Bunker Hill Housing Development Residents Aid Attack Victims

by Kathleen Giordano
Channel 7 newswoman Robin Young and her cameraman John Baynard were assaulted and knocked to the ground on Monday, October 8th while taping a story in the Bunker Hill Housing Project. Ms. Young's pocketbook was also snatched during the attack.

According to Sergeant Detective Gottschalk of the Boston Police Department, Area A Division, "Only through the terrific detective work of Detective Charles Gleason and Officers Paul Hutchings and Herbert Langlois, of Area A, was the suspected perpetrator of the incident convinced to surrender himself at the Charlestown Court House."

While Detective Gleason was at the Charlestown

District Court obtaining warrants for the arrest of Timothy D. Connors of Chestnut Street, Charlestown, Connors called the Court House after hearing that he was suspect in the incident.

Detective Gleason, after speaking to Connors, convinced him to give himself up at the Charlestown Court House; which he did. He was then brought to Area A of the Boston Police Department and booked on Assault and Battery with a Dangerous Weapon, Assault and Battery, Larceny, Attempted Larceny and two counts of Willful and Malicious Destruction of Property. Connors, who pleaded innocent to the charges, was arraigned at the Charlestown District Court on Tuesday, October 9th at which time a cash bail of $1000 was set and the case was set for trial on October 17th. Police are also seeking an unidentified accomplice.

Ms. Young, contacted at her WNEV-TV office, stated that she was in the Project doing an update on a story concerning the development's efforts to improve its image. She stated that this development is "working hard to change their image and pull themselves up" and that this was just a random act of violence "and perhaps a statement on violence in general and not that it happened in a Boston Housing Authority development."

"The real story here is what happened after the crime," Ms. Young continued. "People were

Mayor Announces $1.9 Million Federal Grant For Elderly Housing In Navy Yard

Boston Mayor Raymond L. Flynn announced the awarding of a $1.9 million Urban Development Action Grant (UDAG) for the construction of 112 units of elderly housing at the Charlestown Naval Shipyard.

This award was made in conjunction with the efforts of U.S. Senator Edward Kennedy. It represents one of the largest UDAG awards for elderly housing in the city's history. The site, at Building 103 at the Charlestown Naval Shipyard will commence construction of the housing units in the near future, possibly in late 1984 or early 1985.

Mayor Flynn termed "the addition of these 112 units a great help in meeting the housing means of Boston's elderly residents. However, the need for elderly housing remains great. Statistics released by the Boston Housing Authority only last month show that there are over 2,000 elderly Bostonians on their waiting list for subsidized housing. That waiting list is more than four times the number of openings per year."

Flynn emphasized that "given the reality that Boston has an elderly population that is increasing and is also one of the poorest elderly population of any city in America more must be done by government at all levels and the private sector to ensure that those who built our city are given a chance to live out their lives in dignity. No older Boston resident should run the risk of being driven from their homes by condominium conversion or sky rocketing rents. The increase in the number of elderly evictions only places a further demand on the already scarce supply of subsidized housing. That is why I reiterate my commitment toward the enactment of legislation that will provide meaningful protection to Boston's elderly residents."

This will mark the third year of the "Townie Santa" program, which for the past two years has provided Christmas baskets for Charlestown's elderly, those who are needy and shut-in or have limited mobility or family contacts.

Last year, through the generous donations of residents and local merchants and the tireless work of the Townie Santa Committee, 105 baskets of food items and toiletries along with a hot turkey dinner were delivered the day before Christmas. The Committee hopes, with the continued generosity and assistance of the community, that more will be visited in 1984.

In order to facilitate the planning and purchasing for this ambitious undertaking, the committee is seeking assistance in compiling a list of persons who could benefit from a visit by "Townie Santa". The committee is seeking the names of elderly who have need, are shut-in or limited in mobility, and who have limited family contact.

Charlestown residents or agency personnel are encouraged to submit names of persons to be considered for a Christmas basket. The names of persons submitted to the committee will not be used in any publicity and will be handled discretely.

