Elected President

Attorney Frances M. Burns, daughter of Attorney Francis J. Burns and Margaret M. Burns of Monument Avenue was inducted as president of the Massachusetts Association of Women Lawyers recently at a ceremony at the Newton Marriott Hotel.

Attorney Burns is an instructor at Boston University Law School and was formerly an Assistant District Attorney for Suffolk County.

She is currently a member of the State Ethics Commission.

Among the head table guests were Judge Ruth I. Abrams, Supreme Court; Judge Thomas R. Morse, Superior Court; Judge Elizabeth J. Dolan, Superior Court; and Judge John M. Greaney appeals Court.

ATTORNEY FRANCES M. BURNS was sworn in recently as President of the Massachusetts Association of Women Lawyers at ceremonies held at the Newton Marriott Hotel.

Nucci Working For School Ground Repairs

Responding to several complaints from neighbors of the Clarence R. Edwards Middle School in Charlestown, District One School Committee member John A. Nucci has been working closely to relay these concerns to School Department and City officials in an effort to "see that the necessary arrangements be made to alleviate a situation causing significant disturbance and hardship to the residents living in the immediate area."

Nucci commented to the Patriot that, "My office has been notified that there exists a problem with nighttime disturbances, loitering, littering, vandalism and other such occurrences and we are attempting to alleviate this situation in as expedient a manner as possible." Ac-

Applications Available For Back-To-School Program

Starting September 10th, the Life Focus Center, through funding from the Boston Housing Authority, will resume the Back-to-School Program. This education and counseling program is targeted toward youth, ages 14 through 18, living in the Bunker Hill Housing Project who have dropped out of school or who have not been attending school on a regular basis.

In addition to learning basic skills, students will be provided with a ten hour per week work experience. Education and counseling services will be offered in the morning, Monday through Friday. Students will work in the afternoon in community-service related activities.

For further information and/or applications, come to 55 Bunker Hill Street, second floor or call 241-7742.

After September 7th, the program will be located at 76 Monument Street.

Plan Ahead - Special Deadline

The deadline for the September 6, 1984 edition of the Charlestown Patriot is Friday, August 31, 1984 at 4:00 p.m. The change for this week is necessary to facilitate typesetting over the long Labor Day weekend.

We would appreciate your cooperation in adhering to this special deadline.

Thank you.

Talent Show On Cable TV

Charlestown Boys and Girls Club Talent Show will be televised on Friday, August 31, 1984 at 6:30 p.m. on Cable Channel A3.

The show will be repeated at a date to be announced.

Reminder - Change In Traffic Direction

Effective Tuesday, September 4, 1984, the Traffic and Parking Department will reverse the direction of both Mystic and Polk Streets. Mystic Street, which presently runs from Medford Street to Bunker Hill, will run from Bunker Hill to Medford. Polk Street, which presently runs from Bunker Hill to Medford Street, will also be reversed.

The change of direction is temporary pending a reassessment of the area and the traffic flow. Richard Dimino, Deputy Commissioner, encourages those questions or comments to contact the Traffic and Parking Department at 725-3568.

IT STILL HAPPENS ...

... Someone sells their home on their own for much less than it's worth.

Last week, a Charlestown homeowner advertised and sold his home for $100,000. It was worth $125,000 to $135,000.

If you are thinking about selling your home, ask Gibson for a COMPETITIVE MARKET ANALYSIS. We'll show you sale prices and asking prices for comparable properties.

Pricing information is the first way we can help you sell your home. There are many others:

— Problem Solving: Starting with listing procedures to avoid confusion over what stays, notifying tenants, and when the buyer can move in.

— Qualified Buyers: Screened for serious interest and ability to buy your home.

— Advertising and Marketing: Through offices throughout the Boston area.

— Co-Brokerage: Through Gibson's unique Charlestown-Boston-Cambridge co-brokerage network.

— Negotiations: With your interests in mind.

— Financing: We know which bank is best for the sale, and we know how to expedite the loan.

Navy Yard Tour And Briefing Planned

A tour and briefing of the status of development in the Charlestown Navy Yard is being presented on Tuesday evening, September 11, 1984. This program will be presented by Jim English, Navy Yard Project Director of the Boston Redevelopment Authority (B.R.A.), under the sponsorship of Charlestown Citizens for Rational Development (C.C.R.D.).

The tour of the Navy Yard will leave from the B.R.A. Office (the old Muster House) inside Gate 4 of the Navy Yard at 6:00 p.m. The briefing will follow the tour at 7:00 p.m.

in the Hull Room of Building 5 (former Officer's Club).

All interested persons are invited to attend.

The C.C.R.D. met at the Legion Hall on Monday, August 20th. The eleven point agenda of concerns that was presented to Mayor Raymond L. Flynn at a June 19th meeting was reviewed (see August 9th issue of The Patriot.) Lucy Ferrullo of the Mayor's Office of Community Participation told the gathering that answers to the building and development question were being prepared and would be completed shortly.

Concerns of the residents at this meeting centered on the need for enforcement of existing laws relating to building and property development. At the June 19th meeting C.C.R.D. recommended that the Mayor to:

"Require city agencies to use all sanctions available to enforce laws and regulations pertaining to building permits, ensuring all construction is covered by a building permit and complies with the terms of the permit."

It was voted that C.C.R.D. formally request that the Building Department make public a list of all building permits granted for the past 30 days and update that list every 30 days. A request will also be made that James Reid, Commissioner of Inspectional Services attend a C.C.R.D. meeting in late September or mid October to report to the community on activities, procedures and regulations of the Building Department.

Meeting participants felt that the process for issuing building permits and the sanctions against building violations need to more clearly understood by the community.

*****

Future meetings of C.C.R.D. will include a community meeting with Stephen Coyle, Director of the B.R.A. this meeting, the date of which will be announced shortly, will be co-sponsored by the Charlestown Preservation Society and the Charlestown Economic Development Corporation.

It Can Be Done!

by John "Pop" Madden
Monument Street,
Charlestown

On the Saturday of Labor Day weekend in 1983, after 53 years, I stopped smoking!

After I told my doctor, Dr. Leet, at the Bunker Hill Health Center, that I was having a hard time breathing, he asked me how many packs of smokes do I have a day. I told him four. He asked me, "Don't you think it is time to stop?"

around the track 20 times now and I feel great!

I can remember the times when I was so tired after climbing Bunker Hill Street with the Majestic Knights Drum and Bugle Corps. I had to retire from the corps because I couldn't breathe. Now I can run from Sullivan Square to Medford Square and I'm not short of wind!

The same week that I started jogging, I joined the Y.M.C.A. and I am lifting weights there three hope that I can help one person to stop smoking. I can say honestly that after one year this coming Labor Day of not smoking, I fell great. I am jogging, lifting weights and hitting the speed ball. And I'm 67 years old!

JOHN "POP" MADDEN

Well, like I was saying, Labor Day Weekend, on Saturday night, I stopped smoking. I was 66 years old.

Two days later, I started jogging around the track on Medford Street. If you go around the track 10 times, that's 2 1/2 miles. I am going times a week.

I've had a lot of folks ask me if I was sorry that I didn't quit smoking 20 years earlier. I tell them "no" because I have proven it can be done at any time, that is if you have the will power.

I am writing this in the

Over 300 residents participated in "Townie Day" festivities at the Clougherty Pool at Doherty Park on Bunker Hill Street on Friday, August 17, 1984.

Sponsored by the Charlestown Board of Trade and "friends", the day was filled with food, games and prizes. Highlighting the fun and sun were a variety of swimming races, threelegged races, the mothers anything-that-floats race, the adult watermelon contest, and a treasure hunt for the younger "Townies".

To top the day off, there was free watermelon, tonic, Hoodies, and hot dogs.

