WEEI And Boys And Girls Club To Host Forum On Teen Suicide Prevention

WEEI 590 and the Charlestown Boys and Girls Club will be sponsoring a forum on "Teen Suicide Prevention", in cooperation with the Charlestown Community Schools on Thursday, April 3, 1986, from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. at the Charlestown High School Auditorium, 254 Medford Street.

Awarding winning Dr. Lonnie Carton, of the WEEI 590 "The Learning Center", will host this public session and WEEI Program Director, Doug Stephan, will moderate.

"WEEI 590's decision to host this forum is based on our belief that public information and understanding will help curb the alarming rise of teen suicide and suicide attempts," said Stephan.

According to Dr. Carton, "Even the most caring parents are not protected against having their children attempt suicide.

The WEEI 590/Charlestown Boys and Girls Club Forum on Teen Suicide Prevention will provide useful information on the warning signs of teen and juvenile suicide and strategies for intervention. "It is vital that we help children understand how important they are to their parents, grandparents, family and friends," said Dr. Carton.

The format of the forum will be a half hour of presentation and a half hour of audience participation.

"Triumph And Tragedy"

In the past, a significant event took place on "Spy Wednesday". That was the day when Judas Iscariot performed his heinous espionage on Jesus Christ. For a small cash return, Judas turned Jesus over to the Roman authorities.

Come to Saint Mary's Church on Wednesday, March 26th at 7:30 p.m. and see that incident re-enacted as the Saint Mary's Players perform, for the eighth consecutive year. "Triumph and

1985 IN MEMORY OF CORNELIUS P. O'CALLAHAN FIRST ANNIVERSARY 1986

Our thoughts are always with you, although we are apart Because you have that special place forever in our hearts.

The tears in our eyes we can brush away But the ache in our hearts is there to stay. We miss you more than anyone knows And as each day passes, the emptiness grows. We hide the tears when we speak your name But the ache in our hearts remains the same. We love you and miss you, Dad.

Loved and sadly missed by wife, mother and children

PETS IN THE "HOUSE FOR SALE"

A dog or a cat may be a home seller's best friend under ordinary conditions, but once your property is listed for sale, you must be extra careful that pet smells are eliminated. Most prospective buyers, even if they have pets of their own, and even if their pets smell just like yours do, will be put off by animal odors.

If you have a problem, you might hire a professional to clean your furniture and carpets, or if necessary, remove the pets from the property. If you have a cat box inside the house, check it frequently and keep the litter fresh.

When Realtors bring prospective buyers through your home, it's a good idea to let dogs or cats outside (if they are outdoor animals) or confine them to one area of the house. Some people have allergies and others have irrational fears of some pets. It may be hard for a buyer to appreciate your home through puffy, watery eyes or in between sneezes! If a buyer or his agent is afraid of being eaten by Fido, the chances of your home getting sold to that buyer are lessened, even if the house is exactly what he wants.

If you are considering a move, talk to the professionals at Century 21, Silva Realty Associates. Call us at 242-7470 or stop by our office at 142 Main Street.

Each office is independently owned and operated.

Irish Actor, Shay Duffin, Opens New Tavern-Theater At The Pier

Irish actor, Shay Duffin, stars as controversial playwright Brendan Behan in "Confessions of an Irish Rebel," now in an indefinite run, with performances, Wednesday through Sunday, through at least April 27th at the new Tavern-Theater at The Pier, 145 Northern Avenue, Boston.

Duffin's show, like "late afternoon in a great saloon," confronts audiences with the irreverent wit of Behan, who, when he died in 1964 at age 41, was eulogized by the London Daily Mail as "too young to die; but too drunk to live." Performing from the works of Behan and laced with his own original reflections, the Dublin-born Duffin explores whisky, whores, Popes, pimps, pornography, capital punishment, justice, judges, America, mass, hell, Yeats and smugglers.

Performances will be Wednesday through Friday at 8 p.m.; Saturday at 7 p.m. and 10 p.m.; and Sunday at 7 p.m. Tickets are $12.50 and $15. For reservations, call 426-7222.

BONDING UPDATE

WHAT CAN BONDING DO?

Reshape malformed teeth.
Straighten some teeth instantly.
Restore fractured teeth.
Close spaces between teeth.

Cover stained teeth.
Splint loose teeth.
Repair existing bridges.
Reduce Cost.

SOME ADVANTAGES OF BONDING ARE: Less drilling of teeth; anesthesia is not usually required; procedure may be completed at the same visit; cost is less than other methods of esthetic care and bonding is reversible, meaning that the bonding can be removed and done over or another technique used.

REPORT ON BONDING: After several years, using bonding materials at Dental Associates, we feel that this procedure is valuable for certain conditions. Teeth do look better; fractured teeth repaired, cavities filled, defects corrected. The bonding material is being used to splint teeth and to fill in between teeth. These materials have proved themselves to be a valuable adjunct to our practice.

Where can you get more information? Call Dental Associates at 242-1616 for a brochure or make an appointment for a no charge clinical examination.

Roosevelt Announces In Eighth Congressional District

Vowing to take his campaign to "Teele Square, to the Mount Auburn neighborhood, to Oak Square and to all the other neighborhoods in the district," Jim Roosevelt formally announced his candidacy to succeed "Tip" O'Neil in the Eighth Congressional District before a cheering crowd of supporters at VFW Post 7353 in North Cambridge.

