The Roun'da Manure Bicycle tour is a one-day bicycle tour starting in Sharon, Wisconsin, and continuing through pastoral farmlands and friendly rural towns nearby. The town retains its charm while offering great cycling country, through the network of quiet, paved rural roads, which include lots of cows and no stop lights.

The Bicycle Tour includes:

- A choice of 4 marked routes (17, 27, 44, or 66 miles)
- Coupons for local ice cream shops, as well as water and snack services along the way
- A home-cooked pig roast after the ride

“As a resident of Sharon and a former resident of northern Illinois, I have ridden these roads for over 40 years. After 50 bicycle races and tours across America, I can honestly say that the roads in this area offer some of the best cycling in the United States.”

- Lon Haldeman, 8-time transcontinental record holder
