Hundreds Gather To Remember Victims At Sunday's Candlelight Vigil

Warm sunshine reflected from white and gold balloons as a strong spring breeze carried them upward, causing them to strain against their ribbon tethers only, to bounce back down again as the wind subsided. Large bows decorated the doors and handrails of St. Catherine of Siena Church in Hayes Square, inviting all to enter. The festive decorations were a welcome, but those who entered the church last Sunday afternoon came with heavy hearts, carrying the burden of the loss of a loved one, a friend, a neighbor, an acquaintance, or in support of those who are suffering the pain of losing someone to violence.

The occasion was a Candlelight Vigil under the sponsorship of the CHARlestown After Murder Program (CH.A.M.P.), a group of individuals with one of their purposes being the support of persons who survive the violent death of someone close as they seek to recover. Sandy King, whose son Christopher was killed in 1986 and son Jay killed in 1991, and Pam Enos, whose son Adam was killed in 1991, served as co-chairpersons of the Vigil.

As persons climbed the stairs into the church, they were greeted and presented with a scroll containing a copy of the poem "Wake Up, Charlestown" by Marilyn Abromofsky, encircling a fresh green carnation.

Music and scripture readings, poems and prayers carried the almost 400 people in the church through ★ Charlestown High School . . . A 16-year-old student at Charlestown High School was arrested by Boston School Police on Wednesday after a teacher was assaulted in the school's fourth-floor foyer.

The May 6 incident occurred at 9:30 a.m. when it is alleged that the student pushed the teacher against the wall, causing the teacher to strike his head and back. The teacher fell to the floor, and it was first feared that he had suffered a heart attack. The teacher was transported by ambulance to Mass. General Hospital where he was treated for head, neck and back injuries.

The student was restrained by school police and placed under arrest for assault and battery. He was taken to the Area A Police Station to be booked before arraignment at the Charlestown District Court.

Dennis McLaughlin Dies Suddenly At 51

Edward Dennis McLaughlin, chairman of the Charlestown Neighborhood Council, died suddenly of a heart attack on Saturday, May 2. He was 51 years old.

A lifelong resident of Charlestown, he attended St. Mary's Grammar School and graduated from Charlestown High School in 1960. He received an associate degree from Suffolk University in 1980, majoring in business.

Mr. McLaughlin, known to everyone as Dennis, was an active member of the community who was well known across the city and the state as an advocate for the betterment of life for those who live in Charlestown, as well as in every neighborhood of Boston.

In the fall of 1991 when Action for Boston Community Development honored him at its 17th annual Community Awards Dinner, his true essence was declared when they described Dennis in this way: "Always willing to lend an ear, he has the ability to make both the lifelong resident of Charlestown and the newcomer feel like part of the community." In presenting him with the ABCD Charlestown Community Award, it was noted that "his energy and dedication are an encouragement to others to participate in making their neighborhood a better place in which to live."

He played a key role in the development of affordable housing for young families in Charlestown and was a moving force in the construction of the 50-unit Bricklayer Affordable Housing complex on 13th Street in the Charlestown Navy Yard. At the July 1989 ribbon-cutting ceremony at the waterfront location, he said: "I'm thrilled with it. It chills me to think how great this all is. These are people I've known all my life. This is why we (the Neighborhood Council) got involved. This is a thrilling day!"

Following the December 1987 arson fire that destroyed the Old Kent School in Hayes Square that housed the Charlestown Head Start and Day Care programs, McLaughlin played an active role in securing funds to rebuild the facility.

His commitment to the community, and especially to the needs of its people, was apparent by his being a founder and an active member of the Charlestown Against Drugs program. At the time of his death, he was actively pursuing a means to provide housing and support for women recovering from alcohol and drug abuse. Through these efforts, the

DENNIS McLAUGHLIN

Charlestown/Armed Services YMCA, under construction in the Charlestown Navy Yard, has dedicated a program and lodging for this purpose.

He was the organizer, first president and member of the board of the Friends of Metro Boston Inc., which provides recreational activities for the city's homeless mentally ill. He was also an active member of the Friends of the Lindemann Mental Health Center and the Bunker Hill Health Center's Camp Bunker Hill.

Besides taking an active role in establishing affordable housing for Charlestown families and elderly, he also was a pioneer in creating a locally based program that would house abused women and their families.

Dennis was a founder of the Charlestown-To-Charlestown Committee and the Bunker Hill Irish Heritage Society. He had been a member of the Bunker Hill Associates since its founding in 1984, and was its secretary at the time of his death. As a member of the Associates, he served as chairman of the annual Charlestown Pride Week activities that take place each year around Bunker Hill Day.

He was a delegate to the Massachusetts Democratic State Convention in 1990 and was re-elected to that position for the 1992 State Convention to be held in Worcester later this month. He was also elected to the Ward 2 Democratic Committee this past November. Active in politics, Dennis served as coordinator of the Committee to Re-elect Raymond L. Flynn Mayor in the 1991 election.

