be played on the streets of the inner city. We did not have golf courses and we did not have tennis courts, nor did we have cars to get us to these places. We played the street games, and because we had never tested the adventures of our suburban counterparts, we enjoyed them without knowing we might be missing something.

Such was the case with the flooded ball parks. Until I was in high school, I never played hockey on a rink, but I played for many, many hours on the frozen surfaces of flooded parks, most notably the "neck" and the "oily."

Of the two, the "oily" was a personal favorite because that is where those I knew best spent many of their free winter hours.

Each year, shortly after being flooded, mother nature would intervene and touch her cold hand upon the waters. Ice formed quickly for the area was not overly large, and the early winter skaters would test its strength. Often this test resulted in an unexpected, wintery "dip," the efforts of which were felt even long after cold, wet clothing was replaced with those of the warmer, dry variety.

Soon, though, winter's grip would create a solid surface, and scores of enthusiasts would wipe a year's gathering of dust from their skates and begin to skim over a field which only a few short months before had been filled with baseball players.

While the girls cut neat "figure eights" on the newly frozen face of the "oily's" ice, the boys laid out boots and jackets and anything else that may be handy in order to set up their hockey goals. It was not unusual to see seven or eight hockey games going on at any given time, and for those who arrived too late to be part of a game, slapping a puck against the baseball backstop provided a much-enjoyed diversion while awaiting an opening in any of the ongoing contests.

The games would go on until dark, with only those closest to the area's only street light continuing a bit longer.

There was no music to skate by, there was no sign indicating that this hour was for "hockey only," or for "couples only," but for certain there was an invisible, but definite message which was clearly understood by all those who skated on the "oily" and other flooded parks.

It said simply "FUN ONLY."

The darkness of night brought another picture to the surface of the "oily's" ice. The hockey players of the daytime were replaced by skaters, usually couples. It was a fine place to take your favorite girl for a couple of hours of outdoor enjoyment before heading off to Joe's for a pizza or the the Waldorf for a cup of hot chocolate.

The ice was best, of course, when a deep freeze would set in quickly overnight, leaving a mirror-like smoothness for the morning skaters. Often, though, snow would fall covering the ice, making skating of any kind virtually impossible. However, snow was but a temporary obstacle to the hockey players and, in a way, it was welcomed by them.

Shovels were carried along with the familiar hockey sticks and, in very little time, an area was cleared for a brisk game. The snow situation proved to be beneficial to the players, for when shoveled aside, the piled snow stopped errant pucks from skidding across the ice to the makeshift arenas upon which others played their games.

It was sometime in the sixties, maybe the middle part of that decade, when the new skating rink was built and, for a while, I thought it a great idea. However, the first time I donned the old Planets to skate the surface of the new rink, I realized many things. First of all, everybody skated in the same direction. It was a rule. No hockey could be played when the area was designated for "public skating," and groups of eight or 10 could no longer "crack the whip."

Rink skating was very much unlike the skating which took place at the "oily" and other flooded parks. With the rinks, regimentation set in and the freestyle, wreckless abandon we knew at the park was quickly disappearing.

Soon, too, would the flooded, frozen park disappear, and we would be left to visit these wonderful, fun-filled arenas of our youthful days only by closing our eyes and carefully viewing the pictures that had so delicately been etched in our memories.

CHAD Junior Bowling League

by John Dillon

The second week of the second half of the CHarlestown Against Drugs (CHAD) Junior Bowling League ended with some interesting matches.

Kathleen Lynch, anchoring the American Legion team, blasted the Nucci team out of first place. The Crickets, backed by Phil O'Neil, Nicole Lane, Andrea Webber and Kelly Gouthro, took the Charlestown Patriot team for six.

The Cappucci team confiscated eight points from the B&B Oil team, while the Bunker Hill Real Estate team cruised to a 6-2 win over the Kennedy Center team. Lori-Ann's and Erins split 4-4. Kevin McCusker had a good day, bowling 20 pins over his average. Taylor Halley held his steady average. Tom DeRosa had a great day, bowling 30 pins over his average, and Mc-Kenzie Ridings had a nice day helping her team split.