Representative Voke Earns Union Support

From The Office of Representative Richard A. Voke

Representative Richard A. Voke expressed his pleasure this week in the fact that the Massachusetts Chapter of the AFL-CIO and its President, Arthur Osborn, have endorsed his candidacy re-election as Charlestown's State Representative. The nation's largest labor organization expressed pleasure over the local legislator's voting record. They commended him for the leadership role he assumed on several key legislative proposals put forth by the AFL-CIO and pledged their support and time to Voke's re-election push.

Representative Voke, a long time supporter of workers' rights and legislation to benefit workers, has worked closely over the years with many Charlestown residents who are members of, and affiliated with, labor organizations. The reality of plant closings surfaced during this past year in Charlestown and he acted as spokesman for displaced workers securing the attention and action of the appropriate state authorities. On a more personal level, he has assisted individual members time and again with constituent requests by cutting through the red tape of state bureaucracy.

Representative Voke has vocally supported legislation to require employee pre-notification to workers in the event of plant closings or mass layoffs. In addition, he voted favorably for legislation extending polling hours to accommodate the schedules of many working people. Charlestown's legislator has shown himself to be a good friend of working people.

Voke stated that "Those of us who seek public office must support the worker in more than words, but in action and deeds. That is why in all my campaigns I have always used union material. I deplore the fact that some candidates for public office use printed material produced in non-union shops. How can such candidates say they support union workers when they use non-union printed material?"

Voke was ultimately involved with one legislative triumph with which he is particularly happy and he made the following comment. "For many years I have supported and advocated legislation which would require employers to inform workers as to the chemical make-up of any substance they handle during a working day, and require the labelling of all containers. Prior to the 1983-84 legislative year the measure had gone nowhere. During my first year serving as Chairman of the Health Care Committee, I prioritized the bill. My colleagues and I worked to propel the bill through both branches of the legislature."

Representative Voke will continue to provide visible leadership and support to labor benefitting proposals in the years to come. He will work closely with both Union leaders and members, as well.

Reception To Honor Father Boyle

A reception for Reverend Robert Boyle, former Pastor of Saint Mary's Church, will be held on Friday evening, September 21, 1984 between 7:30 and 11:00 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 75 West School Street. All parishioners, young and old, are invited to attend.

A request is being made for any photographs of Saint Mary's Parish's events that took place during Father Boyle's ten years in Charlestown. If you have any such pictures as the Easter Egg Hunts, Mass of the Anointing, Summer Camps, Ski Weekends, 150th Anniversary, Holiday Masses, Baptisms, First Communions, Confirmations, Weddings, dances, Cabarets, Christmas Bazaars, Passion plays, trips to Gloucester, etc., and you would care to donate some to be used as a part of a gift album to be presented to Father Boyle, please drop these pictures off at the Rectory, 1 Monument Square. These photos will not be returned to you.

Hopefully, with a quantity of photos, we can make a memorable album for Father Boyle.

FREE SURPLUS FOOD DISTRIBUTION

The Kennedy Center will distribute Butter, Cheese and Honey to income eligible Charlestown residents on Thursday, September 13, 1984 from 1:00 to 7:00 p.m. at St. Catherine's Hall, Tufts Street, Charlestown.

Please bring your Food Identification Card with you. If you do not have a card, please come to the Kennedy Center prior to the distribution. For further information call 241-8866.

ABCD To Distribute Free Surplus Food Products

From September 10 to September 21, Action for Boston Community Development will distribute free surplus food products to low-income households in each of Boston's neighborhoods. ABCD coordinates the Surplus Food Program in Boston through its neighborhood network of Area Planning Action Councils (APACs), Neighborhood Service Centers (NSCs), and other community-based agencies and organizations.

Eligible Boston residents must pick up food in their own neighborhoods as designated on their pre-registration card.

In Charlestown, food distribution will take place on Thursday, September 13, 1984 from 1:00 to 7:00 p.m. at St. Catherine's School Hall, Tufts Street.

Boston residents who have pre-registered, and who carry an eligibility card issued by the ABCD Surplus Food Program, will find that their card expedites the pick-up process. If you have a card, you don't need to bring other papers simply sign your name and address to receive the food. Your card will provide proof of eligibility for all distributions during the following year.

ABCD Executive Director Robert M. Coard urges

Special Jubilee Children's Mass

Saint Francis de Sales' Jubilee 125 celebration will include a special Jubilee Mass for all the children of the Parish, both Parochial and public school students, to be held on Thursday, November 15, 1984 at 11:00 a.m. Following the Mass, a Jubilee dinner will be served to all the elementary school students of the Parish in the Bishop Lawton Hall.

Parents with children in grammar school who live in the Parish, but do not attend Saint Francis de Sales School, are asked to write your own note to the principal of the school your child attends if you wish to excuse your child from school to attend this Mass and dinner and send to the Rectory, the name of your child who will be attending this Mass and dinner, before October 16th, 1984.

eligible Boston residents to pre-register for future distribution. "With a program that distributes commodities to over 60,000 low-income households over a very short time period, a pre-registration process is essential," he said. "Obtaining an eligibility card good for an entire year will reduce waiting time and make the process easier for all involved."

The amount of butter, cheese, and honey distributed is determined by family size. You should bring bags or containers for the food. For more information, people can contact ABCD's Surplus Food Program hotline at 357-5447.

ABCD, through its neighborhood offices, distributed the food products to eligible Boston residents only. The Surplus Food Program, a federally-funded distribution, is operated through the Massachusetts Department of Education.

Nucci Working For School Ground Repairs

quickly by erecting gates on the premises, however, within a few short days vandals had destroyed the gates rendering them totally ineffective. Nucci and residents agree that to simply repair and restore gates is non-productive and according to Nucci, what is required is a "cooperative effort between the School Department and Police and City departments to provide the necessary hardware, such as lights and gates, as well as an increased awareness of the need for patrols and security to prevent a continuation of these problems." Nucci noted that he has forwarded these concerns via letter to the Mayor's office and anticipates "full cooperation" in working towards a solution.

"Municipal facilities such as schools are the responsibility of the City and School Department, and we have an obvious obligation to ensure that they exist in concert with the surrounding neighbor's needs and not be a burden to the taxpayers in the immediate area" Nucci concluded. He also urged Charlestown residents with similar problems to notify his office at 726-6200 extension 5745.

A Waste Of City Money

A few weeks ago, our City Councillors, over the veto of our Mayor, voted themselves $15,000 a year to hire aides. That works out to $195,000 a year. Councillors O'Neil, McCormack, and McLaughlin voted against this unnecessary increase.

It seems to me that when the city is scrounging for money to pay city employees and trying to hold back the number of layoffs, and when there is a need for more police, fire, park employees plus others, this increase in the number of City Council aides is not only political, but is not what we want or need.

When I talked to our City Councillor, Robert Travaglini, and told him that I thought the hiring of aides was a waste of money, he told me, "I don't care if you like it or not". He said something about hiring three retired senior citizens at $5000 each to help him.

Now is not the time for this kind of action when city employees with families don't know if they will have a job next week. Our Mayor tried to veto this increase and I agree with him.

Suffolk County Junior Miss Program

An invitation is extended to senior high schools girls from the Class of 1985, residing in Charlestown, to participate in the Eighth Annual Suffolk County Junior Miss Program to be held on Sunday, October 28th.

Junior Miss is a scholarship program to recognize and reward senior high school girls, with college scholarships being awarded to winners. The program is a once in a lifetime opportunity. Categories for judging include: youth fitness (physical well being in sports attire), poise and appearance (evening gown), scholastic achievement (high school transcripts), creative and performing arts (90 second presentation of a vocal, dance, drama, poem, etc.), judges interview (individual session with the judges).

The winner of this local program will travel to Hyannis for the Massachusetts Junior Miss Program, and that winner will travel to Mobile, Alabama for the America's Junior Miss Program.