The following information should be submitted for each person by November 2, 1984:

- Name:
 - Address:
 - Apartment number and/or floor:
 - Telephone number:
 - Helpful information:
 - Name and telephone number of person making recommendation:
- Please mail the information to:

Townie Santa Committee
One Thompson Square
Charlestown, MA 02129

The cooperation of community residents will contribute much to the success of the program.

There will be a meeting of the Townie Santa Committee on Monday evening, October 15, 1984 at 7:30 p.m. at Mary Colbert Apartments, 20 Devens Street. The committee welcomes all "Townies" and newcomers alike, to join together in a program designed to bring a bit of joy to Charlestown's elderly shut-ins. All are welcome to attend.

Health Care Cost Forum At Library

The Charlestown Branch Library will present an open forum on the Soaring Cost of Health Care on Saturday, October 13, 1984 at 2:00 p.m. This will be the first in a series of three forums which will give participants a chance to express their views on how Bostonians will be affected by the rising costs of medical care. Ideas from the forum will be conveyed to United States policymakers at a nationally televised conference which will take place at the John F. Kennedy Library next spring.

Please call or come into the library for more information. The Charlestown Branch Library is located at 179 Main Street, telephone 242-1248.

Facts About Drugs - F.A.D.

Kids seem to be relieved when they know that the drug they use does not cause physical dependency. For some reason physical dependence draws up mental images of the D.T.'s, hallucinations, thrashing, and screaming. Most of us think of heroin withdrawal when the user needs to be held down. "Cold turkey" gives us the image of the sweats, bugs crawling, etc. Actually, withdrawal from dependence may often be set off by another drug which makes withdrawal painless. Doctors are trained to do this for the abuser in detox facilities and in most hospitals.

Physical dependence occurs with certain drugs after prolonged use. Morphine, barbituates, sedatives, minor tranquilizers, and alcohol can produce physical dependence.

Psychic (or psychological) dependence is not as feared by drug takers. In fact it is denied and not admitted in most cases, but it is a very dangerous dependence and promotes the obsession with a drug. Psychic dependence is a craving for the pleasurable effects produced by the drug, such as euphoria, elation, stimulation. A user begins to prefer the drugged state to the normal state. Withdrawal from these drugs, while it produces no specific physical symptoms, may result in mild to serious depression. Sudden withdrawal from marijuana generally produces neither mental nor physical symptoms but heavy use may be followed by vague anxiety upon stopping use. Some drug users are strongly preoccupied with a drug, seeking to repeat its mental state. They may even drop their former lifestyles in order to live their lives around the drug. Yet he/she may stop the drug without discomfort. Yet these changes in a person are important. Any obsession with a drug, where it becomes too important, prevents a person from living his life in the truest sense. Drugs producing psychic dependence; but no physical dependence: cocaine, marijuana, hashish, amphetamines, LSD, PCP, mescaline and morning glory seeds.

"Harborpark" - A Plan For Boston's Waterfront

by Marianne Martin
Mayor Raymond L. Flynn and Boston Redevelopment Authority Director Stephen Coyle announced a comprehensive plan for promoting economic growth on Boston's waterfront while increasing the public access and open space along the harbor.

The project, which is named Harborpark, was revealed at a press conference held on Tuesday at the Charlestown Naval Shipyard.

According to the Mayor, this plan "represents a balanced, multi-faceted approach to harbor development."

Coyle told the reporters gathered that the harbor has shown a rapid decline in the past 20 years, but now that the economy is on an upswing, the harbor project will reflect this change.

The first phase of the project will provide an uninterrupted pedestrian walkway covering the seven miles between the Charlestown Navy Yard and the South Boston waterfront. According to Flynn, the walkway will "link the waterfront with the 250,000 Boston residents who live within walking distance of the harbor."

By providing the walkway, the Mayor stated that this is a "start of a coordinated program to provide public access to the waterfront."

Coyle stated that it is hoped that more people will utilize the harbor for transportation as well.

