Introducing The Humanity Project

The Humanity Project is an idea and way for us to all to live in abundance shown to me from the higher source which once created gives everybody free food/water, free energy, free housing, free education a strong sense of community and freedom from having to make money to live (modern slavery).

Before I go into this in much greater detail I have updated this book because the world around us is rapidly changing and the fight of good vs evil (WW3) is happening in the background and as far as we know good has already triumphed over evil and we are in the end phases of our old world ran by extremely corrupt and bad people to a new world where the power and money and greatness is being given back to the people and mankind will prosper as we should have all along. This is beginning of the new golden age and the transition to greatness.

The Transition To Greatness

The transition to greatness is happening all around us and we have been heading there for many years. The only reason we are not already living in a peaceful, abundant world where everybody on the planet has more than they need to live peaceful, happy, abundant lives is because it has been blocked several times from happening, which I will go into further later on. Now is the time and it is rolling out. What does this mean and what will the new world look like? This is very good for everybody on the planet! The monetary system will soon work in our favor! First of all ALL personal debt will be forgiven! No more taxes! Yes really! Return to common (constitutional law in US) law, 1000 years of peace! No more war! Redistribution of wealth back to the people especially older people! AND over 6000 suppressed technologies. So were basically moving to a world where everyone will be taken care of and modern slavery is over and everyone will live abundant happy lives!

Nesara/Gesara Explained

Forgiveness of debt:

There are already thousands of people all over the world showing their mortgages cleared, credit card bills cleared, student loans cleared even utility bills cleared, and added with credit. With a little bit of research and if you look at what some of our friends mentioned earlier show you you will see this as true for yourself. This is a recompense for all the illegal banking activities and there is much more to come!

Abolishment of income tax:

Donald Trump abolished income tax only last week. Google it. And he was opposed by democrats but did it anyway and also said if he remains president for the next term it will remain abolished forever.

Abolishment of the Federal Reserve:

Again President Trump has already dealt with this a few months ago already and now it is no longer owned by private bankers and the money of America is no longer in their hands.

Return to constitutional law (common law)

Common law is essentially no victim or damaged parties no crime. This would abolish thousands of laws imposed upon is including possession/use of cannabis. As far as I am aware again President Trump has been replacing corrupt judges and is training 200 judges in constitutional law. Also The Common Law Courts of Great Britain and International have been doing a lot of work including work with the New King of England find out more from Chrliies Youtube Channel and look here to register yourself as a sovereign citizen under common law. <https://www.commonlawcourt.com/>

Establishes New Elections For World/Government Leaders

When Nesar/Gesara are officially announced within 120 days there will be elections and voting for new leaders and it will be made completely tamper-proof so the peoples vote will now matter and make a difference.

Create New Currencies

All currencies will be backed by silver, gold, and other precious metals. And we have had reports there will also be cryptocurrencies for the USA, Russia, China and India also backed by precious metals. Donald Trump took over the federal reserve months ago, he keeps talking about moving to the golden era in his speeches and rallies. There is now a USN as well as the USD, personal debt in America if you look on the US debt clock is going down by 100s of millions of dollars a day! If you look on the debt clock at the silver/gold to ratio its showing a huuuuuuge increase in prices indicating if this actually happens it will be very good for people who realised before it happens and also indicating this is highly likely to happen!

Ceases All Aggressive Military Action

Again President Trump is the only president that hasn't gone to war with anyone for about 40 years! He also made peace with Russia and North Korea. Gesara will mean 1000 years of peace! No country will be allowed to go to war and I read/saw online it would mean the abolishment of nuclear arms because they are not needed.

Redistribution of Wealth

There are vast amounts of gold and money that has been seized that has accumulated for decades. It said to be in the quadrillions (45 0's) and this is to be given back to all people of the world I think via some kind of one-off larger payment and then a monthly payment which will be more than enough to live on comfortably without the need to work. Most of my information from this came from Charlie but all three people mentioned earlier speak about all of this stuff too.

Release of Technologies

There are said to be over 6000 technologies that have been suppressed. Including health tech that can heal almost anything, anti-aging technology, free energy even teleportation! A lot of this stuff most likely came from Nicholas Tesla.

Release of Enormous Sums of Money for Humanitarian Projects

Because the world is in such a mess with pollution and destruction caused by greed and abuse by big industries and also people adding to the problem too there will be massive sums of money given to projects that help fix the world and heal the damage that has been done. An example of this already happening is the Spanish government has created thousands of jobs cleaning the coast giving a very higher than normal salary to do so!

