City Budget Crisis Threatens

Existence Of Community Schools

The Boston Community Schools' Program is currently faced with the very real possibility of serious cutbacks in both funding and personnel These possible cutbacks are be ing discussed because of the existing budget crisis which is being fought between the City Council and the Mayor augmented by rising inflation
At times such as these, when everybody, especially the workeverybody, especially the working class people who reside in the city's neighborhoods, such as Charlestown, are feeling the harsh effects of inflation, community schools are needed more than ever. Take a few minutes to think about the services provided to the Charlestown Community through the community schools program, and what impact it would have on the Charlestown

Community if these services were curtailed or discontinued. The senior citizens would no longer be able to enjoy a hot lunch at the Kent School on Monday through Friday, or the Annual Senior Citizens's Holiday Festivities which take place at the Kent School on Christmas, Thanksgiving, Valentine's Day, St. Patrick's Day or participate in the many other social affairs in the many other social affairs which are organized by the Kent which are organized by the Kent Community School. There would be no more ballroom dancing for the Senior Citizens to enjoy. The Elderly population in Charlestown would suffer a severe loss. Many senior citizens would become shut-ins.
The Adult population would suffer a very serious setback as well. All of those physical fitness buffs, both male and female, would no longer be able to participate in programs such as the Women's Exercise Class which has over 70 women enrolled, the has over 70 women enrolled, the Men's Supper Club. The Men's Alumni Basketball League, the many men and women who use the swimming pool to stay in shape, all of these people would lose out on something that provides them with an inexpensive and beneficial way to spend some of their leisure time. These some people who cannot afford the luxury of a memberd the luxury of a mealth club. As a result, pensive healy the As a rmunity they rely on the comm those school. There are also those members or the Adalt population who choose to spend their leisure time participating in more pas sive recreation activities such as ceramics, which they couldn't af (Continued On Page 13)

Bunker Hill Parade Booster

You might ask yourself - how can I help make our Bunker Hill Day Parade (Sunday afternoon, June 15, 1980) the biggest and best in years?
Each and everyone - young or old - can help improve the parade by either giving of your time, working as a door-to-door salesperson, selling Bunker Hill Day Parade decal boosters or by donating generously to the booster salesperson when they knock at your door.
The City of Boston portion o the parade budget has been the parade budget has been constant for over 16 years and thus with the increased cost of thus with the increased cost of hiring of bands and drum corps, it is necessary to raise additional supplemental funds.
The 1979 parade, one of the best in years, was made possible only through the dedicated efforts of

Fidler And Cotter Honored At B.U. Hockey Dinner

Boston University juniors Mark Fidler and Bill Cotter, tw Charlestown natives who had starred for Matignon High School hockey teams before moving on to Boston University, were honored at the Terriers' recent hockey breakup dinner

Fidler, who led Boston University in scoring this past year for the third straight season, received the George V. Brown Award as the team's Most Valuable Player.
Cotter, in the meantime, was the lone Boston U. player to receive two honors as he was presented the Bennett McInnis Memorial Spirit Award for the second straight year. He was also voted co-captain of next year's team, a position he will share with Daryl MacLeod (Melrose). Fidler's selection makes it three years in a row that a Charlestown native had been voted the team's MVP. The last two years All-American defenseman and Olympic Gold Medalist Jack O'Callahan had been the Brown Award recipient

This past year, Fidler scored 16 goals and assisted on 23 others. His 39 points now gives him 14 for his three-year career to tie him for 11th place on the Univer sity's all-time scoring list Former three-time All-American Rick Meagher leads the scorin Rick Me with 210 points, a figure parad Fider could attain durin uld attain during his senior year

In addition to leading the team in scoring this year, Fidler tied for the team in power Play goals (4), while he also had a hat trick against the University of Denver Cotter scored five goals this past year and two of them proved to be game winners. That figure tied him for the team lead with MacLeod and Tony Meager (Belleville, Ont.)
Cotter had most of his success against the University of New

Brighton on April 10, 1967
On January 26, 1972, then Sergeant Mills received a promotion to the rank of Lieutenant, and that's when his association with Charlestown began, serving with Charlestown began, serving as night commander of District Fifteen for two years until February of 1974.