This week, there were three top bowlers: Amy Capithorn recorded 40 pins over her average, Meghan Buckley bowled 38 pins over her average and Nicole Marino's record was 35 pins over her average. Nice going, bowlers!

This week will be the last week for measuring for bowling jackets. There will be jackets at the bowling alley for the players to try on. See you all on Saturday.

Members Of The Celtics Are Coming To The Edwards

Charles McAfee, principal, is pleased to announce a "Stay In School Assembly" hosted by the Boston Celtics, McDonald's and the Sports Museum. It will be held at the Edwards Middle School on Wednesday, Feb. 3. Students will have the opportunity to meet and hear members of the Celtics.

Team members will stress the importance of staying in school. The theme of the assembly will be P.R.I.D.E.

Positive Mental Attitude

R - Respect

I - Intelligent Choices D - Dreaming Dreams E - Effort in Education

Special attention will be given to those students who have perfect attendance. For the first term approximately 230 students achieved perfect attendance. They were recognized and given a pass for a free "V.I.P." meal at McDonald's by our McDonald's partner Bob King and his assistant Kathy Pothier. King is the owneroperator of the McDonald's located at Twin City Plaza, at the Children's Museum, and in Saugus and Woburn.

The Edwards looks forward to this assembly with great anticipation. The school faculty and students are grateful to have been selected as a site for this assembly and thank Cynthia Goff of the Sports Museum for her work in setting it up. It will be a wonderful and exciting experience for the students.

BOB D'S BEAT

by Bob DeCristoforo

- Hall of Fame Bound . . . Father Ron Coyne will be inducted into the newly created CYO Hall of Fame on Saturday, Feb. 27 at a dinner to be held at Lombardo's in Randolph. The honor is very well deserved. Tickets are available for this very special event and are priced at $30 per person and $50 per couple. They can be purchased by calling Kevin Lally at 268-0536.
- Workshop Success . . . I had an opportunity to attend two very good workshops in Charlestown during the week. One was hosted by CHAD and the other by the Charlestown Teen Connection. Both dealt with the topics of Drug and Alcohol abuse among teens and the presenters were excellent. Too bad more people didn't take the time to attend. Congratulations to the organizers and those who did attend.
- Lori Burke . . . "Congratulations! It is my distinct pleasure to inform you of your acceptance in the 1993 World-Scholar-Athlete Games as a scholar-volleyball player," said the letter.

Lori, a student-athlete at Matignon High School, will represent Charlestown at the World-Scholar-Athlete Games to be held in Newport, R.I. in July.

Students from all over the world representing more than 100 countries and all 50 states will participate. The goal of the games is to exemplify the importance of good future leaders.

Lori hopes to raise some money for the trip through community support.

College Board . . . Northeastern was defeated twice over the weekend by UMass-Lowell, 5-3 and 8-5. Todd Fisher saw some action in the 8-5 game. Northeastern trails Lowell by two points in the Hockey East home playoff ice race.

The Huskies play Harvard in Monday's Beanpot opener at Boston Garden.

Pro Line . . . Keith Tkachuk, (15 goals, 11 assists, 26 points) and the Winnipeg Jets visit Boston Garden tonight in a 7:35 p.m. game.

Tom Fitzgerald, (six goals, 14 assists, 20 points) had a nice goal versus the Bruins. The Islanders enter the week at 21-22-5 record, for a total of 47 points.

In a big AHL game on Saturday, Capitol District defeated Providence 5-3.

■ High School Notebook . . . Longtime Charlestown High supporter, Walter Suprey, was in the stands as Charlestown knocked rival South Boston from the unbeaten ranks in a superbly played game.

Josh Smith had a hat trick for the Townies and Keith Wallace and Jimmy Gillen had a goal and two assists each as Charlestown rolled to a 5-0 win. Greg Staples and netminder Dan Dollosa were exceptional. When was the last Charlestown-Southie shutout? Charlestown did have some trouble during the week, falling to Latin Academy 8-4.

