

Access your Snapchat account via recovery code

Snapchat has integrated strong measures to secure user's account. With the growing subscribers of this social media platform it enables users to talk over an android or on any other device. But what if you are seeking a way to get your recovery code in your android phone or on any other device, as there are many recommended ways to contemplate this concern with the Snapchat or how to recover Snapchat account

Follow these steps to generate a recovery code of your Snapchat account

- First, you need to go to the on camera screen, and tap the profile icon in the top left.
- After the following, Tap on the settings button to proceed
- Concurrently, Tap on the login verification.
- After completing the procedure set up a two factor authentication.
- Following the above, tap on the recovery code.
- Rest you will be able to generate a code.
- Give the details of your password to verify the identity of your account.

Get recover your Snapchat account via SMS

- Head in to the official page of Snapchat.
- Concurrently, tap on the forgot password option.
- Then choose the best way to reset your password via SMS.
- You will get a verification code on your registered phone number associated with your account.
- Give the details of verification code and click on the continue button.
- Now give the details of new password.

Finally, you get recover your Snapchat account, and once you do all the process above. Sign-in again with the new credentials of username and password. It is recommended if you are not able to cover up the things from this end, you may call directly to the customer support number mentioned on the website to recover Snapchat account.