That's just one reason why we selected Captain Mills," noted Commissioner Jordan. "He knows the town and he is quite familiar with a large number of residents in the community already. I think his past performance in South Boston combined with his knowledge of the District should prove quite beneficial to the Charlestown community.
As for the new Captain, he is happy to be back.
"I like the idea of working in Charlestown again. I know I can count on the support of the community and I believe I will be able to direct our police resources to more than adequately meet community concerns," added the Captain. "I am sure it will be a pleasant experience for the community and myself.

McHAPPY DAY: What does a professional football player, a child who has undergone treatment for cancer, & a big house in Brookline, Massachusetts, all have in common! The answer: McHappy Day McDonald's 25th Anniversary. Andy Johnson (r), New England Patriots' star running back and honorary chairman of McHappy Day, is holding a Big Mac sandwich to remind everyone of just how McDonald's has chosen to celebrate their anniversary. On Sunday, Apri 27 th - McHappy Day - 25 cents from the sale of every Big Mac will e donated to the Ronald McDonald House so that families, like that f 10 -year old David Jaquith (1), of Nashua, New Hampshire, will coninue to benefit from Boston's "home-away-from-home." The Ronald McDonald House, located at 229 Kent Street, Brookline, provides vernight accommodations for families with children undergoing reatment for leukemia and other forms of cancer. The house also provides emotional support and a means of sharing with other amilies in similar situations. Andy Johnson and several other New England Patriots,will join media and political personalities on Apri 7, at local McDonald Restaurants throughout Eastern Massachusett and Southern New Hampshire to help raise funds for the house and join in the fun to celebrate McDonald's 25th.

Are There Really Any Republicans Out There?

by Sal Giarratani
It is supposed to be a two-party political system. Two major parties, both believing in the same democratic principles, battle each other and in the process create responsive and responsible government.
It's supposed to be a two-party system but it hasn't functioned that way either on the state level or on Boston and Charlestown's level for a long time. The 1952 election was the last year Republicans held the majority up on Beacon Hill.

The Republican decline has been even more steady and steep in Boston, where last year John Sears became the first GOP City Councillor in thirty years; and who on and Republican politican from epublican politican Is the Republican party still live and well in Charlestown and what is being done to save it? The answer to the first question is yes but barely and the answer to the second lies in plans being drawn up by the newly elected

"CREATIVE FINANCING" (CONTINUED) Interest only with Balloon payment (Part II)

EXAMPLE: An owner who wanted to sell a property of which he had an unpaid balance of $$ 30,000$ at $9-1 / 2$ percent found a would-be buyer and the two agreed upon a price of $$ 60,000$, with the buyer to put up $$ 10,000$ in cash leaving $$ 50,000$ to be financed, the only arrangements they could make was for the bank holding the Seller's first mortgage to allow the buyer to assume the existing mortgage amount of $$ 30,000$ at current interest rates of $16-1 / 2$ percent
Consequently, the $$ 10,000$ cash and the assumption of the Sellers $$ 30,000$ first mortgage left a difference of $$ 20,000$ for which the Seller decided to take back an interest only second mortgage for the $$ 20,000$ at $12-1 / 2$ percent for 10 years with the full principal amount due (Balloon payment) at the end of the 10 years. This arrangement was beneficial to both the Buyer and Seller

Benefits to the seller
The obvious benefit is that Seller is allowed to sell his house in a tight money market.
Another benefit of this type of creative financing is that it provides the Seller a comfortable yearly income of $$ 2500$. Since no principal is being amortized the full original amount of the loan is due the 10 years later. In some cases this balloon pay ment may become due after the Seller's retirement in which case he will receive reduced tax benefits because of his age and lower income.
Perhaps the most beneficial advantage is the capital gains reatment received in the year of the sale.
Let's take the same circumstances and terms of the sale and look at the tax savings a Seller will receive with this type arrangement.

