Chief Marshal Florence Johnson Leads The 1986 Bunker Hill Day Parade

CHIEF MARSHAL Florence Johnson led the 1986 Bunker Hill Day Parade on Sunday, June 15th, which commemorated the 211th Anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill. This year's parade was dedicated to the Prisoners of War and the men who are Missing in Action in Southeast Asia. The Bunker Hill Day celebration was made possible by the generous donations of residents, local organizations and businesses, as well as elected officials and can-

Community Input Sought On Visitor Amenities At Navy Yard

The Boston National Park Service, in order to meet the growing need for visitor amenities, has drafted a pro-

Mass Of Thanksgiving Will Honor Sister Theresa Lucier, S.P.

A Mass of Thanksgiving honoring Sister Theresa Lucier, S.P., will be celebrated in Saint Mary's Church on Sunday, June 22nd at 11:30 a.m. All are invited to share in Sister's celebration and to join her at a Reception in the Parish Hall immediately following this Mass.

For twelve years Sister Theresa Lucier, S.P. has labored in the vineyard of Charlestown, spreading the word of God among the members of Saint Mary's parish and beyond. She has worked tirelessly with the sick, the elderly, the infirm. She has extended herself to the young people and adults.

To select the crowning glory of her tenure here, Sister co-designed, organized and ran the Mass of Anointing. The yearly event, a combination of religious, social and community involvement epitomized Sister's commitment to God, the individual and society. It was her opportunity to do in a large group setting what her daily routine of home visits and personal contacts accomplished.

In Sister's mind, everyone works for the Lord. People whose only concerns were family, work and Mass on Sunday found themselves drawn into an activist role on behalf of the sick, the elderly, and youth. Special meals (continued on page 6)

Neighborhood Council To Meet

The next meeting of the Charlestown Neighborhood Council will take place on Monday, June 23, 1986 in the third floor Library of the Mary Colbert Apartments, 20 Devens Street, at 7:00 p.m.

All are welcome to attend.

HOW DO YOU PRICE A HOME?

If you are considering selling your home, here are some of the factors to consider when pricing it:

- location (location, location!)
- construction (brick - wood), condition, systems, appearance
- rental income: rent-control vs. de-control or exemption
- mortgage rates (at an 8-year low, but have moved up slightly in recent weeks)
- Federal Tax Reform (anticipation of changes to the tax rules has many buyers waiting and not buying)
- Boston's condo ordinance (has made some properties more desirable, some other properties less desirable)
- comparable sales (shows what buyers have been willing to pay for similar properties)
- competing properties (since buyers shop around before buying)

Does all this sound complicated? It is! Pricing your property for sale is the most important step in selling.

Careful pricing saves time and gets you a better price sooner rather than later.

Finding A Home For Charlestown's Cobblestones

In the process of rebuilding Main Street, a large number of cobblestones have been uncovered. A provision in the state's contract with Baker Construction sets aside a portion of these cobblestones for the people of Charlestown. The contract also authorizes the Charlestown Preservation Society to oversee their distribution.

The Preservation Society is currently working out arrangements for temporary storage.

We are also trying to find out how many people in town would like to have some of these cobblestones for their own use. Do you have a drive or alley that you want to pave, a garden to edge, or a wall to rebuild? If so, write and let us know your plans. Our intention is to sell these cobblestones at a modest price to the people of Charlestown. Any profit realized would be used to support other open space projects in town.

While the details still need to be worked out, we need to know how many people are interested. Help us keep this part of Charlestown's past a part of the town's future. Send your name, address, and the number of cobblestones you would like to: Cobblestones for Charlestown, c/o Charlestown Preservation Society, Box 201, Charlestown, MA 02129.

THE MULTIPLE LISTING SERVICE

Over the past ten years, the Multiple Listing Services around the country have revolutionized the way real estate is sold. When an agent lists your home for sale, he takes all of the pertinent information about the property and places it in a computerized inventory bank.

Once a home is placed on MLS, agents all over town have immediate access to information about price, location, the number of bedrooms and baths, the kitchen equipment and other appliances that convey with the home, the size of the yard, the type of heating and air conditioning systems, the garage, and a host of other features. The system allows agents to feed in their buyers' basic needs and match them up to the listings of all area Realtors. When you list your home, you, in effect, employ not only the listing agent to market your home, but hundreds of his colleagues all over town. They can then work cooperatively to get your property sold as quickly as possible.

By placing your home on the Multiple Listing Service, you have the most effective advertising there is, because it reaches the people who are so influential in getting homes sold — the Realtors working with qualified buyers!

