BotBuilder

Back in 2011, he launched and founded Cleverinvesting, an education and technology company that serves the real estate investing marketplace.

Next thing he did was turn one of his passions, board games, into a very profitable business with BoardGames.com and how is one of the highest ranked companies in the niche.

Next thing he did was revolutionize the lead generation industry and he completely crushed it with BotBuilders.

BotBuilders is a company that builds automated chatbots.

If you are not 100% sure what that is, it's automated messages through Facebook and Instagram chat.
