CLT Fails To Send Representative To Question 3 Forum

by Kathy Giordano
The staff of the John F. Kennedy Family Service Center set out six weeks ago to plan a public forum that would provide information to residents on both sides of the controversial Question 3 referendum that will appear on the Nov. 6 election ballot. Citizens For Limited Taxation, sponsors of the referendum question, and Campaign For Massachusetts' Future, the prime opposition to the question, were contacted at that time. Representatives of both organizations confirmed the Oct. 30 date for the forum and committed that a speaker would be present.

Monument Properties

WHEN DO YOU LOWER YOUR ASKING PRICE?

Your house has been on the market for three weeks. You've had no nibbles from buyers. You're beginning to have some nagging doubts that you may have priced the property too optimistically. You want to sell for as much as you can get, but even more important, you want to sell!

This is the time to sit down with your Realtor for a serious conversation about what to do. Remember that while price is a major factor, it's not the only consideration. Are you making your house easy for agents to show? Have you completed the necessary fix-ups and clean-ups so your property is as appealing as possible? If you have, a price reduction may be in order. Review with your agent the current market conditions and the prices of other homes in your neighborhood. Is yours competitive, or is the marketplace telling you that buyers just don't want to pay what you're asking? If all indications point to a price reduction, it's better to do it sooner than later.

For solid advice on buying or selling real estate, consult the professionals at Monument Properties. Please call us at 241-5900 or stop by our offices at 85 Warren St., Charlestown.

• Welcome Back . . . to Barbara Goodwin who's back at her duties at Store 24. Good to see you back!

• Question? . . . Who were those six "Unsung Heroes" in Hayes Square on Tuesday night? They'll remain unsung, so I'll never tell! (Sorry, Bob Wallace!)

• Birthday Wishes . . . go out this week to Rosemary Chaisson of Pleasant Street, Everett Thompson of Cordis Street, Fran Smith of High Street, Tom White of Mt. Vernon Street, Ryan Stillman of Tibbetts Town Way, Roberta Byington of Newworld Bank, Jay Ash of Rep. Richard Voke's office, Lorraine Connolly of the Coffee Shop, Karen Giordano of Cordis Street and last, but never least, Rev. Henry Gallagher of Prescott Street . . . Have a wonderful year, folks!

• Tennis, No-one . . . That's how it is at the courts at Bunker Hill Community College after vandals totally destroyed four tennis nets last week. These courts were used by college students as part of the school programs and by community residents on weekends. There is no money in the budget to replace the nets. College students, residents, including many youngsters learning the game, will have to go elsewhere (?) for practice. If you have any information on this act of vandalism, please call Peter Saitta, Student Activities Office, 241-8600 ext. 261 or 262.

• Complaints Have Been Unanswered . . . by the 24-Hour Emergency Hot Line for the Boston Housing Authority. Residents of the Bunker Hill Development have been sweltering by the excessive heat in their apartments, compounded by the constant noise of clanging pipes . . . There are no valves in the units to regulate or shut off the heat. Reports are that calls being made to the Hot Line are either handled by rude, abrasive BHA personnel or the phone is not answered at all! Stay tuned! Judy Evers is on their case!

• We Must Be Doing Something Right . . . because we ruffled some feathers this past week! Accusations that the Patriot is receiving a "government subsidy" because of our stance against Question 3/CLT . . . and "we're in bed" with political types . . . have resulted in many a chuckle. We don't and we aren't! For those who might think it's a possibility, you couldn't have been reading the Patriot for any length of time.

• Mothers' Dreams Becomes Daughters' Reality . . . When St. Clement's High School, Somerville, chose their Homecoming Queen and her Court and none other than Jennifer Gill of Short Street as Queen and Shannon Lawler of Mead Street, a member of her Court. Jennifer is the daughter of Jim and Ann Gill. Shannon is the daughter of Helen and Joe Lawler . . . The rest of the story . . . Mothers Ann and Helen have been friends for eons and always wanted to win similar titles! Oh well, ladies, you'll always be regal in our eyes!

• Great Time Was Had By All . . . who attended the Bunker Hill Associates fundraiser at the K. of C. last Friday night. The 50s night brought out traditional costumes and dancing from the era plus the sounds of Roy Orbison by Pat Benti and the Sha-Boom Band. Great evening! . . . Next time you see Tom Cunha, ask him to show you his "hand puppets!" Tom did a great job substituting for the otherwise detained Peter Looney (who was at the ABCD Award Dinner) orchestrating the evening's activities. He even came prepared to entertain the crowd. (We're all thankful, the need never arose!)

• Congrats . . . to Peter Looney as the 1990 recipient of the ABCD award for his service to the community of Charlestown. Peter received his award at a dinner last Friday night that was attended by many Charlestown business persons, friends and family members — all on hand to wish him well . . . as we do, Peter!

• Grinch Report . . . It is now 54 days and counting 'til Christmas! Not one Charlestown Navy Yard business person has come forward to contribute even $1 toward the price of a Christmas tree. Not one office, public or private, has put a tin cup out for its employees to drop loose pocket change in. We're not asking for anyone to contribute the total cost of the tree (which one resident of the Yard did last year). It would be nice to hear that SOME effort was being made to add a little Christmas spirit to that end of the universe!

Revised Central Artery Scheme Z To Be Outlined At Public Meeting

A change in the plans for the ramps connecting the Central Artery/Third Harbor Tunnel roadway project with the Tobin Bridge and I-93 were seen publicly for the first time on Oct. 29 at a North Area Task Force open house. The series of interchanges, known as Scheme Z, would be located to the south of the present Rutherford Avenue and connect to the Central Artery tunnels.

At the request of community residents, representatives of the Massachusetts Department of Public Works will be in Charlestown on Thursday, Nov. 15 for a 7 p.m. meeting in the upper hall of the Knights of Columbus on 75 West School St.

In the latest design by the MDPW, a ramp from Traverse Street in the North Station area of Boston has been eliminated from the plan. This ramp would have taken traffic from the Central Artery tunnel over the Charles River, and by a series of loop connections would have allowed the traffic to reach the approach of the Tobin Bridge and/or Route I-93 north.