Among the plans outlined by the BRA Director was an interim waterfront zoning amendment for the Boston Harbor which would delay construction planned on the harbor for 15 months, during which time the BRA along with a citizen advisory committee could review the plans. According to Coyle, the advisory committee would consist of a representative from each of the surrounding neighborhoods adjacent to the harbor. The plan also stated that of the 8,000 units of housing to be built along the harbor, 30% would be set aside for low and moderate income families.

Coyle also stated in order to generate the waterbased transportation system, commuter boats, water taxis, and private boats would have access at terminals located along the harbor, including the Navy Yard.

The Mayor stated the "city waterfront development could provide 1/3rd of the city's anticipated growth in jobs, investment and tax revenues for the rest of the decade."

More than $2 billion in private investment is targeted for the waterfront area over the next six years, with some $1 billion in public investment scheduled for the same area.

The total cost for creating the pedestrian walkway and open space will cost somewhere in the area of $80 million. Of this, $40 million has been funded or is in the process of funding. The remainder of the money, stated the Mayor, would come from a combination of private developers, or funding from state or federal grants.

Urban Design And The American City

The Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main Street presents Urban Design and the American City, a series of six illustrated lectures using examples of Boston, especially Charlestown, as well as other cities.

The series which will be held on Thursday evenings at 7:30 p.m. features lecturers, Michael and Susan Southworth, partners in their own architecture and urban design firm and authors of The American Institute of Architects' Guide to Boston.

On October 11, 1984, Streetscape will examine roadways from narrow cobblestone lanes of the past to the superhighways circling American cities today. Streets are the networks of travel and communication. The public life of a city happens on its streets which connect people to each other and to all the events of daily life. Susan Southworth will be the lecturer.

On October 18, 1984, Neighborhoods will be examined. Neighborhoods are the focus of the lives of many people. Although the public spaces are shared, individuals may use and value them differently. How can urban designers evaluate residents' images of their neighborhood and city and apply this to planning? Charlestown will serve as a case study. Michael Southworth will be the lecturer.

And Then There Was Light!

To the Editor,

We are writing to you concerning the lights on Medford Street in Charlestown. We are the staff and students of the Charlestown Community School. We are comprised of persons of all ages. We feel we are taking a great risk walking home from school on this street after classes. We are particularly concerned about the area on Medford Street between Monument Street and the Domino Sugar Factory.

Some of us have written to you about this issue in the past. We hope that you will respond to your constituents here at the Charlestown Community School. We are waiting to hear from you and to see the light!

Thomas C. Jackson

Editor's Note: Hopefully, as you are reading this, you have seen the light! We contacted David Flanagan of the Mayor's Office of Community Participation on receipt of your letter and he began working on the problem. Flanagan received assurances from the Street Lighting Department that the lights in question would be checked and repaired by close of business today. Any further problems with the lights may be addressed through Mr. Flanagan.

HONORED: Phyllis Ward, Volunteer, Home Care III, were part of the annual Kit Margaret Turner, nutrition site manager, Clark Senior House Celebration of Volunteers held at the Boston State House. Tim and Mary Crowley, volunteers, and William Vogt, Executive Director of Senior (photo by Karen Miller)

Kit Clark Senior House held its annual celebration of Volunteers at the Boston State House on September 11. City and State officials and special guests joined in honoring the 200 men and women who give countless hours of volunteer service within the programs of Kit Clark Senior House, i.e. nutrition, transportation, in-home services, adult day health, senior center and mental health.

The greatest number of volunteers work at Area III neighborhood nutrition sites helping site managers serve meals, clean tables, take reservations and attendance. Others do mailings and bookkeeping, package emergency food, run movies, visit the homebound, teach crafts and do a host of other tasks.

Offering words of congratulations and helping with the awards presentations were the Governor's mother Euterpe Dukakis, State Secretary of Elder Affairs Richard H. Rowland, City Commissioner of Elder Affairs Michael Taylor, Executive Director Senior Home Care III William Vogt, Speaker of the House Thomas McGee, and State Representatives Emanuel Serra, Richard Rouse, Michael Flaherty, James Brett and Paul White.