He was appointed by Mayor Flynn to the Charlestown Neighborhood Council in 1986 and served as that body's chairman since January 1988. Under his chairmanship, the council deliberated over many controversial issues including the development of the Charlestown Navy Yard and the proposal to locate the New England Aquarium in the Yard.

Mr. McLaughlin was retired from the International Longshoremen's Association, Local 805. He expressed much pride in the I.L.A. as recent as the April Neighborhood Council meeting when he informed the I.L.A. that he would stand beside them on the picket line to fight to restore jobs on the Charlestown waterfront, feared lost through the Massachusetts Water Resources Authority's Boston Harbor Cleanup project.

Dennis leaves his wife, Jean M. (Smith) McLaughlin; one son, Dennis M. McLaughlin; three daughters, Denise Dagle, Jeanmarie O'Neil and Stephanie McLaughlin, all of Char-

DOG DAYS?

While most Realtors are animal lovers with pets of our own, we've also shared stories of having fingers or ankles nipped by furry creatures that have lived in our listings. Or we open the door to a home, and a purebred Persian kitten scoots through our legs toward the nearest busy street.

If you have pets, and you're about to put your house on the market, work out the showing arrangements carefully. It's important that we communicate to colleagues what to expect when they pass through your front door. While it's rare for pets to pose significant problems, a few do — especially very big dogs. Occasionally, we run into buyers (or agents) who are allergic to dogs or cats. Some are even a little phobic. It can be difficult to get a buyer excited about the possibility of living in your home if he's sneezing or cowering in a corner afraid of being Fido's dinner. If we know there might be a problem, we can arrange ahead of time for you to walk the dog, vacuum up the cat dander or do whatever is needed to make sure the showing goes smoothly.

If you are considering a move, contact the professionals at Monument Properties. Stop by our offices at 85 Warren St., Charlestown or call us at 241-5900.

In Memory Of Dennis McLaughlin ONE OF GOD'S CHILDREN

*He was a husband and a father of four,
A legit politician from the old Longshore.*

*He always had faith in the power above,
He was a man of peace, and a man of love.*

*He was a Townie who was one in a million,
And he truly was one of God's children.*

*He carried the message and he spread the news,
He would help people stop singing the blues.*

*He'd do you a favor for nothing in return,
He'd pass you the torch and it wouldn't even burn.*

*Now Dennis has gone to heaven up above,
And only in memory can we send him our love.*

*But remember my friends, he's still one in a million,
'Cause you never die

Limited Plastic Recycling Begins In Charlestown May 9

by Jim Gascoigne

The Charlestown Recycling Volunteers are pleased to announce an expansion of recycling services to our neighborhood. Beginning Saturday, May 9, the drop-off center will begin accepting plastic bottles labeled # 1 (PET, commonly used for water and milk jugs and other translucent bottles) and # 2 (HDPE, usually opaque, colored bottles like laundry detergent or shampoo).

Please note that only BOTTLES can be accepted at this time. A bottle is a container with a larger body than mouth or opening. For instance, we cannot accept yogurt cups, butter tubs, toys, plastic bags or other items, even if they are labeled # 1 or 2. These items are manufactured with a different process than bottles, and cannot be intermingled for the purposes of recycling. You will be asked to take inappropriate items back home with you, as we do not have the capacity to dispose of them.

To determine the type of plastic, simply turn the bottle upside down and look for the reduce-reuse-recycle triarrow. The number inside the familiar symbol describes the type of plastic used to manufacture the bottle.

To prepare plastic bottles:

- First, use all the product inside. Turn bottles upside down to drain, and you'll get an extra wash or shampoo;
- Second, remove all caps, pumps, spouts and any other materials, and discard them. These are made by a different process than the bottles and cannot be intermingled for the purposes of recycling. Labels may remain; and

- Third, rinse all containers. Consider the aroma of a month-old crust of milk before violating this rule.

You may want to consider looking at the type of plastic before making your purchases. Your decisions at the store can have a great impact. Buy only items which are packaged in materials that are currently being recycled in the city, and you lessen the amount of materials you waste.

The Charlestown Recycling Drop-off Center, sponsored by the Boston Department of Public Works, began accepting glass and mixed metals in December. Charlestown residents voluntarily staff and operate the center on the second Saturday of each month at the Bunker Hill Mall. The next recycling day is Saturday, May 9 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Your help is needed to continue to expand the program. You are urged to participate by recycling your trash, and by volunteering. Call 241-9784 for more information.

What Family Means To Me

by Janell Justice

Family means loving and caring. Family means giving and caring. But most of all, I think it means always having someone there for you. To help you celebrate your success. And help accept your defeat.

Family means always having someone there who loves you. And having someone there to talk to. Family is a special gang who is there for you and who loves you. When you have a special family who loves and cares for you like that, you don't need anyone else in the world.

★ St. Francis de Sales School . . . A suspicious fire caused an estimated $500 in damage to St. Francis de Sales School on Bunker Hill Street. The May 5 fire was discovered at 9:20 a.m. Students and faculty members were evacuated safely to Bishop Lawton Hall where they waited until they could return to the building.

