KENNEDY-LUGAR YOUTH EXCHANGE AND STUDY PROGRAM

Kennedy-Lugar YES program Overview: The U.S. Department of State established the Kennedy-Lugar Youth Exchange and Study (YES) program in October 2002 in recognition of the importance of youth exchange as a key component to build bridges between citizens of the U.S. and countries around the world. The program is funded by the U.S. Department of State and provides scholarships for high school students from countries with significant Muslim populations to attend high school in the U.S., live with an American host family, and serve as "youth ambassadors" for their home countries. The YES program officially launched in Malaysia in 2004 to expand communication between the people of United States and Malaysia to promote mutual understanding and respect. Since then, more than 550 Malaysian students have participated in the YES program and are now members of the YES and U.S. Embassy Alumni communities. Malaysian YES students spend 6 months in the U.S. from January to June. The U.S. State Department's YES program is administered in partnership with a consortium of non-profit organizations. In Malaysia, AFS Malaysia manages YES in partnership with the U.S. Embassy Kuala Lumpur.	In keeping with the U.S. Government-sponsored initiatives dedicated to democratic reform, the competition for the Youth Exchange and Study scholarship is merit-based and open at no cost to all applicants who meet the following requirements: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Be enrolled in Form 5 at the time of application (and cannot be younger than 15 or older than 18.5 on January 15, 2020); Students with disabilities are encouraged to apply and they can be in Form 3, 4 or 5 at time of application (and cannot be younger than 15 or older than 18.5 on January 15, 2020) 2. Have the equivalent of a B average or better; 3. Be a citizen of Malaysia. 4. Demonstrated leadership, community involvement in extracurricular activities. Note: YES seeks to ensure diverse participation in the program, representing all of Malaysian society. kindly submit only photocopies of the original documents. AFS Malaysia will not be held responsible for any loss or return of the documents to you.