Each volunteer was presented with a personalized certificate of recognition, a long-stemmed carnation, and a Kit Clark Senior House shopping bag. Accordionist Sal Sava entertained; luncheon buffet was provided by the Servomation Corporation.

This year's event was co-sponsored by the Department of Elder Affairs.

Charlestown seniors honored for their volunteer service at the Rutherford Avenue Nutrition Site were Phyllis Ward, Tim and Mary Crowley, Ida Moore, Alton Hunt, Joe Brecko, Joe Caruso, Guy Messina and Jenny Stewart.

Saint Francis de Sales Celebrates

Sunday, September 30, 1984 will long be remembered as a beautiful and joyous day as Saint Francis de Sales celebrated a Jubilee Mass of Thanksgiving, commemorating the 125th Anniversary of the founding of this historical church at the "Top of the Hill."

The Most Reverend Bernard Francis Law, Archbishop of Boston, was the Principal Celebrant and Homilist. Reverend Daniel Mahoney, Pastor of Saint Francis de Sales Parish and overseer of the Jubilee 125 Anniversary, was co-celebrant along with the more than 30 priests on the altar, including Parish Priests Monsignor James Keating, Reverend Richard Coakley and Emilio Lobo. Twelve altar servers had been chosen to assist in the Mass.

Archbishop Law welcomed the more than 1300 persons in attendance at this Mass, including parishioners and former parishioners of Saint Francis de Sales and many Charlestown residents. He welcomed them back home to this church which was such an important part of their lives and continues its significant role in the lives of the parishioners and the Charlestown community.

This Anniversary Mass was enhanced by the beautiful musical arrangements, selected by Catherine Bachini and Thomas Hickey of the Music Committee. The inspiring musical selections were rendered by Catherine Bachini, Organist; Marie M. Hagman, Guest Organist; Gerald Serfass, Trumpet; Iva Milch, Flute; and Nancy Smith, Timpani. Soloists were Catherine Bachini and Thomas Hickey. Members of the Senior Choir who took part in this celebration were Maria Bachini, Margaret Canney, Barbara Canney, Mary Campbell, Pat Fertas, Mary Ducey, Renee Monteith, Helen Reilly, Lynne Reilly, Diane Polcari, Catherine Bachini, Lois Maher, Janet Black and Kay Lynch.

As part of the Anniversary Mass, commemorative booklets were distributed to all in attendance, along with a medal of Saint Francis de Sales which was prepared and distributed by Father Mahoney.

Following the Mass, a Homecoming Celebration was held in Bishop Lawton Hall - an event that allowed friends to meet and enjoy this historic occasion.

The Homecoming Committee planned and prepared this reception for over six months and their efforts were enjoyed by those in attendance and applauded by their fellow Jubilee 125 Committee members.

This committee was under the direction of Dot Collins and Bridie Lynch and members included Tim Beasley, Donna Burke, Ruth Chardavoynne, Ann Collins, Barbara Connell, Ann Donahue, Helen Donovan, Doris Emberly, Pam Enos, Jane Fratalia, Mary Golding, Kathy Hickey, Kay Hickey, Betty Kelley, Ann Kelly, Mary Maheigan, Cathy Murray, Mary Powers, Grace Powers and Joan Rae. Also volunteering for the Homecoming were Margaret Shea, Roberta Delaney, Eleanor Sawyer and Kathy D'Urbano.

This committee raised money for the Homecoming through raffles, to which every member donated gifts. Their fund raising efforts also provided the Commemoration Booklets, Altar flowers, and talented accordion player Robert Caruso, who entertained at the celebration.

A delicious collation of juice, coffee, tea and pastries was catered by Bob Scalli.

The beauty of the Mass and the fellowship of the Homecoming Celebration combined to make this 125th Anniversary a memorable occasion and a tribute to the dedication and commitment of every person who contributed to the success of this day.

