

Flynn Wins For Mayor In Landslide

Charlestown voters turned out in record numbers to cast their ballot in Tuesday's City of Boston Election, with some 6394 persons or 79% of the registered voters from Ward 2, Charlestown going to the polls. This represents an increase of 1000 votes from October's Preliminary Election. According to the City of Boston Election Department, 850 persons registered from this community between the Preliminary and Final Elections.

Mayor-elect Raymond L. Flynn won an overwhelming mandate from this section of the City by capturing 87% of the Charlestown vote for Mayor. Flynn's concern for, and interest in, the people of this community from his tenure on Beacon Hill and his terms in the City Council, has been evident for over a decade. The Flynn organization had developed a strong grass-roots campaign and welcomed the political activists from the various camps of the mayoral candidates who were defeated in the primary to form a dynamic force in the community, not leaving the apparent groundswell for Flynn to chance.

Mel King, who was seen frequently on the streets of Charlestown in the final weeks of the campaign, picked up 400 votes over his preliminary tally in Charlestown.

Thinking Out Loud

by Sal Giarratani
VOTING RIGHTS

I can remember when you had to live in Boston one year before you could register to vote, then it was kicked down to six months, then thirty days and now 24 hours.

Something is wrong with a system so wide open to abuse by political opportunists working for their favorite candidates. Everyone has a right to register to vote in upcoming elections but certain safeguards must be in force to guarantee that the democratic process isn't trampled upon in the name of good government.

I believe that a sixty day cutoff be enacted into law that would make sure that the process is operated legitimately. All voters would have to take the responsibility to register in time and to prove their residency and if they own cars to prove they are registered in Boston as well.

Think for a moment. If you live in the North End or Beacon Hill you must prove you are, in fact, a resident of your community before the city will issue your valid neighborhood parking sticker. And you must also, prove that your car is registered from your neighborhood residence.

These safeguards guarantee, as much as humanly possible, that outsiders don't use our on-street parking spots which are quite limited.

Hopefully, the same such safeguards should be in place when it comes to the political process. You should only be registered to vote in one city or town at a time and your car, if you own one, should be registered from the same voting address.

Students living in Boston while going to school and whose cars are registered out-of-state, don't have a single constitutional right to vote in a Boston election at all.

Perhaps, it is time for the Boston Election Commission to sit down with the computers over at the Registry of Motor Vehicles as a starting point.

Registering your car out-of-state may seem like a venial sin because it cuts down on your outrageous auto insurance rate, but when those same car owners decide who will represent me at City Hall, that become a mortal sin in my eyes.

Boston residents should be Boston's voters!

Miss Dineen Marie Nolan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Nolan of Charlestown, has been selected as an entrant in the 1984 Miss Massachusetts - USA Pageant to be held in the Grand Ballroom of the Sheraton Lincoln Inn in Worcester on November 26 and 27, 1983.

The State Pageant will be nationally televised by CBS-TV in May 1984. The Miss USA Pageant will be staged by Miss Universe, Inc., a subsidiary of Paramount Pictures.

Miss Nolan, who was selected as an entrant-at-large, will be competing with girls from all over the Bay State for the title of

DINEEN M. NOLAN

Miss Massachusetts - USA.

Miss Nolan is a graduate of Christopher Columbus High School and is now employed at the North End Health Center. While in high school, Dineen was a cheerleader. Her other activities include dancing and she is working in the play "Annie" in Nahant.

One of the requirements of the Pageant is that each entrant wear a costume descriptive of the town she represents. Dineen plans to wear a sailor outfit representative of the USS Constitution.

Miss Nolan's sponsors to the Miss Massachusetts - USA Pageant include the 520 Club, Charlestown Board of Trade, Celtic Tavern, Columbus Cheerleaders, Columbus Student Council, Kel-Mac Furniture, Touch of Irish, B&B Oil and Cassidy Plumbing.

"Townie Santa" Committee To Meet

There will be a meeting of the "Townie Santa" Committee on Thursday evening, November 17, 1983 at 7:00 p.m. at the Mary Colbert Apartment, 20 Devens Street.

This will be the second year that Charlestown residents and merchants combine energies and resources to provide Christmas baskets to the needy elderly shut-ins this community. Last year 48 such baskets along with a hot turkey dinner were delivered on Christmas eve. This year, the Committee hopes that the number can reach 100.

In order to achieve such an ambitious goal, the assistance of the whole community is necessary. This is a "golden opportunity" for all residents, whether they be "Townies" or newcomers to Charlestown to unite for those less fortunate.

For more information, please contact Joe Kent at 242-1822, Ellen Mondri at 242-3009, or Gloria Conway at 241-9511.