The smokey blaze had its origin in the boys' bathroom on the basement level of the three-story building. A water sprinkler system and quick response by the Boston Fire Department (BFD) are credited with preventing major damage to the school. Students were allowed back into their classrooms at 9:50 a.m.

BFD Engine Companies 32 and 50 and Ladder Company 9 responded from Charlestown. North End Companies Engine 8 and Ladder 1 were also dispatched, as were Rescue 1 and the Tower Unit from downtown Boston. The Cambridge Fire Department sent its Ladder 1 to assist.

St. Francis de Sales School is in the midst of celebrating its 100th anniversary Jubilee. A reunion of over 750 former students and friends of the school took place on May 1 at Caruso's Diplomat in Saugus. Bernard Cardinal Law will concelebrate a Mass in honor of the occasion on Sunday, May 17.

★ Charlestown Man Murdered . . . Boston Police have no leads in the May 2 murder of a Bunker Hill Street resident. Andrew Sheehan, 28, was found shot to death in his car at 6:04 a.m. by firefighters from BFD Engine Company 32. The car was located at the Sullivan Square rotary, and Sheehan was found slumped over the steering wheel.

According to the police, Sheehan had been shot several times in the head and face. Several bullet holes found in the car indicated that the shots were fired from outside the vehicle.

The victim was transported to Mass. General Hospital where he was pronounced dead at 6:28 a.m.

The murder is being investigated by Area A Detectives, the Boston Police Homicide Unit and the Suffolk County District Attorney's office.

★ Mishawum Park Water Shut-Off Averted . . . Boston Water and Sewer Commission (BWSC) Executive Director Robert Ciolek states that the scheduled May 5 water shut-off at Mishawum Park was called off when representatives from Phipps Management Co. met with the BWSC on April 30.

Ciolek informed the Patriot that the development's management company and BWSC reached an agreement on a payment schedule for outstanding water and sewer bills for the complex. Ciolek also stated that a written "Collection Agreement" was signed by Phipps Management Co. to continue payments until all back charges are brought up to date as well as keeping current charges up to date. Ciolek said that if the agreement is broken by the management company, the complex would "go back on the shut-off list."

Meanwhile, Ciolek stated, the BWSC is willing to work closely with the tenants of the housing complex to keep them informed on the payments and, hopefully, avert any future threat of water loss to the residents.

★ Charlestown Neighborhood Council Meetings . . .

Neighborhood Council Vice Chairmen Peter Looney and Tom Cunha have announced that due to the sudden death of Chairman Dennis McLaughlin on May 2, the following meetings have been cancelled:

- The Mitigation Committee Meeting on May 4;
- The Council's Monthly Meeting on May 5;
- The Planning and Zoning Committee Meeting on Monday, May 11; and
- The Community Benefits Committee Meeting on Monday, May 11.

— The Charlestown Neighborhood Council Monthly Meeting has been rescheduled for Thursday, May 21 at 7 p.m. at the American Legion Hall, 23 Adams St.

The following Council committees will hold meetings as previously scheduled:

- The Public Safety Committee/Police

Community Relations Committee, chaired by Mel Stillman, will meet on Tuesday, May 12 at 7 p.m. at the Charlestown District Court in City Square.

— The Environmental Committee will sponsor a tour of the Boston Edison Plant on Wednesday, May 13 at 7 p.m. Residents who wish to tour the facility should meet at the main gate of the plant at 173 Alford St. at 7 p.m. Included on the agenda is an update on the Edison Company's Mystic Station with the differences from the new Boston Station in South Boston being noted.

The tour and meeting has been organized by Chairperson Judy Brennan.

The public is welcome to attend all meetings.

Looney and Cunha regret any inconvenience that the cancelled meetings might have caused residents, but stated that out of respect for Mr. McLaughlin's family and many friends in the community, it was necessary to reschedule these meetings.

Residents wishing to obtain more information on these meetings or other Council matters, can call Judy Evers, community liaison from the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, at 635-3485.

★ Board Of Appeal . . . The Public Facilities Department, for the National Council of Senior Citizens, appeared before the city of Boston Board of Appeal on May 5 requesting to erect a 6-story building at 100 Ferrin St. (the corner of Bunker Hill Street). The structure would contain 42 apartments for low-income elderly.

The Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services (MONS) and City Councillors Robert Travaglini and Albert O'Neil asked the Board to approve the proposal. The Boston Redevelopment Authority requested approval with design review. J.K. Kennedy Center Executive Director Kate McDonough also voiced her approval for the elderly housing complex.

MONS Community Liaison Judy Evers informed the Board that the Charlestown Neighborhood Council had voted unanimously to endorse the proposal.

The Board approved the proposal with design review by the BRA.

★ Charlestown Navy Yard . . . The Draft Environmental Impact Report for the Biomedical Research Center proposed for Buildings B and C in the Yard's End section of the Charlestown Navy Yard has been published by the BRA.

Victor Karen, BRA Deputy Director for Economic Development, has made copies of the two-volume report available to the public. They may be obtained at the Patriot office at One Thompson Square.

