CHIEF MARSHAL Tom Hickey tips his hat to the crowd as he prepares to give the order "Forward March" that will lead the 1995 Bunker Hill Day Parade through the streets of Charlestown. This parade marked the 220th anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill and was a tribute to the World War II victory a half century ago and to the veterans who served in that war. Hickey, a U.S. Army veteran, served at the Battle of the Bulge. Shown in the front are Kaleigh Hickey along with her father Tom Hickey Jr, son of the Chief Marshal. In the back row (l. to r.) are Ryan Hickey, Tom Jr.'s son; Mary Ellen (Hickey) Doherty, daughter of the Chief Marshal; Chief Marshal Tom Hickey; and Brian Hickey, the Chief Marshal's son. MAYOR THOMAS M. MENINO, an honorary chief marshal, marched at the top of Sunday's Bunker Hill Day Parade with members of his family and the parade staff. Shown (l. to r.) Parade Adjutant James W. Conway; Rep. Richard A. Voke, House Majority Leader, an honorary chief marshal; Mayor Menino; the mayor's wife Angela; the mayor's daughter Susan; and Judy Evers, community liaison, Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services. ### Rogers Receives Awards From Cotting School

Shawn Rogers, son of the late Margaret Rogers of Charlestown, a student at the Cotting School in Lexington, has been named the 1995 recipient of the Steven J. Della Porta Award and the Theron Gough Award.

The Steven J. Della Porta Award is given to a Cotting School senior who has demonstrated the "qualities of a cheerful and positive attitude and the quiet posture of constant courage so abundantly displayed by former student Steven J. Della Porta."

The Theron Gough

SHAWN ROGERS

Award was established in memory of Theron Gough, a neighbor and friend to the school who touched the lives of many. It is awarded to the student who "presents courage and perseverance in a cheerful manner."

While at Cotting, Rogers was on the yearbook committee, received the "Citizenship Award" for 1995 and participated in Project Bridges, a community-based work program. After graduation, Rogers will work in the community as part of a vocational support program.

Founded in 1893, the Cotting School was the nation's first day school for children with physical disabilities.

Thank You, Charlestown!

To The People Of Charlestown:

I would like to thank all the good people of Charlestown for their wonderful, warm response as I made my way through the parade route. It was such an honor to be your Chief Marshal.

I'd also like to take this opportunity to thank Jim and Gloria Conway for making the parade "happen." They have so much to be proud of in this great undertaking.

Also, my thanks to all the wonderful dedicated people who serve on the various committees associated with the parade. God bless you all!

Sincerely,
Tom Hickey

My Deepest Thanks

Dear Gloria,

Please convey my deepest thanks to those responsible for the ceremony surrounding my delivering the 1995 Bunker Hill Monument Oration. It was an experience that I will not soon forget. I wish you and Jim continued success in your efforts that do so much to foster patriotism and civic pride.

Semper Fidelis,
Jim

Colonel, U.S. Marines)

Thank You, Charlestown!

Dear Residents of Charlestown,

I want to let everyone know how much the Boys & Girls Club appreciates the support you give the runners each year in the Battle of Bunker Hill Road Race.

This is especially appreciated on a day like this past Sunday when the thermometer reached into the 90s. Without all the hoses and extra water that's available, as well as words of encouragement, it would be a much more difficult run. This is something the runners always comment on at the end and something that keeps bringing them back each year. They certainly appreciate "Charlestown Hospitality."

A special thanks to all the volunteers who help register runners, hold arrows, people "official" water stops, and support the race in many different ways.

The race is not only an important fund raiser for the Boys & Girls Club, but we feel it's an important part of the Bunker Hill Day celebration. Without all your help, it would not be possible.

Sincerely,
Jerry Steimel
Club Director

HANDLING THE SURPRISES!

Between the initial meeting of the minds and the final meeting at the settlement table, most real estate transactions encounter at least some breakdowns - often major ones. This is where having a professional handle the sale of your home makes a big difference.

Real estate professionals don't view breakdowns as problems, but as challenges to be met. Many are predictable, and by anticipating them we can minimize their consequences. We can draw on our own experience and that of our colleagues to ensure that, whatever happens, the buyers and sellers wind up with a successful settlement. When disputes arise, we use our expertise to create Win-Win situations. This approach to listing and selling real estate is what makes a difference to our buyers and sellers. We go the extra mile to make sure the countless details are handled and to keep our buyers and sellers informed about each aspect of their transaction.