If there's a move in your future, call the professionals at Century 21, Silva Realty Associates. Our number is 242-7470 or just drop by our offices at 142 Main Street. We're happy to serve all your real estate needs.

Each office is independently owned and operated.

Thank You From Charlestown Rose

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the members of the Charlestown-to-Charlestown Committee, the judges of the contest, and most of all to my family and friends who encouraged me and stood behind me. I hope to do my best and make them proud of me during my reign as the 1986 Charlestown Rose.

Love and thanks,

Jack Sheehan's Resignation Accepted! Why?

I have been working for the young people of Charlestown all of my life and when I hear that Jack Sheehan of the Kennedy Center has resigned his position, I wonder WHY???

Jack, as we all aware, is a caring, dedicated individual. He has done much for all of us and losing him is a hard blow to take.

We keep hearing that our young people need heroes, people to look up to, and Jack Sheehan is truly a hero. We need him now more than ever. The kids of C'Town need him now more than ever.

To think that his RESIGNATION is final is unacceptable.

Open Letter - To The Charlestown Community

We would like to take this opportunity to THANK ALL of the people of Charlestown for their support and enthusiasm in connection with the Charlestown 10K Road Race.

With the support of the merchants of Charlestown and the businesses in the surrounding vicinity, as well as all the parents, residents, volunteers and especially the runners, the road race, once again, resulted in a success.

The boys and girls of the Charlestown Boys and Girls Club and the Road Race Committee wishes to extend their sincerest THANKS to all and we hope your support will result in the continued success of the Battle of Bunker Hill Day 10K Road Race.

A Weekend To Remember

Starting with the beautiful weather we were blest with, this year's Bunker Hill Day Weekend was one to be remembered for a long time.

The Historical Demonstration of the Battle of Bunker Hill on the Monument Grounds, sponsored by the Charlestown Militia Company, was excellent and you could see that the hard work of the Militia Company in just a few short weeks really paid off. The man who topped it all off was Bernie Kelly, who narrated the Battle, giving the history without ever looking at notes. I think he was at the original battle, but I can't be sure!

Following the Battle, the Mummies Band from Philadelphia gave the most beautiful concert in front of the Monument. People were dancing in the street to their excellent musical selections. Their enthusiasm rubbed off on everyone there.

The Annual "Nite Before" Banquet, held in the Preble Room at the former Officer's Club in the Navy Yard was the best in many years. As you know, it took 211 years for the men to find out that a woman could also lead a Parade and we are happy it was Florence Johnson.

The Bunker Hill Associates' First Annual Brunch was something that everyone should get tickets for next year. The organizers of this function did a wonderful job.

Last, but certainly not least, the Parade — and there is not enough words to tell you how wonderful it was. It was the best in many a year. Jim Conway and his committee are to be thanked for all the work they have done.

Anyone who had anything to do with this wonderful weekend — thank you for giving us a time to remember.

Kay Whelan, President
Charlestown Historical Society/Bunker Hill Museum

An Open Letter

On Monday afternoon, June 16th, my grandson came to pay a visit to me with his friend who was coming to Charlestown for the first time. Not finding me at home, he asked around if anyone had seen me. He then took his friend down to the Athletic Field to show him where he always plays ball when he comes to Charlestown. (Too bad, I might add, that more of our kids don't use the field instead of destroying it the way they have.)

On the way back to my house, as they cut from Medford Street into the projects at Carney Court, they were met by ten kids who I'll call punks because of what they did to both my grandson and his friend.

It is too bad that kids from Medford can't walk through Charlestown without being harassed and beaten up.

You don't own the town, punks. All I can say is you left a lasting impression on two innocent kids. My grandson told you he was visiting me and gave you my name and you didn't know me, by the way, but I am sure I know each and every one of you. I have lived in this area since the project was first opened.

I am sorry to say that I am really disgusted at this point. What's it going to be next time, guys? Are you going to grab old ladies? You are real nice kids! I suggest that you smarten up before it is too late.

Margie O'Halloran

Winners In Lip-Sync Contest

On behalf of "Toys For Puppies and Kitts," I wish to thank all those who helped to make the Lip-Sync contest a success.

The Master of Ceremonies, David Flanagan, who took on the unaccustomed task of facing an audience, quickly took control with his wit and charm.

The judges, who scored fairly even though this was not their area of expertise, were Carter Luke, Director of Shelters M.S.P.C.A., Steve Wachman, Director of Education and Information A.R.L. of Boston, and Sheila Brown, representing Councillor Mike McCormack.