Republican Ward 2 Committee. They have not given up and are going to sell themselves better. Dennis Burke, the newly elected Ward Committee chairman, doesn't want the Town's Ward Committee to be a social club that is good for onlypersuading guilt-ridden Republicans to hold signs at the polls on election day. He has a vision of what a Ward Committee ought to be and believes that it could be molded to have an impact on shrinking voter alienation.
I agree with him that the Ward Committee could function as an educational arm, as a resource center for information on issues and candidates that relate to all Charlestown voters.
Back last June, I proposed a Ward Two Forum for the Democratic Ward 2 Committee in my Patriot column-an open forum discussion to be held at places like the Kent School - and I am glad that the Republicans in our Town have taken my idea to heart. My "proposed" Forum could bring party politics closer to the people and cast issues in their proper perspective.
The parties have to get back to the grassroots to get people interested and make them feel inerested. Charlestown Republicans are going to be doing just that!
Before I end this column which is coming pretty close to canonization of Republicanism, or at least it's beatification, I would like to introduce the rest of he Republican Ward Commitee: Greta Maguire, treasurer. Marie Burke recording secretary and members Pat Harrington, Eileen Reilly Fran Kelly and Danny Maguire, OOPS Kly and Maguire. OOPSforgot one other name, Sal iarratan
I finally realized, if you believe in Republican issues and vote for Republicans, you might as well register Republican and join the Ward Committee!

It has been reported favorably out of the Committee on Education and is expected to reach the floor of the Senate for debate sometime within the next week. In addition to this legislation, Senator Doris is concentrating his efforts toward passage of House Bill 6115 , legislation that would exempt from the state sales tax, motor vehicles purchased by and for the use of persons who have suffered loss of eyes, legs, or arms. This would have a potentially significant impact on many people who are categorized as Disabled American Veterans.
Commenting on his being chosen as principal speaker for the Annual Loyalty Day exercises, Senator Doris stated that he was "both proud and honored to be chosen as spokesman for this traditionally symbolic and patriotic occasion.

Playwright's Widow To Visit Boston To Celebrate Centennial

Sean O'Casey's widow, Mrs. Eileen O'Casey, will visit Boston on Friday and Saturday, April 25 and 26 to watch the Charlestown Working Theater's production of the famous Irish playwright's two one-act plays, "Hall of Healing" and "Time to Go". This year is the Sean O'Casey Centennial marking the 100th anniversary of the playwright's birth, March 30, 1880. Charlestown is celebrating by offering these two plays which have never before been performed in New England, The Charlestown Working Theater productions are the major O'Casey Centennial event scheduled in Boston. Mrs. O'Casey has traveled around the country to various celebrations in honor of her husband this year, and the Charlestown productions will bring her to Boston this weekend. Representatives of the O'Casey Centennial committee from New York said Charlestown, with its Irish working class traditions is just the kind of place O'Casey plays belong.
Sean O'Casey was raised in poverty in the slums of Dublin He was strongly supportive of the inion movement beginning to grow in turn of the century, industrializing Ireland. He was an artist who explored new ideas in playwrighting. He was a close friend to George Bernard Shaw Augustus John, Lady Gregory W.B. Yeats and other famous ar ists of the time. He was also pas ionately interested in social ustice and improving the lives o the working poor. He actively supported union leaders like Jim Larkin.
He was about forty five years old, a laborer, when his first play was accepted for production at he Irish Abbey Theater by Lady Gregory and W.B. Yeats. He went to London in 1926 to receive he Hawthornden Prize for "Juno and the Paycock". There he met and married a young Irish

Monument And Lodge Closed Temporarily

The Bunker Hill Monument and adjoining lodge building will remain closed to the public while both continue to undergo a program of extensive rehabilitation. This preservation project, contracted by the National Park Service and initiated in December, is designed to repair the areas around the Monument, waterproof the foundation and re-point the interior and exterior of the 220 foot obelisk.