IF all of this rolls out a lot of the work I thought we had to do all by ourselves will be done for us already! Either way everything still applies and we can go forward faster and easier and create a much better world for everyone.

Introduction

What is Possible?

The information contained in this book are the in detailed ideas given to me from a higher consciousness to share with you all a way that together, we can change the future of our planet and for our children and our children's children. The information was given to me to share with you all in an attempt to change the direction of our planet and society, the world in general and the way everything is going. If we manage to help each other and grow together and realize the time of singularity is over and the time of the collective consciousness is here, then we may avert disaster and end the need for being forced to trade our time and lives and having to work or do anything and everything that we have to to have enough for money to live and survive and to meet our basic human needs. If we're smart we can bring harmonious living and self-sustainability and freedom instead of pollution and destruction and modern-day slavery, bring peace and end war, bring health, wealth and abundance and end poverty and suffering, bring our communities and people and our families back together and end the separation, division and hatred. Ultimately bringing a sense of love, a sense of caring and a sense of sharing back to the world and creating a better-upgraded reality for EVERYONE.

The information we have been given will provide a complete solution for all the homeless people in the world eventually as everybody can have an eco-home in one of our communities. Not just the homeless anybody who wants to have a better quality of life can join us and have all this too and everything else too!

We also have the perfect solution to free food and drinks, free energy, free housing and natural remedies and medicines.

We also have the solution to end the greed and corruption of our current world leaders and big industries.

We also have the solution to end wars, change political parties in power and create a fairer world for everyone.

Part One: Why Me?

Why me? I think I know why me and I will explain what I think but none of us at this stage in our evolution can say for sure at this time. All of my life I felt like I had a purpose and a reason for being here and I always felt it was something really important and it was out of the normal. Oh, boy, do I know now when I was growing up over the years I have met several mediums, clairvoyants, white witches, and tarot readers, spiritual healers and the like who have almost all told me there was something different about me and many of them passed on to me that one day I am going to do something very important. I always thought they were right but I never expected this. My belief in the spiritual world is indefinite because of my many experiences with it and I know many people don't believe in tarot cards and things like this and I am also very skeptical if the person seems only interested in financial gain and speaks in general terms but the experiences I have had with people not interested in money whilst doing them and other spiritual practices with the energy and intentions all being correct, well the results have been incredibly astounding and quite positively amazing to say the very least.

I have always been a very selfless person even when I was a kid I would have given you my last sweet or biscuit if I thought it would make you happy. I have always been very empathetic and had a strong sense of empathy often feeling other people's pain and sadness and I have always wanted to make people feel better and happier in life. This is probably why I spent my younger days whilst in education studying in health and social care so I could work helping people which I did for about 5 years from sixteen years old until I was about twenty-one-ish working as a mental health support worker in Sandwell and the Black Country, near Birmingham in England where I am from. But being a general all-round good man isn't the reason why me? I think the reason is much deeper and much brighter and it might not be so easy for some of you to agree with me but this is what I think and the conclusion I have come to based on my thoughts, feelings, and experiences over the years and from reading similar things from different authors too.

I believe that we are all spiritual energy having a human experience. I also believe we are fallen angels reliving a human existence until we have learned all of our lessons and can ascend back into the light. Whether we are either of these a combination, cosmic elves as I've heard us referred to or lightworkers, whatever you choose to call it I believe there is much more to it than were just mere mortal humans. I believe that we are all here to help each other and to make the world the best place it can be. I believe that before we were born into our human bodies we came here with a purpose and a destiny and that we were born in the right place and the right time and with the right people to help us achieve that purpose. I believe that some of us made pacts to help each other achieve our purposes. I also sadly believe a lot of us are disconnected and have forgotten our destinies and our purposes and what we are meant to be doing and a lot of us are lost and haven't woken up yet. This is why there is still a lot of suffering, hatred, negativity, and fear in the world. I believe we are all waking up and we are all being guided in the right direction and we will achieve our goals as humanity evolves and when we do the fear and hate will be replaced by light and love. I have felt things were this way for many years and I have had several experiences with the spiritual world that are quite out of the normal as I will explain below.

