Departed Veterans Remembered At Memorial Day Mass

OFFICERS AND MEMBERS of Bunker Hill Post 26, The American Legion, were joined by members of the American Legion Auxilliary and friends, to remember departed veterans at the 75th annual Memorial Day Service of Post 26 on May 29 at St. Francis de Sales Church, which was celebrated by Rev. Daniel J. Mahoney, pastor. The Color Guard from the "USS Constitution" posted and retrieved the colors. Shown in front row (l. to r.) are: CDR. Robert L. Gillen, USN (ret.); City Councillor Diane Modica; Post 26 Cmdr. Arthur L. Hurley; City of Boston Deputy Commissioner of Veterans Services Tom Lyons; Legion Past National Historian and Memorial Service Chairman James W. Conway; Bunker Hill Day Parade Coordinator Edward Kelly; community liaison, Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services Judy Evers; and in the rear of the photo, Bunker Hill Day Parade Chief Marshal Martin J. O'Brien.

Bunker Hill Celebration Features Events For Residents Of All Ages

More than a week of activities celebrating Bunker Hill Day and Charlestown Pride Week will get underway starting on Sunday, June 5. Events have been planned for residents of all ages marking the 219th anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill and the 200th anniversary of the construction of the first Bunker Hill Monument.

A concert on the grounds of the Bunker Hill Monument from 6 to 8 p.m. on Sunday, June 5, is the first event on the Charlestown Pride Week agenda. The evening of music will feature the ever-popular Pat Benti and the Shaboom Band. Please refer to the Bunker Hill Associates advertisement on page 20 for the complete list of Charlestown Pride Week events.

Two special features for the children will be taking place next weekend. The annual Doll Carriage Parade will be held on Saturday, June 11, at 10 a.m. in the Training Field. The deadline for registering children for participation is Monday, June 6. There will be no registrations accepted on the day of the event. The application form may be found on page 6.

The second annual children's event will also be held on Saturday, June 11, at 1 p.m. at Doherty Park on Bunker Hill Street. Charlestown's own Disney Characters will be on hand to pose for pictures with the children and there will be free balloons for the kids.

These events are as much fun for the adults to watch as they are for the children participants.

The Greater Kensington String Band from Philadelphia will present a concert on

Old Charlestown Schoolgirls' Association Holds 14th Annual Reunion

The Old Charlestown Schoolgirls' Association recently celebrated its 14th annual reunion with a dinner and social at Barrett's on Boston Harbour restaurant. Over 250 women attended the event, all of whom had resided in Charlestown and attended one of Charlestown's schools prior to 1945.

It was an evening for renewing friendships, enjoying a delicious dinner and, of course dancing.

One of the highlights of each reunion is the drawing of the Winifred Talbot Duffy Scholarship, an award presented annually to a young woman from Charlestown entering her sophomore, junior or senior year at a four-year college. The monies for MARGARET McELENY, president of the Old Charlestown Schoolgirls' Association presents a Paul Revere bowl to past-president Eileen Carroll.

THE 14th ANNUAL REUNION of the Old Charlestown Schoolgirl's Association was held recently at Barrett's on Boston Harbour restaurant. The event was organized by members of the executive committee. Shown (l. to r.) Anna Burke; Catherine Collins, executive committee members; Margaret McEleney president; Kay Twomey, Margaret Motherway, past presidents; Back row (l. to r.) Eight To Compete For Charlestown Rose In 12th Annual Contest On June 3

Eight young Charlestown women of Irish ancestry will compete for the title of 1994 Charlestown Rose at the 12th annual contest to be held at 7:30 p.m. on Friday evening, June 3 at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 75 West School St.

The event, sponsored by the Charlestown-To-Charlestown Committee, will see one of the six named Charlestown Rose by a panel of judges who will interview each contestant prior to the evening's program.

The young woman selected as the Charlestown Rose will receive a trip for herself and an escort to Ireland. She will also receive a clothing allowance and expense money. While in Ireland, she will compete in the International Western Rose Festival in Charlestown, County

Mayo.

The new Rose will participate in the Bunker Hill Day Parade on June 12 and will represent the community at various events throughout the year.

On hand for the festivities will be the 1993 Charlestown Rose Julie Treanor and Charlestown Mayor Michele Cannizzaro.

The master of ceremonies will be John Curran, host of the "Sound of Erin" on WNTN 1550 AM radio, and the event will feature the

The John F. Kennedy Family Service Center - 30 Years Of Service To Charlestown

by Lynn Peters

The John F. Kennedy Family Service Center. Maybe you've heard of it or happened by it on Winthrop Street. You know, it's right along the Freedom Trail near the Training Field. More commonly called the Kennedy Center, some people confuse it with the Kennedy Library, the Kennedy Building or some kind of tourist attraction where Kennedy family secrets are kept.

It was indeed named for President John F. Kennedy, but that was out of respect for his ties to Charlestown and not for any connection with his family. John F. Kennedy Jr. did happen by the Kennedy Center himself this time last year, actually on his father's birthday, as he walked the Freedom Trail. He had never heard of it either. After 30 years one might think that most everyone in Charlestown would know exactly what it is and what it does.

The Kennedy Center is Charlestown's social service agency, providing residents with resources for an array of needs. It was the very first neighborhood anti-poverty program in Boston under President Lyndon B. Johnson's Office of Economic Opportunity. A non-profit organization, the Kennedy Center operates with the help of foundation and corporate supports, government grants and contracts, the United Way, client fees and third-party payments.

The founding principle of the Kennedy Center was to provide Charlestown residents with the skills for self-sufficiency; to be a helping hand, not a handout. Today, approximately 80 staff members work to uphold the original mission, and at least 75 percent of the employees are Charlestown residents. To date, some 800 different people receive 100,000 units of service each year at the Kennedy Center. The agency's low profile is necessary for providing individuals and families with privacy, sensitivity and confidentiality.

Yes, 27 Winthrop St. used to be part of St. Mary's Grammar School back when some of our "older" neighbors were learning to read and write. But, for the past 30 years, 27 Winthrop St. is associated with counseling, advocacy, emergency services, substance abuse treatment, information and referral, job training and teen programs.

But there's more to the Kennedy Center than 27 Winthrop St. It offers Head Start and daycare services at the Old Kent School in Hayes Square. Actually, the Kennedy Center is the only social service agency in Boston with licensed Head Start, substance abuse and mental health facilities at the same organization. The Kennedy Center's Head Start program has been consistently rated as one of the two outstanding Head Starts in Boston by the federal government. At the same time, the Kennedy Center is one of the three lead agencies in Boston selected for a five-year $20 million federal drug treatment demonstration program.

The Senior Lounge at 55 Bunker Hill St. is also a vital part of the center's operations, providing homemaker, laundry, chore and social/recreational services to Charlestown's seniors. The Charlestown Inter-Agency program, a collaborative of neighborhood groups and organizations that all serve seniors, and the Charlestown Healthy Aging Program (CHAP) operate out of the Senior Lounge.

But wait, there's still more to the Kennedy Center than service provision. It is a place where 51% of the agency is in the hands of Charlestown residents who work, plan and strategize with in-house service providers for effective community services. The 15-member board of directors includes eight community-elected and seven appointed seats. In its 30-year history, there have been only five executive directors, giving the center a certain flavor of consistency and longevity. The board has served as a balance, having twice elected presidents in their 20s. This year's board of directors includes a member of the very first Head Start class in the agency's history.

There have been many residents who landed their first summer jobs as teens at the Kennedy Center. Many others at some time or another have gone on to work at the agency. One Head Start mother entered the Kennedy Center through the Action for Boston Community Development (ABCD) education program. She went on to earn her bachelor's and masters degrees and later became a director of the Head Start program her family had started with.

