

The Raymond Group Presents Parcels 4 And 7 Plans To Council

by Kathy Giordano
Representatives of Charlestown Holdings Inc., a Charlestown development team under the management of The Raymond Group, appeared before the Housing and Development Committee of the Charlestown Neighborhood Council on June 19 to present its proposals to develop Parcels 4 and 7 at the Yard's End section of the Charlestown Navy Yard. Raymond Group representatives John Weigel, director of Planning and Design, and Linda Smith, director of Governmental Affairs, made the formal presentation to the committee.

Committee Chairman Tom Cunha presided over almost a full complement of council members who were in attendance to hear the development plans. Present were Dennis McLaughlin, Kevin Roche, Ken Stone, Moe Gillen, Jim Conway, Bob Scalli, Jim Mansfield, Bill Galvin, Nancy Keyes, Kate McDonough, Peter Looney, Mel Stillman, Ellen D'Ambrosio and Dan Kovacevic.

The Boston Redevelopment Authority was represented by Assistant Director Paul Barrett and Deputy Director Bob Rush.

Weigel, in his opening remarks, explained that the plans were preliminary, and they have yet to go before the BRA for design review. The developer, however, has been granted tentative designation for both sites by the BRA Board.

The proposal for Parcel 7 includes a 12-story biomedical research building, 155 feet in height, with three levels of above-grade parking spaces for 300 cars and nine levels of laboratory space. The penthouse, containing the building's mechanicals, will add another 30 to 35 feet to the height of the building. The approximate overall square footage of the building is 330,000. Parcel 7 is located at the tip of the Navy Yard, known as Yard's End. It is shadowed by the Tobin Bridge and situated between the Little Mystic Channel, the proposed New England Aquarium and Buildings 114 and 199.

On Dean's List

Jere C. Calmes, son of Jere Calmes of Charlestown, has been named to the dean's list at Bates College in Lewiston, Maine for the second semester of the 1989-90 academic year. To qualify for the dean's list at Bates, a student must maintain a better than B average for the semester, for a minimum quality point ratio of 3.2. Calmes is a member of the class of 1992.

CHS Awards Grant For Community Program

A GRANT of $3,250 to develop a program for teens 15 to 18 is awarded to the Charlestown Boys & Girls Club and Charlestown Community Schools by Charlestown High School students involved in The Boston Plan for Excellence's School and Its Neighborhood on June 6. Fifteen students raised $750 themselves and the Plan awarded $2,500 to target the needs of Charlestown's older youths. Shown are (l. to r.) Bob McGann of CCS; Jerry Steimel, director of the Club; and Kathy O'Connor and Derek Griffin, two of the CHS students involved in the grant-making program. (photo by Lynn Peters)

Neighborhood Council Meetings

HOUSING & DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

Chairperson Tom Cunha has announced that the committee will sponsor a public meeting on Tuesday, June 26 to allow for discussion and community input relative to this week's presentation by The Raymond Group on the proposed development of Parcels 4 and 7 in the Charlestown Navy Yard.

Preceding the meeting, the model of the Navy Yard, including these two parcels, will be available for viewing at the Boston Redevelopment Authority offices, third floor, Building 33 from 7 to 7:30 p.m.

The meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Hull Room, Building 5 in the Charlestown Navy Yard.

MONTHLY MEETING

The Charlestown Neighborhood Council will hold its monthly meeting on Tuesday, July 10 at 7 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 75 West School St.

The meetings are open to the public, and all are welcome to attend.

Awarded Juris Doctor Degree

Frank J. Garvin of Saugus, formerly of Charlestown, was awarded the degree of juris doctor at the June 10 commencement exercises of Suffolk University.

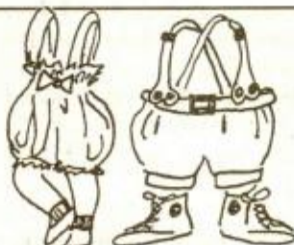

Degrees were conferred on 432 graduates from the Law School.

Garvin holds a bachelor of science degree from Suffolk University. He is the son of Bridget Garvin. Garvin is married to the former Anne Marie Greateorex, and has one son. Garvin is a lieutenant on the Chelsea Police Department.

Bunker Hill Monument Association Holds 167th Annual Meeting

THE 167th ANNUAL MEETING of the Bunker Hill Monument Association was held on June 18 in the Hull Room at Building 5 in the Charlestown Navy Yard. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as were new members. Preliminary plans were discussed for the commemoration of the 150th anniversary of the dedication of the Monument in 1993. The guest speaker was Robert L. Williams (center), editor of "Trowel" Magazine, the official publication of the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts A.F. & A.M. He spoke on "Joseph Warren — The Martyr of Bunker Hill" who was Grand Master of Masons when he was killed in that battle. James W. Conway (left), president, and John J. Alves (right), secretary, presented a replica of the Bunker Hill Monument to Williams in appreciation of his speaking to the gathering.