For further information and an application for the Junior Miss Program, call 569-0459 or 569-2215. The deadline is September 23rd.

Recent Graduate

JUNE M. BAKER-LUIISO

June M. Baker-Luiso recently graduated from the Youville Hospital School of Practical Nursing in Cambridge. She and her husband, William, and two children, Tricia and Mark, currently reside in Charlestown. In September, Ms. Baker-Luiso will begin work as an LPN nurse at Youville Hospital.

Seats Still Available For Pre-Kindergartners In Charlestown

School officials in Boston will accept four-year-olds in the newly reconstituted pre-kindergarten program of the public school system until spaces have been filled. The response so far has been excellent with 1000 of the available spaces already filled.

Pre-kindergarten enrollment for children born before September 1, 1980 is taking place now. A parent can visit any of the nine district offices across the city or also school headquarters at 26 Court Street in downtown Boston. A copy of the child's birth certificate and two proofs of address must be brought by the parent enrolling her or his child.

The pre-kindergarten program is available at the Kent on Bunker Hill Street and the Warren-Prescott on School Street.

The pre-kindergarten program, known as K-I, will be offered on a half-day basis only. Funding is not available for Extended Day Kindergartens at the Kindergarten-I level this school year.

Children also can apply for the few remaining spaces in the pre-kindergartens of the citywide magnet schools such as the Curley School in Jamaica Plain, the Trotter School in Roxbury, the Haley School on American Legion Highway, the Ohrenberger School in Georgetown and the Jackson-Mann School in Allston.

For assistance call the School Information Center at 726-6555 or any district office. District office phone numbers can be found on page 6 of the blue-pages section of the Boston Telephone Directory. Registration for five-year-olds also continues. The program for five-year old children, known as K-II, is available on both a half-day and extended-day basis. Schools in Boston begin to open on Thursday September 6, but kindergarten classes will not start until Monday, September 17th.

Gone, But Not Forgotten

by Charlie McGonagle

The world changes, and because it does, there are many things we may have seen or done which, in all probability, will not be experienced again.

For the first fifteen summers of my life, I vacationed at my Uncle's "Camp", a place he and his father built in the woods of Wilmington in the 1920's. The camp had all that a kid would want or need, and less. Most conspicuous in its absence was modern plumbing, or more specifically, any plumbing.

For those fifteen summers, the sixty foot walk to the outhouse and fetching water from an outdoor hand pump-operated well was accepted matter-of-factly by the children, but no more than begrudgingly by the adults. There was no phone or television. An old table top Philco radio provided much of the indoor entertainment, and Saturday night baths were taken in a large galvanized bucket in the back yard. Because the well water was very cold, the baths were taken in a somewhat less than leisurely fashion.

Outdoors we played Peggity and Kick The Can. Indoors, we learned Old Maid, Hearts, and Cribbage.

By today's standards, living conditions during those fifteen summers were somewhat primitive, but ice cream cones at Tattersall's were only a nickel, and a dip in Silver Lake was a refreshing reward after the one mile walk from the camp. I doubt I shall ever use an outhouse again, or bathe in a galvanized tub, or buy a nickel ice cream cone, or play Peggity or Kick The Can, but I'll be forever glad I did.

There are many other things time and technology have removed from our lives.

At one time, there were three Cobbler Shops in the three blocks between Polk and Pearl Streets, and each of the tradesmen who operated these shops held tacks in their mouths, spitting them out one at a time when needed.

I don't think I will ever own a 1954 Chevrolet again, although I'd like to.

Chances are I'll never again carry a five gallon oil bucket up three flights of stairs from the cellar.

I know I will never see a long line of young boys outside a supermarket, all with four wheeled red wagons waiting their turn to "bundle carry".

I hope beyond hope I never see a "Looper" again.

Never again will a clanging street car climb Bunker Hill, and the "Hippie" will never reopen.

In all likelihood, there will always be a high school in Charlestown, but I doubt there ever again will be a Charlestown High School, at least not in the true sense of the word.

I am quite certain that "Snap Jacks from Thom McAn" will not be resurrected. Ditto for Saddle Stitched Pants, blue suede spades, Mr. B. Collars, Jack Purcell Sneakers, Saturday afternoon serials, double features, soda fountains at drug stores, a meat market on nearly every corner where you could buy "on credit", taped baseballs, Scrub, Red Light, Moonshine, Buck Buck, Blacksmith, and B.B. Bats.

I don't think I'll see a kid nail a couple of roller skates to the bottom of a two by four and a rectangular vegetable crate to its top to make a scooter.

There may still be a few hitching rings around, but there is a better than even chance that nobody will offer a service or product from a horse drawn wagon.

Does anybody make tea with tea leaves anymore? Does anybody drink tea from a saucer as my grandmother did?

Have you ever tasted Moxie, or even heard of it? What happened to the G.I.Q.?

I doubt I shall ever see coal being dropped from a truck, down a chute, through a cellar window, and into a waiting coal bin again.

High school military drill units and the Old School Boy Parade are now only part of our memories.

I wonder if, because of the presence of television, children still are being read to at bedtime? If not, they are being deprived of Hansel And Gretel, Jack 'N The Beanstalk, Snow White, Cinderella, The Three Little Pigs, and so many other characters who held a place of importance in our early lives, not to mention Aesop and his wonderful Fables, each of which contained a valuable moral.

And what of memorizing poetry? Is it done anymore? I am sure many within my ear and beyond will recognize the following lines and, from them, be able to identify both the poem and the author:

"Aye, tear her tattered ensign down,
Long has it waved on high...."

"If you can keep your head when all around are losing theirs...."

"I doubt that I shall ever see A poem lovely as a tree...."

"Twas the Eighteenth of April
In '75, hardly a man is now alive...."

When is the last time you saw Embassy, Old Gold, Fatima, and English Ovals?

Who was in charge of winding up the Victrola in your house?

Nomination Papers Due

Deadline for submitting the completed nomination papers for the Board of Directors of the Kennedy Center and the Charlestown Economic Development Corporation is Friday, September 7th at 6:00 p.m. at the John F. Kennedy Family Service Center, 27 Winthrop Street. Directors will be elected in all precincts and at-large at the election to be held on Tuesday, September 25, 1984.

What were Dawson and Pickwick?

Twice in my life I have flown in propeller driven commercial airplanes. With the advent of jet propelled planes, I doubt I shall ever do so again.

Only a strange happening would put me into a rumble seat again.

Say goodbye to Nash, Packard, Studebaker, DeSoto, Edsel, and so many others.

When was the last time you saw a pair of shoes with metal taps on the toes and heels?

When, when learning the Palmer Method, did we have to use dip pens which held only enough ink to write a word or two? Fortunately, Carter's Washable Blue Ink was also required.

Mike and Ikes, Root Beer Barrels, Drakes, Squirrel Nuts, Cowboy Hats, Buttons, Toffee Rolls, Pennies, Penny Pretzels, Bazooka, Chum Gum.

The Cyclone, the Virginia Reel, the Wild Mouse, Ma Burke's and the Dixie.

Tip Top and Bond Bread. Five and Ten Cent Stores.

Thirty years from now, somebody may take a little time to compile such a list. Perhaps it will begin with...video games, home computers, space shuttles, satellites, fifty cent candy bars, one dollar ice cream cones....

Dear Chairman Voke:

We would like to take this opportunity to inform you that on August 16, 1984 the Massachusetts AFL/CIO Cope Committee voted to endorse your candidacy for the House.

The successful passage of Balanced Billing, Plant Closing and Polling Hours have been highlights of the 1983-1984 legislative year for organized labor in Massachusetts and you helped to make it possible.