When I was growing up my mother always told me about when she had seen ghosts and stuff like that and as I got older I realized she is quite good at picking up on if there are spirits or bad energies in a place. My mother the same as my father I wouldn't say are particularly religious and they are not particularly spiritual either, in fact, my dad will probably laugh at me when he reads this book but several times when we had been to somewhere new my mother would say there was a feeling about that place and describe what she felt and even sometimes saw. The first experience I can think of that is of any major significance to me and in my life, I can think of is when I had my first tarot cards reading when I lived in Tenby in Wales when I was about 25 years old. Two of my friends were going to get their tarot cards to be read Alys and Chloe and last minute I asked to call ahead to the lady and see if there was any room for one more and there was so we went for a reading. The lady who at the time I would say was in her early sixties had never met me before, heard of me before and had no idea who I was and we went ahead and did the reading first. Past, Present, Future. As she started going through my past she told me lots of personal things even my two friends who took me didn't know about me things like when I worked in care, I had lost a good friend I used to care for but he wasn't very old and several other things that were not general at all and only applied to me very specifically like a 1 in a million or less at guessing everything that correctly.

I was impressed and shocked how she knew, so much perfectly relating information about my history. Then she went on to talk about the present. She also said several things that she could never have guessed like I was making a lot of money at the time (I turned up not looking wealthy at all), I had a lot of people around me using me and I was going to leave soon which I was contemplating plus several other things. Again I was quite amazed and shocked and because she got so many things right I believed her about the future before she had told me anything. Then next she told me about my future. She told me I was going abroad somewhere with a hot sunny climate soon but not too far away and I was going to have lots of fun, make lots of money and it was going to be a massive adventure but a very dangerous one, but not to worry I would be okay but a lot of good and bad things will happen but I will get through it all and everything will turn out how it is meant to. She told me I would go further away too later on and spend a long time further away from home somewhere warm too and I will find something there that keeps me going back for the rest of my life and several other things. To date, I would say 95% of what she told me has come true! My first experience with tarot cards made me feel that sometimes these things can be scarily accurate and true!

My next major spiritual experience was about a year later when I went to live on the island of Ibiza, Spain. I had been living in Spain for a few months when I received a message on Facebook to say that I needed to call home someone has died. For anyone that isn't aware Ibiza is the party capital of the world where all the famous DJs and music artists perform to huge crowds of people drinking, taking party drugs and enjoying the hedonistic atmosphere. When I received the news I was in no fit state to call home and I wasn't sure who had died although I had a feeling it was my mother's father and I was scared to call and find out in case it wasn't him. So I slept off the alcohol and called my brother. It was my grandad who had died as I felt and everyone else was okay. At that time everyone else was at home supporting each other and I couldn't go back home because I couldn't leave Ibiza at the time because of other commitments and I was there alone (with friends and acquaintances) suffering and in pain for the loss of my grandfather and also knowing how much my mother would be hurting too. Also, I was having several problems with several people at the time and it was a little bit dangerous for me in San Antonio as a few people had a problem with me and were causing me stress and difficulties as a result. For about 8 days I felt like my grandad was with me the whole time. It's hard to explain but where your third eye is it felt like a cool thumb was going around in a circle on the front of my forehead or a mini washing machine was in there on a cool spin. For that 8 days whilst I felt like that I wasn't myself. I was noticeably smarter. My spoken and written Spanish was far superior to what it was before is now and has ever been. The way I could control conversations and out-think, outwit and outsmart anyone and everyone in those 8 days was on an entirely different level. I was more confident and had no fear of anything and I gained the taste for coffee, which I have never drank before or after I hate the stuff!

This leads to the next major spiritual experience. During those 8 days, I got taken to an old resort in Ibiza town that had been turned into a squat. It was tidy and clean and well-kept and everything was open and airy and bright white walls everywhere. It was weird but it felt to me like I had been there before although