The agency is most proud of its community-mindedness. The Kennedy Center is about community empowerment and strives to network and collaborate with all of Charlestown's resources for a vibrant community. The center was one of the planning group members for the development of what became the Bunker Hill Health Center and Bunker Hill Community College (BHCC). Over the years, the Kennedy Center has been proud to be a part of established and varied neighborhood groups, such as Charlestown Against Drugs (CHAD), the Healthy Charlestown Coalition, the Christmas Walk, the Adolescent Task Force, CHAP, CIA and neighborhood farmers markets.

The Kennedy Center staff members and board of directors continue to work toward growth and empowerment for all of Charlestown's residents from birth to old age. And a lot of its 30-year history has been spent quietly in the background advocating for economic and social self-efficiency for all of Charlestown's individuals and families.

So, whether you will ever work or volunteer at the Kennedy Center, send children to daycare, serve on the board of directors, need some kind of support in your life or are just sauntering by 27 Winthrop St., 55 Bunker Hill St. or the Old Kent School, you'll at least know a little more about the Kennedy Center.

TIPS FOR FINDING GREAT TENANTS

When you buy an investment property, finding and keeping good tenants is very important. We've found that a little caution during the screening process can save a lot of headaches later on.

Many property owners rely on an intuitive sense of how a prospect feels to them. While this is an important aspect of a landlord's decision-making process, following up intuition with some fact checking is also definitely worthwhile. Have prospective tenants fill out an application giving employment references and the names and addresses of previous landlords. The application should also include written permission for you to run a credit check. In most areas, it is difficult and expensive to evict someone who turns out to be less than a model tenant. Only after you check their references and credit history should you make a commitment to allow them to move in. To keep good tenants, many successful investors charge slightly lower than market rents. They make it up in very low vacancy rates.

If there's a move in your future, the real estate professionals at Monument Properties are ready to serve you. Call us at 241-5900, or drop by our offices at 85 Warren St., Charlestown.

D-DAY Exhibit Lands At Kennedy Library

Fifty years after the Allies landed on the beaches of Normandy in the turning point of WW II, the Kennedy Library will open a special exhibition commemorating history's most devastating global conflict.

Opening ceremonies for the exhibit on June 5 will include remarks from U.S. Congressman Joseph Moakley, a WW II veteran. Congressional Medal of Honor recipients from Massachusetts; D-Day, and other WW II veterans will also be in attendance.

"World War II: Personal Accounts - Pearl Harbor to V-J Day" opens to the public, June 6 and runs through September 5, tracing the war's poignant story through images and words of the actual participants.

"Personal Accounts" features hundreds of dramatic letters, diaries, photos and objects from combatants who witnessed the war's heroics and horrors. The nearly 250 items displayed are on loan from veterans or their descendants, and 21 institutions from the U.S. and abroad. They include:

- A rare six-minute film depicting the actual Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor.
- Letters and diaries from soldiers, sailors and marines, recounting their experiences at Pearl Harbor, Guadalcanal, Coral Sea, Normandy, Iwo Jima and other major theaters of the war.
- Captured photographs from the "Bataan Death March"; Letters from Prime Minister Winston Churchill, President Franklin D. Roosevelt, Generals Charles DeGaulle, Hideki Tojo, Jimmy Doolittle and George S. Patton.
- Photographs of General Erwin Rommel's operations in the North Africa Desert, his compass, and excerpts from his letters home, describing the campaign.
- The sword of the Japanese commander of the River Kwai prison camp; Hitler's will and political testament and entries from the diaries of Nazi propaganda chief, Joseph Goebbels.
- General Patton's diary; General Eisenhower's personal campaign jacket; and General McArthur's famous sunglasses and pipe.
- The safety plug that was removed from the atomic bomb dropped on Nagasaki, Japan.
- The Japanese and German surrender documents signaling the end of the war.

"We're pleased to have the opportunity to present this incredible exhibition," said Kennedy Library Foundation Director, Charles U. Daly. "World War II played such a major role in President Kennedy's life, as it did in the lives of millions of us, and 'Personal Accounts' truly captures the spirit of an era."

The Kennedy Library is located at Columbia Point, Dorchester, for further information call 929-4500.

It's A Boy!...

Ronald Doe and Judith McCarthy are proud to announce the birth of their son, Zachary Ronald, on May 25, at Anna Jacques Hospital in Newburyport.

The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Michael Braccini of Charlestown.

Zachary was welcomed home by his big sister, Amanda Rose.

Brown Bag Bookies To Meet

Brown Bag Bookies, the adult discussion group of the Charlestown Branch Library, will meet on Tuesday, June 14 at noon at the library, 179 Main St.

The book under discussion will be Terms of Endearment by Larry McMurtry. The Saturday Review states: "One is quickly absorbed in the intensely vivid world of his novel... Larry McMurtry proves that he is possessed of gifts... a true and literate wit, a feeling for place, an abundance of energy and an absolute commitment to the depths and lines of character."

THANK YOU, GOD

Say nine Hail Marys for nine days and ask for three wishes. First business, second and third is for the impossible. Have this published on the ninth day and your wishes will come true even though you may not believe in it. A.B.G.

Not for nothin' . . . But have you heard . . .

• On the Run? If you feel like you've been running around like a chicken with your head cut off, then you'd be in good company during the Battle of Bunker Hill Day Road Race. Per usual the competition (at least in print) is heated. We have received word that the Rules Committee of the Battle of Bunker Hill Road Race, consisting of Richie McCarthy and Ned Rosselli, have recently met. According to our sources the agenda included ways in which Thom Gilligan's Marathon Travel team might be slowed down. Maybe something might be coordinated in conjunction with the Boston Traffic Dept.? Stay tuned for more racing news next week.

• If You'd Rather Walk . . . than run, then you should consider entering Khoury's Third Annual 4M Walk-Run Race being held Sunday, June 19. The proceeds raised will benefit the Little Flower School in Somerville. Trophies will be awarded in several divisions and it should make for a good time, for a good cause. If you would like an application or more information on the event call 868-1795 or 776-0571.

• Congratulations . . . go out to Michalina Karon, Program Council chairperson who received an appreciation award at the annual Awards Dinner of Bunker Hill Community College. Also to Dr. Lorenzo Lewis who has recently been appointed as Medical Director for the MGH Bunker Hill Health Center.

• Birthday Wishes . . . go out to Mel Upton on June 4 and Clare Wilkins who turns 18 on June 7. . . A happy day to both of you!

• Happy Anniversary . . . to Salon 44 which will be celebrating 14 years of doing business in Charlestown.

• To A Good Sport . . . Patricia Reilly a sophomore at UMass Boston did a great job as outfielder/catcher on the UMass softball team. Reilly finished the season having batted .293 with a team-high 14 walks. Through her efforts and those of her team mates they had their best season in four years.

• Who Will Be . . . the 1994 Charlestown Rose...Kellie Burke, Sharon D'Urbano, Beth Golden, Kolleen Hayes, Christy Lane, Meg Lillis, Suzanne Melanson, or Kelly Moloney? Why not find out by joining in the excitement of this 12th annual contest on Friday, June 3 at the K. of C. Hall? Come down and wave Julie Treanor, out-going Rose, good-bye! Tickets for the event, sponsored by the Charlestown-To-Charlestown Committee, are only $15 per person, which includes an elaborate buffet and dancing to the music of Andy Healy and his band. For tickets, call Marty O'Brien at 242-1939 or Arthur Hurley at 242-2724.

• If You Get A Kick out of Karate . . . then check out the North American Karate Association's New England Open National Karate Championships being held June 4 at Boston University's Walter Brown Arena. Over 1,200 of sport karate's best amateur athletes will be competing, for details on the event call 567-4989.