As chairman of the Committee on Health Care you were instrumental in getting the Right To Know Bill out of Committee and guiding it through the two branches. Your perseverance and leadership ability were responsible for this comprehensive plan to protect the worker and the community.

On behalf of the 400,000 member strong Massachusetts AFL/CIO, we wish you ever success and look forward to continuing our strong working relationship.

Community Involvement Highlights Life Focus Center's Summer Program

by Marianne Martin

The Life Focus Center closed out their fourth summer program for special needs and handicapped individuals with a "field day" yesterday.

Steve Halley, director of the nine week program which services the residents of Charlestown, the North End, East Boston, Revere, Somerville and the Brighton-Allston area, stated that this summer "really went great. We did more this summer than in summers before."

According to the director, additional cooperation and involvement with various local and city organizations aided in the program's success. "This summer we were more active and involved. There was also more involvement on the part of the city and the community, also."

According to Jack Millerick, Executive Director of the Life Focus Center, the summer program was established to "extend the continuity and maintain a 12 month contact with the individual participants."

Due to lack of revenue, Millerick stated there were no services offered to this group in the summer months. "We used to close down during the summer," Millerick stated.

Prior to the summer program, Millerick stated that a noticeable difference in individual progress was discovered when programming resumed in September. The need for continual programming became essential.

During the first three years of the summer program, Millerick stated, "We would go into hock" since the Life Focus Center was the sole funding for the programming which at times operates ten hours a day, 52 weeks a year.

"This is the first year the program was funded by another agency other than ourselves," stated the executive director.

Presently the program is jointly funded by three organizations: the Life Focus Center, the Department of Social Services and the Department of Mental Health.

Through the means of fundraising, Life Focus is able to contribute 20% of the total program costs. The Department of Social Services funds the recreational activities and the Department of Mental Health provides funding for the production skill building activities.

Since the inception of the program the number of clients serviced has doubled stated Director of the Day Program, Tish MacInnes. Originally, there were 30 participants. Today, between 70 and 80 individuals attend the Life Focus Center program.

Among the summers activities were educational field trips to such places as the Children's Museum, the Science Museum, and the Heritage Museum. Also included were the recreational activities of cookouts, day trips to the beach, a boat trip to Nantasket Beach, weekly workouts at the Medford Street gym, and the movies.

MacInnes also supervised an overnight trip for 12 of the participants to Woodland Campground in Philipston, Massachusetts.

During the remaining nine months of the program, the Life Focus Center offers a wide variety of activities. According to Millerick, in order to find the complete list of activities, one can "rifle the dictionary."

MacInnes stated that the Center has multidimensional workshops for adult and adolescents, handicapped programming, outreach services, physical therapy, Christmas plays, Olympics, and a flea market. On Wednesday evenings, a social supper is held.

According to both Millerick and MacInnes the program has been successful as evidence by the waiting list which has generated the need for program expansion. In order to better facilitate the growing need, Life Focus Center has expanded by "launching a colony" in the Bunker Hill Housing Project but is currently seeking a larger "most appropriate site" for the expansion of their colony.

Lunch At The Training Field

Under The State House Dome

Sleaze Label Hurts Dem Senate Hopefuls

by J. J. Smith

Whether it's in Massachusetts or at the national level, Democrats seemingly have a political death wish via a tendency to self-destruct.

Here in the Bay State, recent headlines and TV news stories relate the disintegration of the fight for the Democratic nomination for U.S. Senate. And, at the recent national Democratic convention, the Mondale-Ferraro team and the delegates, as the Wall Street Journal observed, moved left in pursuit of unity while the nation is moving right.

Neither is a recommended formula to win victory at the polls.

Lt. Gov. John Kerry's attack on U.S. Rep. James Shannon and the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co. will trigger problems galore for the Democratic Party. This broadside resulted in a situation that weakened not only Kerry and Shannon but ex-House Speaker David Bartley also was damaged in the crossfire.

As the Boston Herald's respected political wunderkind Peter Lucas, in a story headlined "Kerry charge sleaze attack," put it the lieutenant governor's attack "demeaned the race . . .

through innuendo and smear tactics."

The incident involving a tax break for Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co. is based on what Shannon did or did not do in obtaining a $14 million tax "break" for the company that consistently has been a contributor to Shannon's recent campaigns for office.

Kerry made it appear that a quid pro quo was involved but failed to mention that he also has received campaign contributions from Mass. Mutual's PAC and also tried to solicit for his current campaign.

As for David Bartley, he donned a holier-than-thou mask too, forgetting conveniently that he has been the recipient of similar campaign contributions in the past. Bartley, of course, is a weak third in this race and his views, other than reflecting his not-too-finely refined political ethics, won't impact upon the final results.

The GOP hopefuls to succeed U.S. Sen. Paul Tsongas, Elliot Richardson and Ray Shamie, must be quietly chuckling as the ultimate winner of their duel can't help but benefit in November from the bitterness and divisions engendered by this brouhaha among Democrats.

From the Republican standpoint, its two Senate hopefuls must avoid any self-destruct buttons of their own. Richardson's race has keyed, successfully, on being "senatorial" and stressing his unparalleled experience at the highest level of American government. Shamie's major problem is that his gimmicky approach tends to trivialize his message and brand him as frivolous.

Nationally, the show of unity made by Democrats at San Francisco looked very shaky indeed. An enthralled prime time TV audience watched Walter Mondale, embrace the doctrines of Jackson and Hart for the sake of unity. We were asked to believe that Jesse really loves Fritz after all, and that Gary Hart really wants Mondale to win the presidency. (Of course, Gary doesn't want to be the Democratic presidential choice in 1988, something impossible if good old boy Fritz wins. Right?)

Whether nationally or here at home in the Senate contest, calming and harnessing the passions on both sides of the Democratic ranks won't come easy, if at all.

The Democrats this November will be running against a GOP ticket with broad-based support and unity, and one whose record on the economy, inflation and unemployment cannot truly be faulted.

After all, how long has it been since you've heard a big-name Democrat attack Reaganomics? Could it be because what they were saying about Reaganomics was not only nitpicking but wrong?

(J.J. Smith's comments appear in 62 Massachusetts newspapers.)

Local Programs To Receive Grants

Senator Francis D. Doris (D) - Revere has announced that two cultural programs in the Charlestown area will be receiving a total of $11,000 in funding from the Massachusetts Council on the Arts and Humanities for the coming fiscal year. The awards are being made through three of the Council's funding programs:

merit aid, historic conservation, and new works.

Through merit aid and complementary incentive awards, the Charlestown Working Theater and the U.S.S. Constitution Museum will be receiving a total of $11,000 to support their basic ongoing programs. Both groups will be receiving $3,000 and $8,000 respectively through the Historic Conservation Program for the preservation of objects in their collections.

Senator Doris stated, "I'm delighted to see that Charlestown cultural activities have been recognized in this way. The arts play a vital role in our community and must be supported."

The funds were derived from the Massachusetts Council on the Arts and Humanities' 1985 budget appropriation which was recently approved by the Governor and the Legislature. The Council has 15 funding programs which support cultural activities of all types. Awards made through the agency's other programs will be announced later in the year. Through the three programs announced, a total of $6,253,415 has been awarded to Massachusetts groups.

Anne Hawley, Executive Director of the Massachusetts Council expressed her appreciation by saying, "On behalf of the entire cultural community of the Commonwealth, I'd like to thank Senator Doris for his successful efforts in securing increased support for these very important cultural programs."

Sister Mary Stephanie Collins Dies At 84

Sister Mary Stephanie Collins, age 84, a member of the Sisters of the Good Shepherd, died suddenly on Tuesday, August 21, 1984, at Madonna Hall, Marlborough.

Known in secular life as Elizabeth Collins, she was born in Charlestown, the daughter of the late John F. and Sarah (McGlinchey) Collins.