REAL ESTATE WEEKLY

By Joetta Silva
Silva Realty Associates

SELECTING A REALTOR

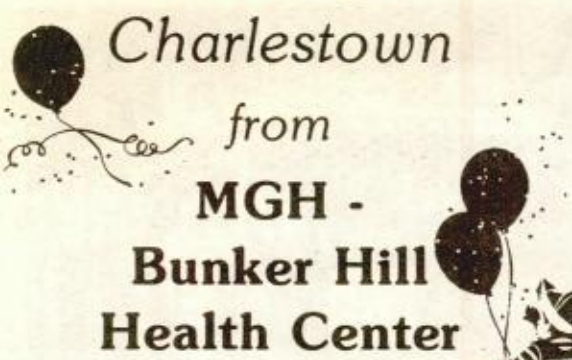

When you've decided that it's time to buy a new home, finding a Realtor to help you with your search is an important first step. Many advice books say start with the car. The bigger the car, the better the agent! While you're going to be spending a considerable amount of time in the agent's car, it's important to be comfortable with the person as well as his or her automobile.

Look for an agent who is willing to listen when you explain what you're looking for, and who knows the market well enough to find it for you within a reasonable time frame. Knowledge, professionalism and experience are all important, but a smart, aggressive rookie agent may be in a position to provide service quality that rivals that of an industry veteran. If you don't know any Realtors, ask friends for referrals. Word of mouth advertising is the best kind for any real estate professional.

For solid advice on buying or selling real estate, consult the professionals at Silva Realty. Please call us at 242-7470 or stop by our office at 371 Somerville Ave. in Somerville.

BENEFITS FROM THE
CENTRAL ARTERY/TUNNEL PROJECT

Massport is playing an important role in the Central Artery/Tunnel Project. We believe it is important for residents to understand the benefits of this massive project.

FRESH AIR: Air quality will be improved throughout the city, with 23 percent reduction in carbon monoxide along the project.

CROSSING THE CHARLES: The design of the Charles River Crossing has shifted several hundred feet west, away from City Square and the neighborhood. This design will also eliminate one of the most dangerous and congested interchanges in the state.

PAUL REVERE LANDING PARK: Moving the roadway to the west removes it from historic Paul Revere Landing Park and from the MDC locks, which many residents use as a walkway.

EXPANDING THE ESPLANADE: Historically, the stretch of the Charles River east of the Esplanade has been an industrial and transportation corridor, inaccessible to the public for 150 years. When the project is complete about 70 percent of the river bank on both sides will be open park land.

Weigel stated that the biomedical research center will generate 660 permanent jobs and 1,100 construction jobs. Linkage money from the project will include $1,150,000 for affordable housing and $230,000 for job opportunities. The site improvement will total $795,000, providing pedestrian promenades with trees, benches and street lighting.

Vehicular access to the site, with its main entrance facing 16th Street, will be reached by entering Gate 5 from Chelsea Street, traveling down 13th Street to Fifth Avenue and onto 16th Street where cars will enter the parking facilities. Service access to the building will be accommodated on the north side of the building which faces Building 114. Pedestrians will enter the building on 16th Street and take an elevator to a fourth-level sky-lobby to enter the laboratories.

The exterior of the building will be similar to other

Navy Yard structures, using precast concrete, brick and metal. A covered arcade at the base of the building will offer shelter to pedestrians. The building will be set back from surrounding structures to offer pedestrians an open walkway. The project architect is Payette Associates.

Proposal plans for Parcel 4 include a 400 room hotel to be built in two phases. The first phase calls for the construction of 300 guest rooms and parking for 175 cars. The second phase, if the demand for additional hotel space warrants it, will see the construction of another 100 rooms. The hotel will also include meeting rooms and conference facilities.

Situated on First Avenue between the proposed New England Aquarium and the Bricklayer's affordable homes on 13th Street, the hotel will reach 135 feet in height on the First Avenue side of the building, stepping down to 85 feet at the water's edge. The mechaniicals, positioned on the top of both ends of the structure, will add another 25 to 30 feet to the height of the building. The portion of the hotel facing the aquarium will reach 126 feet above ground level and the side facing the Bricklayer's homes will be 117 feet. If the additional 100 rooms are needed, that wing of the hotel will be built next to the Bricklayer's homes and will be approximately 65 feet in height. The overall density of the building is approximated at 300,000 square feet.

Community benefits offered by the developer for the Parcel 4 proposal include 600 permanent jobs and 820 construction jobs. Linkage money will include $1,140,000 for affordable housing and $228,000 for job opportunities.

Site improvements, totaling $1,250,000, will include the construction of the Harborwalk along the water's edge, featuring wood decking, brick and concrete paving, plantings, benches and site lighting.

Vehicular access to the hotel will be at the main entry and drop-off point facing the aquarium. Entry to the garage is also situated at this location, with an additional entry and exit point on First Avenue. The loading dock on First Avenue will be fully enclosed with a door that will be down except for arrival and departure of delivery vehicles. The dock will contain a service bay and bay for the trash compactor.

Exterior materials of the building will conform to the established Navy Yard list of materials including brick, precast concrete, metal roofs and aluminum windows. The project architects are CBT/Childs Bertman Tseckares & Casendino Inc. and Olson Lewis Architects and Planners Inc.

Weigel stated that the developer hopes to begin construction of the parcels in 1991 with a completion date of 1993.

The job opportunities that will become available to Charlestown residents as a result of these two projects and additional development proposals being reviewed by the community have raised the concern of council members. The surty that Charlestown residents are made aware of the opportunities available to them and recruited to apply for the positions would generate in itself a full-time position, according to Cunha. The idea of hiring a Charlestown liaison to oversee job opportunities for Charlestown residents from the total buildout of the Navy Yard, is agreeable to The Raymond Group, according to Smith. A written agreement from The Raymond Group defining the liaison position was requested by Cunha.