If there's a move in your future, the real estate professionals at Monument Properties are ready to serve you. Please call us at 241-5900 or stop by our offices at 85 Warren St., Charlestown.

Money Matters

by Nicholas C. Pino

"Let us assist you in your financial planning"

BUSINESS SUCCESSION PLANNING WHAT DECISIONS MUST YOU MAKE?

Succession planning is very important for a family owned business. Before you sit down with your tax and legal advisors to draw up a succession plan, you should think through three key issues: who do you want to succeed you; when do you want the transition to take place; and how do you want to structure the transition?

The question of who will succeed you in the business can be the toughest of all, largely because there is so much emotion involved. Most owners want to pass the business on to the family. But are your children willing to take on the business, and if so, are they capable of running it? Will it cause a family squabble if one or two children want to run the business, but others are not interested? Resolving these issues may take a lot of honest, open discussion with family members to discover their true feelings. If there is not an obvious family successor, other alternatives include selling the business to an outsider, promoting an existing employee to head the business while you retain ownership, or even selling the business to the employees.

When you make the transition depends on a number of factors, such as your age, health, retirement goals and the readiness of a successor. Consider whether you want to maintain some involvement with the business or make a clean break. Remember, though, you should always have a contingency succession plan in case of sudden death or disability.

How you structure the transition depends partly on the answers to the earlier questions and partly on financial considerations. Think through issues such as whether you need retirement income from the business or whether you primarily want to minimize estate taxes. Knowing your goals for the transition will make it much easier to tailor a succession plan that fits your specific situation.

Birmingham And Voke Announce Legislature Enacts Supplemental Budget

Sen. Thomas F. Birmingham and Rep. Richard A. Voke announced the enactment of budget recommendations meeting current fiscal year obligations and benefitting Charlestown. The supplemental budget totals approximately $67 million in net spending for Commonwealth operating expenses.

The budget recommendation, which enjoyed uncontested support in the House and the Senate, primarily funds obligations the state has to satisfy in order to close out the current fiscal year.

This includes appropriations for unavoidable costs due to caseload increases at the Department of Social Services and the Department of Youth Services, recently signed collective bargaining agreements for state employees and rate increases for special education services.

The supplemental budget includes $3 million for the local housing authorities and fully funds their efforts to provide decent, safe public housing in Boston. Birmingham, chair of the Senate Committee on Ways and Means, said that "many of our senior citizens live in public housing. I am hard pressed to imagine a more important expenditure of money than keeping these buildings well-maintained, clean and safe." "By continuing our strategies to maintain and update quality, affordable housing stock in Charlestown, these funds will have a tremendous impact," added Voke, the House Majority Leader.

In addition to these requisite expenditures, the budget includes a $550,000 appropriation for generating additional summer jobs for Boston's youth.

Due to an innovative partnership between the Commonwealth and the Boston Private Industry Council, the appropriated funds will provide a job-for-job match for each private sector summer employment secured by the PIC. "Given that this is a budget dedicated primarily to unavoidable expenses, it is particularly gratifying that the Legislature approved an appropriation for summer jobs for Boston's youth," said Birmingham.

"As we heard so articulately from Peter Looney at the Bunker Hill Associates Breakfast, a major way we can keep kids out of trouble is to get them into summertime jobs. I am pleased to join the fight to give our kids a fighting chance at a better future," stressed Voke.

The enacted budget recommendations is now being reviewed by the Governor, who has 10 days in which to veto particular sections of the budget. The Legislature may override vetoes with a two-thirds vote in both the House and Senate.

SS JOHN W. BROWN Set To Steam Into The Harbor At Charlestown

The Liberty Ship SS John W. Brown is returning to Pier One in the Boston National Historical Park section Charlestown Navy Yard on Tuesday, June 27 to participate in Boston Harborfest's star-spangled Fourth of July celebration. Its participation honors veterans of all services.

The ship is scheduled to arrive at 8:30 a.m., and residents are invited to be on hand to welcome this old ship and her veteran crew to Charlestown. The ship and her visit will honor all veterans on this, the 50th anniversary of the victorious climax of World War II.

This ship is one of two ships remaining from the fleet of 2,700 Liberty Ships. The dedication of the valiant merchant mariners and Naval Armed Guard who served their country during World War II is remembered by the

Brown and her crew. During World War II, these ships sailed through submarine and mine infested waters, constantly in danger of aerial attack as well as hostile gunfire from surface raiders contributed significantly to the victory 50 years ago.