Sister Stephanie entered the Sisters of the Good Shepherd Novitiate in Peekskill, New York in 1945 and had been stationed in New York City, Troy, New York, and later was assigned to the Villa Loretto Convent in Peekskill, New York, where she worked as Director of the Sisters' Infirmary. In 1975 she retired to Madonna Hall.

She is survived by two sisters, Mary White of Dorchester and Teresa Pollack of Charlestown. She was the sister of the late Eleanor Collins of Charlestown and the late Philip Collins of Stoneham. She is also survived by seven nephews and three nieces.

A Mass of the Resurrection was celebrated at the Madonna Hall Chapel in Marlborough on Friday, August 24 by the Reverend Patrick Healey of Charlestown. Reverend Dolor Cinchereau gave the Homily. Burial was in Holy Cross Cemetery in Malden.

You cannot tell because the new crown is Dacrown, short for Dental Associates Crown. The difference is that the ceramic material is cast and there is no metal under the restoration.

ADVANTAGES:

- Stronger than other porcelain crowns.
- Coloring and form closest to natural teeth.
- Fits better.
- No metal at edges.
- Less sensitivity to hot and cold.

DISADVANTAGES: NONE

- The process requires special laboratory procedures
- The crown is made in our own laboratory.

Facts About Drugs - F.A.D.

How can I work with other parents to stop drug abuse?

One way is by forming a parent-peer group with parents of your children's friends. These groups are based on the idea that the best way to stop your child from using drugs is to stop his or her friends from using them, too. When the parents join together and take a united stand against drug use, they become much more effective than if they act separately. This is one of the reasons why Tough Love is effective. Parents are helped by groups to resist pressure from parents who do not have the same limits for their children.

Parent-peer groups can provide:

1. Education. Sharing information, especially the hazards of drug use.
2. Support. Providing emotional support to one another in coping with children's drug problems.
3. Community Action. In putting pressure on local officials, schools, and businesses for their help in stopping drug abuse.
4. Supervision. Acting as watchdogs over each other, children to check on their drug use.

Lack of awareness is a problem with parents. Today, no parent can really say, "It will never happen to me." Drug use is too widespread. Parents working together can help each other. As a group they can set ground rules and be consistent in enforcing them. Much less time will be spent arguing with your child about curfews, parties, etc.

Our big problem is forming groups like this in time and making time.

If any service is needed in helping with ideas, education, or just as a backboard to bounce ideas off, call the boys and girls club at 242-1775 and ask for Mimi White.

The following article is a press release issued by the Coleman Campaign Committee.

With three weeks remaining before the September 18 primary election, Charlestown resident and State Representative candidate Phil Coleman is devoting full days to his campaign and continuing to emphasize ideas and concepts which he says clearly separate himself from the Incumbent.

Speaking at a Walker Street neighborhood party in Charlestown, on Sunday, August 26, Coleman said he sees a need for the State Representative to be much more than an individual who simply attends legislative sessions and participates in roll calls. He notes that his nearly year-long campaign has been based on this need and developing a suitable response to it.

Addressing unemployment problems in Charlestown and Chelsea, Coleman said many of the problems stem from a lack of coordination among State and City agencies when they seek laborers to fill available positions. He feels the Representative should establish a dialogue among the various agencies involved with labor recruitment to insure all outlets are aware of the available worker population in both communities.

This concept of regularly meeting with agency representatives should also apply to the largest of the private sector employers operating within the district, Coleman added.

Other concerns that Coleman continues to cite include services for youth, the response to elderly needs and projects to promote greater community involvement in the Representative's role.

"I see the Representative being much more of a catalyst for all youth needs," says Coleman who feels the present Incumbent has sidestepped active involvement with children except during the current election campaign. The Charlestown candidate believes a more suitable year-round role would be assisting the fund-raising needs of the various athletic and youth-related programs operating throughout the district.

He feels the best way to offer this assistance is to coordinate community-wide fund-raising efforts through the Representative's office.

Similarly, Coleman sees the office as a clearinghouse of information on available programs and services for the district's elderly. He notes a top priority of his, if elected, will be the establishment of an MBTA "mini-bus" shuttle system for elderly shoppers in Charlestown and Chelsea.

Coleman also continues to promote his concept of monthly community meetings as the best means of insuring community involvement in the Representative's role. He emphasizes the need to bring various agency officials into the communities of the district and believes doing so will illustrate the urgent needs within the district while showing residents how the response process works within State and City government.

The Coleman campaign continues to seek volunteers for distributing literature and helping with general campaign projects through September 18. Interested residents can contact Phil or his wife, Mary, at 242-3006.

Community School News

The Charlestown Community Schools gym and pool will be closed for staff vacation from Friday, August 31st, through Friday, September 14th. They will reopen Monday, September 17th.

The Community School Office will be open during this period. People interested in registering for GED or Adult Diploma Classes or for the new Charlestown Alternative High School, "City Roots" can call weekdays at 242-2770.

We are still accepting applicants for "City Roots". City Roots is an alternative high school program for out-of-school youth, 16 to 21 years old, who want a GED or an Adult External Diploma. Classes will begin Monday, September 17th. They run Monday through Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Besides instructions in math, reading, science, social studies and writing skills, City Roots offers individual tutorials, career counselling and assistance in finding part time jobs.

We will accept 20 students for September 17th. Our policy is one of open enrollment. Students can register at any time. Acceptance, however, depends entirely upon available seats. Students usually participate in City Roots for seven to sixteen months.

GED and Adult Diploma classes start Monday, September 24th. Classes will run Monday, Wednesday and Thursday mornings, 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. and Monday, Tuesday and Thursday nights 6:30 - 9:30 p.m. Call now to register.

College credit courses will start in October. We will offer Computer Literacy I, Computer Literacy II, Typing I, and Typing II for three credits and Stress Management for one credit. Fees and time schedules will be announced in the brochure mailed to Charlestown households next week and in the Patriot on September 6th and 13th. In addition, Charlestown Community Schools will offer Ceramics, Aerobics, and Basic Sewing Classes.

For the period of September 17th through October 5th the pool schedule will run as follows: Open Swim: 3:30 to 5:00 p.m. and 7:30 to 8:15 p.m.; Adult Swim: 5:00 to 6:00 p.m. and 8:15 to 9:00 p.m.; Swim Team Practice: 6:00 to 7:30 p.m.

The next Charlestown Community School election is scheduled for Tuesday, October 1st. Nomination papers are now available.

For information on any of the above call weekdays, 242-2770.

Communion Supper Marks Start Of Social Season

The Fourth Annual Communion Supper opening the social season of Saint Francis de Sales Parish, will take place on Sunday, September 9, 1984 in Bishop Lawton Hall, 303 Bunker Hill Street, at 6:30 p.m. Mass will precede the supper at 5:00 p.m.

A delicious chicken pie dinner by Claire Doyle will be served and entertainment for the evening will be by Monsignor James Keating and his musical friends. Tickets are $10.00 and can be purchased from the General Co-Chairpersons, Kathy Murray or Bobbie Delaney, from the Ushers and at the Rectory. Make your reservations early for this first social of the new season.

"What will PHIL COLEMAN Do?"

.....he will do the expected and more.....

1. EMPLOYMENT & TRAINING

PHIL COLEMAN will establish a continuous dialogue with State and City agencies and the largest of the private sector employers to actively recruit Charlestown and Chelsea residents for skilled and non-skilled jobs. He will also publish notices for State and Federal Civil Service Exams and will conduct training sessions for these tests within the district

2. YOUTH SERVICES

PHIL COLEMAN will use the office of State Representative as a source of $fund-raising$ and program development assistance for the many youth athletic and youth related programs operating throughout Charlestown and Chelsea.