The density of Parcels 4 and 7, in particular the height of the two buildings, raised the most concern at the meeting. The biomedical research center on Parcel 7 will rise to a height of approximately 185 feet. The hotel on Parcel 4 will reach approximately 165 feet on First Avenue. The Navy Yard Master Plan calls for a height restriction of 155 feet.

To compare these proposed heights to other high points in the Navy Yard area, research has revealed the following statistics: Building 199 is 114 feet and with mechanicals on the roof, it is 129 feet; Building 149 is 110 feet and with mechanicals on the roof, it is 138 feet; Building 197 (Flagship Wharf) is 123 feet in height to the cornices and the mechanicals on the roof bring the total height to 136 feet.

Also, the Tobin Bridge at its highest point is 254 feet at the collectors' booths. The bottom of the lower level is 145 feet above the water during an average high tide. Coming down the Tobin Bridge ramps toward City Square, the following heights exist: above the Little Mystic Channel it is 110 feet high; at Vine and Chelsea Streets the bridge is 70 feet high; and at Tremont and Lowney Way, it is 52 feet high.

Residents requested that a scale model be made available to them so that they could visualize the proposed buildings as they relate to the surrounding Navy Yard structures. Barrett announced that the scale model is available at the BRA conference room on the third floor of Building 33 in the Charlestown Navy Yard.

The next meeting of the Housing and Development Committee to further discuss Parcels 4 and 7 will be a public forum for community participation. That meeting will take place on Tuesday, June 26, beginning at 7 p.m. at the BRA conference room and continuing at 7:30 p.m. at the Hull Room, Building 5, in the National Park section of the Navy Yard.

Charlestown Woman Files Suit Against Boston Fire Department

by Lynn Peters

Julia Rodriguez of Tibbetts Town Way is suing the Boston Fire Department in Suffolk Superior Court, charging that she was sexually discriminated against and her civil rights were violated when she was fired while a firefighter on probation and in training last August. The suit also names Fire Commissioner Leo Stapleton, Deputy Chief Martin Pierce and Capt. Leo J. Sullivan.

Rodriguez, the mother of three daughters ranging in age from 7 to 1, claims that she was told by fire officials that the job was too dangerous for someone with three babies. They claim that she was just not strong enough. Rodriguez passed the physical strength test shortly after having her last child and gained admittance to training. By the end of the 10-week course, 5-foot, 2-inch and 124-pound Rodriguez was terminated. She appealed last fall to the Massachusetts Commission Against Discrimination, which never made a finding, hired attorney Jamie Katz in December and filed the law suit on June 1.

"I'm the type of person that if something's not right, it's not right," Rodriguez said. "I don't think they realize I'm ready for a fight."

Katz said Rodriguez wants to be reinstated and seeks compensatory and punitive damages.

"We believe the Boston Fire Department, in terminating her, discriminated against her based on her sex. There were standards applied to her that were not applied to men," Katz said. "She was not allowed to demonstrate her abilities and not allowed to complete her training. We believe we have evidence that individuals in the fire department simply did not want to see her complete training because she is a female."

No trial date has been set, and city officials are expected to respond to the suit today.

Starting The Summer Off Smart

TINY TOTS AND POLICE OFFICERS met for a health and safety program at the Kent Community School on June 6. Boston Police Department Community Relations Officer Joe McNulty and Sgt. Robert Tinker of SPECDA spoke to the youngsters and their parents about drugs, what to do if they should find a needle on the ground this summer and the difference between street and doctor's needles. Tinker showed the children different kinds of drugs and talked about how dangerous they are, while parents looked on and asked questions. Wednesday morning's Youth Safety Program, which is part of the Mayor's Safe Neighborhood Plan, was co-sponsored by the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, CHARlestown Against Drugs, the Charlestown Neighborhood Council and the Charlestown Youth Campaign. Not For Nothin' . . . But Have You Heard . . .

• Ahhhhh . . . Well, folks, we made it through another year of celebrations in honor of Bunker Hill Day. Wasn't it the greatest?! Even the weatherman cooperated. There were so many events, each one so special and important in its own right, that it will take the next few weeks to present them to you through the pages of the Patriot. Be patient. Most of the week's happenings will appear in one of the upcoming editions.

• The Week's Hi-notes - and Low-notes . . . Great turnout at Mayor Florence Johnson's Irish Night at the Eden Street Park. Entertainment and food was at the plenty . . . The USS Constitution Salute to Charlestown turnaround cruise was especially delightful because of the gracious manner by which all were greeted by the ship's Captain, David Cashman, and his able crew . . . the Mummer's concert at the Monument was wonderful. Great to see so many take advantage of the pre-summer weather and get out on the grounds of the Monument for a show worth remembering . . . the annual Doll Carriage Parade hit an all-time high with over 90 entries seen marching around the Training Field . . . The Associates' Breakfast was a huge success, as usual . . . And last, but never least, the parade! Election year benefits were bountiful as politicians seeking votes pledged money with some sponsoring a band so that they could be seen marching in front of it. The heat affected some of the marchers, but all and all, everyone seemed to be enjoying the warm welcome received from the town. (Never saw so many Republicans in town at the same time.) Great week to show off Charlestown's Pride!

• Opps . . . Misinformed and passed it along. The Charlestown Community Garden float in the parade was identified in last week's paper as being sponsored by the Mass. Historical Society — when indeed it was sponsored by the Mass. Horticultural Society . . . Doesn't that make you feel better?!

