

ACROSS

- 1 Name of the Steptoe horse
- 6 A jar of these ends up in Albert Steptoe's bath
- 8 Harold: "I've got the law on my side!" Albert: "I've got the _____ on my side!"
- 10 Galton and Simpson wrote this canal-based film for Harry H. Corbett: "The _____"
- 15 Harry H. Corbett took the lead in this "Carry On" film
- 16 Actress once married to Harry H. Corbett
- 17 Informal for Galton and Simpson
- 18 Harry H. Corbett and Wilfrid Brambell performed in 1974 pantomime
- 19 Steptoe's home address
- 20 Cockney rhyming slang for 'eyes'
- 22 "Steptoe and Son" spawned from this enduring original series: "Comedy _____"
- 24 Put a sleigh and some antlers on the horse, and you've got a knockoff one of these
- 26 The Steptoe's guest starred on this Liverpoolian's self-titled comedy show in 1966

DOWN

- 2 The final country that the Steptoe's agree on
- 3 The full title of the second feature film: "Steptoe and Son _____"
- 4 The local pub the Steptoe's frequented
- 5 Galton and Simpson worked extensively with this comedian
- 7 Area in London the Steptoe saga is set
- 9 The theme tune goes by this official title
- 11 Another term for totters, _____ Men
- 12 Wilfrid Brambell appeared in this Beatles' film: "A _____ Night"
- 13 Harold would like to catch his girlfriend Marcia under some of this
- 14 The name of Harold's goldfish
- 21 This character actor reappeared in several "Steptoe" episodes: Frank _____
- 23 Harold accidentally sits on this Christmas decoration when he enters the outside loo
- 25 Where Albert Steptoe wishes to spend his Christmas