Don Bosco Tournament hopes are getting dim. The Bears were defeated by St. John's Prep 5-2 and Catholic Memorial 6-1. B.C. High split their week's hockey activities, losing to St. John's 2-1, but topping Xaverian 7-5. Malden Catholic remains in the top spot in the Catholic Conference at 4-0-1. The Lancers scored with a little over a minute in the game to tie

In Dual County action, Boston Latin pounded Bedford 13-3. Mark Chardavoyne, (12 goals, 14 assists, 26 points) is one of the league's top scorers.

Over in the City League, Snowden defeated Madison Park 5-2 and Hyde Park 3-2. Jamie Carroll, (two goals, one assist) and Mike Marsden (one goal) accounted for all the scoring in the Hyde Park win. Snowden is in first place in the Boston-South division and Carroll has increased his season totals to 11 goals and eight assists for 19 points.

On the basketball court, Don Bosco was defeated by Malden. Jonathan Owens had 19 points, but Somerville was defeated by Waltham 54-51. Lincoln-Sudbury stopped Boston Latin 75-64 and Charlestown was defeated by Madison Park.

Checking the stats, Jamie Smith is one of the top scorers in the Dual County league, averaging 20 points per game, and Corey Gallagher's 20.6 average places her sixth among the top 10 scorers in the state.

Tidbits . .

Birthday best to Jennifer Ray and a belated Happy Birthday to Tommy Whelan.

- Is Dave Burns moving to Saugus?

- We missed Stephanie Ward at Mike Collins' hockey game on Saturday.

— Is Brian Lacey taking a babysitting course? Postscript . . . Catholic Education took another big blow during the week. The closing of Dom Savio High School is another tragedy that will be felt more and more as time goes on. Someone better wake up. Have A Good Week — Be Considerate!

Too much of a good thing?

by Father Ron Coyne

- Archdiocesan CYO Sports Hall of Fame Banquet —
 The Archdiocesan CYO will hold its first Sports Hall of Fame Banquet at Lombardo's in Randolph on Saturday, Feb.
 27 with a social hour at 6 p.m. and dinner at 7:30 p.m.
 All former CYO members and those who played CYO sports from the three Charlestown parishes are invited. For more information, call Kevin Lally at 268-0536 or Michael Kerr at 469-5514.
- Eighth-Grade Boys Olympics On Wednesday, Feb. 17, St. Catherine's will enter the CYO Junior Olympics at West Roxbury High School. The bus will leave St. Catherine's at 8:30 a.m. and 15 parishes will compete from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. in volleyball, basketball, gym hockey, water basketball, relays, etc. All eighth-grade boys from Charlestown are invited to participate.
- St. Catherine's sponsors this annual event and so high school students are needed to referee, keep score and keep time.

Any eighth-grade boy interested in competing or high school student willing to referee, etc. is asked to please call Father Coyne at 242-1750.

The Eighth-Grade Girls Olympics will be held in April.

 Adult Lipsynch — The parish is sponsoring a fun-filled night on Saturday, March 6 which will feature you, your neighbors or your friends performing their favorite songs, fantasizing about being a star and using their originality and creativity to win prizes.

With lipsynch, a song is played and you, as an individual or in a group, act out and pantomime to the music and the words. You don't sing anything yourself. You can dress in the costumes of the actual group, use makeup, wigs, etc. You can use props. We can actually make Cher, The Supremes, the Righteous Brothers, the Beatles, etc. present in our hall

The acts will be judged on appearance, originality and lipsynch, and prizes will be awarded. We hope to have 20 acts performing that will present a wonderful evening of entertainment for the people of the community.

This is the opportunity of a lifetime, and we would love to see you become a pioneer in this first lipsynch. Talk to your friends, choose a song, practice and use your imagination.

Obviously, we hope to fill the hall with an audience of your friends and neighbors. For more information or to register an act, please call Father Coyne at 242-1750, Mary Featherston at 242-1750 or Lori Murphy at 241-9766. Admission will be $2.