3. ELDERLY NEEDS

PHIL COLEMAN will work with the MBTA to establish a "Minibus" shuttle service for elderly shoppers in Charlestown and Chelsea. He will also use the Representative's office as a "clearinghouse" of information concerning available services and benefits programs for the elderly

Boys And Girls Clubs Reap $10,000 In Four Patriots' Pre-Season Games

As the New England Patriots officially kick-off the 1984 season against the Buffalo Bills on Sunday, they have already garnered $10,000 for the Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston.

In four pre-season exhibition games this year the Patriots scored 100 points against rivals. Every time the Patriots score a point it means $100 for the Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston, a non-profit organization of more than 5,000 youngsters.

Last season, the Patriots tallied 333 points against opponents which meant $33,300 for the Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston from Frito-Lay, maker of Lay's and Ruffles brand potato chips and Fritos brand corn chips. This is the ninth year that Frito-Lay has teamed with the Patriots in this worthy community project, according to Phil Thomas, Frito-Lay Division Sales Manager. Over the past eight seasons Frito-Lay has contributed $334,600 to the Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston for the total points scored by the Patriots.

Charlestown Town Team Seeks Support

The Charlestown Town Team is starting its 34th year in the Boston Senior Park Football League. This year's coaches are John Houlihan and Mike Stillman.

At the present time, 40 Charlestown residents are practicing for the team. Anyone interested in playing is invited to "come on down."

There are two obstacles facing a successful season, that must be overcome. First, the Town Team would like to play all home games at the Charlestown High School Facility. Unfortunately, the main switch to the lights has been vandalized and needs repair. Secondly, the Town Team is being helped financially by the Celtic Tavern, but this is not enough. Funds are needed to pay for supplies, equipment, officials, and miscellaneous items.

In the past, area merchants and fans have been most generous. The team must once again solicit these merchants and fans for funds to alleviate these obstacles. Any contribution would be greatly appreciated by the staff, players, and fellow "Townies". Please send contributions to the Celtic Tavern, c/o Charlestown Town Team, 2 Sever Street, Charlestown, MA 02129.

Thank you for all your continued support.

John Houlihan, Head Coach
Mike Stillman, Assistant Coach
Tom Jackson, Equipment Manger

P.S. See you at the games.

Pop Warner Corner

Final registration for the Pop Warner Football League will be held on Thursday, August 30, 1984 from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. at Memorial Hall, 14 Green Street.

The B Team could use a few more players. Pat Locke is back coaching this team and they should do well.

The weigh-in schedule for September 8th and the first game is on Sunday, September 9th. Players must attend the weigh-in in order to be eligible to play.

All birth certificates must be in by September 4th at the very latest.

Pope John Announces 17-Game Soccer Season

The Pope John Athletic Department has announced a 17-game slate for its first varsity soccer season this fall.

The Tigers will begin their independent schedule on Tuesday, September 11 at Minuteman Regional High in Lexington at 3:15 and will debut at home Friday the 11th against Malden High at the same time.

PJ's home schedule, which will be played at Babe Ruth Park in Everett, also includes Shawsheen, Keefe Tech, Essex Aggie, Madison Park, North Shore Voke, Greater Lowell, Don Bosco, and Everett High. The Blue will travel to all these sites with the exception of Bosco, and will also journey to Weymouth South.

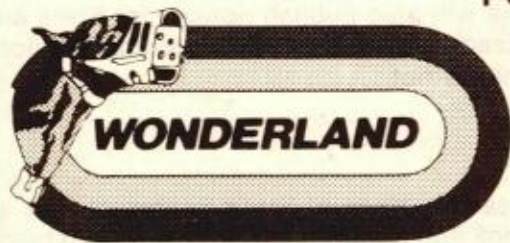

Head coach will be Ray Pavone, a 13-year member of the Pope John Faculty; he is also head man in hockey. The newly-named assistant coach will be another Faculty member, George Lombard, who adds this to his duties as boys track and freshman basketball mentor.

First-year tri-captains will be seniors Chester Cappucci and Pat Boyle and junior Rich Petipas.

There are two great Derbies in this country, and the other one's in Kentucky. So, in case you missed that one, we proudly offer you this one: the 50th annual running of the Wonderland Derby. It's the oldest, grandest, most prestigious greyhound racing event in America—dating back from 1935 when a very quick canine called Mutton Roll took the laurels, to 1983, when the hats were off to a pup named Profits Andy. This year, 64 of the world's greatest greyhounds battle it out through three tough trial rounds, to the semis, to the grand finale. And the winner, by definition, will be the best greyhound in America. But the best part is this: While the other Derby is about a thousand miles away (and all gone, at that), this one's just around the corner—and it's coming at you now.

N.O.W. IS NOT THE TIME

In addition to Mrs. John A. Zaccaro's (Geraldine Ferraro, if you prefer) stance on abortion, the domestic furor over revelation of her husband's financial holdings, her flip-flop to a position - now - against tuition tax credits, her latest announced position for gun control, and our opinion (held by many others) that "Falter, Mundane" wimped-out in his selection of a Vice President candidate in the first place, we are as concerned that she is seemingly a by-product of the radical feminist group NOW's (National Organization for Women) pre-convention haranguing and threatening for a female running mate - hardly the most important qualification for the individual a heartbeat away from the presidency.

Too many people are, as yet, still unfamiliar with some of the aims and goals of NOW so here following are excerpts from policy and convention resolutions, and public statements by their officers.... with thanks to an Eagle Forum flier published in this regard, entitled "Lesbian Rights Is a Feminist Issue - Is a NOW Issue;":

"The National Organization for Women is committed to fighting for a country in which human rights are indivisible. We support lesbian and gay rights." (Ellie Snead, NOW President, April 21, 1980, at a Congressional Briefing on Lesbian and Gay Civil Rights);

"Our program to end discrimination against lesbians and gay men must be broadened to include political organizing around attainable goals. These include the elimination of criminal penalties against lesbians and gay men as well as economic and social discrimination." (Judy Goldsmith, NOW President, October 1982, at the National NOW Conference); and

"1981 NOW Resolution, Whereas, there is a continuing need for consciousness-raising among our members about the undeniable relationship between lesbian rights and feminism, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that...

1) National NOW continue to recognize lesbian rights as a priority issue, and

2) National NOW strongly encourage all state NOW organizations and local chapters to recognize lesbian rights as a priority issue for ALL (emphasis ours) feminists."

One would expect her public disassociation with such a group, but that hasn't been the case! And, if all this isn't enough to tarnish Mrs. Zaccaro's candidacy, had any of us ever heard of her six months ago, or before "Tip" signalled her as his "good old boy" choice? Too, if she has been personally responsible for any significant legislation as a Member of Congress, or has expertise in foreign policy borne out of experience, it alludes our memory.

Bottom Line: No thanks NOW, no thanks Walter and no thanks Geraldine!

YOU SAID IT (CAPSULATIONS FROM OUR MAILBAG).....

"It sometimes gets very lonely up here-often having to stand with the few against the many in the fight for our principles-but knowing I have the backing of friends like you gives me courage." (U.S. Senator Jesse Helms); "Is there anything we as non-residents can do for Princess Davis repersuading Channel 56 to return Jimmy Swaggart to the airwaves?" (Ruth Glascott, Bayonne, N.J.); "I see no difference between abortion and war. Each destroys." (Jean Hale, Lebanon, Oregon); "There is some evidence Reagan may at last move forcefully on busing." (Dr. Ralph Scott, Cedar Falls, Iowa); "Bless you for your deep commitment to His children." (Paul A. Brown, Stafford, Virginia); "You say what a lot of people are sometimes afraid to say." (John T. Kelley, Charlestown); "Hope forced busing will soon end." (Marion Riley, Dorchester); "Thank you for being part of the 'Cushing' family." (John W. Shyne, Hanover, Mass.); "...appreciate hearing your views concerning the problems with the American education system." (U.S. Senator Paul Tsongas); "Should the Congress consider a constitutional amendment as a means of reducing the deficit, I will keep your views in mind." (Congressman Brian Donnelly); and "...feel free to reproduce at any time you see fit anything of mine which appears in The Wanderer." (Fr. Robert E. Burns, C.S.P., New York City).

