YMCA Open House Next Thursday

Charlestown residents are invited to an Open House at the Charlestown Armed Services YMCA at 32 City Square on Thursday, November 1, 1979 from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. and again from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. This Open House is designed to give interested persons an opportunity to see the facility and Mr. Roger Maphis, 'Y' Executive Director has stated that representatives from the Erich Lindemann Mental Health Center will be on hand to explain present and proposed programs designed to be accommodated at the Charlestown facility.

It is imperative that concerned Charlestown residents be aware of the physical lay-out and programs housed at the 'Y' as well as changes that are planned in the facility and problems involved in the relocation of the 'Y' with the redevelopment of the City Square area.

Interest in the activities taking place at this City Square facility was stimulated by an application by the 'Y' for a Zoning variance, the denial of that application, and the appeal of that decision before the City of Boston Zoning Appeals Board.

A continuance of this appeals case was requested at a September 18th hearing, by community

Hearing Strategy Planned At Meeting

"We seem to get punished for doing good" — this statement was made by a Charlestown parent at an open meeting held on Monday evening at the Warren-Prescott School Auditorium and was the sentiment of many at that gathering. Community residents, faculty and parents met to hear the facts that were presented on the School Department's Unified Facilities Plan which is a projection of school closings across the city for the next ten years. Charlestown schools specifically involved are the Bunker Hill School, the oldest school in the city, which is scheduled to close in 1980 and the Warren-Prescott closing as an elementary school in 1983-84 and re-opening as a Middle School to absorb students from the C.R. Edwards and Michelangelo, both of which would be closed.

The aim of the gathering was to develop strategy and support for retention of the Warren-Prescott as an elementary school and to gather forces to present testimony at the District 7 Public Hearing on the Unified Facilities Plan on Thursday evening, November 8, 1979 at 7:00 p.m. at the Quincy School.

The Unified Facilities Plan for District 7 proposes the realignment of the "quantity and quality of schools throughout the district, more closely corresponding with current and projected enrollment densities" and "closing

Help Decorate Charlestown For Christmas

Charlestown residents have the opportunity to join with the members of the Charlestown Board of Trade in decorating portions of Main and Bunker Hill Streets with lights for Christmas.

According to Board of Trade member Joe Roselli, it was the Charlestown merchants who donated money to purchase the lights that decorated Main Street near Thompson Square last year — the Mall was just a small contributor to the project. He went on to say that the Committee hopes to expand the lights to areas of Bunker Hill Street this year, but the number of lights will depend on the response from the community. Money is needed to buy more lights in order to expand the project.

Roselli and his committee are in the process of distributing "Lite Up Our Town" Booster Boards to cooperating merchants. These Booster Boards have a line for your name and the amount of your donation — anything from a dollar on up, and the merchant will turn in the Board along with the donation money to the Board of Trade. This money has been earmarked for the street lighting for Christmas and for a Christmas party for needy children of Charlestown.

In order for this project to be a success, the Board of Trade needs the help of each resident. If you wish to contribute and there is no Booster Board in your area, please send the donation to

The merchants and businessmen ask that the residents join with them in making Charlestown a beautiful spot for the Christmas season. Help light up Charlestown for Christmas!!!!

Late David McSweeney To Be Honored At Dedication

The MBTA's newest bus maintenance facility will be dedicated and named in honor of a former employee and state labor leader, the late David P. McSweeney, on Friday, October 26, at a new Charlestown complex in Sullivan Square (21 Arlington Avenue), Robert L. Foster, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer announced.

Foster said this new facility with its modern equipment "will play a major role in the day-to-day operations of our bus maintenance program so that we will be able to once again offer the public a creditable bus service."

Governor Edward J. King will be the principal speaker at the 10:30 a.m. ceremony. Other speakers will include Transportation Secretary Barry M. Locke and Walter J. Ryan, labor representative on the MBTA's Board of Directors.

Participating in the unveiling of the plaque will be Mr. McSweeney's daughter, Mrs. John Scanlon of Marshfield, and two sons, David P. McSweeney, Jr., of Scituate, and Denis McSweeney of Milton.

A native of Ireland, the late Mr. McSweeney had been a Charlestown resident for about 30 years. He joined the old Boston Elevated Company as a machinist repairman in 1923 at the age of 20. In 1938, he was elected an officer of District 38 of the machinists' union, beginning a 30-year career as a union organizer, business manager, district manager and vice president of the union. As business manager, he conducted labor relations for Local 264, which represents the Authority's machinists. Since his retirement in 1969 until his death last March, he had been active in elder affairs in the City of Boston.