• Catholic School Week - All Catholic schools throughout the Archdiocese will be celebrating Catholic Schools Week from Sunday, Jan. 31 through Saturday, Feb. 6. Throughout the week, we will be taking part in various activities and programs that highlight the advantages of a Catholic education. All students in grades 6 through 8 will also form teams to compete in their own Family Feud which will be watched by the rest of the student body. Registration for the new Charlestown Catholic Elementary School will take place throughout the week. We will celebrate our Catholic Schools Mass on Friday, Feb. 5 at 9 a.m. in the lower church, and we encourage all families to join us.

- The Singing Priests Come To Charlestown We are proud to announce that on Sunday, March 14, the Singing Priests will be putting on a show to benefit St. Catherine's Parish. The Singing Priests are priests from the Archdiocese of Boston who average 10 concerts a year. They recently appeared on the Tom Bergeron Show, "People Are Talking," and were so well received that the show has been replayed. Our concert will be performed at the Charlestown High School Auditorium on Sunday, March 14 from 3 to 5 p.m. This is a special St. Patrick's Day show which will feature comedy, solos, sing-a-longs and all sorts of antics.
- "Atlantic City, Here We Come" . . . Again St. Catherine's will sponsor another great trip to Atlantic City via deluxe motor coach to Bally's Grand from 7 a.m. on Wednesday, March 31 through 8 p.m. on Friday, April 2. The cost is $109 per person, double occupancy, with a $15 casino bonus. A $50 deposit left at the rectory will reserve a spot. Checks should be made payable to St. Catherine's. No seat will be reserved without a down payment. The trip will be limited to 46. For more information, call Sandra at 242-9612.
- St. Catherine's Color Guards To Appear At Charlestown High School St. Catherine's "Townies" and "Little Townies" Color Guards will host an Eastern Mass. Color Guard Show at Charlestown High School on Sunday, Feb. 7, beginning at 1 p.m.

We invite and welcome all family, friends and neighbors to join us for this outstanding competition. There will be hundreds of children and teen-agers from in and around Boston competing. This is a wonderful opportunity for our town to show their appreciation to the young girls from our community who give so much of themselves to represent Charlestown each week. Tickets will be sold at the door.

We thank all the management, instructors and parents for all the hard work they will be doing to prepare the high school for this incredible event. St. Catherine's Sleepover A Success

Year number two was another success for the St. Catherine's sleepover, thanks to the enthusiasm and stamina of the adult and teenage chaperones. Fiftyfive kids attended the Jan. 17 sleepover in St. Catherine's hall. There was cold pizza (which is becoming a sleepover tradition) and fried dough (made on the spot by Mary Rizzo). They also made crafts and played games. It was a fun evening and morning for all who attended.

A special thanks goes to the Recycling Center at the Harvard-Kent School. Pat Rooney provided materials for crafts.

Thank you to the chaperones who gave up their vacation night for the kids. The wide-awake volunteers were: Nancy Flynn, Marianne Lacey, Jim Mansfield, Mary Rizzo, Fran Taylor, Rosetta Cannizzaro, Gordon D'Ambrosio, Nicole DeRoeve, Desiree Eatherton, Katie Farrell, Beth Golden, Lauren Hickey, Paula Hickey, Dave Hurley, Christine Poole, Linda Rizzo and Greg Staples.

Free Health Screening For Seniors

The city of Boston's Commission on Affairs of the Elderly is offering free health screenings and health education programs to Charlestown residents 60 years and older.

A blood pressure screening program will be held on Tuesday, Feb. 2 from 10 a.m. to noon at the Constitution Co-op Apartments, 42 Park St., Charlestown.

Free Admission For Senior Citizens At The New England Aquarium

Explore the fascinating world of water as well as one of Boston's most popular attractions free. The New England Aquarium awards "Sea-niority" to senior citizens 60 and older on Mondays from noon to 4:30 p.m. now through May 24. Simply present valid identification for free admission to all exhibits and galleries at the aquarium.