• Food for Thought . . . If your barbecue is boring and you want to take more liberties with ribs during the summer holidays then join the "rib revolution". For some suggestions and tasty recipes try the National Pork Producers' free brochure, Rib Revelations -- A Guide to Heavenly Ribs. To get your copy send a self-addressed, stamped business-sized envelope to: Rib Revelations, NPPC, P.O. Box 10383, Des Moines, IA 50306.

• This Bud's For You . . . Want to meet a man whose taste buds are insured for $1 million dollars? John Harrison is an "official taster" for Edy's Grand Ice Cream, he'll be demonstrating "the art of tasting ice cream" at the Dairy Festival being held Monday, June 6 through Thursday, June 9 on the Boston Common. If you are curious about such an expensive taster, are wondering why you can't acquire financial security by eating ice cream, or feel you might be able to give Harrison a few pointers then check out the Dairy Festival.

• Taxes Got You Licked? . . . If you are having difficulties with the Internal Revenue Service you can avoid the he said/she said game by calling 1-800-829-1040 and asking to speak to problem resolution. The IRS has recently implemented a new program, the Problem Resolution Program which is specifically designed to handle problems that people have tried to solve through normal channels. Be sure that before you call you have all your records concerning the issue handy.

• The Celebration of Bunker Hill Day . . . gets underway this Sunday, June 5 with the Charlestown Pride Week kick-off concert with Pat Benti and Shaboom at 6 p.m. at the Bunker Hill Monument...Check the schedule of events and get out and enjoy!

STUDENTS OF CHARLESTOWN CATHOLIC'S 8th grade class were the guests of 20 Scottish sailors who sailed through Boston Harbor last month on board the 110-foot training vessel, "Eye of the Wind." The Courageous Sailing Center and the City of Boston Parks and Recreation Department coordinated the event in conjunction with the British Consulate.

USS Nashville Scheduled To Visit Navy Yard

The amphibious transport dock USS Nashville (LPD 13) is scheduled to visit Boston, June 3 through June 7. The ship will be berthed at the Charlestown Navy Yard, within the Boston National Historical Park.

The public is invited to tour the ship as guests of the commanding officer beginning June 4 through June 6 between 12 -4 p.m.

The Austin Class ship is 576 feet long, 84 feet wide, and can reach speeds of 21 knots. The USS Nashville carries a crew of up to 1,465 Navy and Marine Corps officers and enlisted members. Captain Thomas G. Otterbein is the commanding officer.

The USS Nashville combines the capabilities of the amphibious dock landing ship (LSD) and the helicopter assault ship (LPH) into one unit. The ship's primary mission is to transport troops and equipment by helicopter and amphibious craft to the objective area during amphibious operations, and provide support to the troops for an extended period of time. The ship conducted these operations last year on its six month deployment off the coast of Somalia and in the Persian Gulf. The USS Nashville is the third U.S. Navy Ship to be named after the capitol of Tennessee.

Local Cyclists To Ride The Cape!

About 150 enthusiastic bicyclists will be going the distance in June, on the Cape Cod Classic Bicycle Tour to benefit the American Diabetes Association, Mass. Affiliate. This two-day, 150-mile ride starts in Boston at the World Trade Center on June 11. Cyclists will pedal the South Shore all the way to the tip of Cape Cod. Once their destination is reached, they will enjoy a well-deserved boat cruise back to Boston.

Jennifer Moore and Sean Rynne, both of Charlestown, will be participating in this year's ride. ADA Development Director Rick Reilly says the Cape Cod Classic is a very successful fund raising event for the American Diabetes Association. Participants are asked to raise a minimum of $250 with proceeds benefitting the Affiliate's research and education programs, serving the 400,000 people with diabetes and their families here in Mass.

The Cape Cod Classic is just one of the exciting components of the ADA's Cycle '94 program, a series of events for all ages and abilities. The other parts of the Cycle '94 program include the Tour de Cure, a one-day ride in three different locations across the state, The New England Classic, a week-long, 500-mile challenge, and for those who just want a taste of challenge, the ADA will be offering the New England Sampler, where riders have the chance to trek 160 miles from Mass. and continue into N.H. and Maine. Reilly says, "There's a ride for everyone, no matter what age. But one thing they all have in common, they're all challenging and lots of fun."

Cyclists can sign up for the Cape Cod Classic Bicycle Tour or obtain information on any of the other rides by calling 1-800-229-2559.

Perkins To Be Honored

A testimonial in honor of Bill Perkins, upon his retirement as football coach of Pope John XXIII Central High School in Everett, will be held on June 6, at Anthony's Restaurant, Canal Street, Malden at 6 p.m.

For further information, please contact John Kearney at 389-0240 or 508-664-4766, or leave a message and he will return your call.

Bunker Hill Post To Hold Elections

The annual election of officers for the 1994-1995 Legion year will be held by Bunker Hill Post No. 26, The American Legion at its monthly meeting on Mon. June 20 at 7 p.m.

The meeting will be held at the Legion Hall, 23 Adams Street.

CYO & ST. CATHERINE'S NEWS BY FATHER RON COYNE

▲ Color Guard Recruitment - Each spring we invite young girls in our community to join St. Catherine's "Townies" and "Little Townies." This activity is a wonderful opportunity for our children to learn the skills of marching and dancing put to music. They carry rifles, sabers and flags and put on shows before thousands of people. We presently have two color guards ranging in age from 8 to 15. Any girl joining must be at least 8 years of age by Jan. 1, 1995. The registration fee is $15 per child.

We invite girls 8 to 12 who would like to join to come to a registration night at the Charlestown High School gym on Monday, June 6 at 7 p.m. Parents should accompany the girls. We will have members of the "Townies" and "Little Townies" putting on a demonstration. There will be management and instructors present to speak to parents about the responsibilities, commitment and financial obligations of the color guard program. We believe that this program is a positive experience in a young girl's life that will remain forever.

The color guard practice season begins in June and the competition season is from January to April. The color guards compete in gymnasiums every Saturday evening during the winter months. We invite all girls who may be interested to come and listen to us and see our girls perform.

▲ CYO Half Ball Tournament - The second annual CYO half ball tournament will be held on Saturday, June 11, the day before the parade, in the Charlestown Catholic schoolyard, beginning at 9:30 a.m. All teenagers 13 to 19 years of age are invited to enter a team of four, male or female. The format will be determined by the number of teams who enter. If you need half balls to practice, call Father Coyne at 242-1750. The tournament will be coordinated by Bob O'Neil, who also runs the adult half ball tournament.

▲ St. Catherine's Opens Doors For Gun Buyback Program - The second Gun Buyback Program, sponsored by Citizens for Safety, will begin this month in the city of Boston and continue throughout the summer. Each neighborhood is asked to provide a site at which people would feel free to turn in a weapon that could be used to commit a crime. St. Catherine's Rectory will be available for the program from Monday through Friday, June 13-17, from noon to 7 p.m. The Boston Police will be at the rectory to accept the guns. The Buyback will offer gun owners confidentiality, freedom from prosecution and a voucher for each weapon turned in. The voucher may be redeemed for $50 cash at the Bank of Boston or $75 worth of merchandise at Tower Records.

We want Charlestown to be among the safest neighborhoods in our city and we can do our best to assure that goal by getting as many guns as possible off our streets, out of our homes and away from children who may accidentally find them.

▲ CYO Junior High Harbor Cruise - There will be a harbor cruise for junior high school students on Wednesday evening, June 29 aboard the Provincetown II. All 7th and 8th grade students from public and parochial schools are invited.

A disc jockey will be on board, and food and soft drinks will be available. The bus will leave St. Catherine's at 7 p.m. and return at approximately 10:30 p.m. The cost is $10 per person. There will be nearly 1,000 people on the boat.

Please leave your name and $10 at St. Catherine's Rectory. We can only take 40 people.