Under the new design, and with the elimination of this ramp, traffic would go through Keaney Square, over the North Washington Street Bridge and into City Square. From there cars would continue down Rutherford Avenue. Drivers wishing to reach the Tobin Bridge would go to the Austin Street turnaround where they would reverse direction and take a right onto the ramp system. Those wishing to go north on I-93 would continue on Rutherford Avenue to the present entrance onto that roadway on the Somerville side of Sullivan Square.

A preliminary discussion on the number of vehicles affected by this ramp indicated that the volume in the North Station area would be expected to reach at least 2,000 cars per hour at peak hours. The MDPW estimates that three-fourths of that traffic would travel in various directions, with one-fourth, or 500+ cars an hour, taking the City Square route.

Also, it was brought out at Monday night's gathering that hazardous cargoes, which will not be able to use the Central Artery tunnel, would be forced to use community streets to reach a Tobin Bridge or a I-93 north destination.

According to Stephen Collins, community liaison for the project, the new plan reduces the number of spans over the Charles River from four to three. In addition, the 18 pilings in the river with the original plan would be reduced to six.

MDPW Commissioner Jane Garvey stated that the plan for the interchanges has posed a "classic dilemma for the transportation project." She said that if the agency wants to make traffic improvements, it has to deal with environmental issues.

Garvey said that environmentalists, the Coast Guard and several Charlestown residents asked for a reduction in the number of river crossings at the MDPW's public hearings. She said that the new plan would be better environmentally, but admitted that "it does create traffic issues for City Square."

According to Garvey, there frequently has to be a "trade off on environmental and transportation issues," and she feels that the revised plan offers a "good solid compromise and improves traffic in City and

Keaney Squares."

Garvey added that the MDPW is "willing to mitigate" (continued on page 16)

Please Vote 'No' . . .

LIFE FOCUS CENTER CLIENTS ask for a NO vote on the CLT Question 3 on the Nov. 6 election ballot — they can't survive anymore funding cuts.

I would like to take this opportunity to express my "sincere thanks" to all of my customers and friends for their cards and letters of encouragement during my recent illness. Your kind thoughts were very much appreciated and I will always remember them.

"Thanks again" very much and hope to see you all soon.

"In just four years, JOE KENNEDY has accomplished more than most Congressmen can manage in a decade."
 — Congressman Joe Moakley

AFFORDABLE HOUSING
 Joe has carried the fight to create more affordable housing for the Eighth District — and the nation — by:

- Passing the first major new housing program in ten years, which will provide $300 million for innovative, public-private partnerships needed to create more housing.
- Passing legislation to keep more than 300,000 units of affordable housing around the country — including 17,000 in Massachusetts alone — from being converted to luxury condominiums and expensive rentals.

THE TAXPAYER'S INTEREST
 Joe Kennedy has been a leader in fighting against special interests and for the interests of moderate-income taxpayers, by:

- Proposing legislation to make wealthy individuals and corporations pay their fair share of the S and L bailout now, rather than saddling two generations of taxpayers with that enormous debt.
- Demanding that Germany and Japan pay their share of the costs of defending democracy around the globe.

CIVIL RIGHTS AND HUMAN RIGHTS
 Joe has shown his leadership in the fight for civil rights at home and human rights abroad, by:

- Passing historic legislation that forces banks and other lenders to reveal their lending practices in our neighborhoods — a step that will free up billions for investment and home ownership in minority and moderate-income communities.
- Resisting the move to ease up on sanctions against the white minority government of South Africa, and forcing the British government to confront and change the realities of anti-Catholic discrimination in Northern Ireland.

CHILDREN
 Joe Kennedy knows that our kids are our future — and he's been fighting for them by:

- Authoring the recently passed Young Americans Act, which requires the government to devise a comprehensive plan for the needs of young Americans — including the critical problems of youthful drug abuse and truancy — and sets up model programs to help youngsters in local communities.
- Writing the legislation that established National Children's Day — a day to focus our attention on the needs of the next generation.

THE ENVIRONMENT
 Joe Kennedy has fought to improve — and preserve — the quality of our environment by:

- Proposing landmark legislation to combat indoor air pollution — which has been identified by the EPA as one of the nation's most serious environmental problems.
- Writing the law that helps cut energy costs in public housing.

EDUCATION
 Joe pushed hard to create innovative programs to improve our educational system, including:

- Proposing major legislation to allow taxpayers to deduct the interest paid on their college loans.
- Passing The Nursing Education Partnership Act, which teams up the federal government with local hospitals to sponsor nursing scholarships for inner-city students — a plan that benefits hospitals now facing a nursing shortage, and inner-city kids looking for a brighter future.

VETERANS
 Joe Kennedy's shown that he's a leader in the ongoing fight for the rights of our nation's veterans by:

- Going to the mat to save the Boston VA Outpatient Clinic and relocate it to a new, modern facility — and turning the old clinic into a shelter for homeless veterans.
- Pushing for the passage of the Comprehensive Services Program for Homeless Veterans, which will provide $400 million for health care, job training and housing.

THE NEEDS OF THE EIGHTH DISTRICT
 Joe Kennedy has been a problem-solver — working hard to address the crucial everyday needs of the Eighth District, by:

- Saving more than 100 jobs at Waltham Clock, Inc., by preventing the Pentagon from unfairly shifting a major contract to an out-of-state firm.
- Securing $27 million for the Clarendon Hill and Mystic housing developments in Somerville.
- Landing needed federal money to pay for sound-proofing schools in East Boston, safeguarding schoolchildren from deafening airport noise.
- Opposing the assault on Medicare contained in this year's budget resolution — a plan that would have had a devastating effect on the district's senior citizens.

Vote for JOE KENNEDY on November 6.

This year there is one thing the Globe & the Herald agree on:

Tom Birmingham will be a great State Senator!

Tom Birmingham is the only candidate for the legislature in Massachusetts to be supported by both major daily newspapers.