While at the aquarium, learn how to distinguish a blackfooted penguin from a rockhopper penguin. Compare the animals and habitats of the Amazon and Connecticut rivers. See the newest exhibit "Catch Some Rays" and touch cownose rays as they gracefully "fly" underwater. Take a stroll around the Giant Ocean Tank or pick up a wriggling horseshoe crab in the "Edge of the Sea" exhibit. Whether you're watching a film in the aquarium's auditorium, or testing your knowledge of Boston Harbor, there is always something new to see and do at the aquarium.

Take advantage of this limited time free admission program for senior citizens. Groups of 15 or more are welcome. However, reservations are required and groups will be charged a discount rate. Group reservations may be made by calling 973-5206. For aquarium hours and directions, please call 973-5200.

Brown Bag Bookies To Meet

Brown Bag Bookies, the adult book discussion group of the Charlestown Branch Library, will meet on Tuesday, Feb. 9 at noon at the library, 179 Main St.

The book under discussion will be Born For Liberty: A History Of Women In America by Sara M. Evans. According to Linda Kerber of the American Studies Association, "Born For Liberty is a splendid book, written so gracefully that it is easy to underestimate the deep knowledge on which it rests. This is a powerful new work in the fastestgrowing field of history, making new research accessible to the general reader and students. It is an important book for all who wish to understand the changing experience of American women."

Participants are invited to bring their lunches, and new members are always welcome.

Black History Month Celebration At Bunker Hill Community College

Dr. Betty Shabbazz, the widow of civil-and humanrights leader Malcolm X, will deliver the keynote address of the observance of Black History Month at Bunker Hill Community College (BHCC) in Charlestown. She will speak on Wednesday, Feb. 3 at noon in the auditorium.

Shabbazz will talk about her life with her late husband and will be available for questions from the audience following her address. Shabbazz, who is one of 75 women profiled in the book "I Dream a World: Portrait of Black Women Who Changed America," is a recipient of the Frederick Douglas Award, the highest given by the New York Urban League. She is also a much-in-demand speaker on the lecture circuit addressing such issues as racism and affirmative action, and the status of blacks and women in today's society. All during February, an art exhibit entitled "Tribal Art" will be in the gallery and an opening ceremony will be held on Tuesday, Feb. 9 at 12:30 p.m.

Dr. Patrick Giantonio will be the guest speaker on Thursday, Feb. 18 at 12:30 p.m. in the auditorium. Gi-antonio will discuss how he literally walked across Africa from 1984 to 1989. His journey covered over 4,000 miles, crossing Kenya, Tanzania, Zaire, Ewanda, Central-African Republic and Cameron following close to the equator. He spent nights in villages along the road, sometimes stopping for days at a time. In the villages, he ate gazelle meat and drank palm wine.

What had started out as a journey to draw attention to hunger in Africa quickly became a cultural and personal lesson for Giantonio. His multi-media presentation includes hundreds of his own photographs as well as a soundtrack and narra-

John Patterson will start a two-day residence on campus on Feb. 24, and will conduct his one-man show on Feb. 25 at 12:30 p.m. in the auditorium. Patterson lifts poetry off the page and brings it to life in a way which has captivated young audiences throughout the country.

Also scheduled is a dancing performance by students of Project Concern.

Other events will in include films, lectures, music, a food festival and workshops.

Children's Hour At The Kennedy Library

On Saturday, Jan. 30 at 10:30 a.m., the John F. Kennedy Library is proud to present Underground Railway Theatre's "Are You Ready, My Sister?" as part of its 1992-93 Children's Hour series. This is the exciting story of Harriet Tubman and her role in the Underground Railroad, and the Quaker women who helped her bring 300 fugitives to freedom. The story features audience participation, dramatic scenes and live music based on spirituals of the slave era. This Children's Hour is recommended for children 6 and older.

Thank You

Dear Gloria,

I wish to thank all my friends for the many cards, phone calls and gifts I received while I was ill in Florida. I'm coming along fine and am still under the doctor's care.