• Visit of the USS Kidd . . . was enjoyable, not only by its presence in the Navy Yard, but by having its captain and crew members join in the line of march in the parade . . . An evening visit to the ship last Monday night gave one Townie family an extra treat when they were welcomed aboard for a guided tour. Walking alongside them through the tour was none other than BRA Director Stephen Coyle and his family . . . (Are you impressed yet?!). . . Well hear this . . . Overheard conversation by more than one sailor was praise for this community on the warm welcome each crew member experienced during their Charlestown port-of-call. Congrats to you, Charlestown!

• Birthday Celebration This Week . . . for Kenny Hall, One Thompson Square's caretaker! Ken's big day is Saturday, June 23rd . . . Have a great one, Ken!

• Motorists' Request . . . to the powers that be. Cut the grass around the rotary at Sullivan Square. The grass is presently above car level, causing motorists difficulties trying to negotiate through the traffic.

• Speaking Of Traffic . . . word has it that the long-awaited traffic light in Hayes Square might be installed before long. Let's hope that this is true. Stay tuned!

• Tom Cunha . . . has presided over many a hot meeting, but Tuesday night's Navy Yard meeting saw the Fire Department respond before any attendees even entered the hall! False alarm — this time anyway.

• Tip O'The Hat . . . to Bill Kane for supplying the ladies at this corner office with fresh fruit cups that helped cool the spirits during one of our recent hot news days. Thanks, Bill!!!

• Back In Town . . . is Les Frost, former resident of Anchorage Apartments in the Navy Yard. Up from Florida for the June 17th celebrations, Les stated he was "Keeping up the tradition." Welcome home, Les . . . Also seen enjoying many of the scheduled activities was former Townie and Florida resident Joe Kelley sporting his traditional Hawaiian shirt. Joe also ventured north last month to attend the Old School-boys' Reunion. Always great to see you, Joe!

• Hint, Hint . . . June 26th is National Columnist Day! Traditional gifts include the Columnist Floral Arrangement consisting of stained coffee cups, cigarette butts, swizzle sticks and pencil stubs. Also thrown in are aspirins to help keep a needed sense of humor from abusive readers.

• Speaking Of Journalism . . . Lynn Peters will be leaving the Patriot after having been part of our staff for over two years, but she will not be leaving Charlestown. She will be joining the Kennedy Center staff as an adolescent counselor. We wish you the best of luck, Lynn, in your new endeavors.

• It Has Now Been . . . 90 days and counting since Charlestown has had a community liaison on the CANA project in City Square. To make a point on the need for such a position, no reporter or photographer from this newspaper was requested to attend a "walk-through" of the tunnel construction on Chelsea Street last night! Oversight? . . . Stay tuned.

Life Behind The Wall

by Ronan FitzPatrick

As the Gallaghers commenced with their first-of-the-season tennis match at the National Park Service courts, the court and weather conditions were grand. Amidst the other basketball and tennis players and the numerous visitors, they maintained a rapid game. Father James was not coasting in any of the sets with his multitasking daughter Carrie. The majority of love was on James' score card as Carrie played at a blistering pace. There was only one visit to the recently installed bubblers next to the courts. This tennis match demonstrated a surplus of speed and tenacity. The skills that were on display this early evening were partially acquired from both James and Carrie's well-spent time at the Boys & Girls Club at High and Green streets. I know not of the winning purse, but I know Carrie loves her father and that James is over 40.

This initial match was over minutes before the military band finished its selection of Anchors Aweigh, and played James' favorite The Marine Corps Hymn. No, the musical entertainment was not for James and Carrie, but for the graduates of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology receiving their commissions aboard the Constitution. A rematch is scheduled soon for James and Carrie. Remember James, your aim is to train not to strain.

Artist-in-residence Anthony Abate, who is skillfully assisted by Celia Aldebol, has a class of 12 for his basic watercolor course. His Anchorage residents are developing weekly talents that they never thought attainable. Wednesday evenings are viewed with great anticipation by the novices who aspire to greater accomplishments. Most students' budgets won't be radically altered. Purchases will be negligible. With an abundance of historical scenes in their backyard, the successful advancing students are looking forward to the intermediate class.

Many a first occurrence for the season has been done. The residents of Constitution Quarters have had a pool party and use of the closely placed cooking grills. Residents have moved in at the Flagship overlooking Pier 5, and the underground garage is functioning. A more grandiose Spirit of Boston can be admired daily and nightly as it glides its passengers through the harbor. When the Alma arrives at Pier 8 the season is at full throttle. Now in position, the Alma is the jewel of the Shipyard Quarters Marina collection. Another proper recognition are the pictures of Cmdr. David Cashman and his staff along the visitors line to the Constitution. Having two sailings of the Constitution this year, the National Park Service will be experiencing not the end of many firsts.

A slight trace of rain drops could not dampen the festivities of the recent city of Boston and the Bunker Hill Associates field day at the Barry Playground. Just across from Gate 5, the day was filled with food, games, pony rides, refreshments and general recreation. All participants, sponsors and spectators are to be saluted for a memorable day. As the year for the offices comes to a close, the other Associates and I are most grateful for a fine year. Their perpetuating the cause of the organization deserves praise. With President Jack Pierce, Vice President Tom Cunha and Treasurer Ken Awbrey the youth have been accorded a most gratifying year.