I definitely hadn't and it also felt like it was a holy place like a place of God or goodness or something and the people that were there all felt like they were good people and somehow enlightened (Now I think they were some of us, lightworkers, fallen angels or whatever). Whilst I was there two things I still can't explain to this day happened. I was drinking alcohol, smoking cannabis and using ketamine but this still doesn't explain what happened. The day before this my ex-girlfriend's boyfriend who was a large, Romanian, strong and fit security officer had visited me and he attacked me at a bar whilst I was sitting down. At the time I had drunk about 50+ shots of alcohol and numerous cocktails and smoked several joints and taken several grams of ketamine. Luckily my grandad was with me and even though I shouldn't have even been able to even stand up I was able to fight him off very easily and he left threatening to return with his friends. In the fight, we both got injured he left bleeding and with an injured foot from kicking me in the head like Jean Claude Van Damme himself and I had several lumps, bumps, and bruises especially on my head. Anyway so we were in this special place and we were drinking and smoking and what not and I felt myself go into a trance-like state or something. I always felt that whilst under the influence of ketamine it often opened your mind to something higher out there but this time it was a whole other level. So I went into a trance and I stood up out the way of everyone and closed my eyes and begin stretching and twisting and turning and massaging my arms, neck, shoulders, and head and I felt my hands go cold and it felt like they weren't my hands and I wasn't controlling them and I just went with it and stood there for several minutes allowing my hands to flow and massage freely. Whilst in this trance I had a vision and I saw it like being in a drive-in cinema and several minutes of the best action movie I have ever seen in my life. I saw it in great detail, I saw angels come down from heaven and there was a battle on earth between light and dark, good and bad and the angels won and earth was changed and all of the greed and badness on the planet was wiped out and we all lived harmoniously in synergy with the world and everything was how it's always been meant to be. Anyway, I snapped out of the trance and came back to reality completely confused as to what all that meant and what had just happened and I felt really good like no pains and felt my head and body where I had just had bumps and bruises there were none! Literally gone like they got melted away magically! Ten minutes earlier I had felt like I had been in the ring with Mike Tyson and now ten minutes later after the trance, I was completely fine like nothing had ever happened! I went back to my friends and showed them and they were amazed too all my bruising and swelling has literally vanished!?

About six months later I was back in the West Midlands at a friend's house in Birmingham and I told him about my vision and the trance and he told me that what I had seen sounded like the book of revelations. I didn't know what this was and he explained the last book in the Bible about Judgement day and the Apocalypse. I didn't even know anything about this although I had heard something about judgment day in the bible but I have never really read much into anything like this before (so how did I see it in my vision!?) I had a read and it did fit with what I saw and I was amazed because I still don't know how you can see something you don't even know exists and I didn't understand what all of this meant until recently about 10 years later and the significance that it has to everything.

Ten years later about nine months ago I started noticing things again, like little tests the universe was giving me and I could feel something big was coming. Over those nine months, I left Thailand, came back to Birmingham worked on myself and found a new business that landed in my lap and now I have many things going well for me. I was given this project to share with you and to help get going. I had another tarot reading recently and it was even more incredible than the first one, this one talked all about this project and confirmed everything I have to do and share with you all so we can make it happen.

So why me? Maybe I was meant to see and experience all this to help show me the way and give me what I need to make my purpose a reality, maybe I did make a pact to do what I have to do and play my part in what is to come, I don't know for sure but I am sure whatever it is its meant to be and I have been training my whole life to do this and to make it happen without even realizing it. When it finally all came to me and I knew what we have to do everything from the past made sense. So much so I had been making good friends and connections from all different circles races and nationalities and beliefs all around the world and building up a great diverse network of people for when the time is right and also storing and hoarding information that is needed for the project without even realizing I was doing so amongst other things. The world works in mysterious ways.

Part Two What Needs To Change?

Everything! No not everything, there are some things for now I can't see how to change or replace such as money. We can replace the need for money to live but money or some other way of payments will always be needed for the world to function I think. We need to use money or cryptocurrency and maybe someone else will come up with a better solution for that in the future but for now, I can't see a way around this one I wasn't given any information about this, only how to stop us all being slaves to it! But we don't need to remove it from the situation and cause de stability, I know that. We can change the world by adding to it and not taking so much away. By adding to it somethings will be removed naturally as better options and alternatives become available to people going forward. There is a lot we need to change. Currently, profit comes before people and before the planet. The medical industry creates customers and only treats symptoms whilst withholding and suppressing cures to maintain profits. A patient cured is a customer lost. The so-called charitable organizations of the world only provide a little relief instead of providing the real solutions which allow constant maintaining of donations and trading with the donations given increasing profits and maintaining profits. I can remember reading about UNICEF trading in arms to Israel! IS this what charities are meant to be doing? The prison system and the work systems are just modern-day slavery keeping everyone in work making money, keeping us divided from our families, allowing the state to raise our children in schools and indoctrinate them in educational institutions and teach them to be a part of this system, to become working modern slaves thinking they are free and teaching them not to question anything and to live their lives as designed by the people at the top who control us all and put profits before humanity and the planet. Most places in the world have lost a sense of community. We don't even know many of our neighbors. Most families are kept busy separated from their loved ones spending most of the time working or learning to work. Many people are working and living like this with no end in sight only death after old age if they are lucky enough to live into old age and often people are trading most of their time and energy for nothing more than to keep a roof over theirs and their family's heads, food and drink on the table and clothes on their backs. These are basic human needs and we shouldn't have to trade most of our lives for somewhere to call home and the basic things we need to survive. People shouldn't be homeless or starving everybody deserves to have all this for free at the very least. In this day and age with the knowledge and technology, we have got there really is no excuse there is more than enough abundance for us all to have a great and easier life. The planet provides for free only because of the greedy does the earth require a fee. By changing the current system and by adding to it we can change everything mentioned above and much much more!