—The Boston Herald

"In the Senate district that includes Charlestown, Revere, Everett and Chelsea, labor lawyer Tom Birmingham has developed a keen sense of the problems facing these working-class communities. He will be an effective advocate for the state aid needed to sustain local government in the district."

constitutional provision that a state census be taken and used as the basis for determining state representative, senatorial and councillor districts. The proposed constitutional amendment would provide that the federal census shall be the basis of determining such districts.

Question 2

LAW PROPOSED BY INITIATIVE PETITION

Do you approve of a law summarized below, on which no vote was taken by the Senate or House of Representatives before May 2, 1990?

SUMMARY

The proposed law would place restrictions on the state's use of consultants. It would place various limits on the amount of profit, overhead charges and expenses that the state could pay consultants. It would limit the duration of consultant contracts to two years and any extension to one year, and it would limit the degree to which such contracts could be changed to require payments in excess of the original contract. The proposed law would limit to $100,000 the amount the state could pay on a consultant contract with an individual and would require all other consultant contracts in excess of $25,000 to be sought through competitive bidding. It would prohibit consultants from supervising state employees, and it would limit the use of consultants as substitutes for state employee positions.

In addition, the proposed law would place limits on the total amount of money state agencies, departments and authorities could spend on consultants each year. Subsidiary provisions would also establish a method for these entities to gradually come into compliance with the new spending limits and would give authority to the State Secretary of Administration and Finance, on request, to permit some spending in excess of the new limits. The proposed law would also require state agencies, departments and authorities as well as the Secretary of Administration and Finance to submit yearly reports concerning the state's consultant contracts to certain legislative committees and to the Inspector General.

Finally, the proposed law provides that any of its provisions, if found by a court to be unconstitutional or otherwise unlawful, would be severed from the law and the remaining provisions would continue in effect.

Question 3

LAW PROPOSED BY INITIATIVE PETITION

Do you approve of a law summarized below, on which no vote was taken by the Senate or the House of Representatives before May 2, 1990?

SUMMARY

This proposed law would change the state income tax rate, affect language contained in certain tax provisions, and regulate the setting of fees by state agencies and authorities.

The proposed law would set the state income tax rate on Part B taxable income (in general, earned income) at 4.25% for 1991 and 4.625% for 1992, except for income from unemployment compensation, alimony, Massachusetts bank interest, rental income, pension and annuity income, and IRA/Keogh deductions, which would be taxed at 5%.

The proposed law also provides that the fee imposed by any state agency or authority shall be no more than the fee that was in effect on or before June 30, 1988. The state Secretary of Administration would determine the amount to be charged for any service, registration, regulation, license, fee, permit or other public function, except for the rates of tuition or fees at state colleges and universities or any fees or charges relative to the administration and operation of the state courts. Any increase or decrease in a fee, or the establishment of any new fee, would require the approval of the Legislature. Any increase in a fee would not apply to persons 65 years of age or older. No state agency or authority could collect any fee which exceeds the administrative costs directly incurred by the state agency or authority to produce and process the application for any license or permit. The Secretary of Administration must report information concerning fees to the Legislature on an annual basis.

The proposed law provides that for tax periods commencing on or after January 1, 1991, language in certain provisions of the Massachusetts general laws relating to taxes shall be the same as it was on August 2, 1989, or the effective date of the proposed law, whichever language yields less tax revenue. The tax provisions affected include sections relating to the surtax on business income, corporate excise taxes, S corporation taxes, taxes on security corporations, taxes on Part A income (in general, unearned income), bank taxes, excise taxes on alcoholic beverages and cigarettes, excise taxes on deeds, estate taxes, payments to the Commonwealth relating to boxing and sparring matches, taxes on utility companies, gasoline taxes, taxes on insurance companies, excise taxes on motor vehicles, taxes on urban redevelopment corporations, sales tax, use tax, room occupancy excise tax, property taxes, and taxes on proceeds from raffles and bazaars.

The proposed law also contains a provision that if any sections of the law are held to be invalid, all other sections of the law are to remain in effect.

Question 4

LAW PROPOSED BY INITIATIVE PETITION

Do you approve of a law summarized below, on which no vote was taken by the Senate or House of Representatives before May 2, 1990?

SUMMARY

This proposed law would change the state election law governing the establishment of political parties and the nomination of candidates.

The proposed law would allow voters to register under the political designation other than "Independent" and in addition to the two political parties previously recognized by law (Republican or Democrat), if at least fifty voters request to be permitted to do so. It would allow any group to qualify as a political party under Massachusetts law if at least one percent of the total number of registered voters register to vote using that group's political designation, or if at least three percent of the votes cast at the preceding election for any statewide office were cast for a candidate running under that group's political designation.

The proposed law would set the minimum number of signatures needed on independent or minor party nomination papers for state office at one-half of one percent (1/2%) of the entire vote cast in the previous state election for governor (as compared to 2% as of 1989), and would also establish this number of signatures as the upper limit needed for major party candidates. The proposed law would also permit voters to sign the nomination papers of any number of candidates for the same office, would require that all blank forms to be used for nomination papers and initiative and referendum petitions be no more than 8 1/2" by 14" in size, and would allow signatures to be collected on exact copies of those forms.

Question 5

LAW PROPOSED BY INITIATIVE PETITION

Do you approve of a law summarized below, on which no vote was taken by the Senate or the House of Representatives before May 2, 1990?

SUMMARY

This proposed law would regulate the distribution to cities and towns of the Local Aid Fund, which consists of at least 40% of the revenue generated by the state income, sales, and corporate taxes, as well as the balance of the State Lottery Fund.

Subject to appropriation by the legislature, the State Treasurer would distribute the Local Aid Fund to cities and towns on a quarterly basis, and each city or town would receive at least the same amount of local aid it received in the previous fiscal year unless the total Local Aid Fund decreases.

In fiscal year 1992, if there has been any increase over the fiscal year 1989 fund, half of the increase would be distributed in accordance with the distribution formula used for fiscal year 1989, and half would be distributed to each city and town in proportion to its population.