Thank you, Dorothy Tomkewicz 5501 21st Ave. South Gulfport, Florida

With Sincere Appreciation

Tha board and members of St. Catherine's Food Pantry would like to express their sincere appreciation for the tremendous donations received for Thanksgiving. Project Bread gave the initial grant to start the program that serviced 130 families at Thanksgiving.

Our thanks to the parishioners and students of St. Francis de Sales, the parishioners and students of St. Catherine's, St. John's Episcopal Church, the First Church in Charlestown, St. Mary's Parish, Johnnie's Foodmaster and its customers, the Suprey Family, Mr. and Mrs. Binford, residents of the Anchorage Apartments, and to all those individuals who made fantastic donations.

God bless you all for your help.

Sister Lois Lyons Named Principal

Dear Friends,

We are writing to let you know that the Principal Selection Committee, comprised of members from St. Catherine, St. Francis de Sales and St. Mary parishes, have finished the interview process and have selected Sister Lois Lyons to be the new principal of Charlestown Catholic Elemen-

We believe that our choice was determined with the priority of our children and their education in mind. This is not an easy role that we have had and we thank our parishes for the confidence they have placed in us.

We interviewed five candidates over the past two weeks and worked together as a team to come to a consensus in our decision-making.

The process for establishing our interparish school now continues as we celebrate Catholic Schools Week beginning Sunday, Jan. 31. Both St. Catherine and St. Francis de Sales schools will hold registration for seats at the new

Thank You, Townie Santa

Dear Townie Santa:

Saying "thank you" doesn't seem enough. Everything was just so nice, all of it. It made me feel that someone really cares. There are so many people to thank for everything. God Bless you, everyone, who had a hand in Townie Santa in any way and who contributed in any way. Bless all of you and yours.

Quite some time ago, I was looking through my papers for an address and I found a piece of paper with a poem on it. I looked at the title and said to myself, 'I'll read it later," and I put it aside. I did that and I know I had that poem for quite a number of years and hadn't read it. I always put it aside. Do you know I just read it after knowing I had to use it now to go along with this thank you? So help me, for some reason I thought it had to go with this letter before I read it. Honest! After reading it, I sure knew why. Please accept the poem as a thank you and maybe food for thought for the coming year.

How will we welcome Him? Will we open our doors and hearts unconditionally to Him? May He claim our homes and hearts as part of His kingdom?

If Jesus Came to Your House

If Jesus came to your house to spend a day or two -If he came unexpectedly, I wonder what you'd do. Oh, I know you'd give your nicest room to such an honored Guest, And all the food you'd serve to Him would be the very best, And you would keep assuring Him you're glad to have Him there -That serving Him in your home is joy beyond compare. But when you saw Him coming, would you meet Him at the door With arms outstretched in welcome to your Heavenly Visitor? Or would you have to change your clothes before you let Him in, Or hide some magazines and put the Bible where they'd been? Would you turn off the radio and hope He hadn't heard And wish you hadn't uttered that last loud hasty word? Would you hide your worldly music and put some hymn books out? Could you let Jesus walk right in, or would you rush about? And I wonder if the Saviour spent a day or two with you, Would you go right on doing the things you always do? Would you keep right on saying the things you always say? Would life for you continue as it does from day to day? Would your family conversation keep up its usual pace, And would you find it hard each meal to say a table grace? Would you sing the songs you always sing and read the book you read And let Him know the things on which your mind and spirit feed? Would you take Jesus with you everywhere you'd planned to go, Or would you maybe change your plans for just a day or so? Would you be glad to have Him meet your very closest friends, Or would you hope they'd stay away until His visit ends? Would you be glad to have Him stay forever on and on, Or would you sigh with great relief when He at last was gone? It might be interesting to know the things that you would do If Jesus Christ in person came to spend some time with you.

You know all of you Townie Santas and Santa's helpers are very special people. I love you all!

Charlestown Catholic Elementary School throughout Catholic Schools Week

Our hope is that every family presently enrolled in both schools will help us to assure the presence of a Catholic school in our town for generations to come by registering their children with us.