Foster Parenting: What Does It Take?

If you ever wanted to provide a temporary home for a needy child or adolescent, but had reservations or questions about the foster parent experience, you will want to attend the next meeting of the Charlestown Library Parents' Discussion Group on Friday, November 18 at 10:00 a.m.

Maggie Goodwin of the East Boston Social Centers' Youth Family Counseling Service and Claire Bonfillio of the Harbor Area Department of Social Services will discuss the foster parent screening process and the orientation/training program. Two foster mothers also will be on hand to describe their experiences and answer questions. All members of the public are welcome to this special program.

For readers who cannot attend the program, the library has material available on the foster parent experience. Margaret O. Hyde's Foster Care & Adoption gives the best overview on the subject. Of special interest to some will be Martha Dickerson's Our Four Boys: Foster Parenting Retarded Teenagers. Because foster parenting often leads to adoption, some may also wish to read two public affairs pamphlets, "Adopting a Child" by Maxine Phillips and "Raising an Adopted Child" by Claire Berman. For more information on any program of the Charlestown Library, stop by the Library at 179 Main Street or call 242-1248.

Third Developer Surprises Board With Additional Proposal BRA Postpones Designation Of Developer For City Square Parcels

TONTINE CRESCENT as proposed by developer James Adams

by Maria Girvin

In a hearing yesterday, Boston Redevelopment Authority (BRA) Board of Directors postponed designation of an initial developer for Parcels 31A and 31B in the City Square area until December 8 to allow all interested persons a chance to make formal proposals to the BRA for use of the 60,000 square foot site.

The site in question is bordered by Main, Park, Warren, Henley and Winthrop Streets across from the historic John Harvard Mall.

At yesterday's hearing, it was announced by yet another developer, Joseph Murray of Murray's Towing that plans were being drawn up for submission to the BRA concerning Parcel 31A, a BRA owned garage in which Murray's business is located. Murray's announcement of his intentions follow those of two other developers, James Adams and Joseph DiGangi, member of Zero City Square Developers and also head of Eurovest Realty.

The decision to postpone comes after numerous complaints from Charlestown residents and would-be developers that the decision to designate a developer was not adequately publicized.

Speaking at the hearing were legal counsels for Murray and DiGangi, who requested a postponement of the designation to allow their clients adequate time to submit a development proposal.

Also speaking were Jim Conway and Tim O'Connell, both life-long residents of Charlestown.

At the onset of the discussion, BRA Board Chairman Robert Farrell referred to Land Court documents to disprove DiGangi's ownership of Roughan Hall and therefore dismiss him as an abutter to the parcels in question as stated by DiGangi in last week's hearing.

At that time DiGangi had argued that he had a vested interest in the parcels which he wanted to develop as part of the Roughan Hall package.

Although DiGangi was not prepared to prove ownership of the property, his lawyer argued that his ownership was irrelevant to Zero City Square's right to be considered as an initial-developer.

Jim Conway, in a prepared statement, argued that no public notification had been given to the community concerning Adams' proposal or the BRA's intentions to designate a developer for the parcels. Said Conway, "I'm outraged that this proposal or any other proposal to the gateway of our community, Charlestown, has not been presented at an open, public meeting. Why the sudden rush to push a plan to develop an area in the waning hours of the White administration when the area has laid stagnant for 10 years."

Conway called for a tabling of the motion to designate Adams as initial-developer for a 6-8 week time period.

Yesterday's hearing was a continuation of verbal sparring that began during a hearing last week between developers and Charlestown residents, most who are members of the Charlestown Preservation Society. The development of the historical area seems to have split that group which has sought to become a watchdog over revitalization projects in Charlestown. One faction of the society has sent a letter to the BRA addressing concerns they have over this project and future projects. These concerns include community input, building heights, parking, traffic patterns and preservation of existing buildings and streets.

In Adams' proposal, 52 condo units and nine apartments will be built in a reconstruction of Charles Bullfinch's Tontine Crescent Building of 1794. The building was razed in 1858 and consisted of 16 three-story town houses in a crescent shaped curve of 480 feet. The building was noted for a central pavilion with an archway. Although Adam's building will not be as large as Bullfinch's, it will be made of the same materials and in proportion and scale of the original. He estimates the completed project to cost $7 million. Adam's plan

"This whole development and the thrust to push it through smells of politics — smoke-filled, back room politics — let's take care of the inner-club politics — you scratch my back politics," Conway said was referred to by BRA Director Robert Ryan as being far superior to DiGangi's.

Adams has developed other Charlestown properties, including the historic Thompson Triangle.