The new bus inspection and repair building being named for Mr. McSweeney is the second of five buildings at the new Charlestown complex to be residents, so more information could be made available (residents had only known about hearing the night before) and the case was continued to October 23rd. At this past Tuesday's hearing, a request for a continuance was made by Michael Late, Attorney for the YMCA on the grounds that Boston Police Officers could not be present and that their testimony was important to the appeal in that the Department of Youth Service Program (which is the only aspect of 'Y' programming being heard by the Appeals Board) is directly for and in conjunction with the Police. Late further stated that there is a second Open House at the YMCA on Thursday, November 1 and they hoped for broader input from the community at that time as only four had taken advantage of the 'Y' Open House this past Monday whether from "conflict in schedule or lack of interest on the part of the community". The next hearing before the Zoning Appeals Board will be held on Tuesday morning, November 13, 1979 at Room 801 in Boston City Hall.

It is incumbent for every Charlestown resident, along with organization and agency representatives to attend the 'Y' Open House on November 1 in order to evaluate the relationship of the 'Y' to and within the community. The 'Y' has finally opened its doors, which can only strengthen its plea before the Board, so now it is up to Charlestown to take a good, hard look at this facility in City Square.

Charlestown Navy Yard - Progress Report

Work is continuing on schedule and at a steady pace for all portions of the Charlestown Navy Yard project, according to BRA Director Robert J. Ryan.

Principal areas of activity include the new waterfront park, which will be ready to open in spring, 1980, the first phase of the new housing (formerly Building 42) and site preparation for the new entryway where Gate 4 was formerly located.

"We have undertaken the demolition work necessary for creating a new opening to the Yard from the Charlestown community," Ryan said. "By next year, that entryway should be completed and that will provide direct access to the waterfront park for the Charlestown community."

WORKERS ARE SHOWN finishing the granite stonework in the fountain area of the Shipyard Park. Designed to reflect the nautical history of the Navy Yard, the fountain will be a major feature of the 16-acre park. The park, being constructed by the Boston Redevelopment Authority, will also contain a town-pier and 50-slip marina.

THE PRIMARY ACCESS POINT to the new development area of the Charlestown Navy Yard will be through the old Gate 4. Demolition of Building 136 was necessary to realign 5th Street with Gate 4. This new entryway will serve both automobile traffic and pedestrian access for the Charlestown community to the public park and the commercial areas of the Navy Yard.

DEVELOPMENT OF SHIPYARD PARK has progressed towards its November, 1979 completion date with final landscaping and opening scheduled for next spring. This view of the pavilion area shows work being completed on the fountain and water feature in the park. The pavilion, with views of both the park and downtown Boston across the harbor, will contain a descriptive history of the Navy Yard.

CONSTRUCTION ACTIVITY in Building 42 includes the model apartments being installed on the right above. Building 42, developed by Immobilair New England, will contain 368 units of rental housing completion is scheduled for fall 1980. This is the first phase of housing development planned by Immobilair to include 1200 units of new housing, a 500-slip marina and retail space.

Cathedral Stops Columbus

Cathedral High of Boston knocked Christopher Columbus High from the unbeaten ranks over the weekend, and they did it with a convincing 20-6 score.

If you look at it from the Friars viewpoint the only good thing about the day was the weather, as CC could do nothing right.

Key to the game was Cathedral's speedy Darryl Rogers, who picked up right where he left off last season scoring a couple of touchdowns on long runs.

The Friars could never really get untracked, as the Chiefs just kept it on.

Columbus did stay with Cathedral for the half as Jack Farma scored the lone Friar touchdown.

Cathedral's victory now tightens up the race for Catholic Suburban League crown.

This week the Friars will travel to Newton for a 1:30 p.m. game against Newton Catholic.

Directions are available at the school and if you like close races "come on down" because the Friars are now in one.

schools in two areas (Charlestown and Back Bay) where enrollment levels are significantly lower than the capacity of schools in those areas."

Mrs. Marilyn Kiely, Principal of the Warren-Prescott, explained the development process. She stated that following the rejection of the 1977 UFP, the Court ordered a new plan drawn up. In 1978 the school department was ordered to come up with a plan which led, in the spring of 1979, to the formulation of a group of 15 from within each school to determine the best use of the school for the next ten years. The recommendations of this committee were forwarded to a District 7 committee and their proposal sent on to the United Facilities for incorporation into the Master Plan for the city. Both the local and district committees were unanimous in their recommendation to keep the Warren-Prescott as an elementary school (this is referred to as a Base School and would remain open through the next ten years).

In the UFP for the city, the Warren-Prescott is termed a "Support School" which means it would be used if needed. Mrs. Kiely pointed out the discrepancies in the description of the facility in the plan, indicating that the school is approximately one third black, one third Chinese and one third white. She also noted that the report stated that the school had a cafeteria and a gym which is absolutely false. The plan went on to state that the facility should be maintained as a school, but on a Middle School level. Mrs. Kiely reiterated the fact that education is good at the school as indicated by the high reading scores.

She also stated that there was support for retention of this facility in the Chinese and Black communities.