In each year after 1992, if the fund increases, the excess would be distributed through a formula devised by the state Secretary of Administration and Finance, with the advice and consent of the Local Government Advisory Committee. If the fund decreases after 1992, each town or city will have the amount it receives decreased by the same percentage.

This proposed law also requires that the Treasurer publish an annual report about the Local Aid Fund, that the state Auditor publish an annual audit of the Account, and that the Secretary of Administration and Finance issue to each city and town an estimate of funds it will receive from the Local Aid Fund.

Each city or town would be allowed to bring a lawsuit to force distribution of the account, and would be entitled to a late payment fee if distribution is not timely.

Charlestown Against Drugs

Fact-Not-Fiction Day Nov. 10

All Charlestown 6- to 12-year-olds are invited to participate in an upcoming Charlestown Against

Drugs Fact-Not-Fiction Day on Saturday, Nov. 10 from 1 to 5 p.m. at the Charlestown Boys & Girls

Club, 15 Green St. After an afternoon of fun workshops, raffles and entertainment, the children are invited back from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. for a dance, free to those who attended the workshops.

During the day by participating in workshops, children will learn about self-esteem, how to deal with anger and how to stay away from drugs and alcohol. Peer Leaders and other trained residents will lead the workshops, which will be fun and informative, in hopes of helping smaller children with some of their big choices.

Starting at 1 p.m. youngsters will be welcomed to the Club and directed toward their workshops, which will be divided into two age groups, 6- to 9-year-olds and 10- to 12-year-olds. Each age group will attend three workshops at 1:15, 3 and 4 p.m. In between there will be prizes raffled, a magic show by performer Peter Gross, a snack and a chance to help create a giant poster. A balloon launch will end the day at 5 p.m. when each child can send up their own drug-free message from the Club courtyard.

Send your children to learn, and enjoy the day and a dance. An exact schedule of the day's events and workshops will appear in next week's Patriot. The members of CHAD are looking forward to a great day and your participation.

★ 11 Park St. — The Massachusetts Department of Public Works started to raze the building at 11 Park St. on Saturday, Oct. 27 after engineers found the structure to be unstable and determined that damage to the adjacent home might occur.

Central Artery/North Area (CANA) officials state that the demolition project had to be undertaken with particular care when the contractor found that the houses at 11 and 13 Park St. shared a common fire wall and fire escape. A good portion of the structure was removed manually. Only minor disruptions to the traffic flow on Park Street resulted from the demolition project.

MDPW will repoint the external wall of 13 Park St. and replace its fire escape as part of the demolition contract. No damage, other than the external wall, has been seen at 13 Park St.

According to MDPW spokesman John McDermott, the foundation of 11 Park St. will be kept to stabilize number 13. "The floor will be removed," he said, "and a search will be made for voids in the ground to determine the structural soundness of the area." McDermott stated that the foundation of 11 Park St. will then be filled with gravel and topped off with clay to ground level.

The parcel of land, now owned by the MDPW, will become part of the overall City Square land use project, McDermott said, concluding, "The future of the lot will be determined by the community after the CANA project is completed in open discussions between residents, the MDPW and the Boston Redevelopment Authority."

GOING, GOING, GONE! The house at 11 Park St. was razed this week after structural damage from the CANA project cause its foundation to shift.

★ MWRA — The Massachusetts Water Resources Authority will be conducting valve testing and replacement work on the water distribution system in Charlestown during the week of Nov. 5. This work may result in rusty water or a decrease in water pressure.

★ Kennedy Center — Nomination papers for the upcoming Kennedy Center Board of Directors election must be returned by Monday, Nov. 5 at 5 p.m. at the center, 27 Winthrop St. Seats are open on the board for representatives in Precincts 1, 3, 6 and 7.

The election will take place on Tuesday, Nov. 13 from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the Kennedy Center.

★ Police Complaints — An officer from the Boston Police Department's Internal Affairs Office will be on hand every Tuesday between 9 and 11 a.m. at the Charlestown Community School, 255 Medford St., to hear citizen complaints about uniformed Boston police officers. If you have a complaint against a particular police officer, drop by and let them know. All complaints will be investigated.

CLT Fails To Send Representative To Question 3 Forum

Last week, the Campaign For Massachusetts' Future told Denise Monks, community advocate for the Kennedy Center, that Tom Gallagher would represent its "no" position at the forum.

Late Monday afternoon, the day before the forum, a representative of Citizens For Limited Taxation informed Monks that no one would be available to speak to the community on behalf of Question 3.

The Question 3 public forum at the Kent Community School went on as scheduled this past Tuesday — without the presence of a CLT representative.

Moderator of the forum was Gloria Conway, publisher of The Charlestown Patriot. The guest speaker, representing the Campaign For Massachusetts' Future, the prime opponent of the petition, was Gallagher, former state Representative from the Allston/Brighton district.

Gallagher outlined some of the aspects of the referendum question. He stated that if the CLT petition passed, an estimated $6 billion would be cut from the state's budget over the next two and a half years. The cuts for the last half of the present Fiscal Year 1991 would go into effect in January and would equal $1.26 billion, with the cuts for Fiscal Year 1992 amounting to $2.8 billion, and in Fiscal Year 1993, the cut would be $2.3 billion. The petition, he said, does not outline where the cuts would be made, only that the state Legislature would make the decisions.

Gallagher stated that non-discretionary budget items cannot be touched by CLT-mandated cuts. Included in the category of non-discretionary spending are programs mandated by federal or state law, signed contracts, state bonds, pensions, Medicaid, SSI and negotiated employee benefits. These categories, he (continued on page 17) good many prizes for all to win. There will be a surprise visit from Santa, who will be on hand to welcome the children and will be available for pictures. There will also be a large variety of foods and refreshments.

A major drawing with prizes of $500, $200 and $100 will be held.

The proceeds from this annual drawing and Bazaar will be used to benefit the Parish School, enabling the purchase of needed books and materials, and enriching the many school programs.