Karen stated that although the development of the biomedical research center has been brought before the community through the Neighborhood Council over the past two years, the draft report was submitted to the state for approval only last week. Karen said that the BRA will make a presentation before the Council at the next scheduled meeting to bring the community up to date on the proposal.

★ Charlestown Street Reconstruction Update . . . According to Ralph Cunningham, resident engineer with Bryant Associates Inc., the engineering firm overseeing the street reconstruction project, work is on schedule and proceeding without any interruptions.

Cunningham stated that the contractor, John Mahoney Construction Co., started up a second crew this week, excavating pavement on Nearen Row. The street was excavated, the curb and sidewalk removed and new light boxes installed. The contractor asked to excavate both sides of the street at the same time because it is so narrow, and did so upon receiving permission from the BRA.

The first crew completed hooking up the temporary water services on Chestnut Street and Mt. Vernon Avenue. With the assistance of the Boston Water and Sewer Commission, the crew activated the temporary by-pass water main. The water main crew also started at the Lowney Way end of Chestnut Street with new water main installations. They installed a new gate and connected it to the existing six-inch line from Putnam Street.

A change in the schedule will see Mt. Vernon Avenue being done along with Mt. Vernon street because the existing water main has to be shut off and joining the two streets will save on the amount of time residents will be inconvenienced by a loss of water.

The reconstruction project has begun on Essex Street with drainage and street work beginning this week. Next week, work will start on Adams, Devens and Washington streets.

Cunningham stated that overall, the no parking and traffic programs are working very well.

For questions or concerns on the project, call Megan Mahoney at 696-8446.

Hundreds Join In Candlelight Vigil In Remembrance Of Charlestown Victims Of Murder

CANDLES were lighted from the Easter Candle at St. Catherine's Church and distributed to participants at the conclusion of Sunday's Vigil.

personal thoughts and memories. As the people took their seats in the pews, soloist Debra Rogers touched the hearts of the gathering with her rendition of "Lean On Me."

When King came forward to welcome the audience, she spoke of how parents of murdered children really need the song and the message of "Lean On Me." She said that everyone's help was needed to stop murder after murder, noting that there were 50 victims of murder on the CH.A.M.P. roles, the latest one being only Saturday.

Father Ron Coyne, pastor of St. Catherine's Parish, was joined on the altar by Father William McConnell of St. Francis de Sales. Father Coyne spoke of his nearly two years here in Charlestown and the warm, welcoming people. He said that people come here from all over the world to visit the historic sites and they see a happy, vibrant community. He noted that what is not seen are the tragedies from murder and violence, the aching hearts and the sadness. In his prayer, Father Coyne said that the loss of a child is the greatest pain a person can experience in life, pointing out and giving thanks for the people who want to reach out and help those who are in pain.

Tears flowed as the children's choir sang "Let There Be Peace On Earth," with their young voices filling the church and its people with hope.

Marilyn Abromofsky, aunt of the slain Kenny Claudio, was introduced by Enos as a person of great courage who urged the members of CH.A.M.P. to go on. Abromofsky read a poem she had written for her friend Joann Barrett on the loss of her son Robert. She then read her poem "Wake Up, Charlestown" noting at its conclusion that there is a code of silence here in Charlestown. She said that she hoped the people would cooperate with the police, adding, "charge, arrest, convict and get them (the murderers) off the streets."

The song "My Son" was offered by Irish vocalist Joe Glynn, and this was followed by the reading of a poem by Peter Enos in memory of his brother Adam.

As vocalist Debra Rogers prepared to sing "Memories," she asked those in the audience with children to hug them as she sang, and those whose children were not present to hold them in their hearts. She then wrapped her arms around her own daughter and thrilled the gathering with her beautiful rendition of the song.

As the service drew to a close, Father Coyne said that he had been asked to deliver a blessing. He told the audience that it was not just a priest who could give a blessing, stating that the presence of the CH.A.M.P. group in the community is a great blessing. Father went on to say that some children are unhappy and while there are many sad people in church for the Vigil, there is a difference in being unhappy. He added that there is hope in our hearts that things will get better and there will be an end to hatred and violence so no one else would experience losing a child through violence.

Vocalist Steve Sweeney and his singing group concluded the program with a song about the rainbow.

The gathering, which included Sen. Thomas Birmingham, Boston Police Commissioner Francis "Mickey" Roache and a delegation from the Boston Homicide Unit, then filed to the front of the church where each was presented with a candle lighted from the large Easter Candle.

All gathered on the church steps with their candle in hand and stood in silence as the list of residents of Charlestown who were victims of murder were read. As each name was spoken, Matthew King tolled a handbell in his or her memory.

Yes, there were many tears shed on Sunday, but it was a time for caring — caring about the true victims of murder, those who are left behind.

If their song is to continue, then we must do the singing.

Girls Club Holds Annual Reunion — Presents Seven Scholarships

Women who had spent a great deal of time as youngsters taking part in the programs and activities of the Charlestown Girls Club, came together recently at the Knights of Columbus Hall to share memories and to honor seven Charlestown youth with scholarships.