Mr. Thomas McLaughlin, Principal of the C.R. Edwards Middle School pointed out the problems in the conversion of the Prescott to a Middle School. New plumbing and furniture would have to be installed and strong consideration given to the fact that there is no cafeteria, gym, home ec or shop facilities for middle school students. He pointed out problems in security within the building, parking, bus loading areas, impact on a congested residential area, and simply the fact that there are no accommodations in that structure for 11 to 15 year olds. McLaughlin went on to say that Edwards had plumbing, electrical work and some classroom renovation done four years ago and that the major problem was the roof. Estimates for roof repair run about $30,000 — far less than $120,000 plus needed to convert the Warren-Prescott into a Middle School.

John Gardiner, Executive Director of the Kennedy Center was the moderator for this meeting. He fielded questions from a concerned, but somewhat frustrated audience.

Representative Richard Voke noted that it was clear that the plan was flawed — and he pointed out that this change would destroy everything the educational policy-makers have asked for. He suggested that a summary of the facts and fallacies of the physical plants and educational programs be developed so that the points are defined in clear, concise terms and that there be a concerted effort to let the parents and the community be aware of the impact that this school change might have, not only on the school itself, but on the community as a whole.

Senator Fran Doris proposed that that testimony to be delivered at the November 8th Hearing be readied with a covering letter and delivered to the School Committee on November 9th. He recommended that a procedure or plan of action be developed and that it be followed in an organized manner. He suggested that the Representative and himself would certainly help in anyway they could to give support and a "little muscle" if necessary.

Moe Gillen pointed out that the panel which will hear this testimony at the District 7 Public Hearing on November 8th is "our enemy" and that they are out "to destroy our neighborhood schools". Gillen stated that the decision to close a school is not predicated on solid educational policy, but on "salt and pepper". He pointed out that we need a commitment from one of the parties to the Desegregation suit (School Department, School Committee, Home & School, NAACP, State Board of Education, or City of Boston) that their attorney will go into "Judge Garrity's Court" and plead for the retention of the Warren-Prescott as an elementary school. The attorney must be prepared to speak out for the people of Charlestown if so needed.

Others on the platform at Monday's meeting included Mrs. O'Brien the Home & School President, Mr. Cardone the Principal of the Kent School and Mr. Andrew A'Hearn the Administrative Assistant of District 7 Superintendent John McGourty.

It would appear that once again the School Department has set up school and district committees to get staff and parental input and then ignore the recommendations of these committees by establishing a plan for school closing without having even been inside the school building and ignoring the educational process going on within this setting.

Details on the strategy and bus transportation to the November 8th Hearing are being sent home to the parents and will be available in next week's Patriot. Save the day — Thursday, November 8th at 7:00 p.m. at the Quincy School.

Legend of

IRISH CLADDAGH

According to the Irish legend of the Claddagh the Crown represents Loyalty, the hands friendship, and the heart love. The Claddagh Ring, when given by a man to his girl, symbolizes that she will hold his heart in her hands. The same is true given by a girl to her man. The ring is worn in friendship when the crown is toward the finger tips and symbolizes engagement when the heart points toward finger tips.

Timilty Proposes Increased Elderly Service

Senator Joseph F. Timilty today outlined proposals to improve the poor level of city services for Charlestown's elderly residents. Attacking the White Administration's policy of "Absolute neglect toward the senior citizens of this cornerstone Boston neighborhood," Timilty stated that the "elders of Charlestown have a right to more than the meager, cost-inefficient services that the present administration currently offers."

Timilty stated the orientation of the city's programs for seniors needed to change from "one of top-heavy, administrative public relations to one of increased elderly services. Too often the elderly of Boston's neighborhoods have watched another slick sounding city program come into being only to discover its main purpose is to fulfill Mr. White's media needs; not the necessities of their daily lives."

Toward the goal of direct action for Charlestown's senior citizens Senator Timilty said that his administration would do the following:

—Appoint elderly tenants from the area's public housing as representatives to a corporate board which would oversee public housing for Boston's seniors. This would ensure that elder tenant problems would be acted upon promptly and not ignored.

—Increased police foot patrols in areas with a high concentration of senior citizens, such as the Bunker Hill project. Crimes against the neighborhood's elderly have made many longtime residents prisoners of fear within their own homes.

Toward the goal of further alleviation of fear among Charlestown's elders the Timilty administration would establish a neighborhood ESCORT program. This service, which could be funded by federal CETA funds, would provide escorts for older persons. This program could be community-operated, with both staffing and administration done by area residents.

—Expansion of the Senior Shuttle Service in the Charlestown area. The shuttle could provide transportation for seniors from MBTA stops to their homes on a regularly scheduled basis. Also, heavy elderly use of the MBTA 92-Main Street and 93-Bunker Hill bus routes mandates either improvement by the "T" or supplementary use of the senior shuttle along those lines.