Many children from Charlestown attend Little Flower School, and will be around the neighborhood over the next few weeks selling chances for the drawing. Tickets are only $1 each or $5 for a book of six. Residents are asked to support these children who are working very hard to help their school.

Tours of the school will also be offered on Saturdays, Nov. 1 and Dec. 1 and 15. Parents are requested to call to reserve time.

St. Francis De Sales Highlights . . .

The fourth annual school Walk-A-Thon on Oct. 21 was a huge success. To date, $6,246 has been raised for the school as a result of this fund raiser.

The four top winners who signed up the largest number of Walk-A-Thon sponsors are: First prize - Joseph Murphy, grade 4, who won $100 donated by Boston City Councillor Robert Travaglini; second prize - John McAteer, grade 6, who won $50 donated by St. Francis de Sales School Parents' Club; third prize - Jennifer Murray, grade 1, who won $25 donated by Carmen Merlino of High Pharmacy, Inc.; fourth prize - Lisa Fratalia, grade 7, who won $25 donated by Judy Evers.

The students of St. Francis de Sales are currently conducting their annual Cookie Drive. This fund raiser and the annual Walk-A-Thon are the only school-sponsored events held during the year to raise funds for the school by the students.

Cookies can be purchased from the students or by calling the school office at 242-4636.

The St. Francis de Sales Parents' Club is sponsoring a Thousand Pounds of Turkey Raffle to benefit the school. Tickets are $1 each or a book of six for $5.

Here We Goal Again

by Bob DeCristoforo
It really doesn't seem that long ago that I stood in the Joe Louis Arena watching Wisconsin celebrate its championship victory over Boston College and thinking to myself that I would be back celebrating with a team in the near future.

Flying home from Detroit last March I even mentioned to the Boston College tour director that the 1991 NCAA Division I Ice Hockey Championship would be taking place in St. Paul, Minn.

Well the near future is here. Preseason polls have picked last year's semi-finalists Boston University and Boston College number one and number two.

At Boston College the "Haul to Paul" is about to begin, and at Boston University the "Victory Tour" is already underway.

Once again "Charles-

An Afternoon Of Rollerskating

An afternoon of rollerskating is being planned for all Charlestown youngsters and teens on Friday, Nov. 23, the day after Thanksgiving.

town Pride" will be an important factor on the road to the final four. We have two more fine young men to follow down the '91 road, two young men, of whom we are very proud.

Senior Sean Farley will be wearing Number 21 for the Maroon and Gold of Boston College.

Freshman Keith Tkachuk will be wearing Number 24 for the Red and White of Boston University.

The home openers for the two schools will be this weekend. On Friday, Nov. 2 at 7 p.m., Vermont will come to Boston College, and on Saturday, Nov. 3 at 7 p.m., Colgate will play at Boston University.

Tkachuk Watch . . .

Keith Tkachuk scored two goals as BU defeated RPI 9 to 7 in its road opener. Tkachuk's second goal broke a 6 to 6 tie at 3:10 of the third period.

The cost of the skating outing is $5 per person which includes transportation, skates and admission. Tickets are now on sale at St. Catherine's Rectory, 49 Vine St., and at St. Catherine's School.

All public and parochial school students are welcome. Parents are invited to join in also.

Football Commissioner's Report

by Bob DeCristoforo
Flag Football Commissioner, not League Director, Paul Martell neither confirmed nor denied the report that league legend Dan Ryan had been officially traded. However, one league coach used the word "trader" rather than "traded" when discussing Ryan's status.

Commissioner Martell did deny vigorously that the shortened playing surface was requested by his officiating staff. Members of the staff, affectionately dubbed the "Buster Douglas Trio," include Pat Considine, John Ezekiel and the commissioner, himself!

Huskies Pop Warner Football Update

The Everett Huskies Pop Warner Football teams continued in league action this week, recording two wins, one tie and one loss.

The D Team continues to build a future for the Huskies with a real character builder against East Boston. The Huskies' offense put together a drive late in the second quarter behind the blocking of Jim Kane, Matt Currier, Justin Violette, Ray Brown, George Myers, Dave O'Brien and Dan Milliken. Together with the running of Nick Nazzaro and Mark DeBenedetto, they moved the ball to the three-yard line where Currier and Myers blew open a hole for DeBenedetto to score. The Huskies' defense, John Hickey, Brendan Flanagan, Bill Henry, Milliken, Kane, Mike Coppenrath, Nazzaro, DeBenedetto, Mike Sprague, Jim Rabideau and Brian Nee, held on until faced with a goal-line stance late in the fourth quarter. East Boston scored on third and goal. The D Teamers were driving inside their 30 when time ran out. The final was Everett 6, East Boston 6.

The C Team came out and dominated East Boston with a complete team effort led by co-captain Joey Siracuse along with Eric Burns, Derek Soper, Steve Silva, Dan O'Brien, Jim Milliken, Joe Paoletta, Shaun Spaulding, Tim Warren, Vinny Rutigliano, Eric Costin, Marc Jagiello, Anthony Nazzaro, Nick DeBenedetto, Rich Lecsese, Art Cameron and Rich Gardino. The touchdowns were scored by Spaulding, DeBenedetto, Costin and O'Brien on a beautiful pass by Nazzaro. Siracuse scored on a PAT. The defense played another well-disciplined game, giving up only six points. The final was Everett 27, East Boston 6.

Everett's B Team continued its winning ways with a 19 to 6 victory over East Boston. The first quarter defense of both teams held each other off the scoreboard. Everett opened scoring in the second quarter with Paul Allen going four yards for a touchdown. The key play was a fumble recovery by Chad Matthews at Everett's four-yard line and the PAT from Anthony Moreschi to Matthews was good. East Boston came back with a 25-yard touchdown to close the half, Everett 7, East Boston 6. The third quarter was scoreless. Early in the fourth quarter, Allen scored on a 25-yard touchdown. Allen closed out the scoring with a 40-yard touchdown. A key play was an interception by Robert DiFurmullo. The final was Everett 19, Eastie 6.