DiGangi's plan has existed since 1978, one year after he purchased Roughan Hall. According to him, Angus W. Crowe and Associates designed plans for DiGangi in anticipation of marketing Roughan Hall. Plans for Parcels 31A and 31B were designed in 1981 after DiGangi found out that the parcels were going to be re-designated.

He estimates that his plan, consisting of 44 condominiums, would cost approximately $4 million.

"I don't know why no one told me that they were even considering designation of a developer," said DiGangi with a copy of an April 16, 1983 letter addressed to the BRA and informing them of his interest in the parcels. DiGangi said he was notified two days prior to last week's hearing that the BRA was considering designation of initial developer to Adams.

CITY SQUARE REDEVELOPMENT as proposed by Zero City Square

ROUGHAN HALL is shown redesigned by Angus W. Crowe and Associates in a 1978 plan to market the Charlestown landmark for commercial and office uses.

Adams said he had submitted his plans to the BRA during mid-summer and had been pushing to have his plans placed on the agenda for consideration. "If this is delayed, it's over for me.

The bank will be forced to loan the money elsewhere."

Conway has said that with the initial-developer designation on hold until December 8, he will organize a public meeting between developers and BRA staff to discuss options for the City Square parcels. Community input will be invited.

Particulars on Murray's proposal were not available at press time.

Representative Voke's Reverse Mortgage Bill

Advances In The House

State Representative Richard A. Voke announced that the Massachusetts House of Representatives gave initial approval to a bill which would authorize banks to make reverse mortgage loans to qualified senior citizens. The bill, drafted by the Legislature's Joint Committee on Banks and Banking, was based in part on a bill co-sponsored by Representative Voke.

Rep. Voke stated, "Many senior citizens have experienced considerable appreciation in real estate values as a result of inflation making them asset-rich but cash poor. The reverse mortgages which this bill would authorize banks to make would allow senior citizens to choose a method to derive cash income from the equity which is locked up in their homes. While the reverse mortgages are complicated in many respects, the bill insures that their effects would be well understood by those who wish to use them. Their net effect would be to allow senior citizens to remain in the homes in which they have invested so much, while still gaining cash income."

The legislation passed by the House would provide that reverse mortgage loans not exceed 80% of the value of the real estate and that the owner of the real estate be at least 65 years of age. The proceeds from the loan would be advanced in installments and repaid with interest to the bank upon the sale of the property or the death of the owner, whichever occurs first.

Commenting on the fact that he first filed this bill in 1980, Representative Voke said that, "I am very pleased that the Banking Committee has at last been convinced of the usefulness of having this option available to banks and homeowners over age 65."

Representative Voke expressed the hope that final House approval would come quickly and that the Governor would sign this legislation.

Your Child's Health

Good Teeth

Tooth decay is the most common health problem in childhood. Most children in this country do not receive regular dental care. In fact, 47% of children under the age of twelve have never seen a dentist.

We, at Bunker Hill Health Center, surveyed our pediatric population to see how many were receiving dental care. Of 94 children coming to the health center for routine health care checkups, 69 of them (73%), had seen a dentist within the last 6 months.

We are fortunate to have excellent dental care available at the health center. The Charlestown Head Start Program and the schools also contribute by actively encouraging good care. Most of all, parents deserve credit for recognizing the importance of regular dental care for their children.

During the six weeks at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, the airman studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special training in human relations.

In addition, airmen who complete basic training earn credits toward an associate degree in applied science through the Community College of the Air Force.

The airman will now receive specialized instruction in the aircraft maintenance field. He is a 1983 graduate of Charlestown High School.

DPH Offers Health Brochures

Older people who exercise, eat well and use medications properly have a much greater chance of feeling good, remaining independent and avoiding serious health problems, according to the Massachusetts Department of Public Health (DPH).

As part of its campaign, the Department of Public Health has developed a series of three informational brochures on exercise, good nutrition and the proper use of medicines.

The brochures are available to Massachusetts residents at no cost by Facts About Drugs - F.A.D.

Part two of Channel 2's Chemical People was aired Wednesday, November 9.

The emphasis this evening was in urging communities around the nation to form task forces. These groups would examine possibilities of intervention, treatment, and prevention of drug/alcohol abuse among teenagers. Questions raised were:

- What resources are available to treat kids in trouble in Charlestown?
- How do we teach teachers to recognize symptoms of drug abuse in their classrooms?
- How do we educate kids in facts and dangers of drug abuse?
- What are the alternative "highs" we offer our teens?

The Charlestown Boys and Girls Club hosted the second town meeting that included a few people more than last week. Marge Pratt of the Kennedy Center represented the other community agency. The discussion was lively and geared to what we might investigate:

- Education groups for delinquent teens.
- Pamphlets for parents on resources for help in the community.
- Running "drug free" dances for teens.
- Providing drug education to the schools in Charlestown.
- Working in other areas to bring about awareness and a breakdown of the discouragement of such statements as, "I know there's a problem here, but what can we do? It will never change."

