The following upcoming dates are crucial for the Manhasset High School juniors and seniors that live in our community. They are our future and their years of education will be tested. The results of these tests will have a big effect on their future and the opportunities available to them. If you're a junior or senior in high school, we would like to let you know that we support you and are wishing you the best on your regents, as well as your PSATs and SATs.