Lois Gallagher, a member of the Reunion Committee, acted as master of ceremonies. She spoke of the women in whose name the scholarships are given annually — Peggy Doherty Graham, the sewing teacher and a director of the club; Elaine Redgate, a director of the club; and Kay Wall, who worked at the front desk of the club. Gallagher expressed thanks to the Graham and Redgate families for financially supporting the scholarships.

A new scholarship was added this year, dedicated in memory of Mary O'Halloran who died in December 1991. Mary became a member of the Girls Club at age 7. She attended St. Catherine's Grammar School and was awarded a four-year scholarship to Mount St. Joseph Academy, thus she was most aware of the importance of scholarships in assisting young people in pursuing their education. Mary devoted her life to education, and the scholarship in her name is a fitting tribute. The funds for the award were donated by the Graham family.

Gallagher stated that the quality of all the applicants this year was outstanding. She said the scholarships are presented to eighth-grade students to go toward their freshman year in high school. She noted that they must have good grades and write an essay on the Boys & Girls Club in order to be considered for an award.

Recipients of the 1992 scholarships are:

Michael Sullivan, a student at St. Francis de Sales School who will attend Arlington Catholic High School, was awarded a Redgate Scholarship of $1,000; Erin McDonough, a stu-

The annual reunion of the Charlestown Girls Club provides an opportunity for old friends to meet and for the club to assist the young people of today with scholarships that go toward their high school tuition. The scholarships are given in memory of three women — Elaine Redgate, Peggy Doherty Graham and Kay Wall — whose untold contributions of time and energy influenced the young girls who crossed the threshold of the Girls Club, with the addition of a new scholarship this year honoring the memory of Mary O'Halloran.

Kelly Gilgunn, a student at St. Catherine's School who will attend St. Clement's High School, was awarded a Redgate Scholarship of $500;

Christine Locke, a student at St. Francis de Sales School who will attend St. Clement's High School, was awarded a Redgate Scholarship of $500;

Jamie Carroll, a student at the Taft School who will attend Don Bosco Technical High School, was awarded the Girls Club Reunion Scholarship of $500;

Vinnie Sassone, a student at St. Catherine's School who will attend Don Bosco Technical High School, was awarded the Graham Scholarship of $250; and Helena Reilly, a student at St. Catherine's School who will attend Matignon, was awarded the Mary O'Halloran Scholarship of $250.

In addition to the awards, a special presentation of flowers and a plaque was made by the Reunion Committee to Connie MacDonald, director of education at the Charlestown Boys & Girls Club. Gallagher told the gathering that MacDonald had done much for the children of Charlestown and she was concerned about them 100 percent of the time. She spoke of the innovative programs that MacDonald had instituted at the club, noting that she has helped the children prepare to face the opportunities of life. MacDonald received a standing ovation from the appreciative audience.

BOB D'S BEAT

by

Bob DeCristoforo

■ A Time To Remember . . . I got a good dose of Christopher Columbus High School memories over the weekend. So get out those Columbus yearbooks, and we will take a little sentimental journey back in time.

A few of the old faculty and staff took Father Alphonse Umana out to dinner on Saturday and it was a time of sharing some very happy memories. We all had one goal at Christopher Columbus High School and that was caring very much for the young people who came through our doors, and in so doing so we became a very close and caring staff. This was very evident last Saturday. Attending the function were: Brother Joe LaGressa, Mr. Bruno, Mr. Finneran, Brother Paul, Mr. Bombaci, Mr. Myette and his wife the former Miss DiCenso, Mrs. O'Connell, the former Miss Gargiulo, Maureen Malinn Sullivan, Anna Buccieri, Dolores Merola, Dolly Gambale and Frances Cardone. The owner of the restaurant was faculty member Mr. DiPasquale.

A little later on Saturday evening, I had the pleasure to attend the homecoming graduation party of the newest Townie Marine, John Johnson. There was a lot of love in the room, and I saw many fine Columbus alumni among the guests - Tommy Carroll, Brian Davis, Mike Flammmini, Brian Wadman and Chris Goggin, to name a few, and I couldn't help to think that many of the people I had just left at the dinner had a positive influence on the lives of these young people, and how proud they would be to see that many of these Townies had reached some of their goals.

Even a little later Saturday evening, indeed early Sunday morning, I got into a lengthy conversation with 1969 Columbus Hockey Captain, Townie Tom Crowley, who has also coached a number of fine Charlestown youth hockey players and teams. In a place also filled with many Columbus people, Tom brought up some more fine memories and names - Coach Warren Lewis, Coach Kevin Walsh, Coach Dennis O'Connell, Mr. Burke and Father Demetrious, now Father Robert Caprio - to name a few.

Crowley and this '66 Columbus grad agreed that Columbus High was truly a special place, and the love and caring that I felt this past Saturday was truly a hallmark of the school.

■ BHA Talent Showcase . . . On Monday, May 18, the Boston Housing Authority will present a talent showcase at the Berklee Performance Center, beginning at 7 p.m. Tickets for this show may be obtained from youth worker Bob D. at $5 each. This money helps to fund the annual BHA Jamboree in the summer.