The A Team ran up against a powerful East Boston team and they were unable to contain the GBL Champs. Everett was held scoreless until late in the fourth quarter when C.J. Farmer scored to make the final 34-6. The A Team will have a chance to regroup next week when the Huskies play host to their traditional rivals, Chelsea, at Everett Stadium starting at 9:15 a.m. on Sunday, Nov. 4. This will be an action-packed day as victories for either Everett's C or B team will give them the GBL Championship outright.

Also reaching for glory was Craig Powers, 6. Bowling on the Bunker Hill Florist team, he chalked up a great 81 string. All of the kids are showing great improvement in both their ability and form.

Owens Stars In Dorchester Basketball Debut

by Bob DeCristoforo

The 33 points scored by Johnathan Owens were a key factor as the Grey Ghosts defeated the Pink Panthers in the opening game of the William Bulger Dorchester Youth Basketball League.

The league, directed by Tommy Egan, is comprised of six teams and plays at Little House in Dorchester on Sunday afternoons.

Owens, a 15-and-under Boston Neighborhood Basketball League All Star, is the only Charlestown player in the league. You might say Owens is spreading Charlestown around, and Dorchester is the first stop.

He not only was the top scorer for his team, but he was also the top scorer of the day.

One of the concerns that residents expressed at last Monday night's gathering was the lack of process.

Ken Stone, co-chairman of the NATF, commented that residents should have been in on plans for changes on Scheme Z from the start. He urged residents to plan to attend the Nov. 15 meeting to view the new plan, ask questions and voice concerns.

Collins said that he presently has a list of about 20 questions on the plan from area residents. He asks that if residents do have questions, they should call him at 951-6193 so that the issues can be addressed at the upcoming meeting.

Hurley Asks Dukakis For Judicial Appointment Moratorium

Attorney Daniel G. Hurley, Democratic nominee for Governor's Councillor has asked Governor Michael Dukakis to declare a moratorium on Judicial appointments for the remainder of the year.

There are 15 Judicial nominations pending before the Governor's Council, with as many as 23 more anticipated, before Governor Dukakis leaves office on January 3 of the coming year.

Hurley stated that "Dukakis and his staff have allowed a bad political situation to deteriorate into a statewide disgrace. The Governor's office has created a process that breeds political deals. When months are allowed to pass before requesting a vote on a qualified nomination, something is very wrong."

Hurley, who defeated longtime Councillor "JoJo" Langone in the Democratic primary on September 18, feels that change in the Judicial nomination process is long overdue. Hurley stated: "Decent, hard-working taxpayers have lost faith in a process that has no credibility and has become only an echo chamber for the ramblings and mumblings of Governor's Councillors as they occupy themselves with the pursuit of their personal deals."

DAN HURLEY

"The Constitution allows the Governor to assemble Councillors at any time for the purpose of conducting state business. Dukakis has chosen to look the other way as Councillors refuse to perform their public duty," continued Hurley.

Hurley also stated that "Dukakis has gone out of his way to avoid confrontation of any sort with the Councillors in the hope of gaining favorable votes from the Councillors in last minute appointments of his staff and friends in the closing days of his administration."

Hurley labeled the current delays in the Council as "unprecedented and unforgivable." He said, "Oaths of office are being ignored and it is time that the legal establishment recognize their responsibility and focus on just what this group of elected Governor Councillors are stalling and what it is they are looking for."

"Let's Make A Deal is a great name for a TV show, but it cannot be tolerated as a motto in the Governor's Council," Hurley said. "Until public confidence can be restored, this disgraceful process should be closed down!" said Hurley.

Paid for by the Committee to Elect Hurley Governor's Councillor.

Government programs funded through discretionary spending that could be faced with budget cuts include: elderly services, homemakers, hot meals, Medicaid eligibility and benefits, higher education, child care, bridge and road repair and the correctional system, to name a few. Gallagher also stated that an average annual cut to local aid to cities and towns could range between 35 and 40 percent. The biggest budget cuts would be felt in human service fields, he said.

Gallagher stated that Boston would lose 15 percent of its budget from the CLT-mandated cutbacks. "The mayor has announced that he would not cut back in police and fire service. This leaves other city services to feel the bite of a 23 percent across-the-board cut."

"There's an impression going around that the legislature and government got crazy," Gallagher stated, "it got out of hand, out of control." He said that the chaos that the state finds itself in now is a result of several factors, including cutbacks in federal reimbursements to the state since 1981 and the passage of Proposition 2½ in 1980 that forced cities and towns to reduce property tax rates. According to Gallagher, the state bailed out the cities and towns to make up the lost revenue thus local aid went from $880 million in 1981 to $2.53 billion in 1989 — a 98 percent increase.

He added that the state's fiscal problems were compounded with the $1.7 billion increase in the state's budget going to cities and towns, the cut in reimbursements from the federal government and the fact that when the state was riding on top of an economic crest and unemployment was low, the state reduced taxes resulting in $739 million less in annual revenue.

Gallagher quoted a bumper sticker he spotted that put Question 3 into focus. It said: "I'm mad, too — But I'm not crazy. Vote No on Question 3."

He admitted to being frustrated with the performance on Beacon Hill, but added that Question 3 is "a totally ill-advised blanket approach" to solve the current problems facing the state. "If Question 3 passes on Nov. 6, it's law. It can be thrown out by a court judgement, but that's unlikely. It can be overturned by another referendum, but that will take two years. It can only be changed by the legislature," he said. "They didn't touch Prop 2½," he added, "we might have to live with this for a long time."

The savings that the average taxpayer would realize, according to the Department of Revenue would be: a married couple making $20,000 a year would save $241 the first year, $153 the second year and $114 the third year. A married couple making $50,000 a year would save $795 the first year, $507 the second year and $308 the third year.

Gallagher stated: "If you look at it, the average taxpayer would save between $2 and $6 per week. Look at what is affected and what's it worth. The $6 you'll save a week does not equal the services lost."