Sincerely regret that our time schedule prevents personal replies to all letters received, but keep those cards and letters coming folks. And Letters-to-the-Editor are genuinely welcome anytime.

A READER UNDERSTANDS OUR LOSS.....

"There are no words, Charlie, that will heal the loss of a precious pet. It has been over two years since we put our "Ole" down and I still cry when I think of him too deeply. A year later, our beautiful collie joined "Ole" and they are buried in their playpen at our old home at Sweet Home.

When Tom Anderson lost his pet, "General," (a German Shepherd), he wrote that thousands of readers write him notes of condolence. Anderson also wrote that many pet owners think more of their pets than of family or friends. I must agree because of observations on many occasions.

"God's finger touched - and he slept." (Tennyson's "In Memoriam").

NOTE: Our thanks to Jean Hale of Lebanon, Oregon for those consoling words, and to the many others who kindly commented on the loss of my best friend - "Goliath."

MORE ON PEOPLE WHO CARE.....

The response to "Cans for Kids" continues to be overwhelming. Joining in this endeavor since our last mention are "Spider" Walsh, "Porky" Addison, Al Jennings and Joe De Rosa, all of Charlestown, Nancy Moore of Malden, Billy McCann and George Lynch of Somerville, J. McDonald of Hanover (in behalf of the Brockton Firefighters), Ted Hurley, Constable of Winthrop, Larry Keane of Dorchester, and fellow ILA workers Bobby Norton and Paul O'Keefe. Special mention must be made of the "giant" continuing efforts of Jim Hagerty and Bill Stanley of South Boston. These efforts made possible a special check to St. Vincent's School for Handicapped Children at Port-au-Prince, Haiti, which Episcopal Sister Joan Margaret S.S.M., of Duxbury, directs. Shouldn't you or organizations you belong to be collecting refundable bottles and cans to help support those helping children? Try it, you'll like it.

Irish Mass At Boston Irish-American Family Festival

A Mass with liturgical responses in the Irish language will be offered by Fr. Walter Martin, S.J. at the third annual Boston Irish-American Family Festival on Sunday, September 2, 1984 at 12:00 noon.

The festival will be held throughout the Labor Day weekend, Saturday, Sunday and Monday - September 1, 2 and 3, harborside, in an all-weather facility in the Boston Marine Industrial Park, 660 Summer Street, Boston.

Members of the Irish language club of Boston (Cumann na Gailege) will provide Irish/English souvenir missalettes for those in attendance, as well as offering responses in Irish during the Mass. Cumann na Gailege is an organization dedicated to the preservation and instruction of the Irish language throughout the New England area.

The festival will also feature: continuous, live Irish musical and entertainment from two locations indoors (the main stage, and the Abbey-West theatre) and an outdoor pub under tent, by the water's edge; food and refreshments; Irish imported goods and souvenirs; a Irish Film Festival (The Quiet Man, Ryan's Daughter, The Informer, The Last Hurrah, Shake Hands with the Devil, and Catholics); races by Irish fishing dories (currachs); Siamsa - a history of the Irish race told in song, dance, and stories, performed by members of the Irish Arts Center in New York City; the Miss Irish Colleen Pageant; and Irish-knit fashion show; a children's storyteller, and other children's amusements.

A free drawing will be offered to all patrons for a round-trip flight for two to Ireland and week's stay at an authentic Irish thatched cottage in the hills of Conenmara, where The Quiet Man was filmed, courtesy of Oughterard Thatched Cottages, Ltd.

The Boston Irish-American Family Festival will be held on Saturday, September 1; Sunday, September 2 and Monday (Labor Day holiday), September 3, 1984 from 10:00 a.m. until 1:00 a.m.

Admission is $4 per person. Children under twelve will be admitted free with parent. Senior Citizens will be admitted at half-price ($2.00), Sunday and Monday. Pre-festival 3-day passes may be purchased in advance only, for $9.00.

A limited amount of booth space is available.

Further information may be obtained by contacting: The Irish Family Festival, c/o Dan McCole, at 331-1262.

New Hotel/Retail Training Program

A new hotel and retail training program will begin this fall featuring internships in Boston area shops and hotels.

The program, sponsored by the City's Neighborhood Development and Employment Agency and the Urban Investment and Development Company includes six weeks of classroom work, a 2½ to 3½ month internship and direct job placement.

Trainees successfully completing the program will be qualified to enter jobs such as: front desk clerk, reservationist, sales personnel, housekeeping, host/hostess, maintenance, cashier and telephone operator.

To be eligible for the program candidates must:

- be 18 years of age or older
- be a Boston resident
- be interested in a job with a lot of public contact
- meet certain income guidelines.

To find out how you can enter this exciting new program come to an orientation session on September 5th or 7th at 10:00 a.m. or 11:30 a.m. The sessions are taking place at the Humphrey Center in the Tremont Room at 75 New Dudley Street near Dudley Station in Roxbury. For more information call Pat at 720-4300, extension 230.

CITY GARDENS: Second Annual Window Box Contest

by Barbara Maheigan

Gardens for Charlestown will sponsor the second annual window box contest, open to all gardeners in Charlestown. Last year's contest proved a popular event, and this year we expect even more entries, as the number of window boxes and container plantings increase.

Window boxes and container plantings are eligible, and can be placed atop a balcony, gatepost, entryway, doorstep, or even attached to a window. The plantings must be visible from the street to qualify. The boxes and containers will be judged on color, types of paintings and general effect.

The three winners will be announced shortly before the Garden Tour on September 15 and will be featured in the Garden Tour's guide. The winning entrants will receive a blue ribbon for their planters and a cash prize. All entries must be received by September 8, 1984.

Look around your neighborhood and enter your favorites. For more information contact Gardens for Charlestown, P.O. Box 44, Charlestown, MA 02129 or call 241-7491.

Word Processing Certificate Program At Bunker Hill

Bunker Hill Community College is offering an intensive five-week program in Word Processing. Classes begin the first week of September and students may enroll in either Saturday or evening sessions.

A Word Processing certificate can prepare a student for a career as a Word Processor or help secretaries, newspaper reporters and office personnel advance in their own fields.

The course focuses on creating documents, editing, formatting, printing, merging and filing. Students must have completed a basic typewriting course or be able to type 45 wpm. The first Word Processing Certificate session begins on Saturday, September 8th from 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

The second session meets on Tuesday evening from 6 to 10 p.m., beginning September 11th. Other sessions are scheduled to begin throughout the fall

For more information about the fall semester or about the Word Processing Certificate program, call Bunker Hill Community College Division 1 of Continuing Education at 241-8600, extension 444.

Expanded Hospice Services Available In Charlestown

People with terminal illnesses in Charlestown, now have access to an expanded program of in-home hospice care. The new program is a result of an agreement between Harbor Hospice, of Chelsea, Spaulding Rehabilitation (SRH), in Boston, and The Massachusetts General Hospital. The agreement joins Harbor Hospice with Spaulding, a major affiliate of MGH, to add a full program of in-home health-care services to the support services the hospice already offers.

"Hospice care is one of society's most urgent needs," says Manuel J. Lipson, M.D., SRH's executive director. "Hospice care is 'living care' for the terminally ill; it helps people with serious illness and their families maintain and enhance the quality of time they have together. By joining with Harbor Hospice to create one program that supplies both in-home health care and support services, we hope to make it easier for people to get vital help at the most desperate time of their lives." Under the new joint program, the SRH Home Health Program provides nursing and home-health-aide care, physical and occupational therapy, speech pathology and social case work. Harbor Hospice continues to provide important support services to patients and to family member faced with the overwhelming task of caring for a seriously ill loved one. These services include companionship, transportation, shopping, hospital visiting and patient advocacy. Harbor Hospice, which recruits and trains volunteers to provide this vital community service, has aided nearly 400 area residents since its founding in mid-1979.