The next event in the celebration of Jubilee 125 takes place this Friday evening, October 12th when the Jubilee Dinner will be held at 6:30 p.m. at Caruso's Diplomat in Saugus. A superb evening has been planned.

ATTENTION PARENTS

Last week at one of our hockey games, there was a total of three parents present. It is a shame that some of the hockey teams are not getting any parents at the games. Coaches will not pick anybody up. If some of the parents can't make a game due to work or other appointments they should make other arrangements to have their boy get to the game. We need parents at these games for support. Believe it or not, it does help.

THE CAST OF "TALKING WITH" Bunker Hill Street. The play will continue on Friday, Saturday and Sunday through November 4th. The play will continue on Friday evening, October 12th at 8:00 p.m. at the Charlestown Working Theater, 442

The Charlestown Working Theater is opening its tenth season with the Boston premiere of Jane Martin's Talking With, directed by Laurie Zallen. The play is formed of solo pieces by eleven contemporary women, each of whom has stopped at a different place on life's road, each of whom bears distinctive marks. The rural and urban, the tragic and comic, the southern gothic and the mundane are all represented. The characters range from a baton twirler who sees God in her "ton" to a discarded rodeo rider who mourns the commercialization of her calling, to a woman who rhapsodizes over the security she feels at McDonald's.

The production features Catherine Allegra-Tanner, Jean Anderson, Sarah

Dacey, Leslie N. Davis, Rebecca Downs, Lisa Foley, Sally Kindleberger, Mary Klug, Shelly Kooris, Penny Kreidl, and Susan C.D. McGinnis.

The show opens October 12 and will run for four weeks, through November 4. Performances are Friday and Saturday evenings at 8 p.m. (no show Saturday, October 27) and Sundays at 2 p.m. Tickets are $6.00, or $5.00 for students and senior citizens. The preview is October 11 at 8 p.m. The Charlestown Working Theater is located at 442 Bunker Hill Street.

Apply Now For ABCD's Fuel Assistance Program

Charlestown residents may qualify for Action for Boston Community Development's (ABCD) Fuel Assistance Program. Low-income households in Charlestown should apply now for the 1984-1985 Low-Income Energy Assistance Program, which is administered by ABCD.

The program is designed to assist low income households with home heating bills. Tens of thousands of low income households have received fuel assistance payments through the program which is funded by both the state and federal government. The program cannot cover a household's total heating expense but it can defray a significant portion of the cost enabling needy families to keep warm during winter. Both low income renters and owners are eligible to apply.

To receive assistance under the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program, a household's total gross income may not exceed the following guidelines:

Household Size	Total Yearly Income
1	$8,715
2	$11,760
3	$12,690
4	$15,300
5	$17,910
6	$20,520
7	$23,130
8	$25,740

Add $2,610 for each additional person over 18 years of age.

Applicants may apply at any one of the 35 intake agencies between October 15, 1984 and April 30, 1985. Constance Carey, ABCD Energy Director, advises all prospective applicants to provide the following information, in order to qualify for this year's program and receive assistance as soon as possible:

- 1) Proof of all sources of income for at least the 90-day period preceding the application for all household members aged 18 years and over. (Include letters from appropriate schools or colleges if household members are full time students.);
- 2) Social Security numbers for all household members aged 18 years and over;
- 3) A copy of the most recent bill for the primary source of heat. (If the heat has been shut off prior to application, a copy of the final bill will suffice);
- 4) Either a current mortgage statement (if home is owned), or a current rent receipt (if applicant rents their home or apartment).

In some cases, applicants whose heat is included in their rent can receive assistance. They should provide at least 90 days worth of rent receipts or a letter from the landlord stating the monthly rent for the apartment.

Since no application can be processed without all of this information, applicants are urged to bring these records with them when they apply. Anyone with questions or problems concerning their application should contact the local agency where they apply, or the ABCD central office, 178 Tremont Street, Boston at 357-6012.

Charlestown residents may apply at the Kennedy Center, 27 Winthrop Street, (telephone 241-8866), Monday through Friday from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., and evenings by appointment only.