▲ CYO Three-Day Trip To Montreal - St. Catherine's CYO would like to offer all teen-agers (13-19), the opportunity to go on a three-day trip to Montreal, Canada on Wednesday July 20 through Friday July 22. We will travel in vans which hold 12 people each. The trip will include a Montreal Expos game at Olympic Stadium, a day at Mont Saint-Sauveur Aqua Park and a night at La Ronde Amusement Park. We will stay two nights at the Radisson Gouvernors Hotel. The cost is $130 per person, which includes all of the above.

In order to make a final decision on this trip we must have a $50 deposit at the rectory by Friday, June 17.

▲ Paint Ball - The CYO will go on a Paint Ball Trip on Saturday, July 9 to Canobie Paint Ball. There are 12 playing fields and games are organized. If you are under 18-years-of-age, you must bring parental permission with you on the trip. Buses will leave St. Catherine's Church at 7:45 a.m., and return around 2:30 p.m. The cost is $20 per person to be left with your name at the rectory. You pay for your own paint balls when you arrive. You must be 13 to 19-years-of-age to attend.

Organ Benefit Concert For St. Catherine's Church

On Sunday, June 5 at 4 p.m., St. Catherine of Siena Church will host the choir of the West Parish Church, Andover, for a concert to benefit the Organ Restoration Fund at St. Catherine's Church. The program will include choral anthems and works for organ and oboe. Joining the guest choir will be the Junior and Senior Choirs of St. Catherine's.

St. Catherine's is home to an 1868 Moritz Baumgarten organ which is the last existing instrument by its builder in the United States. Designed in the German Romantic period and style, the mechanical action organ features three manuals, 32 ranks and 1,763 pipes. It was purchased for St. Catherine's in 1894. Now in its centennial year at the church, the organ awaits restoration. A free-will offering will be collected at the concert and all proceeds will benefit the Organ Restoration Fund.

St. Catherine's is located at 49 Vine St. There is ample on-street parking. For more information, contact Bobby DeRegis at 394-0728.

D.A. Martin Names Collins As Charlestown Coordinator

Suffolk County District Attorney Ralph C. Martin, II has announced that Dennis Collins of Charlestown will serve as his Ward 2 campaign coordinator.

"I am proud to have such an active member of the community delivering my message of safer streets to the people of Charlestown," Martin said in making the announcement.

Dennis Collins grew up on Laurel Street in Charlestown, and now lives on Brighton Street. Collins has long been active in Charlestown community affairs, including serving on the advisory board for the Charlestown Boys & Girls Club, as president of the Charlestown Business Association, and as vice-president of the Charlestown Lions Club.

"Ralph Martin has impressed me from day one as an aggressive leader in the fight against crime, and as a man who cares deeply about our city's neighborhoods," Collins said in accepting his new campaign post. "He is never satisfied with the status quo, as he continues to make positive changes in the district attorney's office."

Collins is already working closely with several other Martin supporters in Charlestown. Collins and others will be working together over the course of the summer and fall to organize opportunities for the residents of Charlestown to meet Ralph Martin. This past week, Martin was a guest of the Charlestown Lions Club on Saturday, and he met several Charlestown residents at a campaign event at the Bunker Hill Knights of Columbus on Wednesday.

District Attorney Martin said he is excited about attending all of the upcoming events surrounding Bunker Hill Day in Charlestown, including marching in the parade. "Bunker Hill Day is a great day for the community of Charlestown," Martin said.

DENNIS COLLINS and District Attorney Ralph C. Martin II are shown after a game of basketball at the annual Charlestown Family Fun Day.

Graduate From Pope John

The 25th Annual Commencement of Pope John XXIII Central High School, took place on May 25 in the school auditorium. Sister Kristin Hokanson, SND, Principal, conferred diplomas to 112 graduates.

Irene Walsh, a member of the Class of 1975 and vice-president of Municipal Credit Research at J.P. Morgan, New York, delivered the commencement address.

A Pope John XXIII High School diploma represents four years of a Catholic, College preparatory education that has endowed each recipient with a strong spiritual and academic background.

The following Charlestown students were among the graduates: David Burns, Margaret Lillis, Kimberly

Melendy, James Owens, Patricia Wadman and Paul Williams.

Margaret Lillis was the recipient of a scholarship to Nichols College. James Owens was the recipient of a scholarship to Union College in New York as well as the Old Charlestown Schoolboys' Association scholarship. Patricia Wadman received a scholarship to the University of Mass. at Amherst; and Paul Williams was awarded the Wentworth Institute of Technology Academic Merit Scholarship and the Wentworth Institute's Community Scholarship.

Mayor Menino Congratulates Adult Graduates

Mayor Thomas M. Menino congratulates adults who have been attending classes at the Charlestown Community Center on the completion of their course of study.

The following have received degrees from the External Diplomas Program: Shannon Stacy Amado, Mary Ann Bohn, Christine Burke, Nicole Campbell, Andrea Chirinos, Judith Evans, Wilfredo Flores, Diane Furtado, Cassandra Gendraw, Felicia Irene

Harris, David Healey, Mary Johnson, Huong Le, Eleanor Cecilia Lonergan, Sahilis Theanny Mejia, Jeanmarie O'Neil, Kathleen Sullivan and Cherie Lynn Vincent.

Graduation exercises for the Boston Central Adult High School and the Adult Literacy Initiative were held on May 25 at Faneuil Hall, where 113 adults received degrees.

Mayor Menino told the graduates, "What you have accomplished goes far beyond the hours of study and training you have invested in your education. By completing your course of study, you have opened new doors of opportunity for yourselves and for your families." He went on to call the graduates role models, "Each of you did something that required a lot of courage and a lot of sacrifice. There is no doubt in my mind that whatever any one of you puts your mind to, you will continue to achieve great things."

Teams Vie For Title In Bunker Hill Road Race

The team title for "The Fastest Business in Charlestown" is once again on the line during the Bunker Hill Road Race on June 12. The two-time defending champion, Marathon Tours & Travel, is expecting a strong challenge from McCarthy's Liquors. Rich McCarthy has been doing his usual recruiting with promises of fame and fortune. The cold winter and the opening of Atlantic Coast Brewery on Medford Street many have combined to keep his runners from being in shape. The Boys & Girls Club team is always dangerous since Coach Steimel has a knack for finding ringers as the entry forms come spilling into the club.

Ned of the Red Store, has been seen sprinting down

Main Street and up over Bunker Hill Street. But from the size of things, it looks like he has been doing wind sprints between Dunkin' Donuts and Lori Ann Donut Shop.

Tommy Lynch has not committed to defend his title as the fastest resident of Charlestown (2nd overall). Tommy has been running well in local races and is in shape to break 26:00 minutes on the 8K course.

The team title is awarded to the fastest combined times of a team's top five runners. A group may have as many members or as many teams as they wish. All members must be full-time residents or full-time employees of a business in Charlestown to be eligible.

Over 200 members of the Charlestown Teen Connection and the Girls Center were honored at the seventh annual Sports Award Banquet on May 27 at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

The program was coordinated by a committee of teens who made the introductions and served as presenters for the evening. Among those taking part in the program were: Janell Jones, Colleen Walsh, Lauren Brennan, Aileen Gorman, Joe Tallent, Jimmy Tallent, Joe Brennan, Jacque Neff, Teaghan Leonard, Kairsten Burke, Kristen Connolly, Katie O'Leary, Kolleen Hayes, Greg McNeil, Suzanne Wrenn, Greg Poole, Ann Schiraga and Charlie Clabaugh, special assistant to the executive director of Boston Community Centers.

Teams and their members recognized are:

- The Lancers girls ball hockey team - Courtney McLaughlin, Nicole Matson, Loreen Jones, Amanda Fornash, Rachael Britton, Erin McDonough, Christine Locke and Colleen Walsh.

Awards for MVP for girls ball hockey went to: Michelle Macomber of the Newtowne team, Loreen Jones of the Lancers, Shannon Anzalone of Bunker Hill, Patty Reilly of Main Street and Bonnie O'Leary of the Juniors.