The performers were all winners, for without them no contest could have taken place. Special mention is made of Deke Longueil and Friends, whose energetic and eye-popping performance of "Hot For Teacher" by Van Halen, earned First Place. This group plans to continue in this field and are worth paying to see, so keep a look out for them in the future. Second Place was won by Terry Sarno, whose vivacious rendition of Patti LaBelle's "New Attitude", got the show off to a great start. We can only hope she expands her repertoire and we can see her in the future. Third Place was won by Gail Podolskie, whose intense version of "Paradise" by Bette Midler continued the fine performances throughout the evening.

We must all thank and congratulate the audience that braved the inclement weather to see our humble show and give support to the abused and unwanted animals that hold a special place in all our hearts.

The local businesses and private parties were generous in their contributions of the prizes and we thank John Mulcahy of Store 24 who contributed the balloons to decorate the stage.

Special thanks is given to the two McGann brothers at the Charlestown High School, whose patience and assistance helped to ease the anxiety which accompanies any activity of this sort.

Last but not least, thanks to my colleagues, without whose devotion and work the plans for this show never would have left the drawing board: Dennis M. Isbart, Assistant Director and Organizer; Paul J. Pisari, Director of Communications; and Linda J. Christian, Assistant to All.

Michele M. Isbart, Director
Toys for Puppies and Kitts

Thank You

Dear Editor:

We would like to express our sincere appreciation to the members of this year's Bunker Hill Day activities in honoring me to represent the World War I Veterans as an Honorary Chief Marshal of the 1986 Bunker Hill Day Parade with such a distinguished group.

We were all proud to be back up to our good friend and hard worker for all of Charlestown, Chief Marshal Florence Johnson. To my old friends and relatives along the route, thank you for your kind reception and honors.

As a former Navy man, some 68 years ago, we are proud to see so many Navy personnel take part in the American Legion Banquet and the Parade. It brought back memories of two sons in the Navy, one of whom took command of a destroyer in the Charlestown Navy Yard in the sixties.

Now in the 80s, we look forward to the Navy tradition in Charlestown with the Commissioning of the USS BUNKER HILL, CG-52 and would like to present a check to help kick off the planned party for the crew in September.

It will be another proud day in the history of Charlestown.

Sincerely,
Joseph P. Kelley
Honorary Chief Marshal, 1986 Bunker Hill Day Parade
65 year member A.L. Post No. 26

Who's Town Is This?

Editor:

Who's town is this, anyway? Recently a writer to the Patriot commented in distress that the Phipps Cemetery was in disrepair, littered and not maintained. The writer further noted that the cemetery had been registered by the National Historical Society, and wondered where they were since they were not maintaining it.

Who's town is this, anyway? Towns are maintained by people, not governments or societies. The Charlestown Preservation Society organized a cleanup campaign for it last year, which was under attended and whose efforts were soon obscured by additional litter. And recently the bones of our long dead predecessors have been strewn about in the tombs. Who did that dastardly deed? People from the town, that's who. Who litters the place? People from the town, that's who. Who is responsible to clean it up? Somebody else, that's who.

Yes, a good question he asks, "Where is our pride?" We're so busy blaming the "Yuppies" and the "Townies" and the kids and the government and the politicians and the outside investors that we haven't the time to clean up our own streets, our own town. And as long as we're blaming others, we are adversaries. Where is our sense of community? Where is our sense of responsibility for the town where we live?

We are all in this same place together. Either we all work together to make a better place to live, or it remains a battle over who's responsible. And as long as it remains that battle then someone else is responsible, and we live in filth.

There was a man named Sam who lived here a few years ago, who saw the greatness and history in the old buildings in Charlestown, and did what he could to save them and their spirit, the spirit of mankind which built those buildings. But one person cannot do the job. It is too much for anyone to carry. The burden of the world killed Christ.

The cemetery is a small thing, but it is symbolic. This is our world. We make it, we live in it. Whatever it is, it is from our contribution and involvement as a community — or lack of contribution. Either we do it together or it won't be done. There is no other way.

We cannot help but touch and affect each other. Let it be to build a better place in which we can all live.

Steven the Carpenter

Cemetery Vandalism — A Hurt Community In Need Of Repair

Charlestown can't be a town in the warm neighborhood sense of that word, unless it is a community. Recently, on May 31, 1986 the Boston Globe's front page article entitled "Historic Cemetery Vandalized" really raised this question of community. If someone or some people miss the connection of the past community with the present community, that is, the dead with the living, even if it is just the bodies which once enshrined the souls and personalities of characters who walked these narrow streets of cobblestone, we need to find out why. What was their motivation behind that series of violating actions at the Phipps Street Burying Ground? Was it drug or alcohol induced - where people got out of hand? Was it related to some occult fascination? Or was it rage filled action at the present community for seemingly forgetting to recognize the needs from some of its younger members who feel left out among the swift and slick changes in the present community? Or a combination of these and other reasons?