Congratulations To All On A Great Bunker Hill Day Celebration!!!

Brown Bag Bookies To Meet

The Brown Bag Bookies, an adult discussion group, will meet at noon on Tuesday, July 3 at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main St.

This month's book discussion will focus on Weep No More, My Lady by Mary Higgins Clark.

Clark, known for her spellbinding tales, unwinds another masterful yarn in which Elizabeth Lange seeks comfort and solitude with an old friend after the death of her sister Leila. Elizabeth discovers there is no peace anywhere as she tries to solve the questions surrounding her sister's death.

Participants may bring their lunch, and new members are welcome.

Graduate From Cosmetology Course

Lisa Dewey and Tracy Sheehan, both of Charlestown, have graduated from the cosmetology course at Blaine The Hair and Beauty Schools in Boston.

Completion of the course prepares students to become licensed professionals in the growing beauty industry.

Bunker Hill Track Club Off To A Fast Start

by Bob DeCristoforo

With just a few days to practice the Bunker Hill Track and Field Team did quite well in their first meet of the season.

The Charlestown Boys & Girls Club/Community School Track and Field Day took place on June 14 at the Charlestown High School Field.

Representing the Bunker Hill Housing Development were Thai Tu, Derek Peterson, Gilbert Peterson, Greg Masse, Kyle Egleston, Cori Egleston and Shane Fisher.

Future events will be the Hersey Track & Field meet, the Boston City Olympics and the BHA Jamboree at UMASS/Boston on July 25.

And The Winners Are . . .

The Charlestown Boys & Girls Club first annual Golf Tournament took place on May 18 at the George Wright Golf Course.

First place was captured by the foursome of Brian McCabe, Mike Murphy, Mike McLaughlin and Tom White who finished the tournament with a seven under par.

Second place went to Paul Morrison, John Yandle, Jocko Yandle and Jimmy Halley who finished a close six under.

The third place award went to Bob Collier, Jack Burke, Dave Martell and Mike Depauw with four under par.

Charlie McGonagle, Billy Boyle, Billy Doe and Dan Lowney came in at four under and took fourth

Bunker Hill Defeats D Street In Fast Break Basketball Opener

by Bob DeCristoforo

Fast Break 90 got off to a good start on Saturday and the Bunker Hill squad got off to a great start, defeating D Street from South Boston 49-39.

Ronny Carrington led the scoring for Charlestown with 14 points, while Captain Mike Erardi chipped in 13 big points. Stephen Mahan and Captain Joe Macomber also had double figures.

Besides the balanced scoring attack, a key to the win was the hustling performance of Mike Bassett and the steady play of Anthony Matson.

David Matson and Billy Barends also had a fine game.

Bunker Hill is scheduled to play Old Colony this Saturday at 9:30 a.m. at the Columbia Park Court.

The top four teams in the South Boston and the Fenway divisions will represent the Fast Break League in the BHA Jamboree in late July.

Bunker Hill Townies Attend Some Extra Special Field Trips

by Bob DeCristoforo

Mixed among all the regular Bunker Hill Charlestown Pride Week activities were some very special field trips for youngsters in the Bunker Hill Housing Development.

Friday was the Shriners Football All-Star Game at Boston University. Forty-four of the state's best players took part in the game.

Saturday was a trip to the North End for some great Italian pizza at Francesco's.

Sunday after the parade there was a trip to Quincy for the carnival and then on to the JFK Library for a concert and fireworks show.

All the trips were part of the teen outreach program that is now underway in the development.

Boston Parks To Host SoxTalk At The Ryan Playground June 26

The Boston Parks and Recreation Department will host SoxTalk from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. on Tuesday, June 26 at the Ryan Playground, at Sullivan Square in Charlestown. The Charlestown SoxTalk kicks off a summer of free activities for local youth and residents.

Last year, the Parks Department brought Red Sox players like Roger Clemens, Marty Barrett, Dennis Lamp and Mike Smithson into neighborhood parks to teach youngsters baseball fundamentals and discuss youth issues. During the past two summers, Red Sox players and coaches have visited 38 neighborhood parks and have talked to over 5,000 Boston youngsters as part of the Parks Department program.

For more information on the program or to receive a free copy of the Boston Parks Department's 1990 Guide to Summer events, call 725-4505.

MWRA Set To Run In Manufacturers Hanover Corporate Challenge

Employees of the Massachusetts Water Resources Authority in Charlestown are set to run the seventh annual Manufacturers Hanover Corporate Challenge 3.5-mile road race on Thursday, July 26 at 7 p.m. starting at the Boston Common. This year the race is limited to 9,000 runners in order to maintain Manufacturers Hanover race safety standards and to reduce congested conditions on the race course, and the limit has been reached.

Proceeds from the race benefit the New England Athletic Congress and running clubs in the New England area.

News From The Charlestown Boys & Girls Club

15 GREEN ST. 242-1775

- SUMMER SCHEDULE
Saturday, June 23 is the last day of our spring programs and the club will be closed the week of June 25. The club will reopen on July 2 as our Summer Club program begins. There are still openings in our Summer Club sessions and in our Adventure Camp Sessions for club members ages 12 and 13. Some partial scholarships are still available for Adventure Camp, so call the clubhouse at 242-1775 if interested. Also, the final payment for all sessions of Summer Camp is due this Friday, June 22.
- THANKS
A great big thanks to the over 150 volunteers who turned out to help the Boys & Girls Club with our annual Battle of Bunker Hill Road Race. This was the most successful race ever with over 750 runners from all over New England participating. Without the great effort put out by all those wonderful volunteers we would not have been able to pull this exciting event off. Thank you from the board, staff and members of the Boys & Girls Club. And we certainly hope to see you against next year!