The unsung hero award for girls ball hockey went to Kelly Moloney.

Girls ball hockey all-stars included Nicole Matson, Michelle Macomber, Courtney McLaughlin, Shannon McLaughlin, Loreen Jones, Rachael Britton, Teaghan Leonard, Helen Scales, Shannon Anzalone, Patty Reilly, Kairsten Burke and Bonnie O'Leary.

- The Shamrocks girls ball hockey team - Erin Brennan, Gina Cameron, Kelly Burke, Katie O'Brien, Aileen Gorman, Kathleen Lacey and Lisa Curley.

- JAFT boys ball hockey team - Keith Wallace, Ricky Evers, Pat Owens, Todd Sgro, Greg McNeil, Chuckie Kozlowski and Joey Gilmore.

Awards for MVP for boys ball hockey went to: Ricky Evers of JAFT, Mark Mansfield of Club 24, Michael Collins of the Jellyroll Jumpers, Jimmy White of Newtowne, Andrew Ray of Tidbits, Francis MacDougall of Bunker Hill, Jamie Carroll of Burnett

Club and Jeff Andrea of The Very Bogues.

Boys ball hockey all-stars included Andy Ray, Greg Staples, Jim Yandle, Shane Fisher, Mark Mansfield, Billy Lynch, Paul Myers, Mike Collins, Chris Donovan, Jamie Carroll, Ricky Evers, Todd Sgro, Jim White, Francis MacDougall, Eric Gould and Pat Woods

The unsung hero award for boys ball hockey went to Dan Awbrey.

- Members of the Wrenn Club volleyball team are: Kristin Connolly, Carolyn Shannon, Suzanne Wrenn, Joanne Doherty, Mike Doherty, Eddie Sullivan, Richie Burke, Tommy O'Leary and Jacqueline Russell.

The unsung hero award for co-ed volleyball went to Tommy McGrath and the leadership award for co-ed volleyball went to Kristen Connolly.

- Members of the 3-on-3 girls and boys basketball teams for the Teen Connection are: Nicole Matson, Courtney McLaughlin, Melinda Morrissey, Andy Ray, Jim Saccardo and Mike Burns. The Girls Center 3-on-3 basketball team included Bonnie O'Leary, Nikki Mainey and Meaghan Murray.

- The members of the Tidbits boys flag football team are Keith Wallace, Jim Tallent, Andrew Ray, Jim Saccardo, Dominic Tamburello and Pat Collins.

- The Girls Center Leprechaun team included Candace Griffin, Jolie Burke and Kerri Locke.

Most Improved Awards from the Girls Center went to: Kathleen Lacey, Candace Griffin, Fallon Leonard and Kelleigh Harrington.

Sportsmanship Awards from the Girls Center went to: Kairsten Burke, Kelleigh Mahan, Catie O'Brien and Bonnie Cameron.

Sportsmanship Awards went to: Jimmy Sheehan for co-ed volleyball, Rachael Britton for girls ball hockey and Joe Tallent for boys ball hockey.

The CYO Cheerleading Award went to Kristen Connolly and Stephanie Ward, the Girls Center Overall Dedication and Commitment Award went to Lauren Brennan, the Girls Center Leadership Award went to Aileen Gorman and the Ultimate Achievement Awards went to Jimmy Tallent and Kristin Connolly.

Also in attendance at the banquet were: Judy Evers, Community Liaison from the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, Mary "Ma" MacInnes and Julie "The Rose For One More Day" Treanor.

Thank you to Mimi Wrenn for her help in compiling the names of the participants and to the staffs of the Girls Center, Teen Connection and the CYO.

Cheerleaders Get A Boost Out Of Sports Banquet!

BHCC Celebrates Community College Day At The State House Boston

Battle Of Bunker Hill Road Race

The 26th Annual Battle of Bunker Hill Road Race is just around the corner and up the hill. On Sunday, June 12, get your running shoes on, and take your mark at 8:30 a.m. at the Navy Yard's Gate 4 on Chelsea Street for the 2-Mile Novice Race or at 9:30 a.m. for the 8K.

This year, a new division is being featured. Mom or

Dad, come run with your son or daughter in the Parent-Child Division in the 2-Mile Novice Race. You have to run with your child from the start line to the finish line. There will be a trophy for the winning pair of a child under 12 and his/her parent, and a trophy for the winning pair of a child 13- to 17- years-of-age and his/her parent.

Children's Films

The Film Program for Children will be presented at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main St. on Tuesday, June 7 at 10:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.

The features will be "The Day Jimmy's Boa Ate the Wash," in which Jimmy's pet snake comes on the class trip; A Japanese boy brings a dragon to his birthday party in "Dragon's Tears;" and four friends collect colorful feathers in "A Feather in the Cap."

"Frog and Toad are Friends" tells five stories about two best friends, will be shown only at 3:30 p.m.

Suggested good books to read are Feathers, Plain and Fancy by Hilda Simon, Jimmy's Boa and the Big Splash by Trinka Hakes Noble and Momotaro, the Peach Boy: A Traditional Japanese Tale by Linda Shute.

Sign Language Courses

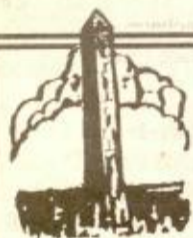

Beginner and intermediate levels of American Sign Language will be offered by the Massachusetts State Association of the Deaf (MSAD) starting the week of July 11.

Classes will meet once a week for two hours at a location in Malden and will run for eight weeks.

In addition to learning how to sign, you will also learn more about the Deaf community and culture. For more information, call MSAD at 388-9114.

◆ Old Colony Hoop . . . Charlestown Pride begins their second season in the Old Colony Summer Basketball League, this Sunday. Game time is 5 p.m., and the opponent is Amrhein's. Players should be there by 4:30 p.m. to pick up their shirts.

◆ Soccer Celebration . . . Boston City Hall Plaza will be the site of this weekend's big soccer celebration. It will be a free festival of fun, food, music, games, and a non-stop soccer marathon. The World Cup Trophy will be on display at the Soccer Pavilion, and there will be an International Food Festival at the Faneuil Hall Marketplace. The times are Friday, June 3, from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m., and Saturday, June 4, from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. This is all part of the World Cup USA '94 Celebration.

◆ Kick The Habit . . . Teens are reminded and welcome to attend the "Kick The Habit" workshop that takes place today, Thursday, June 2, at the Bunker Hill Teen Center, from 4:30 to 5:30 p.m. You won't be alone, 15 young people took part in the opening session. Jimmy Yandle did a fine job in getting the group together.

◆ Fast Break '94 . . . If you live at the Bunker Hill Development, and are age 16 or under, and are interested in basketball, Fast Break '94 is for you. Games will be played on Saturday mornings at the Fens and the league starts soon. Fast Break is part of the BHA Youth on the Rise Program. See Bob D. for further details.

tunity to explore attitudes about prejudice and to focus on workable solutions to racial, ethnic and religious problems in our schools. The Bunker Hill Teen Center hopes to have a delegation at this Congress.

◆ Year 5 . . . As I begin my fifth year on May 29, at the Bunker Hill Teen Center as the BHA Youth Worker, I want to thank everyone in Charlestown for the support they have given me, and the projects and programs I have implemented here at the Bunker Hill Development. I think we have done some pretty good things and the young people have been introduced to many diverse opportunities within and around Charlestown. Far from perfect, I have always tried to do my best, especially for the young people, and in so doing, I have always hoped to make Charlestown a better place and share with others the Charlestown Pride that we all really know about.

Like years one, two, three, and four, year five will be even more challenging for me, but as I said way back in 1990, we can do it, as long as we do it together. I don't like to dwell on the past, but to look ahead. Thank you again for all your help and care.

◆ Tidbits . . .