Part Three Can We Change What Is Needed?

Of course, we can but it won't be easy even though it should be. By completing this project, we can change the fate of billions, yes billions of people around the world! It may start and be simple in design and theory but the complicated problems and issues it addresses and fixes run deep and ultimately it should change almost everything eventually. This is the only way we can make this change. We cannot do it by force unless ALL of us took to the streets and protested but that will never happen I don't think and I am glad because it never works anyway and there are always huge casualties. Look what has been happening in Paris, France with firefighters fighting with the people and against the police. They may gain small victories to keep the peace and get minor concessions but ultimately this changes nothing. The only way to conquer hatred and fear is with love. The only way to defeat something you cannot defeat with force is to kill it with kindness. Only when we all unite and can see the way and truth clearly and we know the way forward shall we bring about a conscious change and create a better world, a much fairer world where profits don't come before people and the planet and we can live and thrive together in peace and unity and prosperity. The world is more than abundant enough for all of us and the next 50 generations to come as long as we stop abusing it and destroying it and ourselves in the name of profit and money for the wealthy elite few. How do we change it? First of all, we need to change ourselves. Look inside for answers, they are all there waiting for us all to discover them. We need to change our thinking and change our attitudes and realize there is only one race, the human race and the race to change our future children's and grandchildren's destiny by leaving them a better world to live in and a better way of living in it and with it. I have been given everything we need and I will share it ALL with you here, on social media and on the website but I would imagine there are others out there that no doubt will have things to contribute that I am not yet aware of. I have been told it's my job to give you all this information and bring us all together so we can make the first big community and share it's success with everybody around the world so we can all create them all over the world where ever they are needed. Anybody who wants to help can reach out to me personally or via our FB page and website.

Part Four: The First Phase

Build it and they shall come! Once we have enough money we need to build the future and it starts by helping the poor. I think it should be started in a country that has a good climate and tourism and also isn't very expensive like the western world, somewhere like Thailand. Doing this makes it easier in many ways as tourism will provide extra income and help share the knowledge and the labor and building costs won't be so expensive. So first we need to buy the land. About one square mile of land in Thailand's western region which is also the poorer area of Thailand is as low as about £70,000 at this time in some places. Once we purchase the land and have permission to build an eco-resort/town on there. The first thing is to build a natural well so there is plenty of free water. Then we build beginning with a big circular living/social area with a suitable kitchen attached. On the outside of the circular building will be ninety-nine circular bedroom rooms attached en-suite that is big enough for three people, for example, a couple to sleep in plus another single bed. So groups of up to two or three hundred people could spend time in there together comfortably and live comfortably. This circular building will be in the center of the land and to begin with whilst construction is underway can be used by people helping with construction. Afterward, it can be used for various activities, events and a community chill out area and the rooms used to temporarily house people as needed whilst we expand and build more homes. We can use it for preparing food and cooking and eating initially and socializing whilst building the community in full. The next things to build are on either side of the circle in a direct line so maintaining the middle section on one side would be restaurants, bars, shops, and social areas and on the other side maybe a park and buildings that can be used for schools or classes, gyms, etc.

The first two-quarters of the land we need to build comfortable eco-homes with all mod-cons. Naturally, the eco home designs stay cooler in warm temperatures and retain heat in cooler ones. Each one will be powered by solar, wind, water and whatever other sources we use and come with a small garden and a large aquaponics set up attached. Each home will have everything somebody needs to live comfortably, furniture, basic clothing electricity, etc. The only condition to living in their free eco-home is if they are able they have to harvest the food from the aquaponics setups or collect the eggs from the chickens etc. Then donate all of it to the town's food processing area to be prepared and sent to the restaurants and food banks. If they are not able they can still live there they just need help harvesting the food. Nobody needs to go to work, nobody needs to be homeless or hungry or not have clean water and more importantly, everyone can have this for free with no need to pay to survive!