The group will meet again and any interested person can call Marge Pratt of the Kennedy Center or Mimi White of the Boys and Girls Club. The telephone number for the Kennedy Center is 241-8866 and for the Boys and Girls Club it is 242-1775.

Fingerprint Your Child Program At Area A Police Station

The Boston Police Department will offer children's fingerprinting in Boston at the Area A Police Station, 40 New Sudbury Street, Boston on Saturday, November 19 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Each participating child's parent or guardian will be furnished with a complete set of fingerprints for their own use and safekeeping.

"The tragic events over the past weeks have illustrated the need for this type of program," said

Police Commissioner Joseph M. Jordan. "I believe that peace of mind for the citizens of Boston is well worth our full effort."

The fingerprinting will be done by Department personnel for any child two years old and up if accompanied by an adult or guardian. The entire procedure for a complete set of prints from each hand will involve approximately six minutes. The rolling method will be used to ensure clarity.

"I feel that all parents would be well advised to take advantage of this effort to fingerprint as many of Boston's children as possible. The Department will not keep any copies of the fingerprints or records of the children being fingerprinted," remarked Commissioner Jordan.

The program is an extension of the fingerprinting service offered throughout the summer at the Department's Neighborhood

Crime Prevention Shows. An on-going fingerprinting service will be available at each of the five area Police stations every Saturday between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. This service is free to the public and everyone is invited to attend. For further information, please call 247-4530.

A Testimonial To "The Barber"

by Charlie McGonagle

Every few years the faces change, but only the faces, for the kids are always there. Every so often, though, a generation can look back to find a face that has not changed, one that is there, still, today.

"The Barber" is just such a person, and when he walked into the Knights of Columbus Hall on a recent Saturday night, more than four hundred of those who have come to know him as "The Barber", enthusiastically greeted Jack Luiselli.

In one corner were the kids of today, scattered throughout the hall were the kids of yesterday. For an evening, at least, there was no generation gap, for all there in attendance shared a common bond. They had come to honor a friend whose contributions to them and their community had more than earned that honor.

The hall, much larger than a barber shop, became just that for a few hours, a place to gather, to swap stories, to meet old friends, to enjoy.

They had all seen him hold court before, but only from behind the barber's chair. Even he wondered if the podium's presence would steal his magic. It did not.

Jack's appreciation was felt immediately as he related a story of an old man who used to frequent his shop during his early days in the town. The man, it seems, was incapable of walking to and from the shop, and on those occasions when he would need a haircut, he would be driven to the barber. After cutting the gentleman's hair, Jack would leave the shop unattended to drive him home. Upon arriving at his home one afternoon, the old man turned to Jack and said, "Thank you, young man. You are a good boy. One day you will be a millionaire."

After finishing the story, Jack paused briefly, looked out at all his friends, and said simply, "You know, he was right. Tonight I am a millionaire."

In turn, each representing another part of Jack's life, they came to the podium to express their gratitude. From the Bearcats of 1949 to the kids of 1983, a spokesperson was heard, and whatever other sentiments each of the speakers may have expressed, gratitude was loudest of all.

The evening was made more special by the presence of Jack's mother, wife, son, and several other family members. For years they knew of his barbering and coaching in the town, but by being part of his testimonial they could feel, perhaps for the first time, the intangibles that go beyond barbering and coaching that he has brought to this community over the past thirty-four years.

From that evening Jack "The Barber" Luiselli will take home several mementos from a number of groups and individuals. He will find an appropriate place for each, and display them. There is, however, no guarantee they will last forever.

From that evening he will also take home a memory. That will last forever.

A very special tip of the hat is in order for the friends of Jack "The Barber" for the giving of their time and energy which resulted in such a wonderful evening.

Joe Barnes, "Bo" Batchelder, Jimmy Duffy, Mary Fidler, Wendell Fidler, Bob "Peanuts" Griffin, Bernie Kelly, Jim "Crash" McNeil, "Razz" Murray, "Nippy" Nolan, and "Shorty" Sullivan began to lay the groundwork for the testimonial last May. Their extraordinary efforts helped an entire town, say "Thanks."

Bishop Fenwick Tips Columbus In Overtime!

by Bob DeCristoforo, Athletic Director

It was certainly a different Christopher Columbus High School football team this week. As a matter of fact, it was the Christopher Columbus Football team we've grown to know throughout most of the football season.