■ Special Thanks . . . Just a word of thanks to Bob Coleman, Bob Krol, Jason Duncan, Jamie Hutchings, Paul Auch, Tim McLaughlin and Jason Britton who helped obtain some furniture for the soon-to-be Bunker Hill Teen Center. Support from these fine young people and those who donated the furniture is most encouraging and much appreciated. We also thank the Boyden family for their support.

On our wish list for the immediate future is a pool table and a weight bench.

■ 635-HOPE . . . Just a reminder . . . If you are looking for a Red Shirt job this summer, all youth are asked to call the Hopeline at City Hall . . . 635-HOPE . . . don't hesitate!

■ CH.A.M.P. . . . On Sunday, I attended the very beautiful, very emotional and very moving vigil at St. Catherine's Church hosted by CH.A.M.P. - Charlestown After Murder Program.

To all involved, thank you for what you have given all of us in the community.

C.Y.O. & St. Catherine NEWS

by Father Ron Coyne

• St. Catherine's Color Guards — We had a very successful registration for St. Catherine's Color Guards, and practice for the new season will begin on Monday, May 11 at the Kent Community School, 50 Bunker Hill St. Our new "Little Townies" will practice for the first time at 6 p.m., followed by our veterans who will now be called St. Catherine's "Townies." All parents are encouraged to be at the first practice to meet other parents and become acquainted with the program.

• St. Catherine Color Guard Banquet — Our wonderful "Little Townies" will hold their end-of-the-season banquet at St. Catherine's School Hall, Tufts Street, on Saturday, May 16 at 6 p.m. All family members and friends are invited. The cost is $3 per person.

• CYO Baseball And Softball Coaches — We are deeply grateful to the young adults and adults from our community who are willing to share their time and talent with our young people. Our coaches are the backbone of our CYO sports program.

This summer, our girls softball coaches will be: Midgets (under 12) - Sheila Brown and Jean Halley, Bantams (under 14) - Stoney Boutwell and Mary Featherston, Cadets (under 16) - Maryellen Evers and Pauline Vacheresse and Juniors (under 19) - Michelle Junta and June O'Connor. Any girl or boy who has not registered but is interested in playing for CYO this summer, should call Father Coyne at 242-1750. Practices are getting underway. Girls games begin on June 6 and 7, and boys games begin June 20 and 21. The registration fee is $15 per person, or $25 for a family of two or more.

• Red Sox Tickets — We have 40 tickets for bleacher seats for the Red Sox vs. Seattle Mariners game on Wednesday, May 20, beginning at 7:35 p.m. Tickets are $3.50 each and are available at the rectory, 49 Vine St. All ages are welcome.

• Special Thanks — The members and coaches of St. Catherine's CYO Girls Softball Teams are deeply indebted to the Charlestown-To-Charlestown Committee for its recent donation of $1,000 to purchase softball jerseys for every CYO softball team this summer. Through their generosity, we are able to continue to allow the young people of Charlestown the opportunity to be involved in the CYO sports program for very little cost. The check was presented by Charlestown Mayor Pat Harty and committee chairman Arthur Hurley at the Evening of Irish Entertainment for Charlestown senior citizens, also sponsored by the Charlestown-To-Charlestown Committee.

• Anything Goes Night A Success — We had to compete with the Bruins' seventh game playoff against Buffalo, but we still had six exuberant, energized teams of adults competing in our first annual "Anything Goes" Night last Friday at St. Catherine's Hall. Congratulations to our winning team, Club 42, with Carl Jaena, Billy Stella, Dave Jackson, Greg Jackson and Dana Curry.

There was a wonderful spirit present throughout the evening as we laughed at ourselves and with one another. We wish to extend special thanks to our Ladies' Club members who donated their time.

• Herb Reed and The Platters Return — The world-famous 50's group, led by Herb Reed, will return to Charlestown with a show at the K. of C. Hall on Friday evening, June 12. There will be two shows, one at 9 p.m. and the second at 11 p.m., included in the $20 ticket price. There will be light refreshments and a cash bar. This trip is open to others of all ages who would like to join us. The cost is $319 per person with four to a room. For more information, call Father Coyne at 242-1750. Your child may go with us and we will chaperone him or her.

Nate Hurwitz Tourney Wrap Up

On April 18, the 70th Nate Hurwitz Basketball Tournament came to an exciting conclusion.

The Buddies, an AAU team out of Fall River, took home the 13-and-under championship with a 25-point win over Braintree.

The Greater Boston AAU program took both the 16-and 19-and-under championships in two closely fought contests with the Buddies. In the 16-and-under championship, Brian Skerry of Medford High was named Tourney MVP. Wayne Turner of Beaver Country Day School took MVP honors in the 19-and-under championship.

The men's open championship went to the Costello Insurance Company who ran away from the number-one seed, 6 D.L., and posted at 20-point win.

The girls title this year went to Portsmouth, N.H. The team won a hard-fought contest with the Condon School of South Boston. Condon led throughout most of the game but wasn't able to go the distance.