- Birthday best to Billy Barrands.
- Good to have Stephen Mahan home on leave for the weekend.
- Jimmy Vesey is quite upset that he wasn't voted in as president of the TAA Club, and is seeking a recount.
- Tommy Whelan was sighted in Southie over the weekend.
- If you see Dave Hurley, just call him Kinnicki.
- Timmy Monaco is back.

Last Week's Scores And Highlights

On May 23, the Teamsters beat Peg & Al's 11-2. John Fabiano was the winning pitcher.

On May 24, Joe Roche of the Cronin Club and Tim Dacey of the K. of C. hooked up in a terrific pitching duel. After six innings, each pitcher had allowed only five hits and three runs. The K. of C. tied the game in the last of the sixth on a two out, two-run single by Brian Dacey. Brian also pitched a scoreless top of the seventh inning, becoming the winning pitcher when a Joe Mikenas' two-out single in the bottom of the seventh, gave the K. of C. a 4-3 win.

On May 25, in a battle of nine year-old pitchers, John Jones and the Boys & Girls Club bested Jim Dyer and the McKeon Club, 14-13, for their first win of the year. A well done to both these young pitchers and to the Boys & Girls Club team for hanging in there!

Menino Unveils 'Street Smarts' Youth Violence Prevention Initiative

Mayor Thomas M. Menino has unveiled the Street Smarts Initiative, a public-private partnership of citywide programs designed to prevent youth violence in Boston, and issued a challenge to area businesses and citizens to help meet a $1 million fundraising goal for 1994.

Pointing to the cooperation among programs and corporate sponsors that drives this initiative, Menino said, "In this Youth Safety Year, the Street Smarts Initiative provides a powerful, comprehensive leadership displayed by Boston businesses and individuals, a sum of over $200,000 has been raised to date to support programs that will provide Boston's young people with viable, positive alternatives to street violence."

Formed by the Boston Management Consortium, the Street Smarts Initiative involves the Boston Police Department, Boston Public Schools, Boston Community Centers,

Citizens for Safety, the Suffolk County District Attorney's office, neighborhood organizations and a growing number of area businesses and includes five component programs:

- Multi-media arts contests — including poster and rap contests and the Louis D. Brown essay contest — will challenge Boston's high school students to develop their own ways of dealing with violence.
- The Gun BuyBack Program, sponsored by Citizens for Safety, will run from May 15 through July 8 to remove guns from Boston's streets.
- The Peace League, developed by Boston Community Centers and Citizens for Safety, will bring rival gang members together in basketball competitions to provide non-violent alternatives for interpersonal conflict.
- Non-violent martial arts training through the Boston Kung-Fu Tai Chi Institute will enable participants to learn constructive alternatives to guns and violence by developing the mental discipline that martial arts requires.

• Through Street Smarts Conflict Resolution, coordinated by the Boston Management Consortium, professionals currently involved in youth violence issues will be trained to teach Boston's young people skills to resolve conflicts non-violently. The professionals include officers and youth service officers from the police department's Anti-Gang Violence Unit, Boston Housing Authority Youthworkers and members of Youth Safety Task Forces in neighborhoods throughout the city.

Boston Police Commissioner Paul F. Evans explained, "The multi-phase Street Smarts Initiative builds on the three principles of community policing. Through partnership, problem-solving and prevention, the program takes a holistic approach to violence prevention among youth."

Guide to Long Term Care Alternatives Available

The Women's Educational and Industrial Union (WEIU), a non-profit social service organization in Boston, announces the availability of the 1994 Guide to Long Term Care Alternatives in Massachusetts (formerly titled Guide to Nursing Homes in Massachusetts).

The 15th Edition of the Guide provides information on all licensed nursing and rest homes in Massachusetts. Listings feature sections on admissions policies, services offered, languages spoken, federal and state assistance programs, and community support groups. New to this year's publication are listings of services for adults with disabilities, home health care agencies, geriatric case management, and listings of programs and facilities of housing for people with AIDS.

Now published annually by the WEIU in cooperation with the Massachusetts Department of Public Health, the Guide is the most comprehensive publication of its kind in the Commonwealth, and is used by gerontologists, hospitals, libraries, government agencies, and families for information on long-term care planning.

For more information on the 1994 Guide to Long Term Care Alternatives in Massachusetts, please call the Union's Home Care and Support Services department at 536-8210, x174, or stop by the WEIU located at 356 Boylston Street in Boston's Back Bay.

Locating Veterans Of D-Day

June 6 is the 50th anniversary of D-Day, the biggest event of World War II. Millions of people around the world will be involved in this tremendous celebration. On June 6, 1944, the Allies invaded Europe. This was the largest military invasion that has ever occurred. For many, it will be a time to reminisce about their lives during the war. Memories of military buddies and even romances will surface and many veterans will wish they could get in touch with their old friends. Although most people believe it is impossible to locate a person after 50 years, a retired Army Lieutenant Colonel explains how easily this can be accomplished.

Author and researcher, Lt. Col. Richard S. Johnson, is the nation's leading expert on locating anyone with a military connection. He has been instrumental in locating over 25,000 veterans. He helped one woman find a Navy medic she had dated during WWII and they rekindled a romance after 50 years.

"How To Locate Anyone Who Is Or Has Been In The Military: Armed Forces Locator Directory" details every conceivable way to locate current and former veterans of all wars. It also explains how anyone may obtain military records to assist in their search and to compile unit and family histories.

The book is available at book stores, military exchanges and from MIE Publishing, P.O. Box 5143N, Burlington, NC 27216.

VNA Airls 'A Home Remedy'

The Visiting Nurse Association (VNA) of Boston continues to air "A Home Remedy" on Boston cable's The Answer Channel. This live half-hour call-in program can be seen every Tuesday at 2 p.m. on channel 24.

Each week a variety of health-related issues of interest to Boston's elderly population are discussed. The goal of the program is to provide viewers with important health information aimed at keeping them healthy and independent at home.

Programs scheduled for the month of June are:

- June 7 - Warning Signs and Treatment of Skin Cancer.
- June 14 - Causes and Cures for Headaches.
- June 21 - Oh, My Aching Back: Back Care for the Older Adult.
- June 28 - Understanding Your Medicare Benefits.

Thank You, Mrs. Birmingham

Dear Gloria,

"Hi Tea" in the Community Room at the Constitution Co-op Apartments was made very special by Sen. Thomas Birmingham. His very very lovely mother, Agnes, arrived at 8 a.m. with two large boxes of homemade corn muffins for the occasion.

We really can't begin to tell you how surprised we were and how very thoughtful it was of her to remember us.

We thank her so very much.
Judith S. Meaney, director
Senior Services

Thank You

Dear Gloria,

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all of our good friends and neighbors who stood by our son, James Cotter. It was a fiasco from start to finish, but thank God, he and the Owens boy came out of it alright.

I would also like to give a special thanks to all who took the time out of their day to show up at the courthouse to give support to all the kids. And to Judy Evers, Moe Gillen and all the people that work with Jim, who stood by him all the way.

Thank you all,
The Cotter Family

B.H. Road Race
A Challenge

Where are the insults? Where are the nasty taunts? It's that time of year when local businesses compete against each other in the Battle of Bunker Hill Road Race. For the past several years, this spirited battle has been a highlight of this road race that benefits the Charlestown Boys & Girls Club. The race will be held on Sunday, June 12, at 9:30 a.m. and applications are available at the Boys & Girls Club.

Last year's winner,

Marathon Tours, narrowly defeated the Red Store, with McCarthy Brothers a close third. Other businesses competing were Alexander & Alexander, Collier's Market, Cook Street and of course, the Boys & Girls Club team.

To be eligible for the coveted "Business Cup," too ugly to describe, a team must have at least five members. Be sure to indicate your team affiliation on your application.

See you at the finish line!