Gallagher ended the forum by stating: "Question 3 is not a responsible answer to the problems of Massachusetts. Vote No — and then let us proceed to mandate change. Question 3 would be a ridiculous derailment of the process of state government that will shape Massachusetts into the 21st century."

Merritt To Perform At Homeless Benefit

Agent 99, an alternative pop-rock band featuring Charlestown resident Margaret Merritt, will perform in a Nov. 3 "Anti-Freeze Jam" for the homeless at Bunratty's in Allston. The event, co-sponsored by Bunratty's and Krash and Burn Productions, will bring together 21 bands and nearly 100 musicians to raise funds to keep fewer people from freezing on Boston's streets this winter.

Merritt, Agent 99's keyboard player/backup vocalist, along with fellow bandmembers Nancy Brock of Arlington, Richard Marr of Allston and Quincy natives Sean Mullen and Mark Nigro, recently helped raise over $6,000 for the Muscular Dystrophy Association's B.A.D. (Bands Against Dystrophy) Rock-A-Thon. The group is continuing its support for good causes by becoming involved with special events like the Anti-Freeze Jam.

Merritt, who was both an organizer of and performer in the MDA event, says, "While we were promoting the Rock-A-Thon, we met children and adults afflicted with muscular dystrophy diseases. Having direct contact with those people reminded us that we had a purpose; we weren't just setting up equipment and singing songs, we were actually using our talents to affect others' lives. With the economy in decline, face-to-face encounters with the homeless are becoming, sadly, all too frequent. We hope our performance in the Jam, as with our participation in the Rock-A-Thon, will at least take an edge off people's suffering."

Lead singer/songwriter

MEMBERS of Agent 99 who will be appearing at Bunratty's in Allston on Nov. 3 in a benefit concert for the homeless, include Nancy Brock (center front) and (l. to r.) Margaret Merritt of Charlestown, Richard Marr, Mark Nigro and Sean Mullen.

Brock remarks that benefits are one of the few outlets bands have when it comes to charitable contributions. She says, "As musicians, we're constantly broke, and although that doesn't set us apart from the majority of the population, we're thankful we have at least our music to give." Speaking for the rest of the band, Nigro adds, "Music is an important and powerful way to reach people who wouldn't listen otherwise. We want our songs to speak to people."

Although Agent 99 is primarily a dance rock band featuring humorous, tongue-in-cheek pop tunes, the group has chosen to present its society-oriented songs Life on Earth, Strange World and Have Mercy at the benefit. Especially appropriate is Have Mercy, in which Brock expresses the painful plight of the homeless with words, "It's a cold night on the street/Gives me a fright/ Strangers walk by avoiding my eye/Empty inside/The cardboard box where I sleep/Keeps out the rain/No food to eat/No shoes for my feet/Have Mercy On Me."

Agent 99 will be joined by Boston area bands Ultra Blue, The Floating Boats, Womb to Tomb, Claude Rains, The Slaves, Hell Toupee, Red House, The Tats, The Walkers, The Allston Brothers, Grab

Daddy, Bleedin' Willy, Gangster Posse, members of Shoot That Dog and Dogzilla, and others.

Merritt encourages fellow Charlestown residents to support the homeless by attending the Anti-Freeze Jam on Saturday, Nov. 3 at Bunratty's, 186 Harvard St. in Allston. The event starts at 8 p.m. Proceeds will be donated to the Poor People's United Fund.

Thank You

Dear Gloria,

The members of the Charlestown Adolescent Task Force owe a great deal of thanks to firefighter Dave Johnson, the Engine 50 gang and the Charlestown Quality of Life Committee operating out of 108 Bunker Hill St. Dave Johnson offered the manpower to include our flier in last Saturday's town-wide flier drop to ensure that all information on Question 3 reached every home in Charlestown.

It was very clear that Dave had the interest of the entire community at heart when he offered the solution to our distribution difficulties. We all stand together on the subject of Question 3, and we are grateful for the generosity shown by the firefighters and all the men and women who included our flier in the drop.

Respectfully,

The Charlestown Adolescent Task Force

Successful Hike For Troop 2

by Fernando Laguarda
 Charlestown's Boy Scouts spent Saturday, Oct. 27 at Nobscott Reservation in Sudbury, Mass. Activities included compass work, games, a campfire and lunch high atop Lyman Rock. "The view was great," said new Scout Steve King. "We could even see the city way off in the distance."

The boys practiced orienteering by taking turns guiding the group through the woods. Campfire activities included making hot chocolate and "s'mores," and learning fire safety skills. "Our theme today was rough and ready," said Troop 2 Scoutmaster Peter Jones. Troop members made their own knapsacks, or "pants-packs," and traveled light. Along the way, Scouts began to plan November's outing, a weekend camping trip.

The Boy Scouts offer boys ages 11 to 17 the opportunity to camp, hike, explore the outdoors and develop leadership skills. Troop 2 is Charlestown's own troop, meeting Wednesday nights from 6 to 7:30 p.m. at Charlestown High School (entrance through the Community School on Medford Street). Weekly meetings provide an opportunity for the boys to learn new skills and plan future activities. "We're really looking forward to meeting anyone who's interested in joining or helping out the Troop," said Jones. "It's never too late to join!" Boys or their parents are encouraged to call Jones at 241-0425, or come to a regular meeting for more information.

If there are too many applications, you will be placed on a waiting list. Acts may be performed as a group or by individuals.

All Charlestown youth are eligible. There will be a time set aside the week before the contest for rehearsals in the auditorium so each act will feel comfortable and we may be sure the music chosen is acceptable.

Career Counselor To Speak At Charlestown Branch Library

"Reentering the Workforce" will be the topic for discussion at the Charlestown Branch Library's weekly Adults' Discussion Group at 10 a.m. on Friday, Nov. 2 at the library, 179 Main St.

Amy Mazur, a career counselor for the Women's Educational & Industrial Union in Boston, will focus on interviewing skills and procedures, including techniques for attaining and maintaining the skills necessary for a successful job search. "In any job market," Mazur points out, "the most successful job hunters are those individuals who are motivated, focused, energetic and persistent." A question and answer period will follow her presentation.