Charlestown Students Urged To Apply For New Youth Leadership Program

Mayor Raymond L. Flynn urges young people from Charlestown to apply for selection to the newly established Mayor's Youth Leadership Corps. The program is part of the city's Safe Neighborhoods Plan and will be run by the city of Boston in partnership with Northeastern University and the Boston Bar Association.

Membership is open to students who are Boston residents currently in their sophomore year in public, private or parochial high schools. Eventually, the program will serve 100 young people a year. For its first class, approximately 25 young leaders will be chosen. Representatives from each of Boston's neighborhoods will be selected.

According to the brochure describing the program: "Corps members will be selected for the leadership qualities they have already begun to show. Selection will be based on conduct, character and contributions to community, as well as achievements in academic or other areas." Selections will be made by a citywide selection committee and announced when the program begins this fall. Applications are due by July 16.

The program will be a full year in length and will include workshops on leadership development and community service, as well as courses on the history of Boston and its neighborhoods and the current challenges faced by the city. Field experiences and activities will include discussions with current leaders, a field trip to Washington, D.C., and camping expeditions and attendance at cultural and sporting events.

Young people who participate in the program will receive a stipend, a paid summer internship in a job related to their career aspirations and a lump-sum scholarship upon completion of the program. Academic and career counseling will also be provided.

Headquarters of the Mayor's Youth Leadership Corps will be the James Michael Curley House in Jamaica Plain, but events will take place throughout the city and its neighborhoods.

Young people interested in applying or adults interested in recommending young people for the program can contact the headmaster's office, guidance counselor or a sophomore home room at Charlestown High School; at the Charlestown Community Schools offices at 255 Medford St. or at 50 Bunker Hill St.; or the Boys & Girls Club, 15 Green St. or the Kennedy Center, 27 Winthrop St.

For more information, call the Mayor's Office at 725-4490.

Charlestown Is Tour Of The Month

On Sunday, June 24 at 2 p.m., Boston By Foot will present its Tour of the Month — Charlestown.

Founded in 1629, Charlestown is Boston's oldest village. John Winthrop and his Puritans settled here briefly before moving onto the Shawmut peninsula, and the Town Hill (now John Harvard Mall) was chosen as the capital of the new colony. The town boasts many historic events, most notably the Battle of Bunker Hill, and some of its illustrious citizens include John Harvard, Samuel F.B. Morse, John Boyle O'Reilly and Edward Everett.

Few tours exhibit such diverse architecture. Sites such as the old Warren Tavern, the Austin Block, the Hurd House, Swallow Mansion, the Bunker Hill Monument and Thompson Square will be viewed amongst Georgian, Federal, Greek Revival, Gothic Italianate, Victorian and Queen Anne style architecture, in a 90-minute walk.

Join the group in Boston's hometown. Meet guides Margaret Bratschi and Carl Erikson in front of the Warren Tavern on Main and Pleasant streets. The tour will proceed rain or shine, reservations are not required and admission is $7, with a $3 charge for members.

Accepted At New England Baptist Hospital

Margaret Smith, daughter of Mary Elias of Ninth Street in the Charlestown Navy Yard, has been accepted to the School of Nursing at New England Baptist Hospital in Boston.

Smith will begin the professional registered nurse program in the fall as a member of the Class of 1992. She is a graduate of Charlestown High School.

Ritz-Carlton Employees Honored

Two Charlestown residents were among the Ritz-Carlton employees honored at a gala banquet held in the grand ballroom, saluting their length of service and commitment to excellence in the hospitality industry.

Among the distinguished employees recognized were Charlestown residents Adele Hajj, valet, 13 years and Lois Smith, telephone, 14 years.

"The Stars Are Out" was the theme for an evening of elegance and splendor where 167 employees who have been working at The Ritz-Carlton for a minimum of five years were honored for their total combined service of 1,778 years.

CHAP Housing Panel For People Of All Ages

The Charlestown Healthy Aging Program panel discussion on elderly housing options in Charlestown and across the state will be held on Thursday, June 28 at 1 p.m. in the meeting room of the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main St.

This discussion should be of interest to people of all ages. The valuable information to be provided should help those starting to consider a move, who may not have been previously aware of their options. The panel should also prove informative to those who may wish to seek out elderly housing in the future, especially after retirement. Family members may want to attend and learn about the housing options available for their aging parents and relatives.

Plan to attend and bring a friend! For more information, call the Kennedy Center at 241-8866.

Senior Companions Needed

Kit Clark Senior House is looking for some special seniors to act as Senior Companions in Charlestown, Dorchester and South Boston. This is an ACTION program sponsored by the Commission on Affairs of the Elderly.

Senior companions spend 20 hours a week visiting homebound elderly and offering them support and companionship. Companions receive a tax-free stipend and other benefits.

To be eligible to be a senior companion, a person must be 60 or older, a Boston resident and meet income guidelines. Call Rita Yankowski at 825-5000, for more information.

ARE YOU GOING TO HEAVEN?