As a member of Charlestown who feels a grateful allegiance to the Judeo-Christian tradition which gave us this community life that holds us together, I believe we have more class than to let this go unchecked. Lets talk, gang.

We are not the police, but unmet friends who find actions like these committed at our cemetery at times not beyond the realm of our fragile, wounded and complex personalities. Lets try to heal this painful community situation by understanding it first. Lets talk, gang. Call, write or come down and visit with me about what you know actually happened. I can be reached at 242-1272.

Sincerely hopeful of a better way,
Brian Murdoch, Pastor

Establishment Of The William F. Boyle Memorial Award

In memory of the late Executive Director of Mrs. Bee's Gardens, William F. Boyle, and in gratitude to Jackson & Perkins for introducing their roses to our community gardening efforts, Mrs. Bee's Gardens is establishing an annual William F. Boyle Memorial Award.

Receives Master of Science Degree

Approximately 1,700 degrees were awarded by Tufts University during its 130th commencement May 18th on the University's Medford campus. Local graduates included Miele Shona Stewart Fox of 172 Bunker Hill Street, Charlestown, who majored in Civil Engineering. Fox received a Master of Science degree.

Tufts University, established in 1852, has an enrollment of more than 7,000 students on campuses in Boston, Medford and Grafton, and is made up of a unique combination of schools pro-

Receives Honors

Matignon High School, under the direction of Principal John M. Twombly, Jr., announces that Sharon Beasley of Charlestown has earned Honors Recognition for the fourth marking period.

This award is open to all residents of Charlestown. Applicants must have a garden with a Jackson & Perkins rose. It is required that at least one child assist the applicant in the gardening activities. Judging will follow the Suffolk County Extension Service guidelines. The awards will be a $100 viding broad opportunities for study and research.

bond for First Prize with three additional gift certificates awarded from Jackson & Perkins for first, second and third runners up.

Jackson & Perkins roses were first introduced to the Bunker Hill Development in 1982. Their quiet and enchanting beauty has dramatically enhanced the landscaping efforts of the youth of Mrs. Bee's Gardens of Charlestown. These regal blossoms have created an atmosphere of dignity and grace which radiates throughout the community.

Mrs. Bee's Gardens is extremely grateful to Jackson & Perkins for their generous and consistent contributions. It was through the personal efforts of William F. Boyle, the late Executive Director of Mrs. Bee's Gardens that the Bunker Hill Community became acquainted with the quality of Jackson & Perkins roses. Mr.

Boyle frequently said that the Jackson & Perkins roses brought beauty into the lives of others and above all, gave children not only the opportunity to touch beauty but to appreciate it as well.

Mr. Boyle's sentiments concerning the children's appreciation are quite evident. It is quite captivating to view a child enjoying the beauty, the splendor and the fragrance of a rose.

For application, call Mrs. Bee at 241-9260.

Residents Critical Of Police Response To Problems At Eden Street Park

by Marianne Martin

Echoes of community complaints expressed at past meetings were heard at this month's police community relations meeting, held on Tuesday, June 10th at the Kent Community School. Complaints such as the increasing problems of youth loitering, public drinking, the lack of adequate police protection and poor response to residents' calls to 911 were reiterated by those present.

The Eden Street Park, a popular hangout for local youth and site of many public drinking parties, was the topic of many resident concerns. Several abutters of the park attended the meeting to voice, once again, the number of problems which they are experiencing, despite numerous calls to the Area A Police Station, calls to 911, and their monthly reports at the Charlestown Police Community Relations meetings.

"I realize these kids need a place to play, but I have to work in the morning," one woman told Boston Police Officer John McLean. She said not all of the troubles in the park involved drinking, stating that many of the kids in the park were only playing basketball late at night, listening to their portable stereos, and using abusive language. "All I hear is 'F-this' and 'F-that'. It's not that I've never heard those words, but when you're in your living room, you don't want to hear that."

Another added, "All we want is a good night's sleep. We don't wait up for them. They wake us up."

The majority of the time, residents stated, calls to Area A or to 911 are fruitless, because either the calls go unanswered or, as residents nick-named, "Officer Friendly" responds.