Parade Chief Marshal To Be Honored At June 11 Banquet

Bunker Hill Post 26, The American Legion and the Bunker Hill Day Parade Committee will hold their annual "Nite Before" Banquet at 8 p.m. on Saturday, June 11 in the Preble Room, Building 5, in the Boston National Historical Park section of the Charlestown Navy Yard.

The honoree is Martin J. O'Brien Sr., a WW II Navy veteran, who is Chief Marshal of the 1994 Bunker Hill Day Parade.

A full-course chicken pie dinner will be served, and there will be Irish and dancing music by the McMurphys.

Tickets are $17 and may be obtained by contacting Arthur Hurley at 242-2724, Paul Morceau at 242-4781, Al Gallarelli at 242-5372, or purchased at the Patriot office, One Thompson Square.

To The People Of Charlestown

Dear Residents and Friends,

As I assume my duties to Area A-One, I offer the following thoughts: I welcome my return to Area A where I had worked from 1985 to 1989 as the Deputy Superintendent. I look forward to again working with the many friends I made during that period and meeting with newer friends in the months ahead. I fully intend to develop the strongest lines of communication with all residents and business people.

There are many challenges ahead. As the Boston Police Department fully implements Neighborhood Policing throughout the city, the commitment to the citizens of Charlestown will be coordinated, comprehensive and compassionate.

I will continue the commitment made by previous commanders with a series of communication vehicles with the intention of intensely listening to the concerns, problems and issues confronting the community. Together, we will work to resolve these concerns in the most practical manner.

However, I cannot perform miracles - I seek your support and cooperation. All resources will be brought to bear on issues raised, concerns expressed and problems identified. Hopefully, by working together, with clear lines of communication, the citizens, the community and the department will benefit.

Again, thank you and I look forward to working with you!

Sincerely,
Capt. Ronald X. Conway
Commanding Area A-1
Boston Police Department

Thank You, Old Charlestown Schoolboys

Dear Old Charlestown Schoolboys,

I would like to thank you for selecting me as this year's scholarship recipient. I appreciate it greatly and I am looking forward to moving on to Union College in Schenectady, New York in the fall.

I hope to repay you by one day returning to Charlestown as an engineer and offering my services wherever they may be needed.

Sincerely,
James M. Owens

A Big Thank You!

Dear Gloria,

As you know, moving is not fun! However, with help, it's a lot easier. On May 20, we had the chore of moving from the Senior Lounge to the Community Room at the Constitution Co-op Apartments. We owe a big THANK YOU to those who volunteered their time and energy: Marietta Correia, Pauline Correia, Vera Correia, Cathy Haywood, Randy Haywood, Ruth Smith and Beverly Tobin.

Thanks again, we truly appreciated your help.

Sincerely,
Judith S. Meaney, director

Voke Moves To Add More Boston Police

Local efforts to "beef up" community policing could get big support should the funding initiated by Rep. Richard Voke as part of the state's FY '95 budget make it through the adoption process. The House version of the $16 billion budget, recently approved by the House of Representatives, provides two pools of funding totaling $11 million to support specific communities. Through Rep. Voke's efforts, Boston is not only listed in both categories, but is also guaranteed funding based upon grant submissions.

"Instead of spreading a somewhat greater amount around the state, as the Weld Administration plan proposes, I have been successful in advocating in the House budget a concentration of funds in those communities who are most in need. While every community can probably make an argument why they need state support to add additional police officers to their forces, certainly Boston, and a handful of other communities, have the types of pressing needs which should be prioritized for this state support," stressed Voke, who, as Majority Leader, helps establish the policy objectives of the House.

Under the Voke plan, Boston would automatically be approved in FY '95 for the same $421,885 it received from last fiscal year's first-of-a-kind state community policing initiative. In addition, Boston would get an additional $1.5 million from a second funding pool.

Adding to the community policing grants, Voke says the House budget provides an additional $40 million to local aid, another $40 million for water and sewer relief, $214 million more in educational aid and $11.5 million to fully fund "Quinn Bill" incentives to educationally qualifying police officers.

"Getting state funds back to provide programs and services to the people I represent will continue to be my top priority. I am very pleased that Boston does so well in our budget," concluded Voke.

Money Matters by Nicholas C. Pino
"Let us assist you in your financial planning"

DIVORCE SETTLEMENTS NEED NOT BE TAXING

The tax consequences of family breakups can add to the trauma that accompanies divorce. All too often divorcing couples don't think about the tax ramifications until it's too late. Such oversights can affect their pocketbooks for many years. The time to contemplate these matters is prior to negotiating the divorce settlement - not after.

Planning to minimize your tax bill following a divorce can be a complicated procedure. But with the enactment of the Tax Reform Act of 1984, the rules have become somewhat easier for most taxpayers to understand. The federal tax law now provides greater flexibility in structuring divorce settlements to benefit both parties. As painful as most divorces can be, paying attention to the applicable tax rules before entering into any financial agreements can slash your tax bill for many years after the settlement is finalized.

Alimony and separate maintenance payments you make to your ex-spouse are generally deductible on your tax return. What's more, you need not itemize to deduct these payments. And, although such payments must be included as income by your ex-spouse, your former partner can use these alimony payments to qualify for an IRA.

While child support payments are never deductible, nailing down the dependency exemption can be important. For most agreements entered into after 1984, the parent who has custody can usually take the dependency exemption. But whether or not you gain custody, the parent who pays the child's medical bills can add them to his or her own medical deductions.

While attorney costs for a divorcing couple are generally not deductible, payments earmarked for legal advice concerning the tax consequences of the divorce are deductible. Make sure, therefore, that such costs are separately itemized on any invoices you may receive.

TO SEE HOW THIS CAN AFFECT YOU, CALL TODAY!

If you have any questions or concerns please contact Judy Evers at 635-3485.

★ Licensing Board Hearing . . . The Licensing Board for the city of Boston will meet at 10:45 a.m. on Wednesday, June 15 in Room 809A at Boston City Hall. They will hear the petition of Shark, Inc. d/b/a "R. Wesley's" 31 Cambridge St. #1, Charlestown. Manager Felix M. Taranto has petitioned for a C.V. 7-Day Malt and Wine License to be exercised on the above premises, in one room on the first floor used for dining, kitchen in the rear; storage in the basement with a 1:00 a.m. closing hour.

★ Thunderfest Power Boat Public Meeting

District 1 City Councillor, Diane J. Modica, in conjunction with the Charlestown Neighborhood Council and the Navy Yard Neighborhood Association, will hold a public meeting on Wednesday, June 8 at 8:00 p.m., at the Community Schools, 50 Bunker Hill Street to discuss the feasibility of a proposal from Boston International Sports promotions to hold the Thunderfest Power Boat Race in the Charlestown Navy Yard.

The Boston International Thunderfest is a power boating event of national prominence featuring 70-100 power boats participating in a speed race in the outer harbor. The event, if approved, is scheduled for Wednesday, July 27 to Sunday, July 30. The event would also include exhibits and entertainment and various other activities in the Charlestown Navy Yard. The event planners are anticipating up to 200,000 people to attend the event over the course of the weekend.

During the public meeting the proponents of the event will make a presentation and will answer questions and address concerns raised by the community. The organizers of the event would like to hear input from area residents and business persons relative to safety and traffic concerns. Residents will be given an opportunity to voice their opinions and concerns and to learn more about the proposed event. The meeting is open to the public and all are welcome to attend.

★ Street Reconstruction Update . . .

Work is proceeding on Winthrop, Tremont and Union Streets as part of the current Boston Redevelopment Authority street reconstruction project. Construction activities are scheduled to continue mainly on these three streets for the next few weeks.

The base course of pavement has been placed on Winthrop Street during the past week. Currently, work crews are resetting the granite curbing and are placing new concrete for the sidewalks. Wheelchair access ramps are being installed at the street corners and will be connected with crosswalks after the finish course of pavement has been installed.