The third quarter of the land needs to be the same eco houses but for rent at a low cost maybe 50% less than the average in that country/location including free food, drink, electricity, etc. This will help people transition over to living in our communities and in time they can move out of rented into free homes if they would like to in time. This will also generate an income for the resort/town and people can opt to stay for 3 years for example and be given a free eco-home after the three years as we expand. Meaning nobody needs to work most of their life to own a home and nobody has to pay rent forever and struggle with bills!!!

The fourth quarter will be eco-homes with no obligation to maintain and harvest food it will be done by the town. These will be leased for life years with the option to be extended for life by their named persons after they pass on at any point for 10% of the initial lease price. The cost of these houses will be kept as low as possible much lower than typical prices in the location. The prices will have to fall in-line with the cost to rent and being given a home in the future. This will generate capital for the town and should cover all costs so as the project is duplicate-able. Making it like McDonald's, we can pop up eco-resorts everywhere and self-generate more than enough money to keep replicating it as many times as needed until everybody all around the world are taken care of and live a better life.

The town will likely have to purchase extra land nearby for use of livestock, growing as much produce as possible using permaculture and growing rice, etc. When this is done everyone has free food and drink, housing and electricity and nobody has to work if they don't want to or can't. The people are free to eat and drink in the restaurants and bars and go to the stores and take their home grocery quota if they want to cook at home. The people are free of the need to work to survive to feed themselves and their families. Everyone will have the freedom to do what they want to do with their time. If people wish to work, they can work/volunteer to help run the town to earn extra money to buy things they want and we will create a platform for them to make money however they choose online.

There will be no more homeless, hunger or any poverty. This will give people struggling with rent and bills and living costs the choice to move into the eco-towns and they can still keep their jobs in the cities making life much better for them and their families. They will see how the "poor" are living better lives than most people and want to join our communities because they will be much better off too. We will bring back a sense of community where we all know our neighbors and sharing and caring are normality and give people the chance to make extra money they like by selling their home crafts, art and music and other things they like to do and make on our platform. This will put a lot more love back into the world and end so much suffering and give people a choice and freedom we should all have.

Part Five The Second Phase

The second phase is much more simple, the hard work has been done. The second phase is simply showing the world what we have done, what we can do and that we can live this way. We need to share it all over YouTube and social media like FB. We need to host music festivals and invite the Marleys and other famous people and get it in the news, make documentaries and get the knowledge out there. When everybody can see that this can be a reality other people all over the world should want to get involved and use the theories and principles to pop the communities up all over the world everywhere there is poverty close to all major cities around the world. When it gets to this point the world will be a completely different place. Where you don't have to trade most of your life to own a home or struggle to survive everything is provided for you to live much more efficiently for free and you have a choice to do whatever you want with your life within reason. Laws will still apply in your countries and you will still have the same hospitals and schools and police and everything we currently have. We will have just fixed most of the problems and ended suffering for everyone. This phase is as important as everything else. Without the support of the people, without your help whether that be supporting us online, volunteering or coming to work with us or helping with donations to get started, we all need you and your future families need you! By purchasing this book, you have already helped a lot thank you but we need all the help we can get!

Part Six The Third Phase

Once we have solved the problems for the majority and we are all living in a much better caring and sharing world with much more love and light and virtually no hate and fear most of humanity is united through peace, love, harmony, and freedom of choice. At this point, we are in a very strong position to form political groups in the countries we have popularity in and we will have the funds and support of the people that will be necessary to make sure we win any political elections anywhere and we can replace governments and change laws and stop allowing big industry to destroy the planet, stop all war, to improve the quality of living for everyone and bring the cost of living down and give people a real choice and freedom to live their lives as they see fit without being a slave to the system as it is currently. From here on out we are free and able to live in co-existence with the world and our children and our children's children and the next generations after them will look back and thank us for it if we fail I doubt we will all make it that far...