"I love it when the police arrive like gang busters with the lights flashing and they fly over the curb into the park and turn into 'Officer Friendly,'" said one woman. Another added, too many times when the police arrive they are quick to "yell and swear at the wrong kids" and be "nice to the trouble makers." The resident referred to an incident last summer when there was a group of youths drinking in the park in the afternoon and when the police arrived they threw young mothers with baby strollers and kids aged 12 and 13 out of the park, but left the drinkers alone.

Two Sundays ago, there was another episode of "Officer Friendly", one resident reported, when after a call to 911 about youths drinking in the park in the early hours of the day, an officer responded and was "buddy-buddy" with the youths. "I called 911 and five minutes later 'Officer Friendly' showed up. He said to them, 'You have to leave. We got a call. Why don't you go home and sleep a couple of hours so you can watch the Celtics game. I can't. I have to go to a wedding'."

Another resident told McLean of another incident she witnessed, "I saw a cop bring beer back to the kids two hours after they took it away."

"Aren't these cops instructed to arrest these kids when they are drinking," asked one woman, to which McLean responded, "Yes."

The woman continued, "Well, why don't they?"

Others commented that the police should not tell the kids that "they got a call" when they respond to the public drinking or loitering. "They (the kids) know there was a call," said one woman, "because we all call. They don't know who called, but they know we did."

Living near Eden Street Park and Main Street has afforded many of those present an education on criminal activities which they would rather not see, many told McLean, referring to incidents they have witnessed of drug dealings and selling of stolen property. Many stated if they knew of these incidents, the police must also and should be doing something about it.

Some commented that it was frustrating to attend the monthly police community relations meetings. "They (the police) get mad because they say people don't get involved," one woman said. However, another added, it was hard to get involved when the police do not respond, or come to the meetings and "yes us to death."

One woman referred to the irony of police protection in Charlestown. "If we were having a party at our homes, the cops would be there, but not if we were drinking in the park," she continued, noting that parties in the park were not just beer bashes, but involve the use of pot and cocaine. "They are sniffing in the day. It makes you wonder what they do at night."

One resident said that the police should not be concentrating their efforts on traffic violations in the Sullivan Square area, referring to the officers who are often seen outside The Schrafft Center. McLean told the residents that traffic violations are a citywide priority and the police department is trying to "change Boston's image" because "everyone here is driving anyway they want to."

"Why can't Barney Fife (a nickname the residents attached to the officers in Sullivan Square) come up to Main Street where everyone triple parks?" asked another resident. "When he leaves Sullivan Square, he drives right down Main Street and he has to wait until the traffic clears to get through."

McLean, who has in the past several months addressed many of the residents' individual concerns, told those present that he was sympathetic with their complaints and promised to forward their concerns as he has each month to Deputy Superintendent of Area A, Ronald Conway. "I'll tell my boss that you people feel you're wasting your time at these meetings," he added.

One woman commented that she would like to see Commissioner Francis Roache and Mayor Ray Flynn take an interest in Charlestown. "Flynn and Roache are on T.V. more than test patterns," she added.

Another asked what a resident would have to do to meet with Roache about their problems, or have Deputy Conway attend the meetings. McLean said he could not promise that either Roache or Conway would be at the meetings in the fall when they resume after a summer recess. However, McLean told the residents that if they felt the police department was giving them "a raw deal", they should "follow through" with their complaints by contacting Roache and Conway by phone or through letter.

One woman told McLean she saw no relief to the problems that plague her neighborhood which only intensify as the weather gets warmer and promised that she would see McLean in the fall.

Mass Of Thanksgiving Will Honor Sister Theresa Lucier, S.P.

Charlestown as the finest of her career. She found the genuine nature of the parishioners of Saint Mary's, the urgency of their calling to assist in the works of charity and their fidelity to their religion unique and inspiring. Her sadness in parting is exceeded only by her zeal to carry on her works of God's love among the people of Milford, Massachusetts as a Pastoral Associate.

SISTER THERESA LUCIER
Sister's sincerity and her fervor gave sustenance to hundreds of people in Charlestown. A person's conviction was not Sister's reason for action, only their need. If someone needed care, housing, food, counsel — that prompted Sister to act. If her means of support were not sufficient to the task, agencies and outside professional services were aligned to the task.

Her constant goal — to do the work of the Lord in relieving pain, grief, suffering, remained unabated during every day of every year of her devotion to Charlestown. Sister's example of sacrifice and service will be as hard to duplicate as the smile on Raphael's Madonna.