The Monument will remain closed to the public throughout the summer as a safety precaution. National Park Service rangers will offer visitor ser vices in the adjoining lodge, which will re-open by the end of May.
Questions about the rehabilitation of the Bunker Hill Monument should be addressed to the Superintendent, Boston National Historical Park, 15 State Street, Boston, MA 02109.

C.Y.H.A. News

The annual meeting of C.Y.H.A. will be heid on Wednesday. May 14th at 7:30 p.m. at the Kent School, 50 Bunker Hill Street. The body will vote for four new board members to serve a two year term. Names of the people running for the four vacancies are: present members - Matty O'Neil, Joe Fleming and Frogie Greatorex; osen who submitted their names; Bo Whitlock Ann Considin; Cras McNeil, Kevin Roche and Billy Smith. Each Amily in the. Crash ion is allowed one vote. If you are intere family in organiza are program. please make sure you vote in this important election.

At the regular monthly meeting on the 17 th of April, the body voted to go along with the board in establishing the new M.D.C. District One house to house league Also, to re-establish an in-house league in Charlestown.

The coaches for the "B" teams for next year are Mites - L. Marino Squirts - D. Hanson, Pee Wees - R. Vraibel, Bantams - J. Kelly.

The Bantam "A" team played Moncton, New Brunswick in the finals at Tyngsboro. You have never seen a better and more exciting game of hockey. After delaying the game for a half hour to allow five of the boys who were receiving confirmation to get to the rink, the ame began. Charlestown scored first, early in the game - Moncton ied it, at one all. Half way through the period Charlestown scored again with about three minutes to play in period Chariestown Moncton ame back to tie it at 2-2 and the buzzer ended the period.
The second period ended after Moncton scored three unanswered goals. Moncton 5-Charlestown 2.
The third period began slowly with Moncton playing defense to protect their lead, but Charlestown had come to play. With seven minutes left they scored their third goal of the game. With three minutes left Charlestown scored a short handed goal cutting the lead to one. The momentum was shifting and Charlestown came roaring back to tie the score at 5-5 a minute or so before the third period ran out.
In sudden death overtime, with both teams exhausted but neither team giving up, the battle see-sawed back and forth across the red line with opportunities at both ends. Then, with 10 seconds left to play and the face off in the Charlestown end, disbelief was apparent on the faces of the Charlestown fans as the puck squirted from a jumble of players to a Moncton player who was standing at the corner of the net and he drove it home. The final score Moncton 6 - Charlestown 5. Both teams played their hearts out and neither deserved to lose....both teams received a tremendous ovation, which they both deserved. The C.Y.H.A and it's board are proud of the Bantam "A" team and their coach. Bobby Hardy for their fine showing in Tyngsboro.

Since there is only one more meeting of the Association for this year, I would like, on behalf of the Board of Directors, to thank, anyone who helped in anyway to make this season the success it was. If I were to list every individual, there would not be enough room in one copy of the "Patriot" to include all the names. So, "thanks again to all of you." Hope to see you next year Programs offered at the com munity schools are operated for the most part by community peo ple, thus adding to the development of community pride.