—Expansion of the city's federally funded hot meals program for the elderly. Currently the program operates only five days per week. The Timilty administration would expand this vital service to seven days a week.

—Establish a community run energy conservation program for assisting senior citizen home owners in their fight against rapidly rising heating costs. A crash program of retrofitting of homes, energy audits and other energy conservation assistance is an immediate need for Charlestown's older residents.

"It's time for Boston to have a mayor who gives more than lipservice to senior citizens. Kevin White uses federal funds for elderly programs then takes the credit for them. We must begin to do more to expand our outreach into the elderly community," concluded Timilty.

Help! Help! Help!

"The show must go on!" For the past four years "Townies" from all over New England have made this Broadway-originated command a newly heralded tradition. As your applause has indicated at each and every performance, the months of hard work and self-sacrifice by the members of our cast and crew has proven their worth. But, as time moves on, so it has been with many of most loyal members. Those of us who still remain and wish to continue with "TOWNIES" performances are in dire need of "new blood." This year we need YOU! Yes, you! Talent is only the finished product of what goes into a great show.

While we are, in fact, looking for chorus members, soloists, musicians, artists, dancers, etc., we also need a strong organization to co-ordinate them all into their proper settings upon the stage. With organization comes another major factor...time. Volunteers for various committees (Costuming, props, wardrobes, make-up, ticket sales and distribution, public relations) are desperately needed. Seamstresses, backstage hands, all are equally important to production.

The continuation of this successful endeavor now depends greatly on your support. If you are sixteen years of age or older, please come and join us. Anyone interested may sign up at the Kent Community School on Monday, October 29, 1979 at 7:30 p.m. For more information and/or to volunteer please call us at 242-1922. Thank you very much.

KEVIN WHITE OWES YOU $118.00*

Warren Brookes, noted economist and writer, said this about Kevin White's refusal to use $90 million dollars in state aid to reduce taxes:

"If Boston used $64 million to support a spending growth of 5% — the taxpayers could have been given a reduction of $16 in the tax rate."

Boston Herald-American
May 10, 1979

AS OF OCTOBER 13th, 1979, 75 cities and towns, including Boston, had certified their tax rates. 53 had decreased (70%), Boston did not.

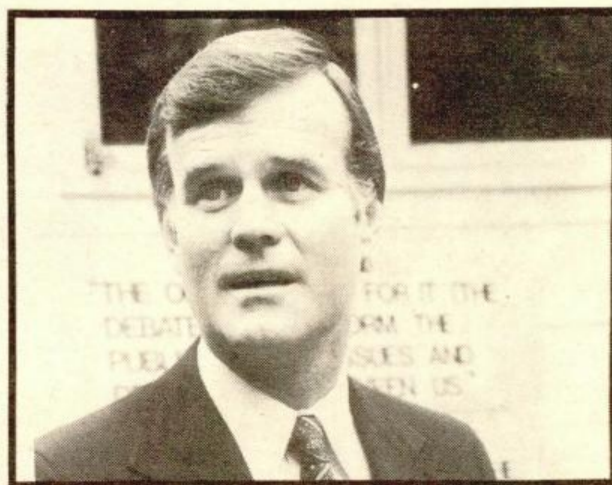

JOE TIMILTY thinks that 70% of Massachusetts' cities and towns were right to reduce their taxes.

JOE TIMILTY thinks the reasons why Boston has not reduced taxes are simple: 12 long years of mismanagement and administrative abuse by Kevin White.

KEVIN WHITE THINKS HE "DESERVES" YOUR VOTE.

JOE TIMILTY THINKS YOU DESERVE A TAX BREAK.

SOUND MANAGEMENT CAN MAKE THE DIFFERENCE.

AS MAYOR, JOE TIMILTY WILL BE THE DIFFERENCE.

* (Figure derived from computing a home assessed at $7,387.50. To figure how much Kevin White owes you — 1) Divide your home's assessed value by 1000. 2) Multiply that amount by $16.00. 3) This figure is how much money you should have received back from "The Mayor.")

THANK YOU

To our children:

We know words cannot describe how much we appreciated the wonderful time you gave us on our anniversary and how thankful we are to have children as thoughtful and kind as you. The planning and all the efforts really showed with the meal, music, hall, center pieces, Father E. Serino, and all our families, friends, neighbors, co-workers together at this happy occasion. We also want to thank Nippy, Paul and Evelyn because they had to do their part to help also, and of course our beautiful grandchildren who played their roles so well.

We could go on and on but what really counts is we were all together celebrating this event, and I know we will never forget it. You planned long and hard to make this a success and you all deserve so much credit. Our love for you is just as great as your love for us and that is what family is all about. "Love and togetherness." So Eddie Jr., Ann Marie, Cathy and Carol, thanks again and no one in this world can be more proud of their children than we are of you.

