Charitable Organizations: Carlinville Market Days offers a discounted booth rental fee to churches and other not-for-profit groups.

-Carlinville Market Days reserves the right to deny any vendor based on items, food, products or for any other reason.

-Vendors can set up anytime starting at 5:30am the day of the Market. We ask that your booth space is ready & open by 8:00am.

-You are responsible for acquiring tables/tents/canopies/electrical cords etc. for your space.

-All "10x12" vendor vehicles and trailers must be moved from any square parking space – inner circle and perimeter – once setup is completed.

-Trucks & trailers must remain in spaces along E. Main and become part of vendor's booth.

-Parking is available at city lots located at various locations just off the square. Directions will be given when you arrive.

-Vendors agree to remain until the event ends (3:00pm) No tearing down and packing up before 2:30pm.

-We also ask that all vendor's booths have good "curb appeal" and are set up in a tasteful, convenient for the customer manner allowing for ample space and a good pedestrian traffic flow.

-You are responsible for removing all trash from your space at the end of the day.

-Vendors are responsible for keeping track, calculating and remitting all applicable sales taxes to the Illinois Dept. of Revenue. Forms will be provided to vendors from I.D.O.R.

-Vendors agree to indemnify and hold harmless Carlinville Market Days, organizers and its sponsors against any claims, damages or expenses arising from any accident or occurrence, at vendor's booth space, the square or from the sale of any goods or service. Vendor is responsible for all legal fees and litigation costs.

Carlinville Market Days and all those in the Carlinville community welcome you and hope that you have a successful day. This ultimately depends on what items you're selling, how they are presented and the crowd of course. Many of the businesses on the square and throughout town are also counting on a successful season, so we want to work with you to insure great Market Days for everyone!