Hazardous Substance Discovered By Local Boys In Vacant Lot

by Kathy Giordano

On Thursday, June 5th at 5:45 p.m., the Boston Police and Fire Departments responded to the rear of 57 Russell Street, a vacant lot at the corner of Wall and Walker Streets, where a group of six young boys found a black trunk containing two contamination suits and a cylinder marked Halocarbon 13.

The boys, while playing with the cylinder, released a gas which formed a vapor cloud of the chemical substance chloroprifluoromethane. This substance is a liquid gas used to contain fires in computer rooms and if released under pressure in a closed area, can cause rapid suffocation. Due to the damp and humid conditions of the day, the vapor cloud hung over the boys who were taken to the Massachusetts General Hospital by the

A Fire Department spokesman stated that "the boys were very lucky that the cylinder was accidentally opened in the open air. If it had been opened within a closed area, such as an attic, the boys would have been in real trouble." The Fire Department spokesman cautioned that anyone finding such material should not take it upon themselves to examine it, but instead call either the Police or Fire Departments immediately.

Plan is a guide to the long-range management, preservation and development of the lands and structures which comprise the National Park Service portion of the Navy Yard. Among the changes proposed are: Providing an outdoor warm weather seating area to accompany an indoor food service; a shift in emphasis at the Commandant's House to make the facility more available to the public; and adaptive reuse of the Ropewalk and Chain Forge, with private developers funding the restoration and exhibit developments.

The Park Service requests that public comment on this plan be forwarded to the Park Service c/o either Burchill or Debo before June 30th. The address is the Boston National Park Service, Charlestown Navy Yard, Charlestown, MA 02129.

Art Exhibit At Charlestown Navy Yard

The United States Navy and Boston National Park announce the opening of the exhibit "The Sinews of War," at the Charlestown Navy Yard. More than 50 paintings by official Navy artists will be on view to the public, free of charge, every day from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., from June 21st to October 19th. The show will be located at the Visitor Information Center next to the USS Constitution.

The paintings dramatically depict scenes of combat, life at sea, and ship-building and repair activities in shipyards. Nationally known artists in the show include William F. Draper, Albert Murray, Milton Jamieson, and John Charles Roach. A number of the paintings appeared in Life and National Geographic magazines during World War II. Other paintings in the show have never before been on public exhibition, including rare views inside the Boston Navy Yard and the Fore River Shipyard in Quincy on the eve of World War II. The paintings are on loan from the United States Navy Art Collection in Washington D.C. and from the private collection of William F. Draper.

The Charlestown Navy Yard was an active naval facility from 1800 to 1974. The yard includes USS Cassin Young, a restored World War II destroyer; the USS Constitution; the USS Constitution Museum; and one of the first drydocks built in the United States.

"THE SMITH STILL FIGHTS" by Dwight Shepler, part of "The Sinews of War" Exhibit to be on display from June 21 to October 19, 1986 at the Boston National Historic Park, Charlestown Navy Yard.

Community Of The Heart

Today's the day! The 17th of June
And I sit, desolate, in Florida
There are no waving banners
And no traces of revelry
No dear, familiar faces.

And, where's the ham?
Where's the potato salad, the meat balls,
Cole slaw and the like?
Who took the cheesecake and brownies
Those welcome goodies that delight?
My palate grew accustomed to the bliss
The gourmet ecstasy of stuff like this.

Yes, I was blest in years that have transpired
But did not realize the scope of my content
A lonely minstrel now, I'm mired
In memories of what these meetings meant.

And so, dear ones, before the marching starts
Take notice of the presence of my heart
And lift a glass to those, our finest hours Wherein the seeds of love took root and flowered.

NOTICE TO RESIDENTS

Main and Warren Streets Reconstruction

Excavation and the drainage work, including work on catch basins and storm drains, has been completed along the first 1,000 feet of Main Street. The pace of the work has slowed down a bit as engineers await the arrival of the necessary material to change some of the water lines, including fire hydrant locations. The first layer of pavement reconstruction has been completed, namely the layering of gravel and rough grading.

All work is being done between Mishawum Street and Albion Place behind the median barriers. Engineers state that none of the work should affect residents or traffic and remind residents that cars parked in the work area will be towed.

At the time of The Battle of Bunker Hill, First Church was already 144 years old, in service as a Church.

Today, 211 years later, we continue to serve and to bid welcome to all our friends and neighbors in this proud Town.

Congratulations on a Safe And Happy Celebration!