Roosevelt, a 40 year old Cambridge resident and lawyer who serves as general counsel to the Democratic State Committee, kicked off his campaign on the day that marked the 53rd anniversary of the first inaugural of his grandfather, Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

In formally initiating his Congressional bid, Roosevelt pointed to his extensive record of achievement and activism within the district, particularly in the areas of housing, health care and consumer rights.

"I believe it is essential for a person seeking office to have an understanding for, and to be part of the people he or she wants to represent," Roosevelt stated.

"These experiences," he continued, "qualify me to confront as a Congressman the serious and complex issues facing this country."

Roosevelt assailed the wasteful defense spending that has produced only a "negligible" improvement in our national security. He called for the scrapping of the MX Missile and the B-1 Bomber; a competitive bidding process for lucrative defense contracts; a ban on the manufacture and deployment of "Star Wars" weaponry; and a comprehensive web of arms control agreements that include deep cuts in offensive weapons, a test ban treaty and an antisatellite weapons treaty.

Roosevelt also warned that "over relations with the Soviet Union should no longer be the only lens through which all our foreign policy is viewed," and he advocated a policy "guided by the principles of human rights, dignity and the basic values of democracy." The U.S., he said, cannot continue to embrace dictatorial regimes in Chile, Korea, Pakistan and South Africa.

Turning to the massive federal budget deficit, Roosevelt proposed slicing the Pentagon budget by roughly $54 billion and called for "taking back the $120 billion in corporate tax breaks" now doled out to many of the nation's "largest and most profitable companies ... Every working person in the Eighth District paid more to the government as individual taxpayers than did General Electric, Dow Chemical and ITT combined.

In highlighting this inequity, Roosevelt maintained his opposition "to any increase in personal income taxes under any circumstances."

"In contrast," he added, "my opponent Joe Kennedy has said he would consider raising personal income taxes as a last resort."

Addressing what he characterized as "quality of life" issues, Roosevelt accused the Reagan administration of retreating "from our national commitment to insure adequate health care and quality education for everyone," and he emphasized that "housing must be placed back on our list of national priorities."

In his concluding remarks, Roosevelt also took a moment to speak to "those in the press and in the political world who have already ceded this election to the other person with a famous name."

"I want to say to them and to you - this race has just begun," he declared. "I am confident that substance will indeed prevail over style," (political announcement)

For Want Of A Smoke ....

by Charlie McGonagle

He smoked them all, I guess you'd say, from Lucky Strikes to Kent, Pall Mall, Old Gold, and Viceroy, and even Parliament. Fatima, English Oval, and Philip Morris too, Chesterfield, and Marlboro, to name but just a few.

He started way before the docs said smoking wasn't good. Before the Surgeon General made the danger understood. He feared back then a stunted growth and shortness of his breath. He did not know, as soon he would, that smoke may lead to death.

Yet, then one day when faced with facts, the warnings he'd defy. "I'll smoke", he said, "when e're I want, for I can never die." So on he went, through packs of butts, he puffed his merry way, From dawn til dusk he smoked and smoked, and never missed a day.

One thing he dared not tell a soul, a fact he'd not admit, He did not like the habit, but God, he could not quit! So on he puffed, and on he puffed, enjoying not a one, Pretending all the while that smoking butts was fun.

Then one day, a hacking cough erupted in his chest, Not to cause a worry, though, a mild cold at best. But on it went, and worse it got, but still the cigs he lit, 'Til the doctor told him, "Friend, you'll have to quit."

"But quitting isn't easy, Doc, besides I like to smoke." "You'll have to quit, you're sick, you see, this matter's not a joke!" So quit he did, but not for long, the cough would soon subside, But his craving for a cigarette had never really died.

So the smoking lamp was lit again, the hacking cough returned, Despite the doctor's warnings, he never really learned. They saw him off the other day with a saddened wave, But he'd not return the gesture, for he laid within his grave.

Now he's left a legacy, a lesson to be learned, Written now, another page, the final chapter turned. But, I fear, his plight is lost, gone I guess, for naught, For at the grave his children smoked. HOW QUICKLY THEY FORGOT!

It's Time To Make Your Financial Resolutions

by Sandra Bromfield and Rick Fentin
Personal Financial Planners, IDS/American Express

The tax season's a perfect time to outline personal goals, especially those of a financial nature.

It's never too early to begin planning. No matter what your individual situation is — single, married, dual-income or retired — you should put your short and long-term financial goals on paper. By doing a written financial plan, you're more likely to reach all the goals you've set for yourself.

Short-term goals are those you hope to achieve within the coming year. These may include: accumulating money for your next vacation, reducing the amount of taxes you pay or enjoying more of life's everyday pleasures — like eating dinner out more often.

To reach your financial goals, you need three elements working for you: time, dollars and rate of return. Short-term goals are designed to be met in a relatively short period of time, so you must start with more dollars to earn a higher rate of return than is necessary to reach longer-range goals.

To achieve both kinds of goals, you must set your objectives and implement them. For example, if you want to increase your cash flow and reduce taxes, a tax-free mutual fund can help you do both.

Diversification is also a very important factor to consider. Everyone, regardless of their personal circumstances, should diversify their investments to reduce risk. One excellent way to diversify is to invest in a mutual fund because it must consist of at least 20 different securities and is actively managed by an investment professional.

Establishing your goals is the first step on the road to realizing them. To find out if you're headed in the right direction, it's helpful to consult an experienced financial planner.

Remember, time slips away. If you don't begin planning now, it's more than likely that you won't meet your financial goals within your desired timeframe.

