Curatorial Work:

2017 "A Night of Motorcycles and Art", Co-curator of exhibition at MotorGrrl, Brooklyn, NY. Riding while female can be a performance, and what better way to show that than at a working-female owned- motorcycle shop. I presented a series of work, 'Naked Bike', along with Susana Rico's tintype project, 'Viragos' in the MotorGrrl bike shop. Our event championed community, adventurous spirits, feminism, female owned small business, the growing numbers of women in the sport of motorcycling, and most of all, the coming together of the two very different worlds of biking and art.

1996 "Voyeur's Delight: An Interactive Exhibition", Co-curator of exhibition,

Franklin Furnace, New York, NY

In conjunction with the exhibition, "Voyeur's Delight":

Organized the panel discussion "Private Eyes: A Panel Investigation of Voyeurism", moderated by Martha Wilson, The New School University, New York, NY

Guest editor of NewObservations #112, "Caught Looking", (September)