Mazur has been in her present position since 1987

Duties include all aspects of constituent casework, including intake, written correspondence and data entry. There are also internships available in the press and scheduling departments. In addition, all students will be required to participate in general office support work. Typing and data entry skills are a plus. Students must have an ability to deal with different types of people.

To arrange an interview, please call Deborah Anderson at 242-0200 or send your resume to: Deborah Anderson, District Representative, Office of Congressman Joseph P. Kennedy II, The Schrafft Center, Suite 605, 529 Main St., Charlestown, Mass. 02129.

Friends Of The Library To Present 'A Day In The Life Of A Music Critic'

The Friends of the Charlestown Branch Library are pleased to host Ellen Pfeifer, music critic for the Boston Herald, presenting "A Day in the Life of a Music Critic" on Thursday, Nov. 8 at 7:30 p.m. at the library, 179 Main St.

Pfeifer, formerly a music critic at the Boston Globe, has been with the Herald since 1972.

She received her undergraduate degree in journalism from Northwestern University, and her graduate degree in music history from the University of Southern California. She was a student fellow in The Project for Training Music Critics sponsored by the Rockefeller Foundation.

Her focus on journalism and music grew from her work on her high school newspaper and a family love of opera. Ellen and her husband, Attorney Dan Polvere, reside in Charlestown with their two daughters.

All are welcome at the program on Nov. 8 as Pfeifer helps to put us in a critic's shoes and to understand why they say the things they do. There will be a reception following the presentation.

Help Wanted, Jobs Needed

by Bob DeCristoforo

There are a lot of good, reliable young people from Charlestown who want to work.

For the past few weeks, I've walked around Boston with some of them in hopes of finding them a job. We've met with little success. Losing the JobStart program here in Charlestown has not helped matters either.

If you have a job to offer, please call me at the Bunker Hill Task Force Office. The number is 242-3200.

It is important to note that the young people who have come to me want to work. They have proven it just by the hours we have spent walking around town on some pretty cold days!

Short-Term Cuts Will Lead To Long-Term Increases

Dear Editor,

We are all being treated to a preview of what will happen if CLT's petition Question 3 is passed in November. With tax revenues spiraling downward and Wall Street threatening the state's borrowing capability, the Dukakis Administration hastily cut $450 million from this year's budget. Over the past few weeks, the heads of state departments have set about the grim process of implementing the cuts. No planning nor meaningful consideration of consequences has been possible given the size and pace of the process.

The decision to cut four area mental health centers in East Boston, Revere, Brookline and Allston/Brighton is a good case in point. A short term savings of a little more than $1 million will likely lead to future costs in excess of $10 million annually for hospitalizations and homelessness among the 5,000 mentally ill currently maintained by these outpatient centers.

By turning back the revenue clock, CLT's Question 3 would require a cut of $2.3 billion over a 12-month period — five times the amount currently being cut by the governor. As taxpayers read the news over the next few weeks about the mindless and tragic impact of a hasty $450 million cut, I urge them to think long and hard about voting for Question 3.

Thank You To Post 26

Dear Sir:

Today, Oct. 13, I received a letter from my son, Gy/Sgt. Stephen Driscoll, USMC, who has had 16 years with the Corps.

His home base is 29 Palms California, where his wife and three children now live.

Stephen was more than pleased to receive a copy of The Charlestown Patriot sent to him in Saudi Arabia by Bunker Hill Post 26, The American Legion.

This note is a "thank you" to the Post for keeping the servicemen stationed in the Persian Gulf in touch.

Margaret Driscoll

Thank You

Dear Gloria,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the John F. Kennedy Family Service Center Board of Directors and Kate McDonough, executive director, for selecting me as the 1990 Charlestown recipient of the Action for Boston Community Service Award. To be chosen to represent my community was an honor and privilege I sincerely appreciate.

I would also like to thank everyone who sent expressions of good wishes to me and especially my family and friends who attended the ABCD awards dinner on Oct. 26. Their presence was much appreciated.

I will try my best to continue to work for the good of our town.

Sincerely,
Peter Looney

HOW PARENTS ENABLE YOUNG PEOPLE TO USE DRUGS

- By not insisting that parties be supervised
- By not setting limits and enforcing those limits
- By being unaware of where their children are
- By offering alcohol to their own youngsters — from one glass of wine at dinner to supplying the beer at a graduation or other party.
- By hosting a party where alcohol or other drugs are being used with the rationalization "I'd rather have them here drinking than somewhere else" or "I'll take their keys so they can't drive."
- By ignoring the evidence that may be left in the house, or their child's room or car after a party.
- By leaving youngsters unattended for a week or weekend.

City Of Boston To Honor Cast Of 'Cheers'

The city of Boston is planning a celebration on Thursday, Nov. 8 to honor the cast of television's No. 1 series, "Cheers," on the occasion of the show's 200th episode. A one-hour "Cheers" retrospective special airs the same day at 9 p.m. (ET) on NBC-TV. "Cheers" is only the fifth television program in history to reach the 200-episodes milestone.

To recognize this achievement, the city has organized a motorcade of the "Cheers" cast through downtown Boston followed by a rally on City Hall Plaza at 12:30 p.m. The participation of all the principal cast members in the program has been confirmed. The list from the Emmy Award-winning series includes Ted Danson, Kirstie Alley, John Ratzenberger, Rhea Perlman, George Wendt, Roger Rees, Kelsey Grammer, BeBe Neuwirth and Woody Harrelson.

The motorcade is scheduled to begin at noon in Copley Square, proceed down Boylston Street, left on Charles Street, right on Beacon Street, left on Tremont Street and on to City Hall Plaza. According to Mary Lou Crane, director of the Massachusetts Film Office, "This celebration is Boston's opportunity to say 'thank you' to the cast and production executives of 'Cheers' for spreading a positive image of Boston worldwide for the past nine years."