Fenwick jumped ahead 7-0 early in the second quarter on a two yard dive by Tim Byrne and a kick by John Donnelly but the Friars closed the gap when QB Mike Wallace hit Jeff McCarthy with a pretty 36 yard pass at the close of the first half.

After a scoreless third quarter, things got even better for the Friars as QB Wallace once again caught the 'Brown and White' in the end zone for another TD. The man was Dennis Donovan, who made a rather spectacular catch. Columbus went further ahead when Jeff McCarthy picked up the 'extra' two on a fine run.

With the score 14-7 the situation looked well in hand, but Fenwick wasn't giving up, and an 88 yard kickoff return by Tim Byrne into the end zone was just what Fenwick needed.

Neither team would score in the closing minutes, and it was into overtime, an automatic Catholic Central League rule.

Each team would have four chances to score, and Columbus got the ball first. The 4th chance was close, but not close enough, and Fenwick took over. They too went the distance, and on the fourth try, their hero for the day, John Donnelly, kicked a field goal to give Fenwick a 17 to 14 hard fought win.

The Friars will be going into THE GAME on Thanksgiving morning at Daley Field in Brighton against Dom Savio with a 3-6 record, but they will go into the 10:30 a.m. game as a football team, which despite the record, says a lot.

From the Friar-ing Pan: Tickets for the game are now on sale at Christopher Columbus High School.

Swim Team At

The Boys And Girls Club

In their second swim meet of the season, the Charlestown Boys and Girls Club swim team lost a close decision 108 to 98 to Salem, New Hampshire. Despite the loss, the Charlestown team swam a good meet and had many outstanding performances.

The highlight of the day was the last four events - the freestyle relays. Charlestown placed first in each relay. Swimmers who earned first place in the relays were:

Age 8 and Under: Jonathan Heelan, Kim Fitzpatrick, Joe Kacvinsky, and Jamie Smith

Age 10 and Under: Kelly Kitzpatrick, Kelly McIsaac, Kim Payton, and Kim Walsh

Age 11 and 12: Susan Burke, Christine Chiappa, Linda Barends, and Janet Harting

Age 13 and Over: Kerrie Fitzpatrick, Walter McCarthy, Kathy Kacvinsky, and Michele Peneau

In individual events, Charlestown took first place five times, second place eleven times, third place ten times, and fourth place eight times. Scoring was done for each age group and the results were:

10 and Under: - Charlestown 41 - Salem 36

11 and 12: - Charlestown 29 - Salem 29

13 and Over: - Charlestown 28 - Salem 43

The five first place finishers for Charlestown were: Jamie Smith (8 and under 25 yard backstroke), Jonathan Heelan (8 and under 25 yard freestyle), Linda Barends (11 and 12 50 yard freestyle), Lisa Quinn (11 and 12 50 yard breaststroke), and Stephanie Leslie (13 and 14 50 yard freestyle).

The meet took place on Saturday, November 12, 1983, at the Salem Boys and Girls Club. It was a tough loss for the Charlestown team, but they should be proud of doing their very best. The Charlestown Boys and Girls Club team now has a record of 1-1.

Pop Warner Corner

In the Pop Warner D-Team Football game, held on Sunday, November 13th, Charlestown lost by the score of 6 to 0. Charlestown had a touchdown called back on the kickoff. With a few breaks, the D-Team could have won this game. This was the best D-Team that Charlestown Pop Warner ever had and next year the team should be beating everybody. The Board would like to thank John Houlihan for his outstanding coaching of the D-Team.

In the C-Team game, Charlestown lost 12 to 6. The C-Team touchdown was scored by Mark Marino. The C-Team was in every game this year. The Board would like to thank all four of the C-Team coaches for a job well done.

In the B-Team game, Charlestown lost by the score of 20 to 6. The Charlestown touchdown was scored by Stephen Fabiano. The Board would like to thank Larry Stackpole for taking over the B-Team when the other two coaches went into the Marines.

In the A-team game, Revere won the G.B.L. by the score of 19 to 13. The Charlestown A-Team did not win the championship, but we in Pop Warner know all our boys on the A-Team and their coaches are champions and we are very proud of them.

Charlestown Pop Warner will be holding a Dance at Memorial Hall, 14 Green Street on Saturday evening, November 19th from 7:00 p.m. to midnight. Dennis Moore will be the Disc Jockey. Refreshments will be served and there will be a cash bar.

Those who are providing food for the Dance are requested to call 241-9467 on Thursday or Friday night after 6:00 p.m.

Boys And Girls Club Alumni Update

Conversation overheard by two teenagers during an Alumni League Basketball Game.

