If one of the tournaments is cancelled due to weather, a makeup will be the following week.

Rules:

1. Up to 9 rods may be fished at once per boat.
2. The number of people in your boat is not limited.
3. All DNR regulations apply. Feel free to catch your full limit but you can only weight your top three salmon and one trout species
4. Heaviest fish out of your weighed fish breaks all ties.
5. Notice will be given by 4:00pm the day of, if fishing is cancelled. Dates will only be cancelled due to weather/waves (wave cutoff will be for a FORCAST of 1-3 feet and expected to build). If you miss a date your money will not be refunded. Substitutions are OK if you are unable to make a date. Please have substitutes notify Tournament Control before takeoff.
6. If unexpected weather /waves move in and an event that is already underway must be called off that event will only count if called after 8pm. If called before 8pm rule 7 will apply to that event.
7. If a date is cancelled due to the weather/waves, the next Thursday will be the makeup. If the makeup Thursday gets cancelled the pot will be added to the next fish date. If this final date is cancelled it will be made up the following week.
8. Take off will be from within 100 yards of the north break wall over the radio on channel 72. If you are late go ahead and fish.
9. You must check in at the weigh in site (DNR Fish cleaning Station) by 10:15pm. Tournament Control has the official time. Check it before leaving. It is each boats responsibility to be checked in at the tournament table by the cleaning station by 10:15pm with Tournament Control. Those failing to do so for any reason will be disqualified for that event, No excuses.
10. This is an AMATEUR ONLY EVENT. This means NO charter captains, and NO charter boats past or present, and no one who has been a first mate in the last 5 years, are to participate. Violation of this rule will result in immediate disqualification for the rest of the season.
11. All tournament participants are encouraged to notify tournament control of possible violation of ANY rule for review by tournament board members.