HELP FOR CONSUMERS: The Mayor's Office of Consumer Affairs and Licensing by Diane J. Modica, Commissioner

"I paid that contractor in advance, and he still has not returned to do the repairs! Is there anyone who can help me?"

"This car is a lemon! Is there anyone whom I can turn to for help?"

"Even though the product I purchased was defective, the store will not give me a refund! Are my consumer rights protected by some type of warranty?"

If you have ever expressed these sentiments, or similar ones, there is a place you can turn to find answers to your consumer-related problems — The Mayor's Office of Consumer Affairs and Licensing. Last year our office assisted over 16,000 Boston consumers and successfully negotiated $225,170 in refunds, replacement and repairs of merchandise.

Our staff of investigators is available Monday through Friday to advise you of your rights under state and federal laws, and we will help you to work out a settlement with business, or landlord with whom you are having a problem.

Continuing our effort to serve Boston consumers even more effectively, the Mayor's Office of Consumer Affairs and Licensing developed the Face-to-Face Mediation Program allowing a neutral third party to hear both sides of a conflict and to explore the possible solutions until the disputing parties are able to agree upon a mutually satisfactory settlement. The convenient evening and weekend mediation sessions, scheduled at community locations, have proven to be an effective and timely alternative to small claims court.

In addition to providing advice, assistance and mediation, the Mayor's Office of Consumer Affairs and Licensing educates consumers by informing them of the results of investigations and surveys which have been conducted in the marketplace; the office seeks to provide the consumer with the information he needs in order to make an informed decision.

Believing that a satisfied consumer is a good customer, our office also works to inform businesses of their responsibilities to consumers and makes certain that they understand the consumer protection laws. By increasing the business' awareness of the issues and understanding of the laws, the Mayor's Office of Consumer Affairs and Licensing believes that many costly consumer problems will be prevented and customer relations will be improved.

Seeking to reach out to you, the consumer, and to provide you with as much information as possible, I will be bringing information to you on a regular basis; be sure to look for my column in an upcoming issue of this newspaper.

"Little Shop Of Horrors" Takes Root In Boston

"Little Shop Of Horrors," the award-winning monster musical has opened for a limited five-week engagement at Boston's Charles Playhouse.

Now in its fifth year in New York, "Little Shop" has met with both popular and critical acclaim across the United States. The musical is the only triple winner of the New York Drama Critics Circle, Drama Desk and outer Critics Circle awards for Best Musical. The original cast album won a Grammy Award nomination.

"Little Shop Of Horrors" is based on Roger Corman's 1960 horror-film spoof of the same name. With book and lyrics by Howard Ashman and a rollicking score by Alan Menken, "Little Shop" has developed a large cult following.

"Little Shop" is set in a run-down Skid Row florist shop run by a Mr. Mushnik. Mushnik has on his staff a dizzy peroxide blonde named Audrey and, Seymour, a bumbling young botanical genius who makes the weird horticultural discovery of a jive-talking plant who develops an insatiable appetite. Audrey II brings Seymour love and adventure and the shop prosperity. Commenting upon the action is a Greek Chorus of street urchins with the tight harmony and moves of Motown.

Starring in the Boston production of "Little Shop Of Horrors" are Carolee Carmello, Bert Hilkes, Marvin Einhorn, David Jordan, Natalie Oliver, Angela Hall, Angel Jemmott, with John Gersmehi and Tyrone Aiken as Audrey II.

Performances for "Little Shop Of Horrors" are Tuesday through Friday at 8:00 p.m.; Saturday at 6:00 p.m. and 9:30 p.m.; Sunday at 3:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. Admission is $17.50 and $19.50 Tuesday through Thursday and Sunday; and $19.50 and $23.50 Friday and Saturday. Theatre-goers will have a choice of new cabaret or traditional balcony seating.

The Charles Playhouse is located at 74 Warrenton Street in Boston's theatre district. Discount parking is available at the State Transportation Garage and the Motor Mart Garage in Park Square. Coupons for the discount are obtainable from the box office. Group rates are available by calling 357-7450. For box office information call, 426-6912.

FACTS ABOUT DRUGS — F.A.D.

The sadness of the cocaine story in the 1980s is that this is the third time around for cocaine in America. From 1886 until 1903, cocaine was used in coca-cola. Because of the small amount used in coca-cola, it is doubtful that it was ever intoxicating. In 1903 it was replaced with caffeine.

In 1906, Congress passed the Pure Food & Drug Act and cocaine was removed from food and medicines. People seemed to believe they were well rid of the drug.

Its use in the 1920s was associated with the risk takers, those people who fly above ordinary people. Cocaine use was considered Bohemian and after, associated with Jazz musicians. During the 1920s, cocaine use never reached the ordinary person. By then the use of cocaine was illegal and it was used for "fun". Cocaine's popularity ended abruptly with the economic crash of 1929.

So the 1980s is the third time Americans have used this drug, forgetting those earlier unhappy experiences. In 1982, more than 22 million Americans used cocaine at least once. The media played a part in glamorizing the drug. So many accounts were publicized of the rich and famous using cocaine. This time the market is among the tens of millions of young people, who have been conditioned to drugs by the ready acceptance of alcohol and marijuana.

The consequences of continued cocaine use range from a runny nose to sudden unpredictable death. Cocaine is the great deceiver and the great destroyer, as we seem to have to learn over and over again.

Mr. Stephen Coyle, Director
Boston Redevelopment Authority
One City Hall Square
Boston, MA 02201

Dear Mr. Coyle:

B & B Oil Company has been a family owned business servicing Charlestown residents and businesses since 1946. In our forty year history in Charlestown, we have been relocated several times — each move necessitated by the continuing development of our Charlestown neighborhood.

