

THE DRIBBLE

2017 – No 2. May 16

Women's 6s Pull the Twigger

By Clare Twigger

After a goal-less season thus far, the pre-game air was thick with anticipation (literally, it was smoggy af). The 6's took to their home turf to face Whitfords hangrier than a drunken fresher at HJ's post Ave to get some points on the boards. Under the guidance of guest coach Frank 'Fear' Fitzgerald, the 6's took charge early with newbie Kirsten 'K Dawg' Van Der Walt scoring her 1st of 2 vicious goals from the post. Goal highlights to follow included Lauren 'L-Daddy' Grey's 1:1 with the keeper, who was no match for L-Daddy's signature 'back dat a up' manoeuvre and a reverse-stick slip from the spot delivered by Bec 'Ports' Porter resulted in a convincing 4:0 win. The win was celebrated in style with a picnic featuring burgers, bevs and of course, the team mascot- Justin the Gnaughty Gnome.

Metro 2's Smash ECU

By Andy Mellor

In the battle of the tertiary institutions it was clear early on that Supertafe were anything but! To put it bluntly if Pony scores a hat-trick and you can get away with Judd & Casper playing minutes in defence against you, then you're doing it wrong! Most enjoyed a visit down memory lane, having not played at Yokine since under 11's. 13-0 to the good, but we called it 11. Maybe ECU should consider raising the minimum ATAR from 55.....

UWAHC Instagram

This season sees the launch of the official UWA Hockey Club Instagram @uwahockey.

Be sure to have a look and follow us to keep up to date on all the latest UWAHC news and events! If you wish to submit a photo, please send through to David by emailing communications@uwahockey.org.au

THE DRIBBLE

2017 – No 2. May 16

Sally Ascott ► The Enigmatic Eights

Yesterday at 23:08

Somebody give Me a quick debrief on the win

Like

Comment

Be the first person to like this.

Seen by 11 people.

Bryce Henderson

So first Miriam chopped everyone up, sold some candy and scored her first ever goal! Then Indi got a goal which should never have been allowed. In the second half Carolin used her raw pace to leave everyone for dead and ran around the goalie. Then Claudia used her invisibility cloak to magically appear in front of the goalie and put an awesome deflection in... that may be a bit exaggerated but essentially it's true...

Yesterday at 23:21 • Like • Reply • 6

Write a comment...

Post

Snack Of The Week:

Thought of the Week:
How old will Ryan
Gosling be when he finally becomes Ryan Goose?

Eight's Match Report (above)

THE DRIBBLE

2017 – No 2. May 16

Men's 1s Move To First

By Matt Fisher

The Men's 1s have moved to top of the table with 7 wins a draw and a loss following a convincing 7-2 win over reigning Premiers WASPs. Harry Golding opened the account with a deft shot from close to the baseline, wisely opting not to pass the ball to a lurking David Edmonds who definitely would have missed it. Tom Wickham was returning from a successful Azlan Shah tournament and knocked in 3 goals. The big story however was Matt Fisher, who scored his first ever goal in the Premier League with a field goal in the second half. Fish was moved to centre half for the game and prolific in the middle of the ground. Coby Green also managed to get his name on the score sheet with a simple tap-in, impressive considering he had spent the weekend at a music festival, a recount of which can be seen below.

The Men's 1s now play Westside Wolves at Shenton on Sunday the 21st in what is anticipated to be a close game. It is as yet unknown if the young Wolves side will include Daniel Beale - fresh from his European adventures in his first game against his old club.

Coby Green's pictorial review of Groovin' The Moo 2017

Contribute to The Dribble!

If you have any content you would like to see included in The Dribble, please contact David at communications@uwahockey.org.au