- Teen 1 - Hey! Who's eating the mints?
- Teen 2 - That smell isn't mints, it is Bengay. The old timers need it to loosen up.
- Teen 1 - Oh! Well that guy doesn't need it. He's already sweating.
- Teen 2 - Yea. He just walked up the stairs from the locker room. Hi. Action!
- Teen 1 - Well, what's that smell? That doesn't smell like Bengay.
- Teen 2 - No! That's Chinese food. The gym guy is eating his pre-game meal.
- Teen 1 - But the game already started...Hey whose that guy they all talk to?
- Teen 2 - That's the league M.V.P.
- Teen 1 - Great player, isn't he?
- Teen 2 - No. He's the sneaker guy. He gets everyone's sneakers cheap. No one would be playing if it wasn't for "the old" Denny.
- Teen 1 - How old is he?
- Teen 2 - I don't know. Somebody said something about he played with Nate Hurwitz, whoever he was.
- Teen 1 - Hey! How come no person's jumping?
- Teen 2 - Must be a rule. They don't allow running either. Come on let's go over to the teen room and watch "This Old House." Anything would be more exciting than this.

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR?

In 1983, a lot of local youngsters made it big. Some of them from the farm system all the way to Class A.

These are the potential greats who broke into the majors by winning their first race at Wonderland. Now they're battling it out, in a rugged four-round elimination contest, with the title - and the money - on the line.

And you can bet your life (or just $2, if you'd rather) that 1983's Rookie of the Year will turn out to be a real superstar.

Board Of Trade Honors Accomplishments Of Local Olympic Competitor

In 1980, Charlestown saw one of its own become a U.S. Olympic champion, when Jackie O'Callahan whipped a puck past a Russian's goalie. 1984 could see yet another U.S. Olympic champ, this time, however, it will be a heroine — Kathy O'Neil.

Last week, the Charlestown Board of Trade held a coffee hour for Kathy who is the coxswain for the U.S. National Rowing Team. Slight of build, one would be apt to choose a different Olympic sport in guessing which team Kathy was involved. However, as the coxswain, she is the motivator behind the team as well as the coach when they are competing.

And motivate, she does. Just back from the pre-olympic games in Los Angeles, Kathy helped her team to win a Gold Medal which more than qualified the team for the 1984 Summer Olympic competitions.

Earlier this year in West Germany, her team came in 5th place in trial olympic games, competing against nine other teams.

The 22 year old became interested in rowing as a freshman at Boston University and joined the University' rowing team. On leave of absence during the olympic competitions, she is studying psychology.

Congratulating Kathy for her achievements were Senator Francis Doris and State Representative Richard Voke, both of whom made presentations.

 "Dapper" O'Neil topped the ballot in Charlestown, followed closely by Joseph Tierney. Michael McCormack placed third in Charlestown but was able to garner the top spot city-wide. Terence McDermott, who headed the task of formulating the District Representation plan, placed fourth in Charlestown but missed the cut-off for re-election city-wide. Christopher Iannella, who ranked fifth in Charlestown, was re-elected to his eleventh term on the council. Jean Sullivan McKeigue placed sixth in Charlestown and sixth city-wide. McKeigue, who has been a strong and effective voice on the Boston School Committee, was apparently unable to transfer her support from the school committee to the council.

In the first race for the District One City Council seat, which will represent Charlestown, North End and East Boston, Robert Travaglini captured the seat with some 11,663 votes to Diane Modica's 10,343. These two candidates waged a tough battle for this seat. Travaglini and Modica, both coming out of East Boston, had to work long and hard to present themselves to the Charlestown community, where they were relatively unknown. Modica captured every precinct in Charlestown, coming out of this race here with a 1088 vote plurality. Travaglini made up the difference in East Boston and took the seat with a 1320 vote win.

The four incumbents on the Boston School Committee were re-elected and their order of finish in Charlestown was representative of the city as a whole. Kevin McCluskey topped the ticket, followed by Rita Walsh-Tomasini, Jean McGuire, and John O'Bryant. Jean McGuire received a large block of the Charlestown vote, which several local political pundits attributed to confusion among voters as to the name McGuire, indicating some mistook the name for former school committee member McKeigue. McGuire received four times the votes she received in previous elections when McKeigue's name was on the ballot.

In the District One School Committee race, East Boston's John Nucci surpassed North End's Frank Borelli by a 3 to 1 vote. Nucci received some 14,940 votes District-wide to Borelli's 4,445, to represent this area on the School Committee.

The two non-binding referendum questions on the ballot, the first concerning "linkage" and the second concerning neighborhood councils to approve or veto local development, were answered by only 38% of the voters. The questions were once again placed to the far right of the voting booth and even though a notice at the left of the booth directed the voter to the questions, the low percentage of response could indicate a lack of interest in same or most probably the added difficulty to the voter of finding and reading the questions in the voting booth.

