How much is it going to cost?

What are the real diamond prices?

The value of diamonds is calculated depending 5 parameters: first the Shape (round family or fancy family), then 4 other parameters known as the 4C, the Cut (proportions), the Carat (weight), the Clarity and the Color of the diamond. The diamond prices can go from 10 000$ for a 2 carat diamond to 70 000$ and up for a 3 carats diamond or bigger stones.

Price Of Diamonds

Let's have look on the price variation comparing some 2 carats diamond prices and some 3 carats diamond prices. In this comparison chart, the same round diamond shape is used to better understand the price variation. The price would be slightly different if we use another shape like an Emerald Cut Diamond.

As you can see only one parameter can change a lot of the diamond price, so it's better to know a least your budget or what kind of diamond you exactly want to find. Some specific fancy colors are cheaper than others, that's why Black Diamond Engagement Rings are much more affordable.

The world's most comprehensive diamond price and information platform. Helping individuals to find the perfect diamond, buying directly from the source at wholesale prices.