Charlestown Police Line

From the Desk of Deputy Superintendent Joseph V. Saia, Jr.
Commanding Officer, Area A
Downtown, Charlestown, East Boston, Beacon Hill

On October 1, 1984 at 2:00 a.m., Police Officers responded to Medford Street on an Armed Robbery report. Upon arrival, the officers spoke to the victim who stated that while asleep in her house, person(s) unknown knocked on her door. When she opened the door, two unknown white males forced their way into the house, showing a knife and demanding money and drugs. The suspects ransacked her bedroom taking money, a ring, and three necklaces. Also taken was a Polaroid Camera. The suspects fled in an unknown direction.

On October 2, 1984 at 2:30 p.m., Police Officers responded to 42 Main Street on an Armed Robbery report. On arrival, the officers spoke to an employee of the cleaning store who stated that a 20 year old white male with a stocking over his head and carrying a small black handgun came into the store and demanded all of the money. After receiving the money, the unknown suspect fled on Main Street. To be further investigated by Area A Detectives.

On October 2, 1984 at 7:30 p.m., officers responded to 30 High Street on a Breaking and Entering report. After arriving at the scene, the officers spoke to the victim who stated that person(s) unknown broke into her house via the front door and ransacked it. Taken during this break were assorted jewelry, a blue velvet jewelry box and a check-book.

On October 2, 1984 at 9:00 p.m., Police Officers observed a 37 year old Charlestown man in a van drinking a can of Michelob Beer on Main Street. When he was asked for the Registration or Bill of Sale of the vehicle, he could not produce one, even though he had just bought the van. He was placed under arrest, transported to Area A and booked for public drinking.

On October 4, 1984 at 12:00 a.m., Police Officers responded to 625 Main Street on a Breaking & Entering of a Motor Vehicle report. Upon arrival, the officers spoke with the victim who stated that sometime during the night, unknown person(s) broke into the right side window of his motor vehicle and took a Sanyo Walkman, assorted tapes, and a wallet which contained personal papers.

On October 4, 1984 at 7:55 p.m., Police Officers responded to 10 McNulty Court on an Attempted Breaking & Entering report. Upon arrival the officers observed a 37 year old male of Boston attempting to climb through a window. He was placed under arrest, taken to Area A and booked for Attempted Breaking & Entering. He was later found to be wanted in Cambridge for default.

While on routine patrol, Police Officers observed a group hanging around 90 Medford Street. When approached by the officers, three white males started to yell obscenities at them. All three were placed under arrest, brought to Area A and booked for Disorderly Persons and Trespassing.

Residents Aid Attack Victims

Young stated that "A seven year old boy found one of my credit cards and returned it to me. I was searching for some change to give him, but he didn't want to accept it. The boy just said, 'I don't want any money, but please say something nice about us. Not everyone that lives in the Project is bad.'"

Young had only praise for the residents of the Project and their outpouring of concern and assistance following the attack.

In an unrelated incident, Police are still investigating the attempted robbery of the Charlestown Co-operative Bank on Main Street which took place last Friday, October 5th at approximately 11:00 a.m.

The bandit, who was carrying a hand gun at the time, held a customer hostage but fled without getting any money. Detectives from the Area A Division and the Intelligence Unit are investigating the possibility that a suspect, in custody at this time for an unrelated incident, is the same man being sought for the attempted bank robbery and another armed robbery in the Boston area.

To Install Smoke Detectors

The Boston Housing Authority today announced plans to install smoke detectors in all of its occupied apartments within the next forty-five (45) days.

"The Authority is immediately hiring a crew of carpenters to install the detectors," said BHA Acting Receiver/Administrator John Stainton. "The smoke detectors will be battery operated, and can be installed quickly and at a reasonable cost. We still intend to proceed with plans to install electrically powered smoke detectors in BHA units but that will take longer. The installation of battery-operated detectors responds to an immediate need which we feel is appropriate given recent events."