Our past history is outlined as follows:

- (1948 - 1961) We leased and operated a Mobil Gas Station on Park Street. The station was subsequently taken by the B.R.A. for redevelopment in the area.
- (1961) B & B Oil Company purchased a building and land on Main Street and constructed our office and garage facility. We operated there through October 1973.
- (1971) The Main Street properties were taken by the B.R.A. by eminent domain and we remained as tenants until October 1973.
- (1973) B & B Oil Company was relocated across the street to 53 Main Street (another B.R.A. owned property). We remained there through August 1985 as a tenant, until a suitable relocation site could be approved. This was a twelve year temporary stay.
- (1985) Another forced move by the B.R.A. occurred with

Local Business Seeks Resolution To 16 Years Of B.R.A. Promises

no change in our status or the B.R.A.'s on relocation effort to obtain for us a permanent site. The 53 Main Street building was then sold to a developer for a condo construction project, presently underway.

- (1986) We are presently renting office and garage space.

Mr. Coyle, B & B Oil Company has always been in favor of developing all of Boston's neighborhoods, especially those in Charlestown. We understand that some business operations do not lend themselves to residential areas and must be relocated to other commercially zoned areas. On the heels of each relocation, because of our developing neighborhoods, we were assured of assistance in finding a suitable new location.

Below is an excerpt from the Authority's relocation guide.

HELP IN FINDING A SUITABLE NEW LOCATION

"With the aid and cooperation of private owners, agents, real estate brokers, the Greater Boston Real Estate Board, and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Department of Commerce and Development, Bureau of Commercial and Industrial Development, the project Site Office will maintain a list of vacant properties which are suitable for various types of business operations. Businesses interested in this service are welcome to review these listings."

Somehow this passage seems to have been reduced to an empty promise.

The Charlestown B.R.A. Site Office was itself leveled, making way for City Square development projects, and no replacement office was established. This lack of a site office in Charlestown made communications with the B.R.A. somewhat more difficult.

In 1971, we secured estimates from builders with the intent to relocate on then available B.R.A. parcels. After twenty-four months of meetings and dialogue, B & B Oil Company was no closer to securing a permanent site from the B.R.A. In November of 1973, we again moved our operations across the street to 53 Main Street into another B.R.A. owned property, until our Site could be determined. We operated from the 53 Main Street Office temporarily for the next twelve years. Throughout that time we had constant communications with B.R.A. representatives, which has produced no commitment on establishing our permanent site in Charlestown.

Mr. Coyle, not unlike the B.R.A., B & B Oil Company is also committed to the Charlestown neighborhood. We have supported this Community for all of our forty years in business, consistently giving of our resources and time. We support numerous organizations and have strived to be a good neighbor, as well as a needed business in the town. Even the blizzard of 1978 did not stop us from serving our customers in need — it could be said that we delivered during a crisis. I feel the B.R.A. should deliver on its promise to permanently settle and relocate established businesses inside the town in which they belong.

The B.R.A.'s commitment to the neighborhood is well documented, with large development projects well underway in Charlestown.

In May of 1971, we obtained estimates from contractors for construction of an Office-Garage facility — the proposed cost was $66,000. In the summer of 1984, we submitted a proposal on an advertised B.R.A. parcel of land, known as C-2A, located on Main Street in Charlestown. That same building today (in 1986) is estimated to cost at least $366,000. The disposition of C-2A is still pending by the B.R.A. This commercial site was intended for the relocation of businesses like B & B Oil Company and others waiting for a permanent site.

Mr. Coyle, we understand the need for careful community planning and expect the relocation process to be somewhat lengthy. Our efforts with the B.R.A. have extended over sixteen years. Unfortunately, as our plans progressed, so did our Community, and we find ourselves consistently in a redeveloping residential area. Our presence as a commercial entity may not be compatible with those changing areas, and we are not insensitive to that problem.

With the instability of parcel C-2A on Main Street and in an effort to finalize our quandary, I am asking for consideration on a B.R.A. owned, heavily commercialized site known as "A" Street in Charlestown. We would like to meet with you, personally, and explain our unusual situation. We have had drawings and construction plans on our proposed building for some time now and would like to present them for your comments and review.

Mr. Coyle, I cannot stress the urgency of this request enough. So very much time has elapsed and construction costs continue to rise. We have secured assurances of adequate financing from our bank, but time seems to always be against us. We firmly believe the B.R.A. has always worked for the overall good of everyone in Charlestown. Even in the face of continual delays, we still believe the deliberate process is vital to our community and its long term stability. We hope the B.R.A., and yourself as its Director, will look upon B & B Oil Company's request with favor.

It is our fervent desire to remain in Charlestown and serve its residents for another forty years.

I look forward to meeting you personally, and discussing our situation. We would appreciate an expedient response from our office, and request an appointment be scheduled as soon as possible.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Respectfully yours,
Robert DiBona, President
B & B Oil Company, Inc.

WAS IT SAINT JOSEPH?

(Reprinted, slightly updated, by popular request)

Each year Saint Joseph's Feast Day, March 19th, gets lost, for the most part, in the sea of green exhibited in behalf of Boston's patron saint, Saint Patrick, and the many parades associated with him ... plus the Evacuation Day observances here in "The Hub."