It is also appropriate that the Brown will be docked in the Charlestown Navy Yard. Here skilled and dedicated men and women of the shipbuilding and ship repair trades worked around the clock throughout the war years to build and repair the ships needed to ensure victory.

The Brown is scheduled to be open for public visitation on Wednesday, June 28 from noon to 5 p.m.; Thursday, June 29 from noon to 5 p.m.; Friday, June 30 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.; and Sunday, July 2 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

America's "Fighting Liberty Ship" will make her second Boston Harbor cruise on Saturday, July 1. This "cruise into history" on the Brown will feature a welcoming continental breakfast, lunch and beverages, tours of the ship, dancing to the live 40's music of the White Heat Swing Orchestra, vocals of the era, a Flyby of World War II aircraft and much more. The donation for each guest for the spectacular trip is $100. Checks should be made payable to Project Liberty Ship and mailed to: Project Liberty Ship, P.O. Box 1542, Washington, Penn. 19034.

The Mass. Maritime Academy is a proud sponsor of the SS John W. Brown and its historic visit to Charlestown from June 27 through July 6. For further details, contact Project Liberty Ship at (410) 661-1550 or Capt. Jerome F. McGourthy at (508) 830-5000 ext. 2100.

Dear Gloria:

On behalf of the Friends of Doherty Park, I want to thank all participants in the park cleanup on May 20.

The work accomplished was impressive, thanks to everyone. We especially express our appreciation to Tom Celata who gave his time, energy and lawn mower to the cause by singlehandedly mowing the entire back slope, so sorely needed! We hope next year to see even more participants. Until next spring,

Sincerely,
Maureen Lauren, president

Thank You For The Refreshing Cheer

Dear Editor,

Although the hot weather was sure to lead to a warm reception, I want to thank the people of Charlestown for the refreshing cheer they gave to me up and down the route this past parade day. Always a day I look forward to with tremendous anticipation, I am so pleased our community again put its collective best foot forward during our celebration of Bunker Hill Day.

To the Parade Committee, Bunker Hill Associates and all the other people who combined to give us a wonderful week to reflect on the past, enjoy the present and be optimistic about the future, thank you. From the beginning of Pride Week straight through to the parade, many gave of themselves so our entire community could again show others why Charlestown is so special.

To those who were honored this week, let me once again offer you my tribute. We would not be celebrating if our dedicated fighting men and women had not made such tremendous and successful sacrifice defending democracy 50 years ago. While thanking our veterans, I hope our other group of honorees, Charlestown's youth, can learn by the example our vets have set. Having seen so many reasons to believe our future is in good hands, I also hope our community can continue to nurture and support our kids.

Lastly, thank you Chief Marshal Tom Hickey for being such an inspirational leader this past week and throughout your entire distinguished lifetime. Remarkable that even a recent serious illness could not hold Tom back, it was wonderful that the Charlestown pride Tom has lived his life by was returned to him by a community grateful to call him one of their own.

Again, thank you one and all!

Very truly yours,
Richard A. Voke
State Representative

PRAYER TO ST. JUDE

Most holy apostle, St. Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the Church honors and invokes you universally, as the patron of hopeless cases, of things most despaired of. Pray for me, I am so helpless and alone. Make use I implore you, of that particular privilege given to you to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired of. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolation and help of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations and sufferings, particularly - (Here make your request) and that I may praise God with you and all the elect forever. I promise, O blessed St. Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor, to always honor you as my special and powerful patron, and to gratefully encourage devotion to you. Amen. Thank you for prayers answered. C.M.B.

Exhibit On The First Battle Of International Importance Fought By Americans To Open At Charlestown Navy Yard

"Siege at Louisbourg, 1745: New England and the Struggle for World Empire" will open Wednesday, June 28 at Boston National Historical Park at the Charlestown Navy Yard, next to USS Constitution. Parks Canada, (Atlantic Region) and the U.S. National Park Service, in cooperation with a consortium of New England historical institutions, are presenting this free exhibit, which will be open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. seven days a week. After Labor Day, the exhibit will close at 5 p.m..

Two-hundred and fifty years ago, Royal Gov. William Shirley, whose home is now a museum on Shirley Street in Roxbury, organized an expedition of New Englanders to attack the mightiest French Fort in North America, the Fortress Louisbourg. The New Englanders won the day. While colonists had engaged in successful military operations prior to this, the capture of Louisbourg represents the first time that American arms successfully challenged and significantly affected the affairs of European powers.

