Dear Ernesto Samper Pizzano

I, Gottwald Peter, I would like to Thank You very much Dear Ernesto Samper, for Your work as General Secretary of UNASUR and congratulate You on Your successful mandate, which is the very essence of UNASUR, which is based on the right direction of political ideology and peace.

Your policy has a great success on the basics of the joint support of the nations, and that is the ideology of Unasur, which You have been able to successfully represent and sustain in real growth. UNASUR as the Latin American, South American Institution is based on successful visions and goals and the right horizons of inspiration to nations, politicians and governments, which are therefore also able to understand the more important ideologies of our world and the true meaning of partnerships to nations. It is a great honor to have the opportunity to represent the peoples with the real interest of peace and the founding for cooperation, giving great opportunities to the whole world.

UNASUR is a constitution of states constitutionally founded to promote the peace and independence of nations, to promote the good growth of civilizations and to achieve success among states in their true friendly partnership, respect for justice and also for the growth of our society.

In my opinion, Your General Secretary's job has been successful but also enriching for Your own life as well as the vision of the peoples and governments of the countries that respected You as an ideologically friendly politician who is willing to live for genuine support for nations and politicians who are happy for their real The interest of the future of states and peace among peoples.

Your position as General Secretary of UNASUR also confirms Your own political activities, that it is really good to support You and Your interests. That's why Your successful mandate is really a success right from the beginning.

Many nations can pursue You, Your goals of organized cooperation, and the purpose of society alone. Every American nation will certainly watch You with admiration and respect, and people who live in the same way as You, Dear Ernesto Semper, such people bring the best example for society and become an important model at the level of the heroes of today. People who have enriched our world and have proved to the people that even peaceful steps can actually achieve the success and well-being of the peoples, without the need to break the steps of peace and friendship, together with the mutual reconciliation of mutual friendships and peace.

Today's world is based on crime, terrorism, many frauds and corruption, so it is really important in today's world that there are people like You Dear Ernesto Samper Pizzano, and Your UNASUR organization is a real step of good interest for the whole future world.

I admire Your organization with my respect and I will always appreciate the possibility of our common partnership and friendship between our peoples and political structures. Your peoples are beautiful and peaceful, but also the peaceful interests of political development, as well as the mutual cooperation of the nations, and all for the sake of the prosperity of nations and the improvement of the quality of life.

My interests are always for You and for Your peoples always in friendship and for the achievement of a common peace and the growth of the reality of mutual support, and with my full recognition of Your UNASUR Charter principles and rules that also for me and my personal ideology are the main interest in the nature of my policy Steps to support the nations and countries of all countries around the world.

My own views and ideologies are very similar to You, but still different from the geographic position of my person, and I know that I can really offer a lot and support the development of Your organization but also the principles of the growth of Your civilizations in the South American nations, For that purpose, also determined, and with the same vision as UNASUR.

Thank You Dear Ernesto Samper Pizzano, for Your support at ISAG UNASUR, even such an offer is an important step and a more stable assurance of maintaining my peace ideology and of the willingness of the people to support and help, Thank You for Your support in communication between South American States, I also Thank You for Your support Between the American Movement Groups and Thank You for the steady growth of the peace policy of Your UNASUR Group.

That is why I am really grateful that it is in Your interest to also support my interests of peaceful development, and I am really grateful for Your support for my party, which opens up my intelligent growth capacities and better support for Your nations, but above all to enable other nations to stand Jointly for the purpose of the confirmed legal right of retaliation against terrorism, and hence the enforcement of the real rights of the rights that Your peoples today in today's situation, give the main strength and rights of civilization growth.

Your support is important to many countries around the world that also recognize the justice and the interests of Your states and their future, which is a clear example of the UNASUR charter.

It is still in my interest to support the growth of Your civilizations, but it is also in my interest to give more strength to Your policy for stable development, so I want to support Your countries today and for the future.

I want to bring You new perspectives of international cooperation for the purpose of common prosperity, but also for the purpose of supporting the development and internal structure of civilizations.

I want to support Your cities, Your infrastructure between cities, urbanization and the improvement of the quality of life of Your nations, but it is also in my interest to give much better industry and scientific advancement to Your countries, or to support agriculture in countries that have the need to achieve a safe stabilization format.

The nations of South America are always welcome to me in good interest and spirit, and I am therefore always very happy for Your steps towards partnerships that support our good relationships, and I am also genuinely glad that Your own interests are both peace and support Justice to states that have a much better vision.

I will always be very happy if You, in the future, capable of stabilizing my country, will also accept my invitation to visit my country, and also for the purpose of joint political missions to represent the common States.

My country is open for You and I always welcome You and Thank You Very Much! It is important that people like You can live in the world, and it is still important to support people like You, Dear Ernesto Samper Pizzano !

I wish for You that Your future political activities are still successful and always supporting the peace of the peoples, as well as the victory of the great satisfaction of the good step for humanity and our world today, I also wish for Your own motivation and dynamism of ideological growth, and the opportunity to develop Your friendship on the International And National Growth, always with national support and celebrations of all states!