What you are about to read, originally appeared in the "Liguorian" magazine in March 1979, and was authored by Richard Bauman. Its adaptation by the Josephites is presented here following, slightly edited, with the permission and cooperation of Father Edward J. Gartner, SSJ, to whom we are most grateful.

Whatever else anyone might conclude, we intend it as homage to "The Protector of the Holy Family" ... and we certainly owe. Many times I have taken the sage advice of my Mother (God rest her!) to "go to Joseph" with problems, and few there are, perhaps, who haven't asked this saint of the workers to "help pay the bills."

All that being said, here it is:

If you like mysteries, it is a real one, and quite true - the mystery of the spiral staircase. It all happened more than a hundred years ago, in Santa Fe, New Mexico. You may see it for yourself, if you go there, and, as so many architects and engineers have, you will stare in wonderment and disbelief. Questions will come to your mind. "What holds it up?" and "Who were the craftsmen?"

In 1872, the Bishop of Santa Fe commissioned the building of a convent chapel for the Sisters of Loretto. During construction, the architect died suddenly, and only afterwards did the builders discover an error in the plans. There was no staircase to the choirloft! But worse, at the point of construction, any stairwell would take up needed space and disfigure the design.

The nuns began nine days of prayer in honor of Saint Joseph, for he had been a carpenter. On the day after their novena ended, a shabbily dressed man appeared at the door. He said he heard they needed stairs built, and he could build them. With him was a burro carrying his toolbox. He offered to begin at once, if they would allow him total privacy while he worked. They hired him and he locked himself in. For three months he permitted no visitors; then he opened the doors.

When the Mother Superior entered, she stared in amazement. There in the corner was a free-standing staircase rising in a double spiral to the choirloft. But - it appeared to have no support! There was no central pole, no wall attachment, no sign of a nail or screw - just a few wooden pegs. Moreover, the wood he used was unlike any that Mother had ever seen. Yet the carpenter had brought no wood with him!

When she returned with the other nuns, the carpenter had gone. Inquiries were made in the area, for he had not been paid, but no one had seen him come or go. A reward was offered; no one ever claimed it.

We like Mr. Bauman's assessment of this mystery. He asks: "Was this Saint Joseph or simply a woodworking genius who gave his time, talents and materials to the Sisters of Loretto? Who can say? And does it really matter? It is definitely amazing ... and there's no doubt that the prayers of those nuns were answered in a most remarkable way."

Our picture of this phenomenon isn't reproducible, but we're 99 percent certain that the good Josephites will oblige you with a copy of same if you contact them at 1130 North Calvert Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21202.

And now a favor, if you will, tell someone else about this, especially your friends named "Joseph".

Television Production Training Classes

The Boston Community Access and Programming Foundation has announced a year-long schedule of free television production training classes for Boston residents.

The purpose of these workshops is to train producers to create their own television programs for BNN-TV, the Boston Neighborhood Network over Cable Channels A3 and A8, operated by the non-profit and independent Foundation.

Through December, the Foundation is offering basic training, studio training and advanced training. These workshops are limited to 12 persons. Advanced production and editing workshops are limited to six. All workshops are filled on a first come, first served basis.

The Foundation was established in the city's cable franchise to encourage Boston residents to originate their own TV shows.

BNN-TV offers 34 hours of programming Monday through Saturday and carries special events on Sundays over two cable channels: A3 and A8. Programs include those originating with local community producers, BNN-TV's Neighborhood Network News, programs produced by the Foundation staff for non profit organizations in Boston and from other TV production sources.

Workshop application forms are available at the following locations:

The Foundation's Central Office in the Dartmouth Street building of the Boston Public Library, Copley Square, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Fort Point Access Center, 11 Melcher Street, Fort Point Channel, South Boston, from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Neighborhood Network News, 640 Commonwealth Avenue at Boston University, from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Although the Foundation workshops are open only to Boston residents, there is one exception. Applicants who live outside Boston but work for Boston-based non-profits may still receive training for projects sponsored by their organizations. Additional training sessions may be organized on request, especially for non-English speaking groups.

Boston residents with previous video experience may take a Foundation certification exam to qualify for advanced courses and equipment use.

offerings do just that, and you're most welcome to submit those birthday, anniversary, special occasion, or whatever items at will. Please give us sufficient lead-time if time is of the essence regarding your request, remembering that we columnize bi-weekly (every other week).

In addition, do continue to send short poems, tracts, and witticisms (original or otherwise, giving proper author accreditation when known). Short "Guest Columnist Vignettes" will also be published, space permitting.

MEDICAL STUDENTS AT THE MGH - BUNKER HILL HEALTH CENTER

The MGH-Bunker Hill Health Center performs the important task of training medical students so that they will become the doctors of tomorrow. These students, primarily from the Harvard Medical School, work under the supervision of Staff doctors at the Health Center. We hope that they gain from this experience, not only increased medical skills and knowledge, but also an interest in making a career in providing the kind of high quality community care that the health center strives to give.

Both patients and students benefit from their contact at the Health Center. A physical examination done by a medical student, after approval by the patient, includes a very thorough medical history (discussion with the patient of current and past health) and a thorough physical examination. The student then discusses the history and physical examination with a staff physician, who sees the patient and double checks the results of the examination. The staff physician then decides on any tests or treatment that may be needed.

Some commonly asked questions about the medical student teaching program at the Bunker Hill Health Center are:

Q. Do the medical students know what they are doing?

A. They are well-trained. However, since they do not yet have the knowledge or experience of a physician in practice, they are closely supervised by one of the staff physicians, and all decisions are made by the staff physician.