We love you,
God bless you,
Mom and Dad.

Boys' Club News

by Charlie McGonagle

The Gym Hockey Team got off to a rousing start last week as they fought their way to a thrilling 3-2 overtime victory over a talented Watertown Squad.

With less than three minutes remaining in the contest, Carl Jaena rifled a shot past the outstretched glove of the Watertown Goal Tender to tie the score at two. The Charlestown boys fought off a pressure filled final minute volley from their adversaries, and after a brief intermission, Gerry O'Neil turned on the red light for the game winner after five hard fought minutes of overtime.

Last week several of our regular members played in one of the most exciting high school football games involving a Charlestown High School Team in many a year. The ironic part of it all, however, was the fact that many of them were on opposite sides of the scrimmage line.

The contest was a classic match up of a high powered Columbus offensive unit against the unscored upon Charlestown defense. Both teams were undefeated going into the game, this being the final ingredient in assuring the battle would be a great one.

Jim Costigan, Columbus High scoring running back, was being turned back time and again by the Charlestown defense, led by an outstanding effort on the part of Charlestown Captain Joe Cannata. On at least five different occasions, Cannata had penetrated the Columbus backfield to nail Costigan for a loss of yardage.

With two minutes remaining, Columbus was forced into a punting situation. Trailing 12-6 at the time, the Friars appeared to be facing their first loss of the season, but it was at this point that fate intervened. The Columbus punt took a strange bounce, striking an unsuspecting Charlestown player. The Friars recovered, and with less than two minutes remaining, had a new lease on life.

Charlestown spread out their umbrella defense, protecting against the long bomb, and a wise Columbus team took advantage by chewing up valuable real estate with rushes up the middle.

With three seconds remaining, the ball rested on the Charlestown twelve yardline. The "Townies" would have to stop but one more play to remain undefeated. Quarterback Mike Charbonnier took the snap and rolled to his right with Joe Cannata in hot pursuit. The Charlestown tackler reached the Columbus signal caller just as he let a looping pass go toward the end zone toward Steve Butler. Charlestown cornerback, Cecil Jones, dove in desperation to deflect the pass, but it was right on target. The score tied the game at twelve. With no time remaining on the scoreboard clock, the Friars lined up for the extra point attempt. The ball was snapped back to the holder. The Charlestown linemen rushed. F A K E ! The holder stood up and dropped a pass over the rushing linemen and into the hands of a Columbus receiver who was bouncing, unmolested, into the end zone. Final score, Columbus 14, Charlestown 12.

The "Townies" had lost a heartbreaker, but games of this type do not produce losers.

White Gives Cable TV Priority To Charlestown

Mayor Kevin H. White has announced that cable television service in Boston will be phased-in by a priority system based upon reception difficulties in individual neighborhoods.

Charlestown, because of the reception interference from Logan Airport, was singled out as one of the first communities slated for cable television in Boston.

Mayor White said that the franchising process for awarding a cable television contract should begin by January 1, 1980.

That decision was the result of recommendations made in a report issued by the Mayor's Cable Television Review Commission.

In its 48-page report, the 15 member Commission which has studied the cable issue for the past five months, recommended that Boston begin the process for awarding a single, city-wide, privately owned, cable franchise.

Mayor White said, "When I first addressed the cable issue in 1972, cable companies were promising everything, but delivering far less. It was an almost primitive industry which contrasts dramatically with today's sophisticated technology. This report provides a firm foundation upon which the city could develop a viable franchising process.

The commission recommended that 30 percent of the cable system be available for investment by Boston based entrepreneurs, that community access for programming be assured, and that the franchiser observe established city guidelines in the employment of minorities, women, and city residents.

Other Commission recommendations are: that the entire city be wired for cable five years from the beginning of the cable implementation; that the privacy rights of cable subscribers be guaranteed; and, that the cable franchiser meet the city's needs in foreign language programming, children's programming, and locally originated public access programming.

The commission also urged the city to initiate a construction feasibility study for cable installation, establish an oversight committee with enforcement powers, and create a citizen advisory committee to shape future cable policy and secure financing for public access programming.

The members of the Commission include James P. Collins of Charlestown.

Knights Knots

by Charlie McGonagle

"There's more than just pride involved here," stated a determined looking Henry Stewart as he dealt the cards to Jack Morrissey, his opponent in the Cribbage Tournament which would determine the Knights of Columbus representatives in Charlestown's first Community-wide Inter-Club Championship. "Oh yeah, what's that, Henry?", asked Jack as he dropped two cards into the "Crib."

"Money, Jack. Bread, Dough, Getters, Loot. You make it to the quarter finals in this one, and you'll be playing for the two hundred dollar top prize next week against the Bottom-Of-The-Hub Club, The Halligan Club, The 520 Club, and The Alert Athletic Club."