The Community School in Charlestown also provides space for community organizations to meet as well as for important public meetings and hearings, such as those held by City Coun cillors Joseph Tierney and "Dapper" O'Neill on the possible closing of the District 15 Police Station, the Police Community Relations Steering Committee Parents and Friends of Exceptional Children, Charlestown Little League, Charlestown Youth Hockey, Muscular Dystrophy, etc.
In summation, to cut, in any way shape or form, the Com munity Schools Program in Charlestown, is akin to severing a main artery which is supplying the essential life blood to a community that desperately needs a place where the entire community can and does construc tively utilize and enjoy the facilities offered, for the people by the people of Charlestown Please do not let these words fal on deaf ears. The cost in van dalism to these facilities, if closed or would far exceed the cost of operating this program as it now exists. Also, Mr. Mayor and City Councillors, you must consider the social cost to the Charlestown Community. Having Community schools open and functioning ef fectively has played a major part in keeping many of the youth off the streets and away from the all too many potential indiscretions too many potential indiscretions sucb as acts of vandalism juvenile delinquency, involvement with alcohol and/or drugs ment etc.
I hope that the message is Loud and Clear. Don't be Penny Wise and Pound Foolish. Community Schools are vital to their communities and should be given consideration for additional funding, not cutbacks. THINK ABOUT IT SERIOUSLY. If cuts must be made then get rid of the dead wood.

Sincerely
James M. Houlihan

Judge Not

Dear Editor
The March 20 Patriot had an article referring to the presence of a Real Estate Office in the residential area of Winthrop Street. (It had been operating without permission, and naturally, the neighbors objected to it.)
The letterwriter felt that there shouldn't be any objections, and mentioned the existence of the Kennedy Center, and "the riffraff walking about the Center. She then said that "Townies" are suppose (sic) to be friendly people."

We all have problems in life. Some of us attempt to soive them without the assistance of a Social Service Agency, like the Kennedy Center. Those who do avail themselves of these Services however, may be indigent; but that neither makes them less "friendly", nor, does it class them as "Riff-Raff." "RiffRaff" is not exclusively a category for the disadvantaged. A "friendly" person does not put "labels" on her neighbors. Judge not lest you be judged.

Feel Mayor White Deserves Raise

Gentlemen
The issue of the Mayor's $$ 50,000$ pay raise is justifiably the recipient f much discussion
Boston is a first class city and the chief executive of this city must be paid a first class salary. Kevin White is an able and competent big city mayor.
We all point with pride to Boston. Not only has the downtown area been reborn, but even more important to us, the neighborhood business districts have been given a real sign of positive action and hope. This is surely evidenced in the Mattapan Square Shopping Center, where the mayor's concern resuited in a viable and successful community shopping center, bolstering the economy of Mattapan.
Mayor White has served for over 12 years without a pay raise. Cer tainly, this is unheard of by any standards.
As taxpayers and rentpayers in Boston, we most profoundly urge the City Council to act quickly and favorably on the Mayor's request for a pay raise

The City Scene

by Dick Sinnott

THERE WERE THOSE WHO SAID, "WAIT A BIT, TIME WILL TELL.
"And perhaps Newsweek as well," I added.
But I doubted it. I doubted it as a writer and as a pol. I doubted it and I was correct.
Sufficient, indeed a multitude of Times and Newsweeks have come and gone and been bundled for the parish paper drive - and still no one has told.
So I'll tell.
I'll tell you it's a sin that the national press has been so busy skewering Ted Kennedy, screwing Ronald Reagan, and tut-tut ing after Jimmy Carter it has all but ignored the "follow-theleader" gentry which has helped put us in the worst mess this country's been in since 1929 .
I mean, of course, the Congress of the United States.
Where the hell are they when we need them?
Where are they when it costs a buck for a loaf of bread and the price of gas inches towards a dollar-and-a-half a gallon?
Oh, I know, you can catch them any night at a self-induced, selfserving testimonial or on the 11 p.m. snooze news telling us how great they are.
But are they really?
Where are the Members of Congress as this country totters on the brink of utter chaos?
What are they doing besides telling us they can do nothing as this nation harvests a bitter crop of young high school and college of young high school and college graduates who are having the federal employment door slamfederal employme med in their face.
Having the federal employment door shut tight against them because they are white. They're told they must get all but perfect scores before they're even considered for work. No 80's or 70 's or 60 's for whites. Get a hundred or get out. Hell, in many colleges an $85-90$ is an " A .
What are these kids who score in the 60's to $80^{\prime}$ 's supposed to do? Are they supposed to drop dead because they don't score a 100 ? Every week I hear from parents whose children consistently score high on federal exams and are told "sorry, we can't use you." They're told this by a government that consistently puts heavier burden on the middle class, but has no room for middle class offspring.
What is the Congress doing about it? When Members of Congress commence to run for re-election later this month ask them what they're doing about the kids who can't get jobs. Ask them why they continue to let Jimmy Carter hide in the Rose Garden.
Ask them what they're doing about the soaring cost of bread and gasoline and homes and interest costs-and about a foreign policy that is not policy at all.
Where are the Members of Congress?
Where are they when we need them?
I'm sure you, as I, would like to know, would really like to know