Today, the Fortress of Louisbourg National Historical Site is North America's largest historical reconstruction. Located on Cape Breton Island, Nova Scotia, it faithfully depicts what life was like for the French colonists of 1744.

To commemorate the 250th anniversary, the Parks Services of both Canada and the U.S. are using the occasion to expand the awareness of Boston's visitors and residents about life in colonial times.

The multi-media exhibit will feature an impressive collection of artifacts, photos, portraits, models and much more. Several special events are being planned in the Boston area surrounding the exhibit. On June 18, King's Chapel on Tremont Street is re-enacting the service given at the church when victory was declared. Strawberry Bank in Portsmouth, N.H. is planning a "send off" on July 8 and 9 for the period costumed soldiers who will take part in a Grand Encampment to be held in Louisbourg, and the Shirley Eustis House, 33 Shirley St. in Roxbury, is conducting a symposia in the fall.

Louisbourg itself is planning numerous activities including an Acadian festival from July 21 to 23, a Grand Encampment with over 1,300 historical re-enactors attending from across Canada and the U.S. which includes a visit of the Tall Ships from July 28 to 30, and craft and wine shows all summer long.

For more information on the festivities in Louisbourg, call 1-800-565-9464.

The family of George R. "Bob" Dumas Sr. would like to sincerely thank all our friends, neighbors and co-workers for their kind expressions of sympathy during our time of sorrow.

We would also like to extend our thanks and appreciation to the Knights of Columbus.

With heartfelt thanks,
The Dumas Family

MARCH AGAINST DRUGS Supported By Community

BOB D'S BEAT BY BOB DeCRISTOFORO

◆ The Tradition Continues . . . It's hard for me to recall when I didn't spend a good part of the "17th of June" at the Vesey home on Ellwood Street, and Sunday was no different. Over the years I've watched many grow in the Vesey Family yard, and I still marvel at the number of youngsters who will continue to carry on this Bunker Hill Day tradition. They all start by running around the yard, move to table number one by the gate, and work their way through the years to the "cooler" side, and one day watch with amazement, as I do, who has taken their spot as part of the family whether it be as a Gorman, a Lacey, a Brennan, a Vesey or a friend. This is what Bunker Hill Day and Charlestown tradition is really all about.

◆ Rookie Ball - Rainbow II Registration . . . Everyone is reminded that this is the week to sign up at the Charlestown Community Center for the Boston Red Sox Rookie Ball League and for the Rainbow II Summer Program at the Bunker Hill Teen Center. Rainbow II has limited openings and then a waiting list will be formed. See Carmen or Bob D. for details.

◆ Hoop Dreams And More . . . The 1995 Tour National Tip-Off for "Hoop Dreams and More" will take place on Saturday, June 24 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Northeastern's Blackman Auditorium. The event is being hosted by Northeastern's Sports In Society Program, the Boston

Housing Authority Youth on the Rise Program, HUD and Kartemquin Educational Films Inc. The event is open to young people 12 and up and their parents. Bob D. has more details.

◆ Bay State Games . . . Congratulations to Corey Gallagher who has been selected to play in this year's Bay State Games that will get underway in July at various college sites. Corey will be participating in the Basketball Tournament.

Congratulations also to Don Bosco's Chris Donovan who will represent Charlestown in the Bay State Games Ice Hockey Tournament.

It's great to see our young people take that extra step to get involved in these fine programs and continue to share their Charlestown Pride.

◆ Yawkey Talk . . . Charlestown is alive and well in the Yawkey Baseball League, things are getting better and better game after game, and we are becoming much more competitive. We still need your support and anyone who received a game sponsor packet is asked to send them back with as much help as possible, as soon as possible.

Games this week will be sponsored in part by Awards Unlimited, and we certainly appreciate their help. The schedule for this week is: Friday, June 23 - vs. Padres at Ryan Field at 7:30 p.m.; Sunday, June 25 - vs. Brighton Twins at Rogers at 4 p.m.; Tuesday, June 27 - vs. Cambridge at Ryan Field at 7:30 p.m.; and Thursday, June 29 - vs. Lincoln at Ryan Field at 7:30 p.m.