In all the world, and within all religions there are basically only two teachings concerning going to heaven. Preacher Harry Ironside summed it up well, "I find, I quite admit, many shades of difference in the opinions of those comprising the two great schools; but after all there are but the two. The one covers all who expect salvation by DOING; the other, all who have been saved by something DONE. So you see the whole question is very simple. Can you save yourself, or have you to be saved by Another? If you can be your own savior, you do not need my message. If you cannot, you may well listen to it." Will you recognize your sinful condition before a Holy God, and then accept the eternal life provided by the work of God's Son, as he died for our sins, on the Cross? Or, will you continue to try and merit salvation and never really know whether you will go to heaven? The Bible says, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." (Acts 16:31). Come and hear more about the salvation Jesus Christ has provided for you.

MWRA Awards $3.2 Million Contract To Charlestown Firm

The Massachusetts Water Resources Authority has announced that it has awarded a $3.2 million contract for hauling and the disposal of grit and screenings from northern system sewage facilities to the Charlestown firm of Laidlaw Waste Systems Inc. The work included in this contract includes furnishing the proper containers for hauling grit and screenings from Authority facilities, disposing of the material at a licensed landfill and obtaining a monthly analysis of the material to determine its suitability for disposal as a solid waste.

"The MWRA is very pleased to award another major contract to a Charlestown-based firm," said MWRA Executive Director Paul F. Levy, who noted that the MWRA recently awarded an $88 million contract to Boston Sand and Gravel. "These contracts will provide a significant boost to the local economy for a long time."

Grit and screening removal is the first step in processing sewage. It involves removal of screenings such as rags, wood, plastics and other floatable materials by directing the flow of wastewater through bar screens, which trap the material for collection. After screening, the flow of sewage is slowed as it passes through large tanks, causing grit such as sand, dirt and gravel to settle. The grit is removed from the bottom of the tanks and then stored in containers, along with screenings, until removal by the contractor.

Levy added, "In the past, we paid for hauling and disposal by the load. Now we will be billed for the weight of the material, rather than load, which is a more accurate and cost effective method of accounting."

Welcoming Charlestown Visitor

Central Artery North Area Project

by Ed Barr

CANA Coordinator, Mass. Dept. of Public Works

The traffic pattern change on Front Street that was discussed in last week's CANA column has been postponed until the week of June 25.

To refresh your memory on this traffic change, the following will take place:

- Traffic will be rerouted through the second portal under the North Washington Street Bridge, between Rapids Furniture and the old Maxwell Box building, past the Constitution Marina and then it will turn back onto the original Front Street.
- For pedestrians, the hike from City Square to Downtown Boston will be increased by a couple of hundred feet. You will now have to pass in front of the Maxwell Box, cross the new detour road and then proceed to Downtown Boston by way of the pedestrian ramp or across the dam. If you follow the painted red Freedom Trail, no one should get lost.

Another detour pattern will be implemented next week on Gray Street. This detour will allow for the installation of a temporary bridge so that the tunnel may be built without interrupting traffic on Gray Street. The traffic pattern will remain essentially the same with just a slight movement to the south.

Pedestrians are urged to use the sidewalk which will be on the south side of Gray Street.

Here we go again, digging up City Square! Next week, the gas company will be installing a line down Main Street in front of the bank and the court house to the Harvard Street area. We are sorry for the inconvenience but these utility lines must be put in at separate times.

For information or questions on the CANA project, contact Ed Barr on the CANA hotline at 241-5560.

Doll Carriage Parade Great Success

The Annual Doll Carriage Parade, held on June 16 at the Training Field on Winthrop Street, was the largest in recent memory. Ninety entrants pushed their carriages and floats twice around the field in full view of more than 200 residents and friends of Charlestown.

Each brightly decorated carriage was unique in its own design. Congratulations to the people who displayed their artistic and creative talent in the decorating of the carriages. Everyone came out a winner.

A special word of thanks and praise to all my co-workers and judges: Diana Galvin, Dottie Duffy, Maureen Kane, Kenny Hall, Anne Considine, Ann Humphrey and Susan Kelley.

Many thanks to all the parents who preregistered their children, it was a great help.

Hope to see you all next year!

Edna Kelly

Charlestown Is Very Special

Dear Gloria,

Someone once asked me, "What makes Charlestown so special?"

Our town is special for many reasons. It has an aura which will live forever. On Bunker Hill Day former residents return, not only to watch the parade, but to renew old acquaintances.

One of the most satisfying feelings is to have a neighbor of 60 years ago come and shake your hand and remark, "It's like yesterday." We both remembered playing ring-relievo, olly, olly, infree, and even post office.

They were good old days and Sunday, June 17 was another good day. It was like Christmas in June.

I wish to extend sincere thanks to all who were involved in the celebration, and thanks to God who provided the excellent weather. Let's have more good times.

Yours truly,
Agnes O'Neil

My Thanks

I would like to thank Jim Conway and the Bunker Hill Day Parade Committee; Bunker Hill Council 62, Knights of Columbus for their generosity; the 520 Club for ice cream for the children; St. Mary's Parish for the use of the parish hall; and the Bunker Hill Irish Heritage Society for the T-shirts each child received.

Without these people, the Doll Carriage Parade could not have been the successful event that it was.

Thank you one and all for your yearly support.