Q. What happens to me when the student leaves?

A. Most students are at the Health Center for only one month. The supervising physician continues to see you whenever needed. In other words, during and after the student's time at the Health Center, the staff physician is available as your doctor.

Q. How will I know if I am seeing a medical student?

A. You will never see a student without being told, and always have the right to refuse to see a student.

Q. How do I benefit from this?

A. In most cases you would get an appointment for a full examination sooner than would be possible otherwise. Importantly, the student will be able to devote considerable time to your needs, and this thorough evaluation will continue to be helpful to you over the years to come. Of course, you would also have the satisfaction of having helped in the training of a future doctor.

Q. How about the cost?

A. Like all visits to doctors at the Bunker Hill Health Center, you would be charged by the Massachusetts General Hospital according to the amount of time the doctor spends on your care (not according to the time spent by the student). Usually, you would be charged less than you would for such a complete exam by the staff physician alone.

Q. Are there any drawbacks?

A. Only that if you make an appointment for a complete examination by a medical student, you should expect to spend the whole morning at the Health Center to allow time for the medical history, physical examination, and review of your case by the staff physician. This is time well spent, but some people may simply not have that much time available. You can also see a medical student if you don't want a complete physical examination, but just a more limited evaluation of a specific problem.

We believe that the medical student teaching program at the Bunker Hill Health Center provides an excellent opportunity for patients, as well as for the students. It also stimulates the staff of the Health Center to keep up-to-date on medical science and new approaches to patient's problems.

If you wish to make an appointment to see a medical student, please call Mrs. Smith at 242-5757.

Highlights Of The Terriers - Crusaders Championship Game

Terriers 1986 Matt O'Neil Senior Hockey League Champs

by Bernie "Scoop" Kelly

The Emmons-Horrigan-O'Neil (M.D.C.) Rink was filled to capacity (13,909), standing room only, this past Saturday noon as the two semi-finalists, the Crusaders and Terriers, of the Senior Hockey League prepared to play for the championship and officially determine the Matt O'Neil Cup winner from the two teams of champions!

It seemed like days of old, as we scanned the crowd of fans and boosters, to see some familiar faces who were Matt's pioneer coaches from the early Charlestown Youth Organization. Such guys as Earl (The Pearl) Chisholm, the renowned Bantam Coach from the early 60s and 70s, who while chewing on an El Producto cigar, remarked, "I'm available if the pressure builds up, Eddie," referring to the loss Eddie (Tantrums) Johnson took the previous week as coach of the Huskies against the Crusaders, coached by "yours truly". "Tantrums" Johnson was visibly shaken, realizing the loss could drop him to amateur status as a league coach — right, John?

Joining Earl was former Pee-Wee coach from the late 70s, Moe Mahoney (Matt's Dad), who served on Matt's coaching staff.

As we passed Coaches Corner, there stood one of Matt's first assistant coaches, Phil Myers (Pat's Dad), who drove our first hockey teams (Pee Wee's and Bantams) up to the town of Acton twice a week to a make-shift experimental rink — long before M.D.C. rinks were even thought of. A "Tip of the Hat" to all those men who contributed to the youth of our Town! Amen!!

The dressing room was alive with emotion as the teams prepared themselves for the true test of a champion.

John (V.C.R.) Collier, the video specialist of Collier's Market fame, was checking his camera video equipment before the combatants took to the ice.

Billy Finn (Rink Manager) was putting his professional touch to the ice surface to insure a smooth safe game.

The Matt O'Neil Cup Trophy was on display at the Rink lobby for both teams to view and ponder, wondering what team name would this trophy honor in 1986.

Captain Eddie (Woody) Kelly of the Crusaders and Captain Paul Wilkins of the Terriers were chatting with team players about last minute strategy as they took to the ice for warm-ups.

Head Referee, Eddie (Slammer) Lynch, was giving last minute reminders to his referee linesman, John (Turn-Key) Tibbetts, assigned to the championship game by Director Eddie (Tuxedo) Johnson to assure decorum and accuracy in the final game of the season.

Rink experts were predicting the Crusaders to win by three goals, because they were the spoilers and also because they have the awesome line of Mike Anthony, Scott Geezil, and Matt Mahoney ... who are just Awesome!!!

As these loud rumors began to reach the Terrier Bench, Amateur Coach Eddie (Tuxedo) Johnson predicted an upset victory by the Terriers, or else some players will find it hard meeting the team roster next year!

Eddie (The Enforcer) Lynch blew the whistle for the start of game as "Slammer" dropped the puck, and the rest is History!

At 15:54 ... Scott Geezil, an awesome star for the Crusaders, took a pass from Matt Mahoney via the University of Connecticut playmaker, Mike Anthony, for a 1-0 Crusader lead!

Terrier Defenseman, Bobby (Beau James) Hardy, took a neat pass from Captain Paul Wilkins, assisted by Steve (Rocket) Smith, to tie it at 12:45, 1-1!

Matt (Flash) Mahoney with some help from the awesome twosome, Mike (Hey Mikey) Anthony and Scott Geezil, made it 2-1, at 10:13 of the first period!

Matt (Flash) Mahoney, in less than a minute, lit the light again between Terrier Goalie Frank Saeli's pads at 9:03, to make it 3-1 Crusaders!

John (Salty Dog) Dowd, with a great fake, fooled the Crusader defenseman and beat the helpless Chuck Smith to the upper corner, unassisted, for a Terrier goal at 8:30, to make it 3-2!