Currently, 20 hospice volunteers work in the community. Mary Gesek, R.N., hospice coordinator, will continue to train and coordinate volunteers, provide direct nursing care and act as a liaison with referring hospitals. For complete information on the Harbor Hospice-SRH Home Health Program, call 720-6795.

Final Auditions For "H.M.S. Pinafore"

Final Auditions for "H.M.S. Pinafore", the Gilbert and Sullivan musical production to be presented by the Everett Community Players Inc. will be held at their studio, 48 East Elm Street, Everett, on Thursday, August 30, at 7:00 p.m.

All those who are interested in auditioning are urged to attend this final and all-important display of vocal abilities. This includes everyone who has tried out on August 14, 15, or 23, as well as those who are auditioning for the first time.

It is important for those "trying out" for "leads" to realize that not only is a display of their own vocal abilities a vital issue; but also the interplay with other potential characters in dialogues, duets, etc. Female and male voices are needed for the chorus, also.

If you have auditioned at all, or would like to do so, please be present at this all-important meeting.

Scheduled for November 9, 10, and 11 at Rockwood Auditorium, Everett, the production will be directed by Paul D. Greene, who has already brought his expertise to the Everett Community Players; most recently in the highly successful "South Pacific" and "Man of La Mancha". To be a part of "H.M.S. Pinafore" is an experience and a delight!

Remember — Final Auditions are on Thursday, August 30, 48 East Elm Street, Everett, at 7:00 p.m. Please call 389-8950 or 387-5723 for further information.

Visits B.H.C.C.

It's a thriller!! Master for the macabre, Vincent Price, visited Bunker Hill Community College on Sunday, August 19. Price was in Boston to do work with WGBH.

He was escorted to Bunker Hill by the president of Lakeland Community College, in Cleveland, and recorded radio spots for both colleges in the Bunker Hill Community College sound studio.

Jennifer is the daughter of Sheila and Kevin Williams, formerly of Charlestown.

Help For The Hearing Impaired

If you are hearing-impaired and would like to find a day care center for your child, a homemaker, a family counselor or some other family support service, please call the Department of Social Services TTY for Region VI at 569-8310. Suzanne Palma, Harbor Area (40) Director for the Department, wants to be sure local citizens know that the TTY, a telecommunications device for the deaf, is in service. She also wants to remind them that further supports, such as sign-language interpreters, can be made available.

The TTY may be used by deaf persons who are interested in receiving services from the local DSS office. It is also available for inquiries about becoming an adoptive or foster parent, and for reports of possible child abuse or neglect. To report child abuse or neglect after 5:00 p.m. or on weekends, please call the Child-at-Risk Hotline at 1-800-792-5200; this number has both telephones and TTY's in service.

Ms. Palma also announces that Ms. Sheila O'Connell has been appointed full-time 504 Coordinator for the Department. "I'll be working to improve consumers' access to service and employees' access to the workplace," says Ms. O'Connell. "This means improving physical access, and it also involves outreach to the disabled community and education with DSS." A graduate of Boston College, she comes to the Department from Bay Cove Human Services where she was coordinator of day treatment programs. DSS consumers with concerns about access to services may call Ms. O'Connell in Boston at 727-0900 or 523-3357 (TTY).

Charlestown Police Line

From the desk of Deputy Superintendent Joseph V. Saia, Jr.
Commanding Officer, Area A
Downtown, Charlestown, East Boston, Beacon Hill

A victim stated that on August 20, 1984 while she was at work, unknown person(s) tried to enter her premises via the front door. The unknown suspect(s) were unsuccessful in their attempt, but did manage to damage the front door.

On August 21, 1984 at 5:45 a.m., Police Officer responded to Corey Street on a Vandalism report. On arrival, the Officers spoke with the victim who stated that she was awakened by three windows of her second floor apartment breaking; and when her mother went to the window, she observed her daughter's boyfriend run from the scene. A search of the area was made but to no avail. The victim was advised by the Officers to seek complaints in Charlestown Court in the morning.

On August 21, 1984 at 11:35 a.m., Police Officers responded to Medford Street on a Vandalism report. Upon arrival, the Officers talked to the victim who stated that while in bed reading earlier in the morning, she heard a noise at the rear of her apartment. When she went to see what it was, she found one of her kitchen window screens had been cut with a sharp instrument by unknown person(s).

On August 21, 1984 at 11:40 a.m., Police Officers responded to Old Ironsides Way on a Breaking and Entering report. Upon arrival, the Police Officers met with the victim who stated that sometime between 1:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m., while she was sleeping, unknown person(s) entered her apartment by climbing through an open window. Taken from the apartment was a purse containing $60.00 in U.S. Currency, and assorted jewelry.

On August 21, 1984 at 12:10 p.m., Police Officers responded to Medford Street on an Assault and Battery report. On arrival, the Officers met with the victim who stated that when his girlfriend went to open the front door, a white male known to him pushed open the door, went in and smacked him around. The victim refused medical treatment and he was advised by the Officers to seek complaints in Charlestown District Court.

During the past week, Police Officers of Area A have recovered several stolen vehicles at the following locations: Main Street, High Street, School Street and Medford Street.

On August 22, 1984 at 8:35 a.m., Police Officers responded to 10 Roland Street on an Assault and Battery report. Upon arrival, the Officers spoke with the victim who stated that while in the shipping room of his work at the above address, a male known to him, who had just been fired, accused him of being instrumental to his being fired and let go with about 1/2 dozen punches to the face and body of the victim. The victim was advised to go to Charlestown Court and seek complaints out on the suspect.

On August 23, 1984 at 12:55 p.m., Police Officers responded to South Russell Street on a Breaking and Entering report. On arrival, the Officers spoke with the victim who stated that between 8:30 a.m. and 12:55 p.m. Unknown person(s) broke into her apartment by cutting the screen on the bedroom window. Entrance was gained, and the only thing taken at this time was her checkbook.

The next Community Service Meeting will be held on Tuesday, September 11, 1984 at 7:00 p.m. at the Kent Community School, 50 Bunker Hill Street.

Report Drug Activity

Charlestown residents are being asked to assist the Boston Police Drug Control Unit in cracking down on the sale and distribution of illegal drugs in this community. Information is needed as to the locations of drug activities, the names of persons involved with the distribution of drugs, along with any and all other information on drug trafficking in the community.

Persons with such information, are asked to call the Drug Unit number, 247-4695, between 8:30 a.m. and midnight, seven days a week.

All information will be held in strictest confidence. Callers may remain anonymous. If a caller wishes to leave his/her name, that person's identity will be protected.

The Police need the cooperation of the residents. Report any drug activity to: 247-4695.

Blood Pressure Screening For Elderly

The Mayor's Commission on Affairs of the Elderly will be conducting a free Blood Pressure Screening session for any Boston resident 60 years of age or older on Thursday, September 12th, 12:30 to 3:00 p.m. at the JFK Elderly Service Lounge, 55 Bunker Hill Street, Charlestown.

High blood pressure is a serious problem if left untreated. Blood pressure can be easily detected if seniors will just take a few minutes out of the day to have their pressure checked. Red Cross certified senior volunteers read blood pressures. Any seniors with high blood pressure readings will be checked by Commission staff or medical professionals who are present at every site, and referred to their own doctor or neighborhood health center.

For further information about the program, seniors or their families should contact the Mayor's Elderly Hotline at 722-4646.