The final results were:

Girls

STANDING beneath the James Briers plaque, which was unveiled during the finals of the Nate Hurwitz Basketball Tournament, are Dennis Borden and Mary Jeanette Murray. Borden was this year's recipient of the Fred Sullivan Award which is given annually to the Charlestown player, coach or tournament official who has made an outstanding contribution to the tourney. Murray is the daughter of the late Nate Hurwitz.

MEMBERS of the Jimmy Briers family were on hand for the finals of the Nate Hurwitz Basketball Tournament for the official unveiling of a bronze plaque in Briers' memory. Briers taught basketball at the Boys & Girls Club for over 20 years, and passed away in 1991. Club alumni donated in his memory so that this plaque could honor his contributions to the growth and development of Charlestown youth. The inscription on the reads: "James J. Briers, 1912-1991, a gentleman — a coach, above all a friend to the young people of Charlestown." This year's recipient of the James Briers' Sportsmanship Trophy, given annually at the Hurwitz Tourney to the person or team which best exemplifies the ideals Briers taught the youth of Charlestown, was the girls team of St. Francis School in Medford.

CHAD Tennis Team Plays Two Matches: Girls Practices Get Underway

by Lawrence Henry

The CHARlestown Against Drugs (CHAD) Boys Tennis Club has played two matches in the past two weeks, kicking off a full summer schedule of meets with schools and clubs in the surrounding area.

On April 26, in frigid cold, the team drove to Belmont High School and played shortened eight-game sets of singles and doubles against the Belmont High varsity squad in the Belmont field house.

While rain poured down outside the unheated field house, CHAD team members Josh Smith, Vinnie Tamburello and David Burns won their singles matches. In doubles, the teams of Ming Ngan/Emmanuel Gabriel and Vinnie Tamburello/Jeffrey Andrea won their matches.

Jamie Andrea and new team-hopeful Steve Linnane also made the trip, along with Sheila Summer and Mary Ann Smith, who will play on the CHAD Girls Tennis Club squad this year.

The next Saturday, in perfect tennis weather (overcast, temperature in the 60s, no wind), the CHAD squad drove to Phillips Academy in Andover to play the "B" squad of the Phillips Academy tennis team.

The CHAD squad played full three-set matches against a well-trained, experienced opponent, and lost every match.

The boys didn't seem to take it too hard, however. As the squad left the meet, they were marveling at the beautiful Phillips Academy campus, and were filled with praise for their opponents.

One of the boys noted that Phillips, on the same weekend, was meeting Navy in track and field, and that the tennis "A" squad was playing MIT.

Jamie Andrea, in particular, played tough competitive tennis, displaying a fine combination of brains, firepower and hustle against his Phillips opponent.

Between the two matches, CHAD head tennis coach Tom Desmond held the first girls team practice on Tuesday, on the courts behind Charlestown High School.

Desmond says he expects to hold practice three times a week during the summer, if possible. The plan now, he says, is to hold practice for the girls Tuesdays from 6 to 8 p.m., practice for both boys and girls from 6 to 8 p.m. on Wednesdays and practice for the boys from 6 to 8 p.m. on Thursdays.

"We like practicing in Charlestown," Desmond said. "It attracts more kids to the program."

Desmond urges any Charlestown resident who want to help coach tennis to contact him or any other CHAD team member.

CHAD's address is P.O. Box 35, Charlestown, Mass. 02129.

To Potential Rose Candidates . . .

As you know, this year is the 10th anniversary of the Charlestown Rose Contest. This annual event brings both happiness and pride to our community. I would like to encourage all interested young ladies to take advantage of this experience by applying to be a contestant.

I would like to explain the way the contest is held. I have been made aware of the fact that potential candidates do not vie for the title because they are nervous going through the interview process. In all honesty, the interview is nothing to fear or even be nervous about. The judges are very friendly and attempt to make you as comfortable as possible. For seven minutes, you are required to speak to three judges about yourself. The questions they ask you are not even thought provoking because you already know all of the answers! The judges' questions are based solely on your application, nothing else. However, there is one minor exception. The one thought-provoking question you will be asked is: "Why do you want to go to Ireland?"

Because I gave you this question in advance, you now have time to think about your unique answer prior to the contest. Therefore, the night of the interview, you will be totally prepared to answer all questions; there is absolutely nothing to be nervous about. The entire interview process is a casual conversation, nothing

That's it! Seven minutes of your time is all that is required of you. After your interview is finished, you are free to enjoy the rest of the evening with your family and friends.

The night is very enjoyable and an excellent experience for you. Every contestant is rewarded in that you prove to the community that you have the pride and responsibility required to stand on a stage and represent Charlestown. You display true "Townie Pride" by being a contestant. You have nothing to lose yet everything to gain: experience, satisfaction, friends and a crown!

There are plenty of applications to accommodate the vast majority of women between the ages of 18 and 23 in Charlestown. Where are all these young ladies hiding and why? Wouldn't you like to be Charlestown's 10th Rose with Pat Harty as your Mayor and companion, and travel to Ireland? You can not win unless you try. I guarantee you will thoroughly enjoy yourself in this annual event. Spare seven minutes. It could turn into a memorable year for you.