"How many guys from each club, Henry?"

"Eight. There will be forty players in all, but I'll bet there will be more than a hundred guys here to watch the games."

"Who's coming from the other Clubs?"

"Well, the 520 and Alert haven't determined their players as yet, but The Halligan Club is sending over Jake LaPorte, Ed Greene, Fran Doherty, Tony Razzo, Marty O'Brien, Joe Anthony, Joe Crilley, and Steve Morrison."

"I heard they're pretty good, huh Henry?"

"Yeah, Jack, if it was a 'Go Fish' Tournament they'd probably be the favorites."

"How about The Bottom-Of-The-Hub Club, they got any players?"

Well, they've got some people, but I don't know if I'd call them players or not."

"Like?"

"Well, like Joe Warren"

"Joe Warren? I don't know if I'd even call him a person."

"Besides Joe?"

"Well there's Joe Texiera."

"You mean the guy who used to try calling balls and strikes for the Old Hayes Square Softball League?"

"And Peter O'Donnell."

"Somerville Fuzz. I heard when Peter was younger he wanted to go to High School but decided to become a Police Officer instead."

"Who Else?"

"Big John Brennan."

"My God, you mean the 'Muncho Man' is coming here. I hope Jackie Pierce knows enough to lock up the walk-in freezer. They got anybody who might be pretty good?"

"They say John Fidler is improving, but word is his highest hand ever was a ten. He got in an accident once and almost lost a finger."

"What's that got to do with Cribbage?"

"Well, if he had lost that finger, his highest hand ever would have been a nine."

"Gotcha!"

"They've got Gerry Robinson, Moe, and Steve Duca coming down too."

"Gerry Robinson, Moe, and Steve Duca. Geez, they probably think Cribbage is some sort of German Buffet."

Henry Stewart defeated Jack Morrissey, but failed to reach the Quarter Finals. Knights members who qualified for the big tournament were Paul Cedorchuk, John O'Halloran, Fran Kelley, John Tibbetts, Jim Gallagher, 'Hubba' Cottier, 'Pa' Walsh, and my parents' son, Charlie.

Jim Gallagher defeated Fran Kelley, three games to two, to capture the Club Crown.

Laugh A Little

A motorist asked a Vermont farmer "How do I get to White River Junction?" The farmer told him, "Go down this road and turn left two miles before where the school burnt down two years ago."

C.Y.H.A. News

Last week's general meeting began with reports from the Board members which were all accepted by the membership. The floor was then opened to discussion during which the membership was asked to consider whether the ($5.00 per family) assessment was necessary. A vote was taken of the members present, and the majority were for it. This was followed by inquiries about the coming "Clinic". How should it be run? What should be stressed as far as the skaters are concerned? How many personnel would be available to instruct the boys? The Board said they would try to resolve these questions and have some answers by the next general meeting.

Members of the "Townies For Canada" Committee were present at the meeting to explain to the membership their plans for the trip to Rosemont this season. An inquiry was made from the floor about the possibility of moving the Cultural Exchange to another area of Canada. Bud Whalen informed us that it takes at least a year to set up an exchange, thus any change is out of the question, at least for this season. The T.F.C.C. said they would look into arrangements with other areas if the organization is interested. Don't forget to support any and all Townies for Canada endeavors. They do a great job raising funds for the children.

The Board would like to "Thank" the people who volunteered to be managers for the individual teams. We appreciate your help.

Anymore requests for player moves will be acted on at the next coaches' meeting, October 29.

Important. A pair of hockey gloves were found at the North End after the practices last week. The boy who lost them should contact Ronnie Vitale, the Bantam "C" coach.

Games schedule for the coming week are:

Mite "A" - Saturday, October 27 - 9:20 a.m.

Mite "B" - Saturday, October 27 - 11:50 a.m.

Squirt "A" - BYE

Squirt "B" - Saturday, October 27 - 3:10 p.m.

Squirt "C" - Saturday, October 27 - 4:30 p.m.

Pee Wee "A" - Sunday, October 28 - 5:30 p.m.

Pee Wee "B" - Wednesday, October 31 - 7:20 p.m.

Bantam "A" - BYE

Bantam "B" - Friday, October 26 - 9:10 p.m.

Bantam "C" - Saturday, October 27 - 7:50 p.m.

John Farley has arranged for four hours of ice each week at the Medford M.D.C. rink on Wednesday between 6 and 10 p.m. He has contacted the coaches involved and notified them of their hours.

That's all the news for this week. Don't forget to support the "Patriot", they support us. See you at the rink.

Vaccines Available To Elderly

Commissioner David L. Rosenbloom of Boston's Department of Health and Hospitals has announced a free citywide immunization program for senior citizens and other high-risk persons. Beginning Wednesday, October 31 through Friday, November 16, flu and pneumococcal pneumonia vaccinations will be available at the Bunker Hill Health Center, 73 High Street, Charlestown by appointment only.

