

AUDITIONS FOR
THE ROYAL SWEDISH OPERA CHORUS

The Royal Swedish Opera is Sweden's National Opera and Ballet Company. We are committed to a fully inclusive approach, bringing our profoundly moving art-forms to the widest possible audience.

The company's core values are quality and friendliness, coupled with an artistic approach which is both fearless and timeless. The Royal Opera is a state-owned company with annual sales of approximately 500 million SEK. The Opera's artistic, technical and administrative staff comprises about 540 employees. Well over 200 performances of both modern and classical opera and ballet are performed every year for all ages to enjoy.

ALTO 2

Full-time, permanent employment with probationary year commencing 07 August 2017 or by agreement.

Details of education in music / postgraduate studies in opera are requested alongside proven experience as an opera singer.

Auditions will take place on Saturday 22 April by invitation and upon review of applications.

Please prepare the following for audition:

- Your choice of one of the following prescribed arias:
Voce di donna (La Gioconda)
En vain pour éviter (Carmen)
Weiche, Wotan (Das Rheingold)
- An aria of your own choice in a contrasting language to that of your prescribed aria

Applications must be received no later than 21 March 2017 via the link

www.operan.se/jobb

and must be accompanied by a sound file which should be sent to korprovsjungning@operan.se

Please address all questions to korprovsjungning@operan.se