The Terrier Captain, Paul Wilkins, with help from the National Junior playmaker, Tom O'Neil, combined on some fine passing to tie the score 3-3 at 3:02!

Joe (Dasher) Flemming got a center pass from Bobby (Spider) Chisholm from behind the net, with an assist from Jay Yandle, to put the Crusaders ahead 4-3!

At 0:43, Rich Collins, set up by Kevin Connolly and assisted by John (J.T.) Dowd, tied the game at 4-4!

Joe (Dasher) Flemming hit pay dirt on an unassisted goal at 0:14 as the period ended!

Captain Paul Wilkins, who kept the team spirit high, took a give and go from his center iceman Steve (Rocket) Smith and blasted it by Chuck Smith, for a 5-5 tie!!

John (Milk Shake) Dowd and Tom (Clara's Boy) Mahoney combined to split the Crusader defensemen for a 6-5 lead by the Terriers at 14:20!

The Crusader team went totally flat in the second period as the Terrier's Captain, Paul Wilkins, found the weakness and scored five unanswered goals!!

At 9:20, Steve (Rocket) Smith and Defenseman Joe Wilkins (Ambassador Joe's Boy) put together a picture goal as the Terriers lead 7-5!

Rich Collins, with help from the roving Defenseman Joe Wilkins, struck again for an 8-5 lead at 8:30!

Tom O'Neil (Fitchburg Generals), with just 10 seconds on the clock, took a give and go from Captain Paul Wilkins and hit the upper corner for a 9-5 lead over the sagging Crusaders.

CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM: The Terriers captured the 1986 Matt O'Neil Senior Hockey League Championship, defeating the

Dave (Windows) Downey took a snap pass from Steve (Rockets) Smith and Bobby (Beau James) Hardy to put the Terriers ahead, 10-5 at 15:50!

Scott Geezil took a lead pass from Mike Anthony and sent it through the pads of Frank Saeli, making it 10-6!

Joe (Ditso) Doherty took a breakaway pass from Eddie (Woody) Kelly and sent it between his pads for a 10-7 score! Paul Wilkins blasted from the point for an unassisted goal at 1:53, making it 11-7!

With time running out for the Crusaders, Matt (Flash) Mahoney with the awesome two, Mike Anthony and Scott Geezil, lit the light as time ran out, for an 11-8 Terrier Victory!!!

Both teams lined up and congratulated each other with hand shakes and praise for the Terriers' tremendous victory!!

The Terrier Captain, Paul Wilkins, was soon handed the Matt O'Neil Championship Trophy, which will have the Terrier Team name inscribed as champions for the 1986 hockey year. Paul proudly carried the Trophy around the Rink in Championship fashion to the applause of the Terrier rooters.

The Champions, under the leadership of Paul Wilkins, can really enjoy this well earned victory. I guess some of the credit has got to go to Coach Eddie (Tuxedo) Johnson, whose advice and strategy in the second half of the game proved too much for the Crusader team! But, it was Captain Paul Wilkins persistence to get his team out of last place that drove Paul onward. Back in January, Paul's team was suffering many early defeats while adjusting to the new players coming and going on the Terrier Team, and almost assured him of finishing last! But, his convictions paid off and with wins over the league leaders, he climbed out of last place. They defeated the "Screaming Eagles" in the semi-finals for a chance to meet the Crusaders in the Championship Game, and the rest is History!!!

The top stars of the game were two players, who both got the "Hat Trick" — Matt (Flash) Mahoney of the Crusaders and Terrier Captain Paul Wilkins.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to the Crusader Goalie, Chuck Smith, for his stalwart stand through the regular season and semi-finals, handicapping the leagues' top scorers with great saves ... when they counted, and finishing a memorable season of thrills in the Championship Games.

Crusaders 11-8 in the final game of the season this past Saturday at the M.D.C. Rink.

Also, congratulations to the Crusader Captain, Eddie (Woody) Kelly, for his leadership role in directing his team into the Championship Game.

And to all the players in the league, "I congratulate you all" for the thrills you provided the Charlestown boosters and supporters of youth hockey who enjoyed this season and are looking forward to the next one. Great job, well done!!

NOTICE

The Banquet Committee reminds you that the dinner has been moved to the upstairs hall at the Knights of Columbus. Those people who called for table reservations prior to the change, may now request the reservations by calling the Ticket Committee Chairlady, Rita Kelly, at 242-1983; Mary Johnson at 241-9891; or Linda Fitzgerald at 242-4795, for tickets to assure that families or groups might be seated together.

This April 18th celebration reminds us that the work Matt O'Neil started over twenty years ago must continue and flourish to achieve the needs and accomplishments so necessary to build confidence in our youth during the formative years!

I ask all parents to join with us on April 18th to take part in this worthwhile endeavor, and pay tribute to an "un-sung hero" who unselfishly never stopped giving of himself ...

Matt O'Neil, Sr. — we salute you!!!!

Students And Motorists Need School Bus Safety Refresher Course

In light of recent school bus accidents involving children, the Massachusetts Registry of Motor Vehicles and AAA Massachusetts emphasize the need for a school bus safety refresher course for both students and motorists.

FOR STUDENTS

"Children need to be made aware of the 'Danger Zone' immediately surrounding the outside of the bus," said Caroline J. Hymoff, Manager of Safety Services for AAA Massachusetts.

"This is where the majority of students are injured or killed, sometimes by the bus itself. 90% of fatal accidents take place off the bus, and 70% of all accidents occur on the trip home."