Some people think he's the best sheriff in Massachusetts, but I think he may be the best in the country, be it Suffolk or Tombstone. His name is Dennis Kearney and he's restored the Kine to the once tarnished badge Suffolk County Sheriff And ofore I go line further I must efore I go a line further I must dmit I sure as hell am preudiced because one of my sons works for him, is proud to work or him.
But let me tell you something about Dennis Kearney:
He's changed the rules of the game by insisting that a professional Sheriff's Department is important, important to you, to me, to the family, to the taxpayer.
Kearney has kept yearly budget increases below the rate of inflation and he's cut waste and demanded and received acand demanded and received accountability for evey dolla spent. He s a no-nonsense sherif with tough management stan dards that have made his law en forcement unit one of the best in the world.
Dennis Kearney, a family man, a homeowner and life-long resident of East Boston, is a graduate of Boston Latin and Harvard University. Both schools should be proud of him. Both schools are.

Say, all you Jakes and Sparkies, have I got a book for you: It highlights disco fever and arson, two highly combustible ingredients, in New York Firefighter Dennis Smith's new novel, "Glitter and Ashes." Look for it at your book store next week.
A catastrophic fire that sweeps through New York's most fashionable new discotheque is the basis of the new novel by Smith whose first book, "Report From Engine Company 82 ", was a national bestseller. E.P. Dutton is the publisher
Briefly as two fire marshalls track down the arsonist responsitrack dow ble for the ire that killed forty the jetsetters, Smith details the procedures and techniques emplopolitan fire a major cosmopolitan fire department He describes the terrifying increase in the arson rate, the functions of The Bureaus of Fire Prevention and Investigation, and the devastating effects of recent city financial cutbacks. And he also focuses on the potential for disaster in overcrowded disco, with blaring music, stoned patrons, and often inadequate fire exits and sprinkler systems. Five stars!

Resident Training At BCH

The job demand for nurses in Boston is at its height, and Boston City Hospital is searching for students interested in a nursing career.
In conjunction with the city's Employment and Economic Policy Administration (EEPA), City Hospital offers a one-year training program for both males and females, qualifying them to become Licensed Practical Nurses (LPN's)
Charlestown resident Dee Dee Hayes is now attending classes in the program. In a few months she will graduate ready for a lifetime career in nursing. With the LPN License she will receive, her job options will include jobs in schools, hospitals, rehabilitation centers, nursing homes, and doctor's offices.
"This program, a combined effort of Boston's health and job training agencies, is preparing Boston residents for careers in which there is a strong demand or skilled professionals," Mayor Kevin H. White said.
Sixty slots in the program are reserved for Boston residents eligible for training under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act Program (CETA) If you are unemployed or underemployed, you may be CETA eligible.

Classes will begin in September and now is the time to register. For more information on applying to these programs, call Francis Alberti, of EEPA, at 725-3645.

DEE DEE HAYES (left) of Charlestown will graduate in August from Boston City Hospital's School of Nursing Program along with Ruth Yancy (middle) and Dave Hurley (right). The program is cosponsored by the city's Employment and Economic Policy Administration (EEPA)