Part Seven The Platform And The Bigger Picture

We will create a website/social media linked platform like eBay or Amazon but all products/services sold are done so by people who live in our communities. We already have a website please check it out and help us in any way you can! The platform can sell anything art, crafts, accessories, music, books whatever people would like to do. The platform will take a 20% commission from all sales and money will be put with capital raised and rentals and reinvested into further beneficial projects. Providing this platform creates opportunities for people to work, if they want to, for themselves, doing what they like to do and when they like to do it. We can help and encourage people by providing them with the things they need to set up their desired businesses such as growing herbs, flowers and things similar for creating scents, making clothes, art, writing books, etc. We can run yoga classes, and meditation and massage services and many other things. We could teach mindfulness or whatever people would like to do to make some extra money if they want to make some. Can you imagine what life would be like if we manage to create this reality? The world as we know it wouldn't be recognizable, everybody will have equal opportunities and be able to live a happy prosperous abundant life with total control over themselves and total choice and freedom of how they live their lives every day. Nobody will have to work to survive or die due to a lack of money to buy basic living. This is the only way I can see to change the world, again not through violence or force but through love and unity.

Part Eight How Can You Help?

We all think we are insignificant but the actions of one can impact us all massively! It's like throwing a small pebble in a big lake, it creates ripples that spread far and wide. As mother Theresa said, "I alone cannot change the world but I can cast a stone across the waters to create many ripples." The first thing you can do to help is to be supportive, take action like the Facebook page and join the Facebook group and get involved with like-minded good people. Share positive ideas and things you think will help. This is really important. You will be rewarded for this too as I will personally pick at random 8 people every year who have been doing this that qualify for the competitions and I will give you free all-inclusive holidays and other gifts worth thousands 8 times a year! The links are at the top on the first page, please feel free to reach out to me personally on FB too my name is Scotty Saw.

Sharing is caring, get sharing the love and like and share our content and most importantly click the community section on our FB page The Humanity Project and invite all of your friends to like us too (you usually have to do this a few times to make sure everyone gets invited) it only takes around 30 seconds each time and then we can reach as many people as far and wide as we can and help as many of you as is physically possible! Remember this gets you into the competition too to win prizes!

Donate if you can, look for the donate button and give what you can to get the first one going remember we only need to do it once and make the first one and then we can pop them up everywhere over and over again as needed!

Volunteer! Whether that's to help online, help in person, contributing ideas and making suggestions that you think will help!

Recommend this book to others and share the knowledge! 92% of all profits will go to The Humanity Project so the more people that buy this book the quicker and faster we can create the first eco-resort/town, the more people we can share the project and idea with and the more people we can help!

I was given the information to give to you all so we can make a better sustainable more friendly world for us all but it's all of our responsibilities to do the best we can to make this happen because if we don't things only seem to be getting worse and if we don't fix everything before it's too late then we only have ourselves to blame.

After Thought

Originally I thought it was up to me alone to raise the money and make sure this happens but I realize now that it's up to all of us to make sure we leave a better future for our children and theirs. ALLLL of the information we need to start this phenomenal project I have shared with you. It's not difficult and its fairly simple and easy however we may experience opposition as the people who are in control now and who set the system up to be this way so they can profit from this are not going to want this change to happen because as Michael Jackson clearly warned us "All I really know is they don't really care about us" all they care about is profiting and they plan to reduce the population to under 500,000 as written on the ten Georgia stones. The stones have 10 messages inscribed on them. They read: "MAINTAIN HUMANITY UNDER 500,000,000 IN PERPETUAL BALANCE WITH NATURE. GUIDE REPRODUCTION WISELY – IMPROVING FITNESS AND DIVERSITY."

One way or another the earth will heal and we will live in harmony and exist in co-existence as we should. The only way to guarantee yours and my families being there is doing everything we can to make sure we create a peaceful, harmonious abundant life for everybody or let things get much worse before we are all eventually wiped out and heaven on earth will only be left for the wealthiest bloodlines and their slaves the few of our bloodlines left to satisfy the leaders every need.

We have the chance to change everything. Everything needed is contained here and if we all come together and share the love, positivity and ideas and resources we can do this! Like I said I thought everything was on me but my job is to share the information with you all and help in any way I can but now you all know what we need to do and all the platforms are set up for us to do it together as long as we can get the first community up and running and we can spread the message far and wide nothing can stop us and we will guarantee a great future for our next generations. Thank You for taking the time to read this book please visit us and help in any way you think you can! I will list all the links to us below. Good luck to us all!