The extension of this year's election by two weeks made this a long and arduous campaign for the candidates. The voters, by sheer numbers, have indicated they wanted change. Only time will tell if the new administration, along with the expanded City Council and School Committee will provide the momentum and direction needed - to unite the city and place the interests and concerns of the residents of the city of Boston in the forefront.

Local Youth Appear In Opera

Three Charlestown youngsters, students at the Wah Lum Kung Fu School at North Station, are participants in a fight scene in Puccini's Opera "Turandot", currently playing at The Opera House on 539 Washington Street, Boston. The local actors include

Richard Williams, Steven Morrill and James Aloia. "Turandot" is the story of a beautiful princess named Turandot who sought revenge for a crime against an ancestress. To win her, her royal suitors must be prepared to answer three riddles or be beheaded. An unknown young prince solves the riddles but, touched by Turandot's humiliation and distress at marrying a foreigner, promises to release her if she can learn his name. Only his exiled father and the beautiful slave girl attending him know his name, and when the old man is threatened with torture if he does not speak up, the slave steps forward to say she knows the name but will not tell it. Mute under torture, she at last snatches a dagger from a soldier and kills herself. Saddened by her cruelty but dazzled by her beauty, Calaf kisses Turandot and his kiss breaks the spell.

"Turandot" may be seen on November 18, 22 and 27th. For ticket information, call 426-2786.

"Bonanza"

The Matignon Guild will sponsor a "Bonanza" on Thursday evening, November 17th, at 8:00 p.m., in the school auditorium, 1 Matignon Road, Cambridge. There will be 50 prizes drawn plus a door prize of a 19" color TV. Tickets will be available at the door.

When it comes to long-distance, your phone's still got the right connections.

By now everyone knows the Bell System is breaking up on January 1, 1984. And that New England Telephone will still provide local phone service.

But some people are wondering how they'll make toll calls and long-distance calls after divestiture.

Relax. Your phone still has the right connections.

New England Telephone will still provide toll calling within your area code as well as local service. And we'll still give you access to long-distance lines. Just as we always have.

So after January 1, 1984, you can still make and receive local, toll, and long-distance calls the same way you've been doing right along.

What's going to be different?

Practically speaking, very little.

After divestiture officially happens, long-distance service will be restructured according to Local Access Transport Areas, or LATAs. In New England, these LATAs conform to the existing area codes.

After divestiture, New England Telephone will continue to provide local and toll calling service within your LATA, or area code.

And we'll continue to provide your connection to long-distance service outside your area code.

Long-distance options.

Outside your area code, or LATA, you can get long-distance service from AT&T or you can choose another long-distance carrier.

If you want to continue with AT&T, do nothing. Your present service will continue uninterrupted. After January 1, the only difference you'll notice will be a separate bill from AT&T which will be included in your New England Telephone bill.

But if you've been thinking about changing your long-distance company, the first thing you should do is examine your phone habits.

Figure out how often you make long-distance calls, the time of day that's most convenient for you, whether you generally call during the week or on week-ends, and the cities you call most frequently.

Then you can choose the long-distance company that meets your needs—and your budget—best.

Of course, the company you choose will bill you separately.

Questions and answers.

If you have any questions, call our special "Let's Talk" number, 1 800-555-5000. Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Or watch for more detailed information with your bill.

Keeping you informed of all the changes taking place is part of our commitment to giving you the best phone service we can.

The Bell System is breaking up, but New England Telephone's got it all together.

Receives Letter From Governor

November 8, 1983

James McGrath
105 Bunker Hill Street
Charlestown, MA 02129
Dear Mr. McGrath:

I saw the Globe's feature article about you last week, and wanted to send my personal regards. Your garden and your remembrance of the Charlestown men who gave their lives in the service of their country is truly worthy of special recognition. It is a warm, meaningful tribute to the brave men and women who serve in our armed forces.

Charlestown is certainly fortunate to have such an active and caring citizen in its midst. You have my best wishes for continued success in your many endeavors.

Sincerely,
Michael S. Dukakis Governor

To The Friends Of Pop Warner Football

One of Charlestown's most successful and exciting Pop Warner Football seasons came to a close last Sunday afternoon. It was not a championship season, though the "A" Team came within six points of capturing the crown in a brilliantly played 19-13 loss to Revere, but true champions are not measured by numbers on a scoreboard.

It has been said that a team reflects the personality of its coach, and the way the boys of the Charlestown Pop Warner Football Program conduct themselves, both on the field and on the sidelines, is a credit to the many men who volunteer hours of hard work each week.

