Penalty Charge Notice (PCN): CL54440866
Vehicle Registration: LR61LKU

Date 02/04/2020
By Email & Post

Thank you for your communication in relation to the above PCN.

The PCN was issued to the above vehicle for failing to comply with a prohibition on certain types of vehicle (motor vehicles) - only buses and pedal cycles allowed Monday to Friday between 7am and 7pm. This is because the above vehicle has been seen to have passed through a sign prohibiting certain class of vehicle from accessing Bank Junction during the restricted time(s).

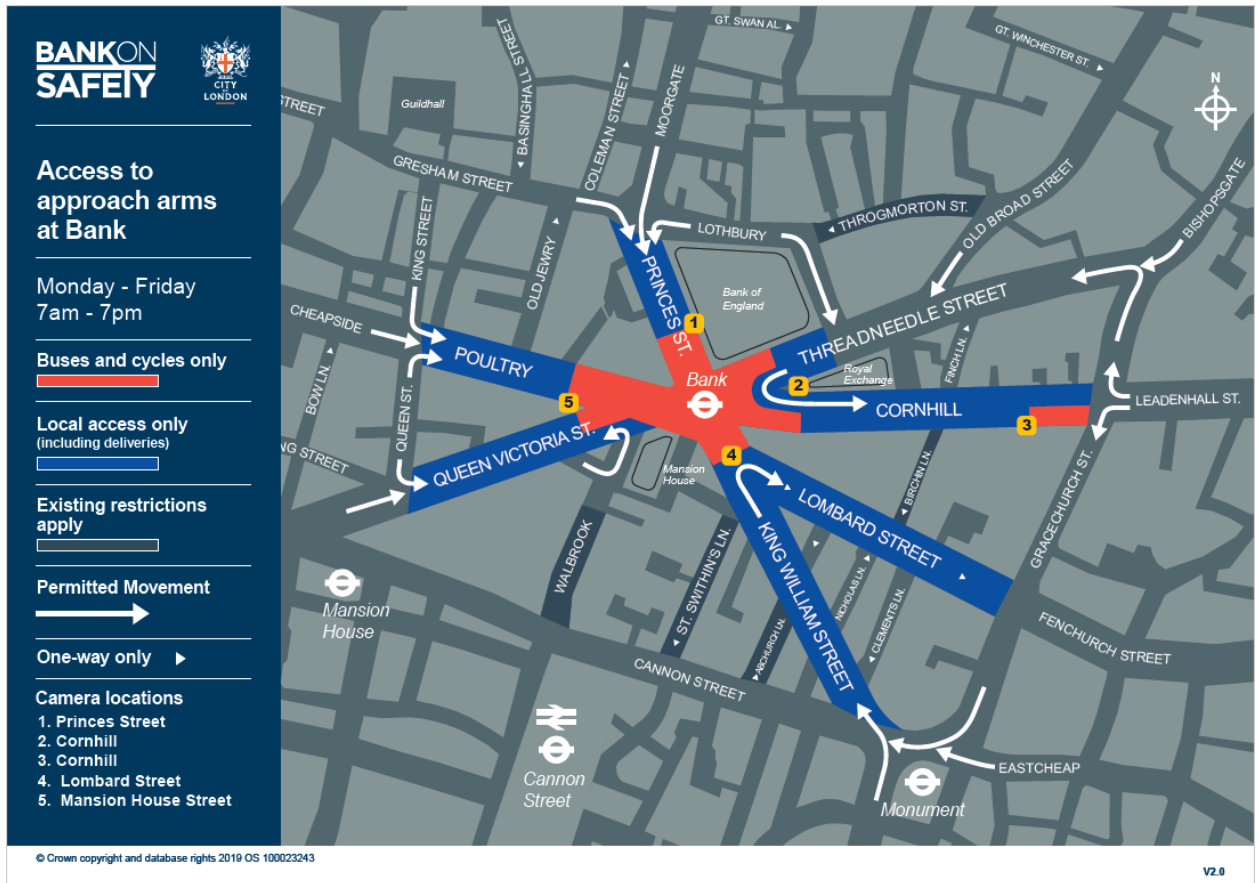

Since Monday 22 May 2017, the 'Bank on Safety' experimental traffic scheme, aimed at reducing collisions and improving road safety, became operational meaning that only buses and pedal cycles are able to cross Bank Junction, Monday to Friday, between the hours of 7am to 7pm. Other vehicles will be rerouted via advanced warning signs on the approaches to the area and the junction.

The Court of Common Council approved a report on 13 September 2018 that recommended making the experimental scheme permanent and as of 25 September 2018 the scheme came permanently into operation.

The Bank Junction comprises the approaches of Princes Street, Threadneedle Street, Cornhill, Poultry, Lombard Street, King William Street and Queen Victoria Street.

Blue bus and cycle only signs are displayed at the entry points of the restriction. Advanced directional signs are also in place to give advance warning to the restriction to further assist with alternative routes.

A further selection of maps and information regarding the restriction including loading areas, vehicle length and access routes to each of the approach arms can be found at www.cityoflondon.gov.uk/bankonsafety.

Having given consideration to your case, I have taken the decision to cancel the PCN as a gesture of goodwill and a warning of the restrictions in place.

I would add that this should not be viewed as a precedent for any future cases as we look at each and every case individually upon its merits.

Furthermore, the City expects all drivers to comply with any restrictions that are in place and should you receive a PCN in similar circumstances it may be enforced.

I can confirm that the case is now closed and you have no further outstanding liability for this particular PCN.

Yours sincerely

Mohammed Abdullah

Data Protection Information

Personal data has been collected by the City of London and its civil enforcement contractors to serve this Penalty Charge Notice and enforce parking contraventions under the Traffic Management Act 2004. As we believe a contravention has occurred, your personal data may be collected, processed, shared and retained to carry out the performance of a public task and fulfil our legal obligations in the following ways:

- To request details of the registered keeper of the vehicle from the DVLA or the person/company we believe to be the owner of the vehicle to pursue a Penalty Charge Notice.
- Shared with London Councils and other enforcement agencies for appeals and enforcement.
- Shared with the police or security organisations to prevent or detect crime.
- Hard copy data will be stored for a maximum period of 3 years and electronic data will be stored for a maximum period of 6 years.

Your Data Rights

In relation to the personal data which we may hold about you, you have the right to request to be informed, have access to or rectify incorrect information. You also have the right to object to or restrict our processing of your data. Under Data Protection law we must verify your identity and explain to you our reasons if we do not agree to carry out your request.
