

A Review of the Octagonal Poker Table

If you perform poker on a typical basis then you may want to add a touch of the casino by leaving the dining table and getting a devoted poker table. A good table is important to the game as it helps make the players truly feel more skilled. While there are a number of distinct shapes and styles of your table it is worth taking your time to discover a single that you like and that will last.

An octagonal poker table is excellent for giving a casino feel to your game. This style of table is perfect for eight players and each player has their very own cup holder, ashtray holder and chip organizers. The chip organizers are a fantastic concept because when you play without one it is all too easy for the chips to get knocked onto the floor.

Players truly feel much more safe when they have their own defined room during a poker game as tempers can at times run higher. The table is made of strong wood and comes in a assortment of finishes, such as mahogany, organic and oak. A good, regular table is less likely to go off stability if somebody leans heavily on it when they are concentrating.

The table surface is upholstered and covered in green baize to match the covering in the chip organizers the table covering is also obtainable in red or black if you choose. This is a surface that is designed for excellent appearance and sturdiness and will see you through many a Friday evening poker game.

The table is fifty two inches across and has a diameter of forty eight inches, which gives each and every player ample space when they are laying out their cards. <http://esqvodka.com> The height of the table is twenty nine and a half inches. The home table is about half the size of the poker tables that are used in a casino, but it is professional looking sufficient to include some oomph to your typical poker game.

To make sure that the table is set up securely and the legs are secured with a 'Sur-Lok' folding mechanism, which indicates it won't collapse when you are in the middle of a serious game. You can get matching poker chairs to go with your poker table but these are optional.

The octagonal poker table is made by a respectable Wisconsin furniture producer who has been in business given that the nineteen fifties. The table is one thing that you and your poker buddies will appreciate using on a normal basis. Strong wood poker tables are not low-cost to buy and if you have been going to acquire a single for friendly games at residence you could have to see it as an investment piece.