If I can answer any questions you may have, please don't hesitate to call me at 241-9433. Best of luck to all of you. (You just took approximately 2.5 minutes to read this. If this was your interview time, it would be more than a third of the way finished.)

My Sincere Thanks

Dear Friends,

After several weeks of hospitalization in the Mass. General, I have finally been released with a clean bill of health. It is impossible for me to contact all of you who have helped me in my long illness. Your many acts of kindness added sunshine to what would have been bleak days. Thank you for cards, flowers, assurances of prayers and personal visits.

I am especially grateful to Fathers Canniff and Mahoney and the chaplains at the hospital. Their spiritual concern meant a great deal to me. Dr. Penn and the nursing and medical staff at the hospital had the perfect mix of professionalism and compassion that hastened my recovery.

The concern of all my neighbors and the many kindnesses they showed me made me aware of what it means to be a "Townie." Thank you all and God bless you!

Jo Healy

My Sincere Appreciation

Dear Gloria and the staff:

Words cannot express my heartfelt thanks to all who sent me cards, plants, letters and Mass cards during my recovery from surgery a short time ago.

My sincere appreciation to all.

Thank you,
Bill McKeon

In Memory Of Andy Sheehan A SHINING STAR

*I never was an angel, I never was a saint,
I used to pretend to be someone that I ain't.*

I had a friend named Andy, and he was just like me Always looking for the answers to questions we couldn't see.

*Andy had a shining star that followed him around,
And it would shine on him whenever he felt down.*

*Now sadness overcomes me, it's much worse than I feared,
For when I looked upon the sky, the star had disappeared.*

*I kept looking toward the sky, I kept looking all around,
I must have looked forever, but the star could not be found.*

*Will I see the star tomorrow, or will my heart cry on?
It's a bitter pill to swallow, to know my friend is gone.*

Goodbye Andy, may God and your shining star shine on you forever.

Your friend, Ronnie Doe

Charlestown 520 Baseball Club Holds Fund Raiser

by Kevin "Scoop" Kelly

As the Charlestown 520 Baseball Club prepares for its second season in the Tom Yawkey Baseball League, a fund raiser was held at the Knights of Columbus Hall to offset the substantial costs of running the team. The club extends its appreciation for the generous donations received from local businesses and to those who attended the fund raiser.

Anyone interested in making a donation to help sponsor the team, even if it is only $10 or $20 — every little bit helps — please send a check, payable to the 520 Baseball Club, to: P.O.

Box 645, Charlestown, Mass. 02129.

The 520 Baseball Club is comprised almost entirely of "Townies" and the team, ably coached by Charlestown High's Mike Sheeran, is expected to be a strong contender for the league championship. Last year, despite a slow start, the team won nine of its last 11 games to qualify for the playoffs in its first year of league play. The club also returns three All-Stars in pitcher Joe Upton, catcher Neil Keane and outfielder Dave Jackson.

Other Townies playing important roles include "Big" Kevin McGrath, Carl Jaena (the team's spiritual leader), Rob "Lefty" McIntosh, Paul "Nifty" Wrenn, Dave LaPointe (the team's all-around player), Jimmy "CH" Burke, Craig and Scott Killgallen, Bill Connell and, of course, scorekeeper Mary Theresa Lynch. Shortstop Kevin Turner has also been pegged as an impact player.

Last season, the club's calling card was pitching and defense, and that is not expected to changed this year. The team's starting rotation remains intact with Upton (6-3, 2.36 ERA), Eric "The Red" Johnson (5-2, 2.52 ERA) and Ed "Baseball" Dyer (2-1, 2.45 ERA).

However, it's not too late for anyone interested in trying out for the team. Rumor has it that many of C-Town's "old fogies" (READ: over the hill) former baseball standouts are considering dusting off their considerable old baseball cleats for one last go-round on the diamond.

Anyone seeking information or trying out for the team, should contact assistant coach Joe Travis at 241-9151.

The Central Artery Topic Of Adult Discussion Group

The Adult Discussion Group of the Charlestown Branch Library will present a program on the Central Artery/Third Harbor Tunnel (CA/T) with Stephen Collins, community liaison of CA/T. The program will be held on Friday, May 8 at 10 a.m. at the library, 179 Main St.

Collins will review the work that is almost completed on the Central Artery/North Area (CANA) roadway construction project. He will present a slide show and answer questions.

Suggested books to read in conjunction with this program include: Boston:

The Job Ahead by Martin Meyerson and Edward C. Banfield, Environmental Impact Report on Central Artery (I-93)/Tunnel (I-90) Project by the Massachusetts Department of Public Works and Rites of Way: The Politics of Transportation in Boston and the U.S. City by Alan Lupo, Frank Colcord and Edmund P. Fowler.

*****

The May 15 meeting will be an evaluation of recent programs at 10 a.m. followed at 10:30 a.m. by the Pre-school Story Hour graduation.