Philadelphia String Band Concert Held At Monument

A special added attraction during the Bunker Hill Day celebration was a concert on Saturday, June 14th at Monument Square by the Polish American String Band from Philadelphia. The band, the first place winners in the Mummies Parade in Philadelphia on New Year's Day 1986, entertained the gathering with music ranging from polkas, to swing, to show tunes — dressed in their award winning costumes depicting "Dr. Hi-Tech and His Robot Ramble".

Captain Ray Danielewicz related the history of the Mummies to the gathering and went among the audience shanking hands with the youngsters, posing for photos and signing autographs. The Music Director was a show unto himself as he conducted with total commitment.

The spirit of this band, with their colorful blue, green and silver costumes was contagious, and the hand clapping and foot stomping soon lead to dancing by children and adults alike on Monument Square. Members of the Militia and their ladies, in full colonial garb, even performed a chorus line dance to the strains of "New York, New York".

This event was more than a concert — it was a stage show that delighted all in attendance and added a new dimension to the Bunker Hill Day Celebration.

Edward M. Burns, Suffolk County Assistant District Attorney, and candidate for Sheriff of Suffolk County, noted recently that, although he is a Malden native and a resident of Winthrop for the past 12 years, "my Irish-immigrant grandparents first settled in Charlestown in the late 1800's."

Burns' grandfather, Edward E. Burns, came to Charlestown in 1881 from County Cavan, Ireland. He worked as a teamster and apprentice undertaker at the old Callahan Funeral Home on the corner of Warren and Winthrop Streets. "He used to drive the horse-drawn hearse over to the Holy Cross Cemetery in Malden", Burns said. "When he decided to become an undertaker in his own right, he felt there were already enough Irish-Catholic undertakers in Charlestown, so he decided to set up the business near the cemetery in Malden." The business concern, E.E. Burns & Son, still operates in Malden today.

"Though I wasn't lucky enough to be a 'Townie' myself," said Burns "I've sure got Charlestown in my blood. I was very gratified by the warm reception and hospitality I enjoyed this past Bunker Hill Day weekend by my many Charlestown friends, old and new."

As a historical note, Malden was a part of Charlestown until 1649, when separate townships were established on each side of the Mystic River.

DAY CAMP

For the past sixteen years, the Bunker Hill Health Center has operated an outdoor recreational therapeutic day camp for Charlestown children. For eight weeks each summer, eighty young boys and girls between the ages of five and 14 are bused to Hale Reservation in Westwood. There they engage in a full program of outdoor activities such as camping, swimming, boating, hiking, sports, a ropes course, and environmental education. These activities are intended to help the children understand, respect, and learn to master their environment. In the process of accomplishing these goals, the campers increase their own self-esteem and achieve greater self-control.

Using this typical day camp program as its foundation, the camp is able to offer a program that uses a full range of therapeutic techniques. These techniques are holistic in scope with a specific focus on helping the participants to develop coping and internal control skills, to initiate or increase social and behavioral skills, and to decrease and eliminate inappropriate behaviors. To accomplish these goals, the staff at camp are trained to use a token economy system, modeling, role playing, and a formal program which teaches problem-solving skills, relaxation techniques, and self-instructional training.

In order to achieve maximum effectiveness for this comprehensive program, a dedicated staff must be recruited and trained to work with the camp's population. The group size must also be small enough to ensure that each participant benefits fully from the total camp experience. Parents, of course, are the key element to the success of the camp's operation. Their ability to work together with the camp staff ensures maximum benefits for their children.

Throughout the years, Camp Bunker Hill has been supported financially by a number of agencies and institutions. Their support has enabled us to develop a quality program which serves a population which cannot afford expensive camp fees. We hope that our program will continue to provide services for many more years.

Anyone interested in learning more about Camp Bunker Hill or in helping with the fund raising efforts crucial to the Camp's continued survival, can call Thomas Panowicz, M.Ed., Director, Camp Bunker Hill, 242-5760. In Memoriam Betty Smith 1916-1986

by Oren McCleary

In the world of sculpture, her professional world, Betty Smith was known as Elizabeth MacLean Smith, but to us in Charlestown she was just Betty. Her move here 21 years ago was really a homecoming, for her house and adjoining barn (which became her studio) were situated on property that had belonged to her Frothingham ancestors, who helped Governor Winthrop settle the town. She was proud of the contributions the Frothinghams had made to Charlestown — of Major Benjamin Frothingham, a distinguished cabinet maker whose service in the Revolution was so valued by George Washington that he visited the Major after the war at his house on Main Street; of James Frothingham the eminent painter; and of Historian Richard Frothingham, Jr. ("great-grandpappy," as Betty always called him), who lived at Monument Square and wrote The Siege of Boston. Life of Joseph Warren, and

The History of Charlestown.