"We particularly urge elderly and other high risk persons to get the pneumococcal pneumonia vaccine," Commissioner Rosenbloom stated. "A relatively mild flu season is predicted this year; however, pneumonia is present at all times. We are especially concerned about elderly living on fixed incomes, who may have home heating problems this winter, and who may be homebound or otherwise isolated from the primary health care system."

The program, sponsored by the Department of Health and Hospitals, is directed at persons most susceptible to pneumonia and influenza, and vaccines are recommended for the following groups:

1. Persons over 65 years of age;
2. persons with chronic disease of the heart, lungs, kidney, and diabetes or other metabolic disorders;
3. persons in nursing homes and rest homes.

For further detail, or for assistance in arranging transportation, call the Elderly Hotline at 722-4646.

New Book Focuses On Failure Of Forced Busing

Permissive education and court-ordered busing have failed to bring improved racial relations and higher education to the country's public schools says Northeastern University associate professor of education Arthur Davis in a book to be published next month.

Davis, along with seven other scholars, has contributed to a new book entitled "Rebuilding American Education" (Martin Quam Press).

In the book, Davis argues that court-ordered busing and other educational innovations do not guarantee that students will learn the skills needed to fully participate as adults in today's complex society and are ineffective in achieving racial integration.

Davis proposed that what is needed are strong individualized curricula which foster a sense of self-confidence in students. Such a learning program will then lead to the appreciation of one's own culture and to the acceptance of other cultures, Davis maintains.

"The focus of the book is the issue of school integration. In it, we propose to change the curriculum in public schools thus changing the way Americans think about racial issues," he said.

"The problem of racism in schools has plagued us to the point where it has become a major national problem. It is hoped that we can use the schools to wipe out racism in the country," Davis added.

Davis is the author of several other books including "Racial Crisis in Public Education: Quest for Social Order" (1975), "Crucial Issues in Race, Cultural and Urban Education" (1973), and "Crucial Issues in Education" (1971).

Born in Alabama, Davis came to Northeastern University in 1975 as director of the African American Institute. He received his undergraduate degree from Alabama A&M and his Master's and Doctorate Degrees from the University of Illinois.

He now lives in Newton, Massachusetts.

For the fourth week of their engagement at The Wilbur Theatre, the British American Repertory Company will present Tom Stoppard's latest comedy, "Dogg's Hamlet, Cahoot's Macbeth" for one week only from November 20 through 25.

For the Boston engagement at the Wilbur Theatre, the playing schedule weekly will be Tuesday through Saturday evenings at 8:00 p.m. and Sunday evenings at 7:30 p.m. Matinees will be given on Saturdays at 2:00 p.m. and Sundays at 3:00 p.m. Tickets are available at the Wilbur Theatre box office. Sears Calls For Harbor Change

City Council candidate John Sears today called for a "sea change" in the management of Boston Harbor, which he said would determine the future of the City. He went on to say that the "harbor is underutilized because port officials have overvalued the airport at the expense of the seaport," and also cited labor problems which have diverted trade to New York and elsewhere.

Sears, whose legislative district in the 1960's included Boston's historic waterfront, urged vigorous efforts to develop the seaport as a regional resource, adding that "the South Boston Army Base ought to be the most modern containerport on the East Coast," and that "regional planning and transportation agencies must give time and attention to modern facilities for transshipping cargoes smoothly and quickly," over rail and road.

He urged adoption of a general management system for the harbor supported by State Senate President Bulger, and agreed that means be found to provide input to harbor communities.

"This city must once again turn its face to the sea, create a real gateway, and provide resources for people involved in shipping. We must be prepared to make large sacrifices to convert Boston once again into an international city."

"I hope I can help with this effort from a seat on the City Council," concluded Sears.

Your Dental Health

by Jeffrey
D.
Cohen,
D.M.D.

Decay is always the most important problem where your teeth are concerned. Decay is most often caused by acids which ferment in our mouths. This acid attacks teeth and goes a long way toward destroying the enamel on the outside of teeth. Teeth should be brushed at least twice daily—we all know that! Yet we neglect our teeth and leave our toothbrushing to those times when we remember. With all the attractive products for tooth care on the market today, why not make tooth care a pleasant part of your health regimen!

Good oral hygiene and home care are taught at the office of Dr. Jeffrey D. Cohen, D.M.D., 338 Main St. Dr. Cohen provides general dentistry for persons of all ages and stresses preventive dentistry as the best and least expensive way to maintain oral health. Nothing is more economical than regular checkups. Small developing problems can be located and corrected before they become serious. Call Dr. Cohen at 242-3550 for an appointment at your convenience. We honor most dental insurance plans, including Medicaid.

