Masteron - Drostanolone Enanthate also know as Masteron Enthate is an injectable steroid, containing 150mg of drostanolone Enanthate hormone. Drostanolone Propionate is mostly used by bodybuilders who are in the "cutting" phase of their training and dieting. Masteron Enanthate 150mg/mL is a Canadian steroid made by Syntex Labs. Today's workout was easy pace miles, focused again on my cadence and being more efficient in my running! My average cadence was 176 which is so a new high for me at conversational pace! Average heart rate was 153 for the run which puts me in zone 3 for most of the run! Hope y'all had an awesome training session today!

So far the hair on my cheeks has gotten more dense, I can finally see hairs coming through on the front of my chin, my sides are getting closer to connecting with my mustache and I've also been using the minoxidil on the crown of my head and have seen great results there as well! I've used a roller, infrequently, as well and feel like that would make even more of a difference if it was used consistently!
