ADVANTAGES OF CMT NETWORK

- In addition to routine communication, this system is also used for simple monitoring of daily freight movements and updating status of the consignment.
- Another great assets in our agents link services are the Person-To-Person interactive attitudes, which our corporate agents emphasize. We have a dedicated individual assigned to service each and every account (big or small) at every CMT link – and this is only possible with our very executive agent of services developed on a common philosophy and direction.