Like her ancestors, Betty left her mark on Charlestown. As a member of the Historical Society, she used her sculpting skills (acquired, in part, at the Museum School) to create a commemorative medal, still treasured by many, for the 200th anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill. As an early member of the Preservation Society, her chief mission (no doubt inspired by her Revolutionary ancestors) sometimes seemed to be to carry on a running battle with the founding president. On Tremont Street, in downtown Boston, she decorated the walls of Dini's restaurant with a series of bas-relief historical murals, one figure of which is modeled after the late Sam Donnell. Sam was Betty's good friend and sparring partner, and when he died she did a fine bronze likeness of him that hangs on his old house at the corner of Main and Salem Streets. Her sculpture can be seen at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts and at the Museum of Fine Arts in Springfield (her birthplace). I, for one, would love to see one of her sculptures mounted in some public place in Charlestown to remind us of her, though I doubt that any who knew her will soon forget that tall, thin, figure, finely sculpted face, open smile, and warm generous nature.

Charlestown Police Line

From the desk of
Deputy Superintendent Ronald X. Conway
Commanding Officer, Area A
Downtown, Beacon Hill, Charlestown, East Boston

On June 7, 1986 at 1:25 a.m., Officer Nee assigned to the N102A car, received a radio call to 85 Main Street relative to an assault. Upon the officer's arrival, the victim stated that while leaving Sullivan's Tap, he was approached by an unknown male who lashed out at him with a large knife, slashing him on his left shoulder. The victim managed to run to the nearby Store 24 and call the police. The incident is under investigation.

On June 8, 1986 at 3:00 a.m., Officer Childs assigned to the A406A car, received a complaint from a Dorchester man who stated that while he was driving on Storrow Drive, he picked up an unknown male who stated he needed a ride to 15 West School Street. When the victim attempted to drop the suspect off, the suspect produced a blackjack and struck the victim in the face and stole his property from his wallet and fled through the Mall to Austin Street.

On June 8, 1986 at 6:00 a.m., Officer Grubbs assigned to the A405A car, received a call to 13th Street in the Charlestown Navy Yard area, relative to gun shots. Upon the arrival of the officer, the security guard reported hearing what sounded like be gun shots. Upon investigation, six spent shells were found from a 25 mm gun. There are no suspects at this time.

Graduate From Matignon High School

On Friday, May 23rd, the 38th Annual Commencement Exercises of Matignon High School took place in the Father Matignon Auditorium. The Graduation Speaker was Reverend Mr. Edward T. Nedder, the Latin Department Chairperson at Matignon High School. John Twombly, Principal, conferred diplomas and awards to the graduates, including six members of the class of 1986 from Charlestown.

The Charlestown graduates were Sharon Beasley, Edwin Grame, Margaret McCabe, John Powers, Robert Reilly, and Kelly Ruggiero.

On June 8, 1986 at 9:45 a.m., Officers from Area A entered the Halligan Club at 215 Main Street and seized a poker gaming machine. Criminal complaints will be sought in Charlestown District Court.

On June 9, 1986 at 12:15 a.m., Officer McKenna assigned to the Boston Housing Police, observed a red motor vehicle come to a quick stop and then speed off, almost hitting a parked auto. The officers took chase and after countless attempts to stop this vehicle, the vehicle finally collided into the cruiser. One suspect fled and was arrested in a brief chase. The second suspect alighted from the motor vehicle, holding a gun in his hand and pointed at Officer McKenna. The officer managed to talk the suspect into dropping the gun. Further investigation and the finding of property in the suspects' car, showed that these suspects may have been wanted in Malden and Cambridge for armed robbery.

On June 9, 1986 at 1:00 p.m., Detectives Leahy and Donahue arrested a suspect in City Square on armed robbery warrants issued by the Charlestown District Court.

On June 12, 1986 at 12:30 a.m., Officer Childs assigned to the N102A car, received a radio call to Store 24 on Main Street relative to an armed robbery. Upon the arrival of the officer, the clerk stated that a man entered the store, showed a gun and demanded cash from the register. The suspect fled down Main Street towards City Square.

Charlestown residents are asked to report any drug activities in their neighborhood. All information will be kept in strictest confidence. Call 247-4697.

The Abandon Motor Vehicle Officer of Area A would like to inform the residents of Charlestown that it is against the law to leave abandoned motor vehicles on a public way that have no plates or plates that have expired. Your vehicle will be towed and violators could be taken to court and fined up to $500 and lose your license. Clean up Charlestown of this problem.