On Tremont Street, work continues on construction of the brick-faced concrete retaining wall at the Harvard Kent School. The roof drain connections and the lead water services are scheduled for completion this week. Boston Gas Company crews are installing service piping to the concrete gas street light bases.

Excavation will start this week on the upper portion of Tremont Street. Placement of the base course of pavement is scheduled for next week and will be followed shortly by curbing and sidewalk replacement.

The drainage improvement work on Union Street is nearly finished and crews will now begin connecting building roof drains to the drainage system. Any existing lead water services will soon be replaced during this stage of work. Concrete bases and service piping for gas street lights will begin shortly as well.

Union Street residents are once more reminded that the locations for the proposed tree plantings as well as the new gas street lights will be marked out. Light locations will be marked with an "L" in white paint and a green circle with a "T" will indicate the proposed tree locations. Residents should immediately contact the Community Liaison Peter Looney at the number listed below if the locations present a problem or hardship.

Parking restrictions remain in effect on Winthrop, Tremont and Union Streets. Residents are requested to continue to comply with these restrictions so the reconstruction work can be completed as quickly as practical.

For questions, concerns or complaints, residents should contact Community Liaison Peter Looney at 722-4300, ext. 5674.

Help! Help! It's Your Parade

The Bunker Hill Day Parade on Sunday, June 12, marking the 219th anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill and the 200th anniversary of the construction of the original wooden monument by King Solomon's Lodge of the Masonic Order to commemorate the Battle, is less than two weeks away. The contributions again this year toward hiring bands, drum corps and other units are coming in very slowly.

If this trend continues and the Bunker Hill Day Parade Committee is unable to raise the $25,000 in funds to underwrite the expenses of the over 25 musical units and other units already committed to march, the committee will have no alternative but to cut the size of the parade drastically. The committee cannot put bands and drum corps in the parade if it cannot afford to pay them.

It is up to you, the residents, business persons and community organizations to come forward immediately and contribute financially to the Bunker Hill Day Parade, so that the committee can continue to put the type of parade on the streets that the community has come to expect and of which it can be proud. Although the monument, which appears each week in the Patriot acknowledges contributions of $25 or more, any donation is welcome. Residents of limited means, might consider donating the cost of going to a movie or renting a video, a small price to pay for the price of a Mummer's Band Concert on the eve of the parade, and the parade itself, an afternoon of great entertainment.

Also, committee members are in the mall and out on the streets selling chances and booster stickers, each for a minimum $1 donation. If you would like to assist with the fund-raising efforts, come to the parade meeting at 2 p.m. on Saturday, June 4, at the Bunker Hill Post 26, The American Legion Hall, 23 Adams St. (corner of Chestnut Street) or call the Patriot office 241-9511 and you will be put in touch with the fund-raising committee.

The committee is very appreciative of the continuing help and financial assistance of the loyal few, but there are many in the town who take the parade for granted and never contribute.

The committee is in dire need of assistance - won't you PLEASE HELP, IT IS YOUR PARADE!

Remember, there is much more to do so that we can have another successful Bunker Hill Day Parade and willing hands will go a long way to make this a grand celebration.

Commemoration Of The 50th Anniversary Of D-Day

The National Park Service will commemorate the 50th anniversary of the Invasion of Normandy on Saturday, June 4 at the Charlestown Navy Yard, announced Boston National Historical Park Superintendent John J. Burchill. The celebration honoring all those who served in Operation Overlord will include displays, films and tours.

Various New England collectors' clubs will provide World War II military and civilian vehicles to be displayed from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Throughout the day, there will be films about the Normandy landings and the Charlestown Navy Yard-built ships that took part in the invasion. Tours of the park's World War II Destroyer, USS Cassin Young will also be offered.

The US Navy's Amphibious Transport Dock USS Nashville, LPD-13, will be docked at the Navy Yard for the weekend. The Navy will be offering free tours of this ship during the day.

The US Army Reserve's 76th Army Training Band will perform World War II-era big band and patriotic music on Pier I at noon and 2 p.m.

A highlight of the day's events will be a wreath-laying ceremony by D-Day veterans at the Mass. Korean War Veterans Memorial, located in Shipyard Park on Pier 4.

"The National Park Service hopes that all Bostonians will turn out to honor our Normandy veterans, all of those who fought for freedom in World War II. We'd especially like to see as many D-Day participants as possible attend the day's activities which are honoring them," commented Burchill. Normandy veterans who are planning to attend the celebration are requested to call 242-5601 for more information.

Please note that all of the day's events and activities are free of charge. For further info, call 242-5601.

Bunker Hill Day Festivities

Saturday, June 11 at 5 p.m. at the Bunker Hill Monument. This is always a toe-tapping fun event for all ages. Residents are asked to remove their cars from Monument Square between Monument Court and Pleasant Street by 4 p.m.

The gala Bunker Hill Day Parade, led by Chief Marshal Martin J. O'Brien Sr., will get underway from Hayes Square at 12:30 p.m. on Sunday June 12. Over 25 musical groups have committed to march in the parade and various organizations are planning floats. Donations are needed to ensure the success of the parade and celebration, and booster stickers and chance books are presently being sold by members of the Parade Committee. Residents are asked to remove their vehicles from the parade route by 9 a.m. on June 12. (The map of the parade route will appear in next week's Patriot.)

The commemoration of the 219th anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill will be held on Friday, June 17. An Ecumenical Service at St. Francis de Sales Church, atop Bunker Hill, will begin at 9 a.m. A procession will then form on Bunker Hill Street and march to the Monument

Grounds for the patriotic exercises.

The day's activities will continue with the 171st annual meeting of the Bunker Hill Monument Association at noon at Bunker Hill Post 26, The American Legion Hall at 23 Adams St.

Please refer to the schedule of events elsewhere on this page, and be sure to pick up next week's Patriot for the parade roster and an update on activities for the celebration.

(NOTE: the re-enactment of the Battle of Bunker Hill is not scheduled to be held this year.)

Old Schoolgirls' Reunion

will be entering her sophomore year at Syracuse University in New York.

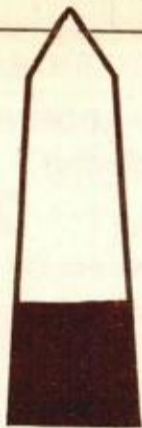

The officers of the Association who are completing the second year of their term are: President Margaret Barry McEleney, Vice President Eva DeAngelis Fleming, Treasurer Sister Stephen Marie, C.S.J. and Secretary Marie Flynn Walsh.

Serving on the executive committee are: Anna Burke, Marge McLaughlin Coleman, Catherine R. Collins, Rose Ruiz D'Ambrosio, Eunice Lagorio Corbett, Dolly Smith Murphy, Mary Hurley McGowen and Bernadette Gillespie Toomey. Past Presidents serving on the executive committee are: Mary Allwood Coughlan, Mary McGaffigan Doherty, Margaret Galloway Motherway, Katherine Martell Perreault, Kathleen Dunlea Twomey, and Eileen O'Brien Carroll.

Each member in attendance was presented with a booklet listing the names and addresses of the membership, along with an association pen as a memento of the reunion.

$25,000 is needed to put the Bunker Hill Day Parade on the streets of Charlestown on Sunday, June 12. With the fiscal constraints on the city of Boston, only a limited amount of money is being allocated to the celebration by the city, and each unit is asking for an increase in its fee. Thus, the success of the celebration depends on you - the residents, merchants and organizations. Donations of $25 and over will be publicly acknowledged.

Donations have been received from:

Gerry Malone, candidate for Suffolk County District Attorney	$1,000
Boston City Councillor Diane Modica	$500
Charlestown Lions Club	$200
Suffolk County District Attorney Ralph Martin	$200