Edna Kelly

Thank You

Dear Gloria,

I would like to thank the Newworld Bank in Charlestown and all of its sponsors for the wonderful party they gave the senior citizens on June 11. I know it took a lot of hard work to put this party together, and a lot of patience. It was well worth it for all of us senior Townies.

We want to give a special thanks to Dave Carr, president of Newworld Bank as this bank is the only one that really gives us a great time every year and you deserve a lot of credit and thanks.

Also, all of the waitresses and waiters were great.

A Townie,
Peggy O'Keefe and her friends

Bunker Hill Day A Magnificent Success

Dear Editor,

Each and every year, I am more impressed with the contributions of all those Charlestown residents who pull together to make Bunker Hill Day the magnificent success that it always is. The efforts of the many volunteers make this celebration more and more remarkable every year.

While many people wondered how the parade committee could possibly put together a better parade than last year, this fine group of individuals were determined to outdo all expectations, and they presented to us the best parade that most of us have ever seen. My hat goes off to Jim Conway and the entire parade committee, for it is only through their dedication to the Bunker Hill Day activities that we all enjoy such first-class entertainment.

The many other folks who hosted such an outstanding array of activities also deserve our special thanks. Their efforts to help celebrate this historic occasion truly reflects the unique spirit of Charlestown.

The Bunker Hill Associates certainly merit our admiration and praise. Their Bunker Hill Day Breakfast is a tradition which more and more residents look forward to each year. It certainly gets parade day off to a terrific start. To the Bunker Hill Associates, and the many volunteers who make this breakfast possible, I extend my sincere congratulations.

A hearty thank you is also in order to the Charlestown Patriot whose most professional staff kept the community well informed about the wide variety of activity going on during Bunker Hill Week. Most of us would be unaware of all the events taking place if not for the Patriot.

Finally, a special thanks to the people of Charlestown for the warm reception offered to me at all the events I attended. While I continue to work hard as Charlestown's State Representative, it is nice to enjoy such deep and longlasting friendships with such wonderful people as all of you.

Very truly yours,
Richard A. Voke
State Representative

Thank You

To The Editor,

I would like to congratulate my friends of Charlestown, my relatives and neighbors for the fine reception that was given to two fine ladies of Charlestown, Flo Johnson and Kay Whelan, during the 17th of June parade. It was a great honor to drive the Mayor of Charlestown and her companion.

POLICE LINE

From the desk of Deputy Superintendent Robert T. Hayden Area A, Boston Police Department

Monday, June 11

At 9 a.m., three teen-agers were seen throwing rocks at Charlestown High School from the rooftop of the Bunker Hill Housing Development. They fled the scene at the arrival of the police.

At 1 p.m., a delivery person was at 65 Polk St. when she was approached by an individual who showed a handgun, demanded her purse and then fled on foot.

At 11 p.m., officers responded to Medford Street and Old Landing Way where they observed a 27-year-old resident yelling and acting in a disorderly manner. As the officers approached, the suspect became violent, striking the officers several times. He was subdued and placed under arrest for assault and disorderly.

Tuesday, June 12

A stolen automobile was recovered at 50 Medford St.

At 6:30 p.m., Officer Whiffen observed a 19-year-old resident in a stolen automobile on Decatur Street. Upon observing the officer, the driver placed the vehicle in reverse, striking a parked automobile and then proceeded on Walford Way. It struck another vehicle on Monument Street and continued on to Medford Street, where the driver jumped out and ran with the officer in pursuit. He was apprehended by the officer.

At 10 p.m., Officer Whiffen responded to 90 Medford St. on a report that an individual was slashing tires. He observed a 41-year-old Holbrook resident who was apprehended with a steak knife in his pocket. The suspect was placed under arrest for willful and malicious destruction of property.

Detective Donahue arrested a 23-year-old resident on a warrant for armed robbery.

Wednesday, June 13

Detective Donahue arrested an 18-year-old resident on a default warrant for armed robbery.

Thursday, June 14

A bicycle parked in front of 16 Soley St. was stolen during the daytime.

A stolen automobile was recovered at 38 Baldwin St.

An automobile that was parked at 50 Medford St. was broken into during the day.

Friday, June 15

Officers Hasson and MacPherson stopped a vehicle for a violation on Alford Street and found that the operator, a 27-year-old Lynn resident, was operating after suspension of his license. He was placed under arrest.

At 3 p.m., a clerk from the cafeteria at the Hood's plant went to 437 Rutherford Ave. to make a deposit when a Jeep containing two individuals pulled in front. One of the suspects got out and pulled out a handgun, demanded the receipts and fled the scene.

A stolen automobile was recovered at 110 Medford St.

Sunday, June 17

At 1 a.m., Officers responded to 280 Main St. where they found a 26-year-old Everett resident who had been stabbed. He was transported to Mass. General Hospital. He stated that he didn't know who his attackers were.

At 4 a.m., Officer Carr observed two individuals standing next to the Store 24 at 140 Main St. Upon seeing the officer, the two individuals dropped a duffel bag and walked away. The officer opened the bag and found a sawed-off shotgun inside. One of the suspects ran to a motor vehicle and fled. The other suspect, a 16-year-old Winthrop resident, was placed under arrest. The shotgun was loaded with two buckshot rounds.

A stolen automobile was recovered on 9th Street.

These incidents are under investigation by the detectives of Area A.

Residents are reminded: If you know of any drug activity in your neighborhood, call the Boston Police Hot Line at 247-4697. It is not necessary to give your name, and all information will be investigated.