Disappointed "Townie"

To Whom It May Concern:

On last Wednesday, October 17, I went to work and upon my return to my apartment at 121 Walford Way, I found my apartment broken into and ransacked. My television, alarm clock, camera, scanner and many other items were stolen. Even the drapes from my window were stolen.

After all the hard work I did in the past as an officer of the Defense Fund to help keep kids out of trouble, I am heartbroken and disillusioned to think that this thing could happen.

I hope whoever did this thing never comes to me for help in the future, but I suppose I would still try to help the youth of Charlestown.

A Disappointed "Townie"
Tom McCarron

To Talk Of Many Things...

by Sal Giarratani

We are family

The Pittsburgh Pirates won the World Series this year after being down three-to-one and on the brink of destruction because they came together as a unit as a family. In fact, the "We are family" theme became their song because it typified the Bucs.

Willie Stargell, World Series MVP, said after the series ended that, "...we depended upon each other. We had to scratch, crawl and we did it together because we are family."

If the Pirates can come from behind and win, the people of Boston can learn to respect each other. Everyone should be able to walk the streets of Boston. Black and White!

However, I agree with my friend Jimmy Kelly from Southie and others who believe that the media play up white violence on blacks while covering up black violence on whites.

Recently, Boston has been taking on the outward appearance of Belfast, Northern Ireland and this is unacceptable. Fr. Robert Boyle over at St. Mary's recently said that the present troubles in Boston bring dishonor to us as Christians. It matters very little who started something, the important thing is to stop it.

"Violence is wrong," said Fr. Boyle, "because it weakens our humanity and destroys our Christianity."

We should be able to work and associate with all kinds of people and not just tolerate them. There is more to unite us than divide us. We are all members of the one human race.

For Politics Inside Out

Must reading around town are Peter Lucas' political columns in the Boston Herald American. They appear on Sundays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays.

One of his recent columns was an excellent profile of Gerard F. Doherty. He is a former "Townie" state rep and a close advisor to Ted Kennedy. It was good to see a 'good' Charlestown story in print. Too often the press likes to accentuate the negative! Finally...

Recently, Neal Harrington, a member of the American Association of Retired Persons, read an article in a leading magazine listing the following rules for a longer, healthier and happier life: 1) eat breakfast, 2) don't eat between meals, 3) don't smoke cigarettes, 4) stay within 10 percent of proper weight, 5) exercise, 6) drink moderately and 7) sleep 7-8 hours nightly.

According to the article, a 70-year-old who follows all seven is apt to be as healthy as a 40-year-old who follows one or two.

Neal, 71, gave a "no comment" when asked how many rules he observed. However, I've seen people my age (31) with less energy than he. He appears to keep enough of those rules.

NANS/ PAC Endorses

The newly formed Political Action Committee of the National Association Association for Neighborhood Schools here in the Boston area has endorsed three candidates for the Boston School Committee. All ten candidates were invited to be interviewed and all who responded were interviewed.

The PAC's endorsed candidates are Paul Ellison, Gerald O'Leary and Pixie Palladino.

Committee To Meet

The business meeting of the Advisory Committee will follow the speaking program, at which time there will be swearing in of new members. This will be attended by Edith Healy of Charlestown, a member of the Board.

Pop Warner Corner

Last week we hosted East Boston. We thank all friends and parents who turned out to support the teams. The "C" Team won a squeaker 7 to 6. After scoring on the opening kick-off, East Boston was held scoreless by a staunch Charlestown defense. The touchdown was scored by Joey DeAngelo on a 10 yard sweep. The ball was brought to the ten by some hard running by Ferreira and Fitzpatrick.

The "B" Team won 12-0. A 35 yard scoring pass from Quarter Back Jim Tracey to Archie Florentino accounted for the first score. Florentino faked out one defender and raced 35 yards into the End Zone. The other score was a nifty 25 yard run by speedster Paul Anthony. The defense was great led by Vinnie DeAngelo, Jim Ryan, and Pat O'Neil. Good job by the offensive line led by George Dighton.

The "A" Team lost 6 to 0. This could have been higher had it not been for a stout defense led by Tommy Martin, Larry Campbell, and John Dowd. East Boston had a first and goal on Charlestown one foot line and did not score. In fact they ended up back on the eleven yard line where Charlestown took over with 90 seconds left in the game and was

Grandfathers Four Entertain Seniors

THE GRANDFATHERS FOUR link arms with Kathryn (Mrs. Kevin) White at a recent performance at senior citizen housing. unable to score.

We travel to Waltham this Sunday. First game starts at eleven o'clock.

Come on over and support your kids.

Thanks to "Smokie," Donna, Charlie Johnson, and all the girls who helped us run the concession stand.

I think it is a sad state of affairs that with all the spending by the City of Boston, we can't get the rest rooms open for our own boys and girls and their parents, and for the teams and parents who come to visit. We ask for a little and get nothing.