◆ Mayor's Summer Kick-Off . . . Today, Thursday, June 22, from 4 to 8 p.m., the Mayor's Summer Kick-Off will be held at City Hall Plaza. This will be a lot of fun as the plaza will take on the appearance of a great country fair. All Boston youth agencies will have booths and information concerning their summer activities and what Boston has to offer during the summer months. Come on down!

◆ Sox Talk . . . The first Sox Talk of the summer will take place on Wednesday, June 28 at Columbus Park in South Boston. Prior to the actual Sox Talk, there will be running, throwing and hitting contests, and winners will take part in a Fenway Park event sometime in mid-August or early September. The time for this Wednesday's event in Southie is 10 a.m. Future Sox Talks will be held July 14 at Orchard Park; July 17 at Iacona Park in Hyde Park; Aug. 14 at Noyes Park in East Boston; and Aug. 17 at Jefferson Park in Jamaica Plain, all beginning at 10 a.m. Charlestown youngsters are invited to attend these Sox Talks.

◆ Charlestown Pride Basketball . . . Once again our Charlestown Pride Basketball team took part in the Joey Holloran Basketball Tournament in Dorchester, and we fell just a little short, falling to the Milton squad. Danny Ryan, Nick Smith, Derek Gallagher, Leo Boucher, Greg Jackson and Mike Connell were some of the Charlestown players.

The Charlestown Pride team will be back in action this weekend in the Old Colony Sunday League.

◆ Back To School . . . Congratulations to all the young people who graduated on Monday from the Charlestown Back To School Program. As you move on this fall to high school remember you got some sound educational tips from a very good and caring staff. They will always be around if you need help in the future!

◆ RBI Baseball . . . Weather and some other strange happenings forced some great changes in our RBI schedule, but this week we finally got into some LIVE action, and enter the competition with a 2-0 record. To each player and coach, thank you for your patience with a frustrating on-again, off-again schedule. Always remember, we only have control over our own team, and as long as we do what we're suppose to do, we will always be Number One. A special thank you to Assistant Coach Mike Santosuosso for all his help. Welcome home Coach Jason Gallagher.

◆ Tidbits . . .

- If you see Joe Lawler, Joe Brennan or Alexis, please don't call them Dennis Rodman.

- Did the sun really get to dancing Jill Doherty on Sunday?

- Brian Wadman also had a good taste of sunstroke.

- Mike Collins was giving moon walk dancing lessons this weekend.

- Jamie Strickland, did you find your car?

Boys & Girls Club Hosts 8th Annual Golf Tournament

The Charlestown Boys & Girls Club recently held its annual golf tournament at the Round Hill Country Club in Sandwich. It was a beautiful day for a round of golf to benefit the boys and girls of Charlestown and, as always, thanks to the generosity of so many good people, it was sold out.

Thanks go out to everyone who participated as both players and sponsors, especially corporate sponsor Boston Edison. The generosity of everyone involved makes this both a successful and enjoyable fund raiser for the Boys & Girls Club.

First place winners were: Jim Godding, Mike Yandle, Paul Anthony and Paul Yandle.

Second place winners were: John Whelan, Jim McCarthy and Steve Doherty.

Third place winners were: Mike McLaughlin, Brian McCabe, Mike Murphy and Jocko Yandle.

The longest drive was made by Steve McLaughlin, Closest to Pin #9 was T. Colaviti, Closest to Pin #3 was Paul O'Reilly, Closest to Pin #7 was George Kirk and Billy Collins was the winner of the Putting Contest.

CHARLESTOWN BOYS & GIRLS CLUB NEWS

15 Green St.

◆ LIBRARY

Chess Club - On June 7, we took four of our Chess Club members to South Boston for a chess tournament and trivia test. First was the trivia section, where Charlestown lost, but we overcame South Boston in the chess tournament with Aaron Munde beating Jack Doherty for the championship, only because the entire South Boston team was beaten by Charlestown. The Charlestown members were: David Boire, Jack Doherty, Julius Newton and Aaron Munde. The Southie members were: Chris Stoddard, Shannon Reed, Kevin Morrison and Joe Ferris.

Thanks to the South Boston Clubhouse for hosting this event and for providing some of the prizes. Aaron, the champion, received Red Sox tickets as his prize.

Book Sale A Big Success - Our book sale on June 9 and 10 was a major success due to the many people who came by and purchased books. The amount sold for both days totaled $114! This money will be used to purchase more up-to-date books for our library and to buy some CD-Rom software for our computer room. A special thanks to everyone who helped set up and clean up.

◆ PHYSICAL EDUCATION