As a parent of a former Pop Warner participant, I have

Friends Of Library Welcomes New Members

The Friends of the Charlestown Branch Library would be most happy to welcome new members. The group has been in existence for many years and its goal is to encourage use of the library as a valuable community resource.

When it appeared that the Branch Library might be closed and the "powers that be" were cutting funds and blaming Proposition 2 1/2, the Friends wrote letters, picketed, collected signatures defending the Branch, and were instrumental in maintaining at least the library services. Fortunately, at present the library is at full staff, hours have been increased and monies have been allocated for new books.

The Friends have four meetings a year, usually with an interesting lecturer, followed by a short social. Dues are $2.00 per year. Membership forms are available at the library. Join up!

experienced, firsthand, the total dedication these men have for the program and the youngsters of this community. It is true that they teach football, but more than that they teach sportsmanship and regard for their fellow man. One day each of these boys will stop playing football, but through the lessons they have been taught by their Pop Warner coaches, I doubt they will ever stop displaying these other ideals.

On Saturday night, November 19, a Night of Appreciation and Fund Raising will be held at Memorial Hall on 14 Green Street. The evening will provide the perfect opportunity for all of us to say "Thank You" to the men who have made Pop Warner Football such a successful and intricate part of our community.

Thank you
Charlie Doe

Thank You!

Crack Down On Abuse Of Handicapped Parking Areas

The City of Boston has passed a new ordinance to regulate parking areas for motor vehicles owned and operated by holders of HP/V designation in order to prevent misuse of such areas by the general public. This ordinance has been developed by the Commission on Handicapped Affairs in concert with City Councillor Maura Hennigan and the Traffic and Parking Commission.

This new City ordinance places Boston in the forefront of the Commonwealth's HP/V parking enforcement movement. This is a very comprehensive and strict ordinance. To date, HP/V parking areas have often been seen as the "prime location" for parking by all other vehicle owners due to its close proximity to main entrances. This becomes heightened during inclement weather. Therefore, now, as preparation for the seasonal weather changes and the anticipated traffic increase due to holiday shopping, the following new regulations are being announced pertaining to the HP/V designated areas in the City. It is imperative to note that this affects, for the first time, not only public parking areas but also private ways or enclosed property used as off-street parking areas for business, shopping malls, theatres, auditoriums, sporting and recreational facilities, cultural centers, residential dwellings or for any other place where the public has a right of access. The new ordinance, which will be disseminated to the managers of said areas, requires special assignment and signage, all of which is specifically spelled out in the ordinance and conforms to the State's Architectural Barriers Board regulations for parking area. Signage information and procurement can be negotiated with the assistance of the Commission on Handicapped Affairs.

Implementation of the first step of the ordinance that has to do with previously assigned HP/V parking on the City streets only, involves the raising of the fine from the existing $50 fee to one hundred dollars ($100) as of Thursday, November 10th. If any vehicle is parked in an HP/V space that does not bear a HP/V license plate, they will receive this $100 fine. This $100 fine also applies to cars found blocking curb cuts ramps.

Other parts of the ordinance that will be enacted over the next two months include a new towing procedure and associated hot-line; the possible suspension of licenses to open air lots within the City that do not conform to the new ordinance; and the coordination of the a new alternative identification card system. This new, ID card, which will be administered and disseminated through the Commission on Handicapped Affairs, will be given to persons who are awaiting their HP/V plated car in for repair and therefore must use another vehicle on a temporary basis, tourists or students who own a vehicle with legal HP/V designation from another state that does not bear the easily identifiable insignia, persons who have a severe temporary disability that can be documented by physicians, and/or a special ID card to be issued to a severely disabled person who requires some service (a PCA, reader, nursing care, transportation assistant) that can be placed on their dashboard at the time of service delivery only. Anyone found trying to abuse or defraud this ID card system is subject to loss of rights and a $200 fine. A final new Section will cover the provision of a special training for security personnel of the private lot areas giving them authority to issue the City's $100 ticket within their property.

Views On Dental Health

by Jeffrey D. Cohen, D.M.D.

AT WHAT AGE DOES A CHILD GET BRACES?

The need for orthodontic treatment must be determined on an individual basis. Your family dentist will evaluate your child as part of a complete oral examination. If any variation from normal is found, a consultation with an orthodontist may be suggested.

Both length and type of treatment are variable. There is no exact age or even a range of years to begin treatment. In fact, many adults are undergoing orthodontic treatment with complete success. However, this doesn't mean that treatment can be postponed at will.

The most important factor to successful treatment is early diagnosis. By carefully monitoring and guiding both the eruption of the teeth and growth of the jaw, it is possible to control and minimize treatment time. Following observation and guidance, not all children will require complete braces, while some will need no braces at all.