We are also expecting to attract families presently enrolled in the Boston Public Schools to choose Catholic education for their children.

We will offer the best education available when our doors open in September 1993.

The hiring process for our teachers will now be a priority for our new principal.

We hope to see you during Catholic Schools Week.

Thank You, Bobby D.

Dear Gloria,

As a former townie, employee of the Patriot and the mother of a Dom Savio sophomore, I would like to express my thanks to Bob DeCristoforo for his presence at the Town Meeting held at Savio last Wednesday night to discuss its imminent closing.

Bob always seems to find time to be wherever there is an issue he feels important to the youth of not only Charlestown, but the whole city. Thank you again, Bob, for caring about our children. Judie Dunphy

Boutwell Enters Race For Mayor

Dear Fellow Townies,

As I enter the race for Mayor of Charlestown, my friends and "Campaign Team" advise me about the strategies on how to get votes. It makes me a little nervous when I actually think about the enormity of this project, especially when I think about the candidates from last year; all of the festivities they ran and how much money they raised for community organizations. It really is an amazing place that we live in - Charlestown, I mean. I do not believe that there is another place in the world that compares in terms of the support we provide one another.

Over the next few weeks, you'll see me out there asking for your support and so to that end, I write to you about myself and my intentions.

My mother, a lifelong "Townie," and my dad, a "transplant," brought my two brothers and I up on Main

I married Kathy Feeney, a fellow Townie, and we have three beautiful children: Katie, 11, Colleen, 10, and Chris, 8. Kathy and I believe in our community and that is why I am an involved participant in my kids' lives and this town and community's projects.

In my spare time, I am the manager for St. Catherine's Color Guard, I coach and umpire CYO girls softball teams, I am umpire-in-chief for Charlestown Little League, vice president of Pop Warner Football and a volunteer gym teacher at the Warren-Prescott School. The 1992 Christian Service Award was bestowed on me last year, which was a great and unexpected honor.

Therefore, it is with pride that I approach you, the community of Charlestown, for your support in my quest for Mayor. I will represent this town with the same sense of pride that I have for my family and the youth of Charlestown. I hope you will lend your support to a fellow Townie who will give his all. Thank you. Sincerely,

Stoney Boutwell Candidate for Mayor of Charlestown

the evening, and a stereo was stolen.

An automobile parked at Monument Square was broken into during the evening, and a camera was stolen.

Friday, Jan. 22

At 10 p.m., officers responded to the parking lot at 99 Fifth Street where the manager reported that two men in their 20s entered the lot. One of them showed a handgun and demanded the receipts. They then fled in a waiting automobile.

A business at 99A Cambridge Street was broken into during the evening, and a cash register was stolen.

Saturday, Jan. 23

At 1:30 a.m., Officers Reaney and Walsh observed an automobile with three occupants leave Bunker Hill Street and be driven to Medford street at a high rate of speed. The vehicle was stopped and one of the occupants attempted to flee on foot. There was a loaded handgun and a police scanner inside the front of the vehicle. All three residents, all in their 20s, were placed under arrest for possession of the handgun.

Sunday, Jan. 24

At 4:50 a.m., Officers Reaney and Lee responded to Old Ironside Way on a disturbance. They found a 27-year-old South Boston resident who was in possession of cocaine, and they placed him under arrest.

For additional information regarding arrested individuals, contact Community Service Officer Joe McNulty at 343-4627.

 If you know of any drug activity in your neighborhood, call the Area A Detectives office at 343-4571. It is not necessary to give your name, and all information will be investigated.

 Residents are reminded that if you purchase alcohol from a local liquor store for someone under age, you are subject to arrest.

Boston Police Hold Office Hours In Charlestown

The Community Relations Officer of Area A of the Boston Police Department is holding office hours in Charlestown twice a month.

The officer will be on hand in the first floor conference area at One Thompson Square to meet with residents or business persons on an individual basis. The next office hours will be held on Wednesday, Feb. 10 from 10 a.m. to noon.