According to Registrar of Motor Vehicles Alan Mackey, here are some reminders for children:

- When disembarking, children need to remember to stay away from the back right side of the bus so the driver can see them and they won't accidentally slip under the wheels — especially on icy roads in the winter.

- If students must cross the street to board the bus, they should always cross in front of the vehicle, maintaining eye contact with the driver until he waves them across when it's safe to do so. If a safety patrol member is present, the student should let him go first.

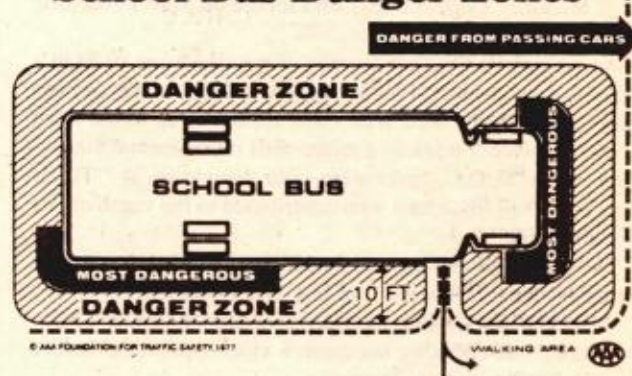

"Students should cross the street in a straight line about ten steps ahead of the front of the bus," AAA's Hymoff said. "While looking all ways for traffic, students should not stop, turn back, or run."

If something is dropped, the child should not run back to pick it up, but instead, wait for the safety patrol member or bus driver to signal them that it is safe to go back. A child who does not wait for the signal may not be seen, and the bus driver may start to move the bus and accidentally hit the child.

FOR MOTORISTS

"Motorists, too, need to be reminded of the law when approaching a school bus," said Registrar Mackey. "Passing cars can also be hazardous to children, especially since many motorists are not exactly sure what to do when approaching a school bus."

School Bus Danger Zones

Massachusetts law requires:

- Motorists approaching a school bus to stop if the bus is flashing red lights front and rear and has stopped to allow loading and unloading of children.
- This applies except when the motorist is on the other roadway of a divided highway.
- Motorists must stop not less than 15 feet from the bus.
- Motorists must remain stopped until warning signals are deactivated, or the driver is motioned to proceed by a police officer.
- Failure to stop for these signals is punishable by a fine of not more than $100.

For a free copy of AAA's "Tips for Safe School Bus Riding", send a self-addressed, stamped business-size envelope to Safety Services, AAA, 1050 Hingham Street, Rockland, MA 02370.

The Harvard-Smithsonian Center for Astrophysics will host two special free programs for elementary school-age children (adults are welcome, too) on consecutive Friday evenings, April 4 and 11, featuring a popular astronomy lecture and telescopic observing.

James Cornell, Public Affairs Officer at the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory, will present the talk, "So Long Halley: A Fond Farewell to a Famous Visitor," at 7:00 p.m. and again at 8:15 p.m. each night. Each lecture will be followed by telescopic observing on the roof of the observatory complex, weather permitting. On view will be the moon, Venus, and several star clusters. (Unfortunately, Comet Halley will not be visible; it rises in the pre-dawn sky.)

Admission to the programs is free, but seating is limited and advance tickets are required. To obtain tickets for one show only, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to "Children's Night," Public Affairs Office, Center for Astrophysics, 60 Garden Street, Cambridge, MA 02138. Please specify the date and time of the lecture you wish to attend for assignments will be made for one lecture only, with a limit of four tickets per ap-

New England Doll, Miniature And Doll House Show

Japanese Dolls and pavilions of museum quality, valued at more than $15,000, will be exhibited at the 15th edition of the New England Doll, Miniature and Doll House Show and sale to be presented Sunday, March 23 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Danversport Yacht Club, 161 Elliot Street, Danvers.

Visitors will see lavish displays featuring new and antique dolls, miniatures, doll houses and accessories of every description. Exhibitors will answer questions and offer helpful hints with demonstrations for those planning to make items in miniature.

Millions of Americans have been caught up in collecting dolls, doll houses and miniatures. This is the fastest growing hobby in the United States, having edged out stamp collecting, and is now second only to coin collecting. Over 15 million Americans are engaged in crafting and collecting miniatures, according to Hobby Industry of America.

The show will help benefit the Handi-Kids program of Bridgewater, which provides assistance to hospitals and other agencies by donating funds and equipment. Organized recreational programs give the youngsters social, cultural and educational opportunities.

Admission is $2.75 for adults and 75 cents for children. For further show information, telephone 532-0606.

Directions to reach Danversport Yacht Club are: take Route 128 North to Exit 22-East to Route 62.

Food Stamp Information Available Via Toll-Free Number

The Massachusetts State Department of Public Welfare has contracted with Boston's Project Bread Hunger Hotline to support the Food Stamp Information Program, sponsored by the Advertising Council. A toll-free 800 number is now staffed from the Project Bread Hunger Hotline office to handle inquiries from the residents of Massachusetts about the Food Stamp Program. Low-income households not currently receiving food stamp benefits should call the Food Stamp Hotline to find out if they are eligible.

The Hotline is expected to serve a tremendous need for information on how to access the Food Stamp Program. The Department of Public Welfare estimates that 30 to 50% of the potentially eligible population in Massachusetts is not participating in the program primarily because of the lack of information on application procedures and eligibility requirements. The assistance provided by the toll-free number will help thousands of low-income families access the Food Stamp Program and the nutrition assistance they need.

The Food Stamp Hotline number is 1-800-645-8333.
